Frog Lake Chapter I.O.D.E. Observe 30th Anniversary

On April 21, 1927 there sprang into being in Vermilion a new organization, the Frog Lake Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. This year the Chapter celebrates thirty years of continuous service.

The original members of the organization are of interest and were as follow: Regent, Mrs. Agnes Newlove; 1st Vice Regent, Mrs. Annie Roseborough; 2nd Vice Regent, Viola Johnson; Sec., Mrs. Vessie Heckbert; Educ. Sec., Mrs. Gould; standard bearer, Annie Oakley. Members were Elizabeth Law, May MacLean, Helen MacKay, and Gladys Robinson, ten in all. By the end of 1927 there were also the following members — Helen Wiebe, Grace Waring, Belle Norton, Barbara Hill, Margaret Elford, Barbara Watson, Annie Craig, Ida Chisholm, Alice Keith, Fern Edwards, Marjorie Alexander Alizon Ebbett, Bertha Scott, Lenore Clarke, Muriel Markle, Agnes McDonogh, Isabella West, Edith Parker, Eleanor Whitby, Edith Andrew.

The motivating force behind the starting of this work was Agnes Newlove, and with her love of books we find at once support given to the library in the local high school. Later in 1931 the I. O. D. E. started the "Vermilion Public Library". Of interest is that it was started at a "book tea" at the home of Mrs. Knoll where 65 books were received. Now that same library has almost 5000 books with a circulation of over 11,000 for 1956. To Agnes Newlove goes the credit for the starting of this work and no worthier mark could be left in any community.

Also in their first year they took over the "Poppy Sale". Many worthy causes were sponsored such as prizes for different projects in schools; Cancer campaign; CNIB; Child Welfare layettes; glasses for needy people; Empire Shopping; British films; Creative writing in schools; Pictures of Their Majesties to the schools; local Xmas cheer aid and the welcoming of New Canadians.

Many securely settled people of the present day will remember th wicom given in the rink to new settlers arriving here.

Local project now is furnishing a room in the new wing of the hospital. $300 has already been passed into the hands of the hospital board for this work. Besides, throughout the years active monetary support has been given to National and Provincial bursaries and scholarships.

The I.O.D.E. remember with pride their assistance to Mr. Matthew Halton, an I. O. D. E. scholarship winner, and Margaret Roseborough who also attended the University of London on an I.O.D.E. scholarship. Other local winners were Miriam Shrigley and Miss Taylor who won scholarships in Nursing.

The Regents throughout the years, now scattered, were Agnes Newlove, Annie Craig, Eleanor Whitby, Anne Snaychuk, Elizabeth Taylor, E. B. Norton, Margaret Morrison, Rose Culford, Pearl Sinclair, Tilda Miller, Janette Matheson, Ethel Thompson, Jean Rowe.

In the meantime many were the hard-working secretaires and personnel.

'The motto of the Chapter 'Lest We Forget' is ever with the I.O. D.E. as are the aims of the Order as follows:

To stimulate and give expression to the sentiment of patriotism which binds the women and children of the Empire around the throne and person of their Gracious and Beloved Sovereign;

To supply and foster a bond of union amongst the daughters and children of the Empire;

To provide an efficient organization by which prompt and united action may be taken by the women and children of the Empire when such action may be desired;

To promote in the motherland and in the colonies the study of the history of the Empire and of current Imperial questions; to celebrate patriotic anniversaries; to cherish the memory of brave and heroic deeds and the last resting places of our heroes and heroines, especially such as are in listant and solitary places; to erect memorial stones on spots that have become sacred to the nation, either through great struggles for freedom, battles against ignorance, or events of heroic and patriotic self-sacrifice.

The significance of the Badge of the Order is:

The seven points of the star represent seven divisions of the Bitish Empire: The British Isles, Canada, nIdia, New Zealand, S. Africa, Australia, the British West Indies. The Union Jack in the centre with its three crosses represents Loyalty, Unity and Sacrifice. The white circle represents the bond of Empire which unites all in sacred fellowship. The Crown denotes Sovereignty, and is the symbol of that spiritual unity which binds the nations of the Commonwealth.

This pin is worn with pride by all its members as a symbol of their willingness to carry on still further the work of this splendid order.

The record of the Frog Lake Chapter, I.O.D.E. in Vermilion, is one to increase the pride of its members, and on May 10th it is hoped to celebrate the 30th birthday to which all past and present members are invited.

Ken Greenwood Elected President

Golf Club Plans Busy Season

The Vermilion Golf club held its annual meeting the evening of April 17th with a fair number of members attending. President Bob Anderson presided and heard reports from all departments. The club had a successful season in 1956 during which time the largest tournament in the history of the club, with nearly one hundred entries, was held.

Fees were set for the coming season at the same level as last year.

A nominating committee presented a tentative slate of officers for the consideration of the meting and the election saw the following appointed for the coming year:

Hon. Pres. — Mayor Hill
Pres. — Ken Greenwood
Im. Past Pres. — Bob Anderson
Sec.-Treas. — Gerald Stephens
1st Vice — Stan Waldenberger
2nd Vice — Pres.-elect of the Ladies' club
Team Capt. — Roger Rowe

It was with regret that the club received notice that owing to pressure of other commitments Jim Robson would not stand for re-election as secretary.

Plans for the new season were discussed, centreing around club tournaments, social events at the club house and the general welfare of the club as a whole. It is hoped to sponsor at least one tournament each month, to take a different form each time. The annual meeting ended with the showing of several films, through the kindness of Mr. Fred Stewart.

The new executive of the Vermilion Golf club met shortly after the annual meeting and the plans were made for the first major event of the season. This will be held Sunday, May 26th in the form of a mixed two-ball foursome. Entries should be given to Gerald Stephens or any member of the executive as soon as possible so that flights can be arranged etc. Bring a picnic supper and spend the afternoon and evening at the golf club. Coffee will be supplied at supper time and it is hoped to show the Gold cup film in the club house during the early evening—that's on Sunday, May 26th.

Caluing all Junior and would-be golfers . . . It is the intention of the club to hold a golf clinic or workshop for Junior golfers later on this month. If enough names are turned in immediately ti is hoped to start the clinic the first Saturday following this edition of the Standard. Leave your name with Gerald Stephens as soon as possible.

The attention of all men of the club is drawn to the fact that the executive is enlisting your aid to act as supervisors and to collect green fees, help visitors to the club, etc., during the afternoons of Sundays for the next two months. It is hoped that two men of our club will be at the course from 1 to 5 o'clock. A list of names will be posted at the Club house giving date on which you are drawn to attend and it is asked that if you can't be there, that you arrange your own substitute.

Although a comparative newcomer to the ranks of car salesmen, Eddie Lyons of the firm of Rowe & Sons Ltd., has already entered an exclusive circle and has been admitted a member of the Master Salesmen Guild of General Motors for 1956.

Membership in the Guild is awarded on a points system, the points being given for the sales of Pontiac, Buick cars, and G.M. trucks and used units.

Being admitted to the Guild only comes as a result of outstanding success in the vocation of car salesman and Eddie is to be congratulated on his achievement.

Excellent Concert Rendered By Vermilion Mixed Chorus Sunday

A very small but highy appreciative number of people listened to the Vermilion Mixed Chorus render their spring concert in the Columbia theatre on Sunday night, April 18th. The delight of the audience at the great variety and entertaining features of the program was indicative of the class of entertainment being offered by this group. The concert warranted a much better attendance. The compensation of the members of the chorus comes from the satisfaction and pleasure of singing together, and gives all of them a feeling of having once again brought music to the fore in Vermilion.

Group numbers included spirituals, folk songs, popular items such as Country Gardens, That's Amore, Memories, and finished with a very fine rendition of The Lost Chord. A new soloist on this platform was Mrs. Ruby Bauer, who pleased with "In A Monastery Garden" and "Song of Love" It is hoped to hear this lady many times to come. The men of the chorus delighted the audience with a new up-to-date number "Banana Boat Song." This was all the more enjoyable because Mr. Jack Brown was conscripted as soloist. An encore of "Cool Water" gave a nostalgic effect, with the mystery voice of Andrew Kibblewhite taking the descant notes; this was wonderful in its shading. Thos. Watts, the "old perennial" again seemed to please with "Come to the Fair" and "Bless this House."

The individual members of the chorus are appreciative of the work done by Dr. Stephens as accompanist and Mr. Jack Brown as leader There is a sacrifice of time that rarely gets recognition, but altogether there is a wonderful spirit of comradeship that is seldom equalled in groups of this kind.

Mr. Kowalchuk, the Standard, and Mr Alf Logan came in for special thanks at the end of the concert.

Held At Kitscoty CCF Social Evening

KITSCOTY. — A CCF social evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Christensen recently. Mr. S. Lefsrud took the place of H. Roiseth, the candidate, who was unable to attend, as guest speaker. After a lively discussion five tables of whist were played and a delicious lunch served by the ladies then brought the pleasant evening to a close.

His Worship Appeals For Driving Hints

Mayor Hill To Carry Colors Of Vermilion In Ostrich Race

Mayor Melvin Hill has accepted an invitation from the Edmonton Exhibition Association to drive an ostrich in races at the Edmonton horse show which will be held from May 15 to 18. In the race as drivers are mayors from the cities of Wetaskiwin and Camrose so Mel will be right in big time competition.

The ostriches will be hitched to sulkies and Melvin's race will take place about 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 16th. This is an entirely new feature of the horse show ,coming to Canada for the first time.

Mayor Hill says that he has driven and ridden balky horses in the old ranch days in southern Alberta, has been bucked off steers in the early stampedes, but this will be the first time that he has ever tried to drive an ostrich. Therefore he is appealing to Australians particularly to come to his aid and to give him hints on steering the critters so that he will come down the home stretch with Vermilion colors in the lead. All in all it appears that His Worship is in for an interesting evening on May 16th and just about everyone in town will be in the stands to cheer him on.

LADIES GOLF MEETING

A ladies golf meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 8th at 8p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. Sutherland. All members and those interested in golfing are cordially invited to attend.

J. H. Kelly Elected Reeve Of Vermilion River M. D.

At the statutory meeting of the Council of Vermilion River No. 71 on April 3rd, Councillors James D. Stone, for Div. 2, Patrick McGuigan for Div. 4, and John C. Anderson for Div. 7 were sworn to office by A. B. Wood, Returning Officer, and began their three-year term of office. J. H. Kelly was elected reeve for 1957 and Jams D. Stone elected deputy reeve for a period of six months, both men being subsequently elected to a Finance committee for the ensuing year. After accepting the minutes of the previous meeting and financial statements for the month ending March 3rd, the Council as a whole was appointed a Public Works committee and immediately waded into the public works estimates. As it is estimated that some $450,000 will be spent on public works and capital expenditure on account of public works during 1957, the Council gave this section of the budget very close attention. The result of their efforts was that the municipal mill rate was set at 20 mills and this, combined with close budgeting on the part of the Vermilion School Division board, will result in no increase in taxes for most ratepayers in the Municipality for 1957. A complete tabl of mill rates for this year follows:

Municipal 20 mills; Vermilion S. D. 29.5; Lloydminster Public School 31.5; Clandonald Separate School 25.3; Lloydminster Hospital 4; Islay Hospital 5; Vermilion Hospital 8.5; Elk Point Hospital 9; Wainwright Hospital 5.5.

The following appointments were made: Crs. Anderson and Wallington, together with E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist, and Sol Lemp and Henry Haan, to form the Agricultural Service Board, with A. Hozack as Field Supervisor; Crs. Stone and McGuigan to the Board of the Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit; Cr. Wallington to Board of the Vermilion Seed Cleaning Association; Cr. Wheat to the Board of the Marwayne Seed Cleaning Association, and Cr. Heath to the Board of the Battle River Seed Cleaning Association; Cr. Wheat to the Board of the Tulliby Lake Municipal Nursing Sevice.

In the field of General Administration, the following matters were dealt with: A Ministerial Order was applied for, putting back the date of the Court of Revision until such time as all land assessment appealed had been inspected by the assessor. Approval was given to the establishment of three retail outlets of car gas. Approval was given to the opening of a coffee shop in Paradise Valley. Northwestern Utilities was given the green light to service the Hamlet of Islay with natural gas from the line running from Vermilion to Lloydminster and a gas inspector, Wm. McLean, was appointed in the Hamlet. Thirteen parcels of Tax Recovery land were leased to ratepayers of the municipality.

Under the Agricultural Service Board program, the resolution passed at the annual ratepayers' meeting:

"WHEREAS the Farmers' Union of Alberta has as its objective the welfare of rural people, and

WHEREAS they have requested an amendment to the Municipal Act to permit the collection of their membership dues along with taxes, and

WHEREAS such a system of collection would be entirely voluntary with each ratepayer signing a requisition form requesting his dues to be collected in this manner before such collection could be made, and furthermore that each ratepayers could revoke such a requisition at any time, and

WHEREAS the Farmers' Union of Alberta has agreed to recompense the municipalities for the extra work that would be involved on a basis satisfactory to both parties,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this meeting go on record as supporting the proposed amendment to the Municipal Act and instruct our councillors to make his action known to the Dept. of Municipal Affairs."

—was endorsed and sent to the Minister of Municipal Affairs and the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts.

Eight tons of soil serilants were ordered under the A. S. B. program.

In the public health department, the Council recommended to the Deparments of Public Health and Welfare in Alberta and Saskatchewan that a part-time Mental Health Clinic be established in Lloydminster.

In dealing with Public Works, the Council passed a by-law concerning damage to municipal roads by traffic in spring and in rainy weather. This would make it an offence punishable by fine to damage roads and puts teeth into the road bans. It was felt my the Council tha this is a progressive step in that it is a flexible ban which would allow normal traffic on roads fit to be used while making it an offence to tear up roads in no condition for travel. A load limits by-law was also discussed but was tabled for further consideration.

The meeting broke up late on the fourth day after passing the largest budget in the thirteen-year history of the municipality.

TWO PHONE DIRECTORIES ARE NEEDED

The many users of telphone directories in the northern half of Alberta will no doubt agree it is time that two phone books were issued, one containing the phone numbers of Edmonton subscribers and the other for all points except Edmonton. Picking up the phone directory scores of times each day, citizens outside of Edmonton are forced to handle a heavy, cumbersome book when they could have a compact, convenient directory. Not only that but due to the size of the volume these directories have a habit of coming apart, becoming very dog-eared and worn out before new ones are issued, due primarily to the fact that the hundred thousand or so Edmonton names make the book heavy and awkward to handle.

Rural subscribers have need to consult their own portion of the directory many times a day, the Edmonton portion only occasionally. So let's have two directories — it would be much more convenient to everyone except Edmonton people and the change wouldn't affect them in the least.

VERMILION BUSINESS MEN CAUTIONED

Each year Canadian business loses an estimated two million dollars by means of forged cheques, raised cheques and money orders much of which could be saved if employer or employee exercised a few precautions. Vermilion firms have suffered their proportion of these losses.

About 85 per cent of fraudulent cheques are cashed in stores and other places of business. Banks, because of their precautions, are well down on the swindler's list of victims.

In 1955 the Fraudulent Cheque Section of the R.C.M.P. received advice of a total $450,000 of forged negotiable paper and it is estimated that only twenty-five per cent of such forgeries are reported to the Section.

The law is adequate to punish the offence of forgery and uttering but it is better to prevent crimes than to punish them.

The most effective method for the prevention of crime is education and booklets are available from the RCMP detachment in Vermilion which should be procured and studied by the members of the staffs of every business in Vermilion. Help reduce financial losses and crime by prevention.

"GREEN ACRES"

SWEET CLOVER HAY

No crop will give as much feed per acre as sweet clover. In dry years it ensures a good supply of hay for the stock. Why not seed down 20 acres or so right into the crop. It will give you plenty of hay when other crops are poor. At the rate of 10 pounds per acre it will cost about $1.60 to seed each acre.

KILLING WILD BUCKWHEAT

Wild buckwheat seems to be harder to kill than other annual weeds. Low volatile esters of 2 4-D are better than other types of weed sprays. It is best to spray buckwheat when the plants are in the one or two leaf stage. Better results would be obtained on killing all weeds if treated in the early stages.

DUG-OUT PAYMENTS

The P.F.R.A. will pay part of the cost of building dams to hold water for stock watering purposes. Anyone interested should call in or write to this office for further particulars. The engineer must survey the work before work is started.

WEED CONTROL

Cultivation of weedy land a couple of weeks before seeding is getting to be a common practice. A growth of weeds can be killed at seeding time. 2,4-D will get a second crop of weeds later on.

BULLETINS ARE FREE

Lately a few farmers have been writing to Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, for bulletins. Please be advised that I have bulletins from both Edmonton and Ottawa on my shelves. Just write for what you want or call in to this office. All bulletins are free.

DISEASES OF BARLEY

Barley diseases of many kinds are spreading over the province and the result is lower yields and less profit. Most of these diseases are controlled by crop rotation, that is to follow barley by oats, flax and forage crops. For control of leaf diseases of barley you can safely follow this crop with wheat or rye. In case of root rot diseases do not use wheat and rye after barley.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Do You Freeze Eggs?

If you have a home freezer, why not freeze some of the spring egg surplus for use later when eggs are scarce.

Eggs can be frozen either whole or separately. Stir the egg yolks lightly or clip through them several times with shears.

Yolks keep better if you add one teaspoon salt or one teaspoon sugar or corn syrup to a cup of egg yolks. Stir to mix but don't beat since including air destroys the freshness of frozen foods.

Freeze whites without beating; if you wish add salt.

To freeze whole eggs mix by stirring with a fork. Add salt or sugar in the same proportions as above.

To freeze eggs separately use your muffin tins. Line each section with foil, break one or two eggs in and freeze. Then fold ends of foil around eggs to make nea little airtight packages. Store in plastic bags: labelled with number of eggs in package.

To freeze in larger quantities, freeze in tin or glass containers.

Frozen egg whites make a more stable meringue than that made from fresh eggs.

Washing Blankets?

Before hanging them to dry, cover the clothesline with cardboard tubes to eliminate the clothesline crease. Slit the rolls down one side and slip over the line.

Carrying Hot Dishes?

When you are carrying covered dishes of food to a picnic or supper: place the dish in the centre of a sturdy cloth; bring up opposite corners and tie in a knot. There's no danger of burns or spills and the knot makes a handy handle.

Health Unit Notes

CHILD SAFETY

Studies indicate that certain types of accidents are more likely to occur at one stage of a child's development than another, although no two children are alike and no two grow and develop at just the same rate or in just the same way. However, knowing something about their own children's typical growth and development, patterns will enable many parents to foresee potential accident situations. Foreseeing them they can help forestall them.

New born babies are helpless and need absolute protection. Soon they will move about and need an even more watchful eye kept on them. The sides of the crib should be kept up at all times and the bars should be so spaced that the baby cannot catch his head between them. Paints containing lead should not be used on furniture, toys, or anything they might put in their mouth due to the risk of poisoning. Babies are helpless in water and must never be left alone in the tub at any time.

Around 12 to 15 months they are eager to examine the world around them: they need freedom but they need limits too. Gates at the head and foot of stairways will prevent many a fall. Unused light sockets should be taped or capped and electric fans and heaters should be out of reach. All household poisons and medicines should be kept out of reach, and pins, buttons, needles, and other small objects put away. Keep containers of hot food or liquids on the centre of the table out of reach.

Two year olds are adventurers and doors that open to potential dangers should be locked so that they cannot dash out suddenly. Windows from which they enjoy viewing the world should have guards on them and car doors should be locked. They like to play with water so pools, ponds or cisterns have to be fenced in or covered over. Water is not safe until a child learns to respect it.

Three year olds have more self control and are nimble on their feet. Stairs should have a strong rail for support and should be kept clear of objects or defective coverings on which a child can trip. Stairs must never be waxed. Toy trucks or wagons should be strong enough to bear their weight as well as their playmates. They feel like important members of the family when asked to do small tasks suited to their ability; it is dangerous to ask them to carry glass containers or knives.

Four year olds are finding their place in the world and cover a lot of ground in all directions. They should be taught to ride tricycles on the sidewalk and to watch for cars in the driveways. They will be safer playing in an enclosed area and it is important to teach them not to run after a ball if it rolls out into the street or driveway. They climb over fences and trees and can be protected from falls if taught now to get a good footing and proper handhold. They will enjoy building simple things and can be taught to help safely in the kitchen or the house.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mr. Leo Kowalski received the news Sunday of the very sudden passing of his brother in Calgary at the age of 44 years. Mr. Kowalski, Raymond and Frances left at once for Calgary.

Notice Omer Easton driving a nice two-toned Chevrolet car—not won at the bingo. Believe Omer is considering driving down east to his boyhood home near Brockville, Ont.

With the advent of gas to Islay this fall different ones are disposing of the coal buckets and the old coal shed. We see that Jack Hurst has already torn down his coal shed.

There was a grand time enjoyed visiting by many women at the Charlie Robertson sale — sitting in the easy chairs on the shady side of the house. It was a very warm day. The crowd was in a happy mood and bidding was good. The lunch counter was well patronized.

Don't forget to gather up your rags for shipping. Mrs. Jean Axley expects to ship about the second week in May.

Notice B. Teskey ready to work up gardens — he has the plow, the disc and other equipment all rarin' to go.

Pleased to see Mrs. Gladys Gould in Islay on Saturday, and had a chat, although she is supposed to keep mum. Says it will be a while yet before her throat is really better.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright and son were noticed in attendance at the amateur Friday night.

SQUARE NOTES From Circle 8

Square Up again this Saturday, May 4th in the Legion hall to dance to Harold Schacher of Bawlf. The occasion is our third birthday party. As a past custom, we will have extra entertainment and would all the local ladies kindly bring a cake for this occasion as no birthday is complete without a cake.

A very short business meeting will follow this dance for C8 members so that the nominating committee may present a slate of officers for the ensuing term and we may all hear our financial statement for the past season. Will all of the Circle 8 members please make an effort to attend.

Our last dance on April 20th was a tremendous success with over twelve squares present. We were extremely pleased to have such a good representation from the Islay Islanders and hope that we will see them back again this Saturday. We also had ten other visiting clubs including Edmonton, Big Valley Lloydminster, Blackfoot, Myrnam, Mannville, Wainwright, Albert, Greenlawn and Dewberry. Everyone really enjoyed Henry Lien's calling and will be loking forward to his return next season.

Educational System In Holland Discussed At Mannville H. & S.

MANNVILLE. — The regular monthly meeting of the Mannville and district Home and School Association was held in the auditorium on Thursday evening, April 18th. The president called the meeting to order. Following the opening exercises, the president introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Gerrit te Kampe, who came to the district a few years ago from Holland.

Mr. te Kampe spoke on the educational system in Holland. A child there is taught according to his or her ability. During the Grade one year there is a system of selecting or weeding out. The normal child still remains at school while the retarded child is sent to a special school. This selection is made by a school doctor in co-operation with the teacher. In order to be a good student a child must be happy. The teacher lets the child set his own pace. He may repeat Grade one but this gives him a good foundation. They consider the first six grades very important. Following Grade 6 the top pupils are sent to a secondary school to write entrance exams. Others may go to a trade school.

Mr. te Kampe noted that more boys are educated in Holland than girls, whilst in Canada the girls are the ones who continue school. There is the same teacher shortage as here and their pay is not too good. Following a brief question period Mrs. G. Younge moved a vote of thanks to Mr. te Kampe for his interesting address.

The Home and School Association agreed to serve the lunch for the Grade 12 graduation. Resolutions to be presented at the Home and School convention were discussed. Mrs. Thompson's room won the attendance shield. The meeting was reminded that tickets for the forthcoming production of "Maytime in Alberta" are selling well and those wishing tickets should procure them as soon as possible.

Hamilton and Bloomington ladies served lunch.

Carl Heckbert

Your Federal Liberal Candidate for Battle River-Camrose

Carl Heckbert, Liberal candidate for our Constituency, will set up an ADVISORY COMMITTEE selected from every part of the riding, if elected on June 10th.

He suggests the Committee be composed of two farm women interested in welfare legislation (Family Allowances, Hospital Insurance Plan, etc.) with men selected from farm organizations, those not now in an organization, youth representatives and a representative of urban interests.

THE COMMITTEE WOULD BE STRICTLY NON-PARTISAN and would be asked to name a technical advisor from the agricultural services of the Province, the purpose of the Committee would be to advise your elected representative and to secure reports of progress at the conclusion of sessions of the House.

The Committee could serve a most useful purpose and would be designed to forward the interests of ALL OUR ELECTORS and NOT only those supporting Liberal policies.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Franklin Emery

Muriel Thompson Becomes Bride Franklin Emery in Pretty Ceremony

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the St. Saviour's Anglican church on April 4th when Muriel Jean, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Vermilion, and Clifford Franklin Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emery of Wainwright, were united in marriage. The Rev. K. A. Minchin officiated before an altar banked with white and pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white lace and net over satin fashioned with lily point sleeves and trimmed with sequins. A halo of nylon net and matching sequins and pearls held in place her fingertip veil of nylon net. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and matching earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of red roses with fern and white satin ribbon.

Attending the bride were her two sisters Lillian and Lucille, and Miss Emily Zomorski. All wore identical waltz - length gowns of pink dotted net over pink taffeta, with matching mittens and head pieces. Their bouquets were blue and white spring flowers.

The Wedding March was played by Mrs. John Hillcox, who also played during the signing of the register.

The ushers were Mr. George Doherty and Mr. Harold McCarty.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Thompson chose a blue and white printed silk dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Emery, mother of the groom, chose a green and white printed silk dress with green accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A reception at the Legion hall followed the ceremony. George Doherty was toastmaster and John Hillcox proposed the toast to the bride which brought a fitting response from the groom.

The happy couple will spend two weeks visiting relatives before leaving for the groom's work on the oil wells.

THE STAGETTES

The regular Tuesday Stagette meeting was held in the club room April 30th and opened with the singing of the club song. "How the echo reflected," or was that the ringing of the rafters? It was rather difficult to describe the combination.

After the roll call, minutes of the last meeting were read, followed by a discussion re District Convention. The fortunate Miss Tanis Sigurjonnsen will be representing the Vermilion club at district convention in Grande Prairie.

Many thanks to all you wonderful people who supported and attended the Easter Bunny Hop. We are a benevolent club and do not benefit from the proceeds, but some fortunate person in the district who is unable to enjoy life as we do will be made more comfortable. The financial report indicates that a lot of work was done in the past year. We hope to have a complete report of activities for the past year at the end of the season, May 21.

Hear ye. Honorary Members' The Closing Banquet will be held Wednesday, May 22 — a re-union —and we would like to see every honorary member out, so drop everything and contact Lena Miller at Vivian's, 26, before May 14th so arrangements can be made.

Our next meeting will be on May 14th.

When planning a fish main course, remember that color and texture contrasts are important. Accentuate the delicate color of fish with bright garnishes and vegetables and serve some crisp accompaniment such as a raw relish, a salad or crusty rolls.

Nurses' Assoc. Hold Regular Meeting

The Vermilion branch of the Registered Nurses' Association met in the nurses' residence at the hospital on Monday, April 29 for the regular meeting, with 12 members present.

A very nice "thank you" letter was read from Shirley McDonald of Mannville. Shirley won the prize for the highest marks in Home Nursing at the V.S.A., donated by the Nurses' Association of Vermilion.

Another jitney street dance was discused for Farmers' Day. More about this later on.

Church parade on Sunday, May 5th at 7:30 p.m., commemorating Florence Nightingale. All nurses please wear uniforms and meet at the United church.

The next meeting will be at the home of Vera Barr, when it is expected there will be a report from the convention delegates, — Jean McPhee and Eileen Sweeney.

The meeting closed with a social half hour and lunch served by Kay Brix and Edith Waldenberger, assisted by Jean McPhee.

WILDMERE WINKS

The annual meeting and banquet of the Cancer Society held in the Legion hall April 16 was a very worthwhile meeting. A good banquet put everyone in a happy mood, and the lectures were very interesting. The question period by the doctors was greatly enjoyed. We will be looking forward to the fall meeting. Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garnett, Mrs. Roy Dibben, Mrs. L. Howard and Mrs. Wallington attended from Wildmere and Basswood.

The writer and husband attended the Gay 90s Wednesday evening last. Owing to the rain making roads muddy, not so large a crowd turned out, but a good time was enjoyed. We missed Mrs. Rogan and Myrtle Killion, though. Glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pettigrew with us again.

Billie and Adam Smith returned from Vancouver, B.C. where they spent the winter with their mother. They are now right in to farming operations, like all the neighborhood.

On Sunday morning the writer attended the United church service in Vermilion through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. A Holte, who also attended. We all enjoyed very much the message given by the girls and Rev. R. McLaren of Naramata training school. He and his helpers are really doing a good job in training Sunday School teachers and young people We hope many will take advantage of this useful training.

A meeting of Wildmere church board and Basswood-Wildmere community club members was held at Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson's to discuss the taking of titles to the buildings bought from the school division, namely Preston and Basswood schools.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cruthers and son Murray from south of Minburn visited at George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers on Monday evening.

We had a nice chat recently with Mrs H. Barlow, who had been in the hospital, but we are pleased to see her able to be out again Also had a chat with Mrs. Sperberg Sr., who now makes her home in town. We hear Mrs G. Richardson is home again after her siege in the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton. A speedy recovery is wished her, and also to all our sick friends.

PAY TRIBUTE TO MRS. RILEY

Our good friend and neighbor for many years, Mrs. Riley, was laid to rest last Tuesday, April 23rd. A well-filled church bespoke of the high esteem the deceased and her family hold in town and surrounding communities. Rev. MacKay gave a comforting sermon and Mr. Watts sang "In the Garden" very beautifully. One cannot help but feel the loss of her passing. She came to Wildmere as a young woman with her husband and twin children, Beryl and Erie in 1912 and made her home a very hospitable spot. She was postmistress for many years, also boarded the teachers. Her first husband passed away in 1925, but she remained on the farm. In 1933 she married Tom Riley and moved to his farm, still keeping the post office. Mr. Riley died in 1938. Later on she moved to Vermilion where she made her home until her book of life closed. She was a splendid friend and neighbor, and always ready with a helping hand and kindly word. She was pleased to have her old friends call on her in town even though she was usually busy with her alteration work for the many stores she could always find time to chat with her old friends. She leaves to mourn her passing her daughter Mrs. Geo. Seuffert, (Beryl), and son Erie Madill; also two stepdaughters Mrs. R. Martin (Doris), Mrs. R. Smith (Nellie), and two stepsons Ted and George Riley. One stepson Tommy was killed in Italy during World War II; there are thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. A sister Mrs. J. McKendry lives in Toronto. Pallbearers were all friends of the deceased, J. Wilson, J. Wallington, Tom Best, George Haines, old neighbors from Wildmere, and Alex Callas and Clarence Lysons of Vermilion. She was laid to rest beside her first husband Joe Madill in the Vermilion cemetery. Everyone joins with the writer in extending deepest sympathy to the sorrowing family in thir bereavement. "Well done good and faithful servant, take now thy rest."

Mannville Girls At Diocesan Festival

MANNVILLE.—Six girls from Christ Church, Mannville, made the trip to Edmonton to attend the Diocesan Girls' Auxiliary festival held on April 23rd and 24th at All Saints Cathedral and parish hall. Some sixteen groups were represented in the two-day session that included dancing, singing and drama competitions and an informative discussion entitled "This is your Life".

The Mannville group made a creditable showing, finishing 3rd in the competition for the Irene Niblett cup. In the Handicraft section their entry of a Diocesan map was rated at 70%; Jewelry 75% and Book Markers 70%; in the Arts, Singing 86%, Drama 80% and Mission Exam 73%.

A real noteworthy effort was put forth by Marilyn North who tied with two other girls for the top marks in Diocesan Mission Study exam. Marilyn made the commendable mark of 98%.

The girls were accompanied by their leader Mrs. Jessie MacPherson and via the medium of these notes would like to express their thanks to Mrs. NNorth and the Rev. C. MacPherson for having provided the transportation thus enabling them to enjoy the fun and fellowship of the festival. Next year they hope to bring back the cup.

McLAUGHLIN'S SELF-SERVE

Cliff Smallwood
TO THE PEOPLE
OF THE
Federal Constituency
OF
Battle River-Camrose

Many points of view concerning national development will be brought to your attention during the election campaign. This is a very large subject and space does not permit a thorough analysis of Progressive-Conservative thinking on it. A book could easily be written on the subject, but a few general thoughts will have to suffice at this time.

"Agriculture and its welfare is a basic cornerstone in Progressive-Conservative national development policy," John Diefenbaker stated not long ago. By saying this he was reminding his audience that there are many things that have to be considered. Mining, manufacturing, shipping, transportation, forestry, conservation, fisheries, land use — these are only a few of the things which must be taken into consideration by any political party framing a national development policy.

Conservatives believe that it is not enough simply to ship away the iron ore, pipe out the natural gas and oil, cut down and haul away the trees. A country which is content with that type of development ships away a part of its birthright with every ton of ore, with every cubic foot of natural gas, and with every log. There are two reasons for this. First, of course, the supply of natural resources can be exhausted. Second, a people which simply sells its natural resources does not develop the many skills which are the key to survival in a modern industrial world. Everyone has heard of Sheffield cutlery because of the skill with which it is made. Few people who use it know where the raw ore came from. Pittsburgh is a famous name in the heavy industry of the United States. The great open pit mines that supply the mills are comparatively unknown. Ores can be bought. Skills must be developed.

We of the Conservative party believe that every effort should be made to encourage Canadians to develop Canada's natural resources here at home, to develop their own skills along many lines, and to master the art of conservation so that our nation will still offer opportunities in the generations to come.

A Progressive - Conservative government will do all possible to put this line of thought into action. A vote for Cliff Smallwood will help to elect that government.

Former V.S.A. Staff Member Wed In West Calgary Ceremony

By Margaret Bentley

Miss Evelyn Curran, formerly a staff member of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, was married on Saturday, April 27, to Dr. Hugh Philip, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Philip of Namur, Belgium. The wedding took place in West Calgary United Church, Calgary, where the bride's brother-in-law, Rev. D. K. Walker, who is the minister in charge, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride entered the church to the strains of "Please My Soul, the King of Heaven," and was given in marriage by N. N. Bentley, Vermilion. She wore an Old Parchment satin gown, floor length with a small train, and a veil which had been specially made in India for the groom's mother on the occasion of her wedding. The veil was of very fine handmade lace featuring a pattern showing the oak leaf of Belgium, Mrs. Philip's home and the thistle of Scotland, the home of Mr. Philip. Miss Curran's wedding dress had a basque bodice with a lace trimmed V-shaped neckline and short sleeves, with a very full satin skirt. She carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses, baby orchids and heather.

Mrs. Curran chose her sister, Mrs. D. K. Walker, as her matron of honor, and four junior bridesmaids, Joanne and Judith Walker; Sylvia Day of Kimberley, B. C.; and Richarda Hackstetter, niece of the groom, from Chapleau, Ontario. Th ring bearer, Rene Hackstetter, is a nephew of the groom.

Peter Day of Kimberley, father of one of the junior bridesmaids, was the best man. The ushers were Ken Roxburgh, Edmonton, and Claude Oram, Kimberley. The organist, who played "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March" as a recessional, was Mrs. B. Eeles, organist for West Calgary United church.

The bride and groom, with Mrs. Curran and the groom's parents, welcomed the guests at the wedding reception held in the church. Mrs. J. Mayell and Mrs. R. Henry, were hostesses in charge of the reception catered to by the W. A. of West Calgary United church, and Mrs. Bentley and Mrs. J. R. Roxburgh poured tea. Miss Mary Philips, sister of the groom, Miss Betty Bentley, Miss Donna Roxburgh, Edmonton and Miss Lynn Oram Kimberley, served the guests.

For their wedding trip to Calif. the bride wore a brown velvet suit with beige accessories. After a three weeks honeymoon the newly-weds will make their home in Armstrong, B. C. where the groom has a veterinary practise.

Marion McQuid Is Bride In Edmonton Ceremony

Red tulips arranged in baskets with white chrysanthemums were background for an afternoon wedding in First Baptist church, Edmonton, when Miss Marion S. McQuid was escorted to the altar by her father to become the bride of Mr. H. Burton Clark.

Rev. Robert Arnott performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McQuid of Tulland and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Edmonton.

The bride's gown featured a fitted bodice of imported French lace and a bouffant skirt of nylon inset with matching lace. The gown was modified with a lace jacket designed with lily point sleeves. A circlet of sequins and seed pearls held her fingertip veil of misty illusion and she carried a white Bible mounted with a mauve orchid and heather.

A waltz-length frock of mauve taffeta and tulle was chosen by the matron of honor, Mrs. Raymond McQuid. She wore a matching headdress and carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow and mauve spring flowers.

Mr. Alan Hargreaves was best man and ushers were Mr. Allan Clark, brother of the groom and Mr. Raymond McQuid, brother of the bride. Mr. Allan Rumbelon played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Seven Seas. Mr. Arnott proposed the toast to the bride.

For a wedding trip in the mountains, the bride changed to a dusty rose suit topped with a powder blue coat. Her accessories were white. An orchid corsage was pinned at her shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside in Calgary.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McQuid, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McQuid and family, Mr. Frederick Slocum, Tolland; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Clark and family, Mrs. I. Martin, all of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. James Pierce and family of Marwayne.

Gas Rates To Remain the Same For At Least One Year

EDMONTON. — Gas rates are unlikely to change for at least another year, Dennis K. Yorath, president, told the annual meeting of shareholders of Northwestern Utilities Limited here on Friday last.

Elaborating on the announcement contained in the company's annual report which suggested that mounting costs might force the company to seek a rate increase, Mr. Yorath said that the problem would be studied during the balance of this year.

"The increased cost of labor, materials and money, has given us a great deal of concern," he said. "However, until the studies now under way are completed in the fall we will be unable to say what course of action will be taken, or if an application will be filed with the Board of Public Utility Commissioners."

Mr. Yorath reported that the company would serve eight new communities this year. Franchises have been obtained and plans made to construct the necessary facilities to provide gas service by next winter. The 8 communities are Evansburg, Entwistle, Wildwood, Islay, Lavoy, Ranfurly, Innisfree and Minburn.

Construction has already begun on the Milner building, he said, and completion is scheduled for early 1959. The building, named in honor of H. R. Milner, chairman of the company, will be 12 storeys in height. Five storeys will be occupied by Northwestern Utilities and its associate company, Canadian Utilities, Limited. The remainder will be leased to others.

The meeting re-elected the company's board of directors and the company's officers were also re-appointed headed by H. R. Milner, Q.C., as chairman and D. K. Yorath, president.

Marwayne Shower For Bride-Elect

MARWAYNE. — Sixty-five guests gathered at the United Church hall on Friday afternoon to honor Miss Anita Olmstead with a miscellaneous shower. Easter corsages were pinned on bride-elect, her mother and Mrs. Dow as they were escorted to chairs decorated with pink and white streamers. Hints to the brides were written on clothes pins and a short contest entertained the guests.

"Here comes Peter Cottontail" was sung by Gail Gardiner and Donna Robbie carrying a decorated Easter basket full of lovely gifts for Anita. After unwrapping her numerous gifts Anita very graciously thanked her many friends for their kindness and expressions of good will and invited them all to visit her in her new home at Hazeldine.

Myrtle Lowrie, Betty Shaw, Eleanor Moorehead and Dorothy Fairbairn were the hostesses and had the bride's table laid with a cloth and vases of beautiful Easter flowers centered with an Angel Food cake. Anita's sister Doris was in charge of the bride's book.

A delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

"ALL THINGS ARE CHANGED, AND WE CHANGE WITH THEM"

— *(Author's Name Below) —

In recent years there has been a great change in the practice of medicine and pharmacy.

To keep pace with this change we pharmacists are continuously studying the drug and medical journals. As soon as a new drug is released we not only stock it, but learn all about its dosage, action, proper compounding, and preservation.

That is why we are prepared to compound any prescription, prescribed by any physician, no matter how distant, exactly as he specifies.

A great many people entrust us with the responsibility of filling their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Ladies Organize Liberal Association

A meeting was held recently for the purpose of forming a Vermilion Ladies' Liberal Association to support Mr. Carl Heckbert, local Liberal candidate for the federal election on June 10th.

A number of interested ladies attended electing a full slate of officers. These included Mrs. Hilda Cross, president; Mrs. Laura Sutherland, vice-president; Mrs. Jean Wright, secretary-treasurer. Plans were discussed to appoint regional vice-presidents in the surrounding rural communities.

A general meeting of all ladies is to be held on Saturday, May 18th at the Legion hall in the evening. Mr. Heckbert will be introduced along with Mrs. Ragan, President of the Alberta Liberal Ladies Association and Mrs. Mac Smith, President of the Battle River-Camrose Liberal Ladies Association. A social hour and lunch will follow the meeting ladies.

Celebrate Silver Wedding

On Monday evening, March 25 the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sturt were "surprised" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hutchinson, by a large gathering of friends who extended all good wishes and congratulations. The evening was spent in enjoying games, visiting and in singing. On behalf of those present, Mr. J. Morlog presented Mr. and Mrs. Sturt with a set of beautiful cooking ware with the wish for much happiness in the future. Although taken quite unexpectedly, Mr. and Mrs. Sturt thanked all for the good wishes, and the gift received. A bountiful lunch was served by the hostesses at the close of the evening. A number of flash pictures were taken by their eldest son, Eric, who that day celebrated his 20th birthday, many happy returns.

Wheat Pool Will Sponsor 35 To Young People Week

The Alberta Wheat Pool will sponsor 35 farm boys and girls to attend Farm Young People's Week at the University of Alberta from June 4th to 13th inclusive. Transportation costs and $15.00 of their $28 board bill, while at the University, will be paid.

The project has been carried on by the Wheat Pool for a number of years for the benefit of rural young people. This year the candidates will be selected, one from each odd-numbered Wheat Pool sub-district in the province. Local organizations are invited to nominate suitable young people in their districts between the ages of 16 and 26 years.

Where more than one nomination to a sub-district is received an independent selection committee will make a choice on the basis of the interest shown by the nominees in their local communities.

Terrylene and Cotton for Summer

A fresh young dress for spring combines a sharp modern print with a new fabric—an intimate blend of "Terylene" and cotton which like looks familiar cotton but which behaves like the man-made fibre. It sheds wrinkles, dries quickly, and seldom if ever needs ironing. The black and red cummerbund catches unpressed pleats at the waist and finishes in a flat bow at the back. By Peter Pan of Montreal, about $20.

WOODVALE NOTES

Spring seems to be here with budding shrubs and trees, grass becoming green, birds and frogs singing, farmers on the land and for good measure this year a meteor in the northwestern skies in the evening, although unfortunately it is often obscured by clouds and overshadowed in brilliance by the northern lights. After the rains of last week everything is off to a good start.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nelson on the birth of their first son and to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells with their second daughter. The latter couple have moved with their children to a farm near Paradise Valley.

Rev. Nugent of Edmonton held an Easter service in Ganton hall on April 21st. Vases with mums and pussy willows, pots with geraniums and Easter lilies made the well filled hall bright and cheery. Wendy Barbara and Wanda Colleen, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McLean of Kokmee were baptized by Rev. Nugent. Another church service was announced for May 5th at the same time, 3:40 p.m. in the same place.

The many friends of the late Mrs. Alice Ryley in our community extend their sympathy to her children and grandchildren.

A rock-picking demonstration by two different machines was given on the Gow farm on Saturday 20th and was watched with great interest by the farmers present. It seems that even the good old stoneboat will soon be a relic of the past.

Mrs. S. Oldenburg of Vermilion spent the Easter week with Mr. and Mrs. Kaare Selte of Tolland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Van Tyen, Cor and Rolf Pikkert of Red Deer were visitors at the Van Wageningen home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hohol and family spent the Easter holidays with relatives in Edmonton.

Remember there is a dance at Woodvale hall on May 3rd. Try to fit in an evening of pleasant dancing with a day spent on the tractor! Oh to be young and full of pep and go again!

The financial results of play night were very gratifying. The sum of $42 realized paid the last amount needed for the school projector and leaves a tidy sum for a party planned for the last school day.

Nominations Nearing Completion For Federal Election June 10

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — The Alberta countryside has begun to ring with the sound and fury of election campaigning once again as the June 10 federal election vote approaches.

At the time of writing, 62 candidates had been nominated to contest Alberta's 17 seats in the federal House. Liberals were the first to name a full slate of 17, but Social Credit was close behind with 16 and one more to come.

Conservatives had chosen 14 candidates and CCF 13. A Labor Progressive (Communist) and an Independent Social Crediter complete the list.

The deadline for filing nomination papers is May 27 throughout the province, except in the big ridings of Jasper-Edson, Athabasca and Peace River, where the date has been pushed ahead to May 18 to permit mailing of documents and supplies to deputy returning officers in remote polling divisions.

Twelve of the candidates nominated so far are sitting members seeking re-election, and there may possibly be one more. Social Credit has yet to nominate for Lethbridge riding, but there is talk in political circles that the nod may go to John Blackmore, who has held the seat for the Socreds.

The other four sitting members, who aren't seeking re-election this time are Hon. George Prudham, Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys, who held Edmonton West; John Decore, Liberal from Vegreville; Carl Nickle, Conservative from Calgary South and William Wylie, Social Credit from Medicine Hat.

Social Credit, which had 11 seats in Ottawa at dissolution, will be making an all-out bid to increase this number or at least hold the line. The Liberals are hoping to end up with more than the four seats they held in the House, and the Conservatives will be trying to better their score of two in the last election.

Meanwhile, enumerators have finished or nearly finished the big task of knocking on doors and counting the noses of voters to compile the lists which will be appearing in all polling divisions.

Social Credit kicked off its western campaign last week at Barrhead where Solon E. Low, National Leader, spoke at a banquet held by the local constituency association.

The dapper, silver-haired first man of Social Credit promised that his party, if elected, would cut taxes, increase old age pensions, and introduce policies to stabilize agriculture.

He blasted the Liberal government for "unimaginative" financial policies and for failing to come to grips with any of the major problems facing Canada. He said the government could have cut income taxes by 30 per cent this year because it had a surplus of $500,000,000 from last year's taxation.

Following his talk at Barrhead, Mr. Low went to Spirit River where a Social Credit convention nominated him for re-election in the Peace River riding, which he has held for the past 12 years.

Albertans will hear arguments from opposing sides later as the campaign moves into high gear, with visits to the province planned by Prime Minister St. Laurent and John Diefenbaker, National Leader of the Progressive Conservatives.

This week marks the official opening of the Golden Jubilee Auditoriums in Edmonton and Calgary. They were built by the government for all the people of northern and southern Alberta, to mark the province's 50th birthday in 1955.

Residents in town and country points may think city dwellers got the best of the deal, but that didn't quite apply to the official opening and dedication ceremony last Sunday.

Applications for tickets far exceeded the 2,700 seats available in each auditorium, and the priority went to country applicants who wanted to see the opening. Thousands of city residents were left out in the cold. As it was pointed out by government officials, city residents will have plenty of opportunities to attend programs in the two $4,500,000 auditoriums.

Recipe for pedestrian death: jaywalk, ignore traffic signals, walk into the street from behind a parked car.

CHATSWORTH CHATTER

Spring is definitely with us, and work has started on the land. By next week it should be general, although there are a number of mudholes in fields. It is surprising how much water there was in the last March snowstorm.

During the last month of winter, our district enjoyed a flurry of social activities. On Friday, 15th, an F.U.A. meeting was held in the school, with Mr. Pat Ryan, of the Co-op movement, guest speaker, bringing us an informative and interesting talk. Mr. Paul Gedt, of the Co-op store in Vermilion also spoke on some of the problems which face the management of co-operatives today, such as rising costs of consumer goods. Mr. P. McGuigan also had a few words to say re his councillor work. At the conclusion of these addresses, films were shown by Mr. Ryan, these being much enjoyed by the crowd. A tasty lunch was served by the ladies of the community, with dessert—delicious ice cream which was the courtesy of the Co-op completed the evening's entertainment.

On Friday evening, 22nd, a whist party and dance was held at the school, with eight tables of whist, the winners being: ladies' 1st, Mrs. J. Farkash Sr., 2nd, Miss Bobroski, Consolation Mrs. M. Kochan; gents' 1st, J. K. Thompson 2nd, H. Henningsen, consolation Orest Misak.

The April meeting of Chatsworth Country Club was held at the home of Mrs. Randolph Hutchinson, the hostess being Mrs. Fay Hutchinson, on the 11th. Final plans were made for the serving of lunch at the auction sale of Pat Cummings on the following Friday. Correspondence was received from the constituency convenor of the W. I., re our group becoming an affiliate of that organization, but it was to remain as we are. This year our group celebrates the 10th year of organization, and tentative plans were made regarding a fitting celebration to mark the anniversary. The nickel draw was won by Mrs. Hutchinson, and the Social by E. Henningsen. The Sick committee reported a visit and gift sent to one member. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the lunch committee. The next meeting is to be held as usual, on the third Thursday of the month.

Measles have been on the rampage throughout the community, with adults also being afflicted.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Henningsen were visitors to Edmonton from March 29th to April 6th, where they enjoyed a visit with relatives and friends. While they were away, Bob Newman did chores for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hutchinson are now living in town, where Ray is employed at Mix's.

Mr. Cyril Davis is home from Edmonton where he recently was a patient in the Royal Alexandra hospital.

Visitors at the Henningsen home over the Easter week end were June and George Honey and little son Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Honey Sr.

A Summery Dress

—Crisply pleated horizontal stripes in shades of brown and yellow stay fresh all summer in this new Canadian fabric—an intimate blend of "Terylene" and cotton. The two fibres have been combined to provide material which looks like familiar cotton but which has all the easy-care qualities of the man-made fibre. The pleats stay sharp through washing and the dress seldom needs ironing. By La Roth of Montreal, about $20.

The Editor,

Dear Sir:

Just a few comments on a very thoughtful and good letter in your paper from Mr. Galloway re taxation.

When taxes are levied and there is no income there is a danger of losing the property. Taxes are getting to be an excessive burden on the land and I think that all who use the facilities supplied should pay a fair proportion of the costs. How to achieve an equitable system is the question. Perhaps a tax on earning power, an income tax might be the solution.

Municipal cost and education costs have risen out of all reason, especially as regards the ability of the farmers and farming to meet these costs. The large school divisions with the abolition of local autonomy as regards costs, have thrown to the wind all incentive for economy, just get as much as you can for your own particular corner.

I don't know what powers a property owners association might have and how they would go about getting a square deal from the government. You might give us a little more light on this. We never did get a square deal from the Government when they threw us willy nilly into the large divisions without any sayso from the electorate. From a farmer's standpoint I believe that something will have to be done, we cannot keep on paying larger taxes from reduced income.

Yours sincerely,
H. Wear.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Woman's Travel Authority

Attitudes in driving count more than any other factor, psychologists report. You can easily find out your attitudes score by taking a pencil and marking in the blanks how many times out of a possible ten you . . .

1 .... glide through a full-stop without halting completely, because "the road looks clear and I'm in a hurry?"

2 .... slip through an intersection when the light is yellow, or jump just before it turns green?

3 .... go into a marked curve without reducing speed?

4 .... neglect to dim your "brights" because "he'll be past in a second?"

5 .... find yourself matching the speed of a car trying to pass you?

6 .... drive on the tail of the car ahead so he'll know he's going too slow for you?

7 .... park close to a hydrant because there's no other space handy and "besides, five feet away is plenty?"

8 .... try to honk your way through a traffic tie-up with your horn?

Here's how to score yourself: Simply add up the numbers you have written under each item. A group of expert drivers scored between 0 and 18. But whatever your score, remember — according to Dr. Herbert J. Stack and Dr. Leon Brody, Center for Safety Education, New York University — a basic cause of most accidents is not the car or the road, but the driver's ATTITUDES.

'Maytime in Alberta' Plays To Large Audience at Mannville

MANNVILLE.—Mannville was indeed fortunate in being choosen as one of the towns to play hosts to the University Mixed chorus, the R.C.A.F. band and the University of Alberta Studio theatre which made up the wonderful 3-day program sponsored by the Cultural Activities Branch of the Department of Economic Affairs of the Government of Alberta.

The Mixed chorus on Saturday evening started at 8:30 to allow the business people of the town as much time as possible to also enjoy the wonderful concert presented by Prof. Eaton and the students. The program was varied and the singing of the students and the soloists outstanding. Of particular interest to Mannville and district was the inclusion of Miss Betty Proudfoot, a Mannville girl, and Miss Janis Whitson of Edmonton who was born in Mannville and who has spent many of her holidays here. Janis received word while she was in Mannville that she had successfully passed her exam and would after six weeks of interning be taking her place in the much-needed field of physiotherapy. Mannville is justly proud of Janis.

The program of the Tactical Air Command band started out with 812 Overture by Tchaikowsky. Fl.-Lt. Friberg gave a short description of the various instruments in the band and explained their place in band music. As Mannville is considering a school band in the near future this was of great interest to the students and parents alike. The band concert was also varied in the type of music chosen — from the Toy Symphony by Haydon which was much enjoyed by younger members of the audience, Irish Salute with well known Irish tunes, various rousing marches, imitation of several of the well known bands, Symphonic Portrait in Oil (Tulsa by Gillis) which portrayed our own Alberta, the coming of the white men right up to hte discovery of oil. A touch of comedy in The King and his three daughters added a bit of spoce to the program as did the solo "Hand in Hand with Me". The audience was very responsive and showed their appreciation of the endeavors of the R.C.A.F. band.

As Mrs. Bang, president of the local Home and School which sponsored 'Maytime in Alberta', and Mr. Misik and Mr. Holter who introduced and thanked the groups on the three evenings respectively, said: "the response of the Mannville people as well as those of the surrounding district and towns to this wonderful opportunity and privilege of hearing and seeing music, art and drama, was well up to expectations and they were sure that the audiences were not disappointed in any of the programs". These representatives of the Home and School Association also thanked the people for opening their homes to the entertainers and also all those who helped in the planning and carrying out of such a large project. This was the first of such an undertaking but with the co-operation of all concerned everything seemed to run smoothly and the result was very gratifying.

The exhibits of books, visual art and craft were on display at the Legion hall on Monday afternoon and evening. Those who were unable to view them in the afternoon called after the band concert Monday evening.

The final night's entertainment "The Love of Four Colonels", a rollicking comedy by the Studio Theatre of the U. of A. was well received by the Mannville audience. The settings and properties used were constructed by students of the stagecraft classes. And the play was well cast and exceptionally well played.

All in all, again it can be said that Mannville was indeed fortunate in playing host to this outstanding production "Maytime in Alberta" and all hope that we will hear and see them again in the near future. With the new auditorium it is possible for such productions to be given in Mannville.

Driver Hill To Sport Vermilion Colors

When Driver (Mayor) Melvin Hill shoos his ostrich down the stretch in front of the Edmonton grandstand at the horse show races next Thursday evening, there will be no mistaking his identity. He will be sporting the very latest in racing clothes, cap and shirt, all made up in Vermilion colors.

Mel claims that he has received a volume of helpful hints for successfully driving an ostrich, and that he intends to try them all, even though several are rather contradictory in nature. Full of confidence, the Mayor says that if he just keeps the bird from burying its head in the sand he thinks that Vermilion colors will cross the finish line well in the lead, with Wetaskiwin and Camrose mayors looking at his steed's tail feathers.

Anglican Men's Club Entertain Wives, Dramatic Members

The Anglican Men's club climaxed a very successful and happy series of monthly meetings on Monday evening when they entertained the wives of the members, and the cast of the play, "Ghost Road".

The play was presented at several places, was well received, and provided the means of making a fine donation to the church funds. The dinner was, in part, a gesture of recognition of the fine contribution the members of the cast had made.

The dinner, in keeping with the sumptuous menus enjoyed all through the year, was served by an enlarged supper committee. All members of the club who had not previously had the opportunity to serve as chefs, were pressed into duty, the result was certainly satisfying even to the most fastidious gourmet.

Following the meal J. V. Kneale, president of the club, announced that this was the final supper meeting until the fall, September to be exact.

Other entertainment was provided by films supplied by Mr. Milo Fleming of the Alberta Wheat Pool, which were shown by Alex Palin and greatly enjoyed.

Walter Coulter, on behalf of the members of the dramatic club, thanked the men for the splendid supper and entertainment.

Amateur Show Provides Grand Entertainment At Dewberry

The Dewberry hall was filled to capacity on Easter Monday for the annual amateur hour sponsored by the local F.U.A.

A pleasant evening was spent as the program was varied and good, making the judges' task a difficult one, but they proved equal to the occasion. The judges were Mrs. Donald Mathison, Mr. Tom West and Mr. Waldemar Protsch.

Mr. John Anderson, an ardent supporter of the F.U.A. and a member of the executive committee, was chairman.

The proceedings opened with "O Canada," accompanied by Mrs. Joe Braithwaite. The winners were:

Age Group 1 to 8—

Instrumental—1st, Julie Hodgson.

Age Group 8 to 15—

Vocal—1st, Deanna Butz, Landonville; 2nd, Faye Haskell; 3rd, Shirley McGuigan, Islay.

The Hazeldine Square Dancers were all grade 1 and grade 2 pupils and are a credit to their teacher. The older square dancers will have to look out for their laurels as these little ones are really good.

Worthy of special mention were the two numbers sung by the Dewberry choir, "The Voice in the Old Village Choir" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", which were beautifully rendered and appreciated.

While the judges were deciding the winners, several of the contestants gave encores.

Mr. George Butz of Landonville obliged with a step dance. Later he said it was an unexpected call and that as he had moved 300 bushels of grain that afternoon, he had to cut the dance short.

Lunch was served by several of the ladies and was much appreciated.

Dancing followed to the music of Mudryk's orchestra from Derwent. Mr. Steve Trach was floor manager.

Lindberg of the Faculty of Commerce, University of Alberta. Dinner will be served at 6:30 with the address to follow. Everyone interested in invited to attend.

Guests on this occasion will be officials of Boards of Trade from surrounding towns and villages.

Professor Lindberg leaves soon after his appearance in Vermilion for what amounts to a continent-wide speaking tour. He will give addresses at Cleveland, Ohio, and then on as far east as the Atlantic coast; on the return trip he has speaking engagements in Montreal and Ottawa and later on at Aklavik and Cambridge Bay, N.W.T.

The Board of Trade feels singularly honored to have such a noted speaker come to Vermilion. Tickets will be on sale at $1.50 per plate and the banquet is open to anyone interested, both ladies and gentlemen.

Board of Trade 15th Cancelled

The regular weekly Wednesday Board of Trade luncheon meeting has been cancelled for next week, May 15th. This is due to the fact that the Board of Trade spring banquet is being held Monday evening, May 13.

Five Young Local Men Are Injured In Car-Truck Collision

On their way to Edmonton Wednesday to see the Globe Trotters play basketball, five young men of Vermilion were injured when their car was in collision with a truck on the Beverly hill, just a few miles east of the city. The accident happened about 3 p.m.

More severely injured are the driver and owner of the car Wally Zavaduk, and Jim Shepanski. Wally has a broken leg with the other limb being badly mangled as well. Jim, well known young hockey player with the Vermilion Juveniles, suffered Severe face and head injuries and required transfusions. The extent of his injuries is not yet fully known. Both are confined to hospital in Edmonton.

Gerry Marshall has face cuts and was kept in hospital overnight, while the other two occupants of the car, Herman Rohwer required stitches in one cheek and George Martin was a shock case. Both were discharged from hospital Wednesday evening, the night of the accident.

The car, a 1957 model, is reported a complete wreck.

Occupants of the truck were also hurt, with the most severely injured being a little girl.

S. C. Candidates To Speak At Minburn

Peter Stefura and James A. Smith, Social Credit candidates for Vegreville and Battle River-Camrose federal constituencies, will be the speakers at a public meeting in the Minburn hall on Saturday evening May 11th.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Federal Candidates On Same Platform At Kitscoty

The FUA has arranged a public meeting to be held at Kitscoty on Thursday, May 16th with the four candidates for election on June 10th being invited to attend. Each one will be given an opportunity to explain the agricultural platform of the party he represents.

FUA Sponsor Pre-Election Meetings

EDMONTON. — Arnold Platt, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, announced this week in Edmonton that the F.U.A. is sponsoring a series of pre-election meetings throughout the province. At these meetings district candidates in the June 10th election regardless of party, will be invited to attend and to present the platform of his or her party and answer questions from the audience.

Those meetings already held have been well attended and Mr. Platt revealed that both the candidates and the audience have been well satisfied with the arrangement. The F.U.A. President described these meetings as a "public service feature of Farm Union policy, whereby rural people are given an opportunity to size up the candidates for whom they will be voting on June 10th."

We believe, Mr. Platt continued, "that meetings of this type will do much to encourage the active interest of rural people in political matters."

Town Ladies Win B. of T. Prizes

Two town ladies were the winners of the Board of Trade contest run during Dollar Days. Mrs. Carl Johnson was the first name drawn so was eligible for the first prize of $10.00. As she had a receipt for a Dollar Days' advertised value attached, the prize was doubled. The second name out of the hat was Mrs. W. D. Williams. She had a receipt also and was given $10.00.

The ladies were invited to attend the Board of Trade luncheon meeting on Wednesday, where the chairman, Vice-President Al Locke presented them with their prizes. Both ladies made neat replies.

E. A. Locke occupied the chair as President Miller is in Winnipeg on business. There was a good attendance and a very nice turkey dinner was served.

The meeting was held in the new banquet room at the Rio Cafe.

"Juvenile Delinquency" Subject of Address At Rotary Meeting

Cpl. Surby gave a thoughtful address on Juvenile Delinquency at the Rotary Club meeting last Friday noon. He gave in his discourse the main causes of the increase in delinquency among juveniles, broken homes, lack of parental control, lack of parental interest, not giving the boy or girl any companionship by mother or father, too much time on their hands. All of which can be remedied by parents being normal and taking a healthy active interest in their children.

Vermilion is very fortunate that there is very little juvenile delinquency in this town. This speaks well for parents and for the many youth organizations and leaders, all taking a keen interest in the welfare of our boys and girls.

Cpl. Surby was introduced by Ashley Cooper and thanked by President Reg Mitchell.

Vermilion Rotary won quite an honor as announced at the district convention held at Medicine Hat recently, in that the Club, although only in its second year, had won the prize for the most 100% meetings for the year. The club was only a fraction of one per cent. behind the winners for the highest average attendance for the same period of time, this honor going to Lloydminster.

WILL CONTINUE TREE PLANTING PROGRAM

Rotarians will plant more trees at the camp site in the Park on Friday evening. This program was commenced last spring when three dozen trees of various kinds were transplanted.

A violent electrical storm featured the weather this week. The storm broke late Monday evening May 6th and was followed by .81 inches of rain. Scattered hail is reported from various spots in the country. The rainfall was patchy. The first frost for some time was registered on Tuesday morning, May 9th. Weather actually is just about perfect and farming operations are being carried along full swing. Farmers are hopeful of a good fill on wild oats. These were a little slower in starting than expected but are now showing up.

MOTHER . . . QUEEN OF OUR HEARTS—

Every day, Mother reigns supreme in every heart. But each year on her "Special Day" she is crowned anew by her loyal subjects with fond expressions of their warm love and deep devotion. That special day this year is Sunday May 12th.

Mother may be young or not-so-young in years, but this is one day when she is sure to be young-in-heart . . . made so by the certain knowledge that she is remembered by all those whom she holds most dear.

WORLD RED CROSS DAY

On Wednesday, May 8, people in countries around the world commemorated the "World Red Cross Day" and paid tribute to the memory of a Swiss banker who heard the cries of help of the wounded and dying on Europe's battlefields and devoted his life to providing that help. The banker was J. Henri Dunant whose compassion for humanity inspired him to envision a relief organization of volunteer workers — the movement known throughout the world today as the Red Cross.

Dunant's work in organizing a corps of men and women to help bind the wounds of soldiers injured in the Battle of Solferino in 1859 was the corner stone on which has been built his greatest memorial—the world-wide Red Cross. Today a Red Cross organization serves in every major country around the globe and millions of voluntary workers carry on the work inspired more than a century ago and devote themselves to the relief of suffering and the fight against disease.

This year will be the 10th anniversary of World Red Cross Day, a day which marks the 129th anniversary of the birth of Henri Dunant and honors Red Cross volunteers serving in more than 70 nations.

In 1939 average factory wage in Canada was $20 a week, is now $63 a week.

ADULT NEGLECT

Coroner's reports, hospital accident summaries and other sources give grim testimony to the number and types of deaths and accidents suffered by Alberta children last year and previously. A campaign sponsored by the Alberta Department of Health and supported by Home and School groups, Red Cross, Alberta Safety League, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and others, got under way May 5 to help cut down on child accident tolls.

Last year 132 deaths of children under 14 years of age were reported in Alberta. Of these, 36 percent were children four years of age or under, and 84 percent were nine years of age or under. 76 percent of deaths were attributable to causes resulting from adult neglect or carelessness.

Motor vehicle accidents took greatest toll, with 44 deaths. More than half of these were children under five years of age. One quarter of them were killed from falls from car or truck doors, and fifty-seven percent were hit by cars or trucks. Farm tractors were also responsible, killing four tots last year.

Heaviest toll from drownings lay in the five to 14 year group, and of all the 32 drownings deaths, 36 percent occurred on farms from falls into dugouts, ponds or cisterns.

Asphyxia caused by choking over food while in bed and 36% of the deaths were children one year of age and under.

Fourteen children were killed in fires, scalding and gas explosions, while nine died of accidental gunshot wounds. Four tots died from mechanical mishaps as in machinery, on railway tracks and from electric shock.

Miscellaneous deaths causes included a child falling down stairs, one falling from a go-cart, one youngster hit by a hockey puck, and another struck by lightning.

Poison accounted for three deaths, one as result of error in medication given by an adult and two from children eating poison found outside, left for animals.

Last year, more than 3000 children were admitted to Alberta hospitals for treatment for accidental injuries. Alertness of adults to possible causes of these mishaps could reduce the accident and death toll considerably. The Save a Child campaign is designed for this purpose.

"GREEN ACRES"

ONION WORMS

Onion root maggots destroy a lot of onions in this district every year. Don't take chances. Get some Aldrin or Chlordane. The instructions are on the package. The first treatment should be given at planting time or very soon after.

DEPTH OF SEEDING

When grain crops are seeded too shallow root rot is likely to develop in the young plants. Also it is likely to develop where seed is put in too deeply. The best depth to sow usually is from 2 to 2½ inches but of course if it is dry then the seed must be put down to moisture. It will pay to watch the depth of seeding.

BONUS ON BULLS

The Alberta bull policy provides a 15% discount on bulls in M.D. of Vermilion River when the rules are followed. You can locate your own bull, but do not take him home as he must be inspected and approved before he leaves the seller's place. Make out the application form and the cheque in this office. At bull sales you can pick your own bull and then make out the application before the sale starts. In all cases the bull buyers must buy the bulls.

CURRANT MAGGOTS

Maggots in currants and gooseberries can be controlled by spraying with DDT as soon as the flowers start to wilt and then ten days later. 50% wettable DDT mixed with water at the rate of one pound to 50 gallons is the recommended rate.

SEEDING VEGETABLES

It is a good idea to delay seeding some of the garden to a later date. Peas, onions, lettuce, spinach, turnips and radish can be seeded quite early as they are resistant to moderate frost. Then in two weeks time another seeding can be made so that young and tender vegetables will be available over a longer period. Some good gardeners keep up these extra planting at two week intervals until nearly the first of July.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WEEK

Applications for the Alberta Wheat Pool free "Young People's Week" at th University must be in Calgary by May 13th. If interested see your Wheat Pool agent right away or come to this office.

CATTLE SHUTES

It looks like 'vets' will be testing cattle for TB in Vermilion River M.D. before long. How many farmers have a cattle shute? It only takes a few posts and a home made gate and it will save a lot of time for you and for the 'vet'. Plans are available from this office.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Weather — we've been experiencing some very hot days. The highest to date around 85 above. Farmers are busy on the land, some seeding has been done and some gardening too. The country is getting beautiful with all its green foliage.

Easter holidaying, April 23rd, the McPhee sisters Myrna and Irene accompanied Uncle John David's brothers to the city. Dad and Mom McPhee motored to the city on the 25th for their daughters, returning the next day.

Jimmy Walsh returned to the Omness home on the 25th accompanied by George Thompson from Waterways. They all, Della and family, returned to the city on the 27th.

We welcome two young couples to the district. On April 24th Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Throndson moved to their new home, the original Johnny Nelson farm. Miss Sylvia Sheppard from Kitscoty spent the Easter holidays with her sister and brother-in-law. Since their marriage last November Alvin and Evelyn have been living on the Edwin Throndson farm where Edwin has taken over this spring. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gordey and son have moved on to the original Darling farm. It's wonderful to see this home occupied after being vacant for years.

Mrs. Louis Baldock accompanied the Klaschinsky family to Saskatoon on April 27th to visit her sister Georgina, returning to Vermilion on Sunday. The next morning she went to the city to visit daughter Beryl, Tom and family, returning the same day and bringing granddaughter Brenda back to holiday on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold returned from their Minnesota trip on April 28th reporting a wonderful time. It had been the first and only time the Arnold family had been together. Reporters and photographers were present to take pictures and get news of the re-union.

A surpise visit to Mr. and Mrs. D. McCormick's home in Rusylvia on April 29th was paid by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burns from Obed, Alta., school pals from Ireland and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Braden accompanied them on the visit. Back in '49-50 when Miss Eileen McCormick (now Mrs. Jimmy Martin) went practise-teaching she stayed at the Burns' home in Spruce Grove. On inquiring about the McCormicks they found they knew each other well in Ireland and just now have been able to call on them. The Burns have a farm at Lac St. Anne now and are operating a cafe at Obed. They also called at the Jimmy Martin home that same evening.

Mrs. Stella Mayers is back on the farm. She had been staying with her sister Nora Ronaghan. Two weeks before coming to the farm she was with her nephew at Irma Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ronaghan and family.

Jake Miller is back at the Jack Cross farm after spending a week at The Pas on his farm.

Our first church service was held May 5th and there was a grand turnout. We are happy to have Mr. Dewis Rector from Nova Scotia back with us for the summer. He had a very enlightening sermon taken from the Old Testament. Services will be held as follows: May 12th, 11:30 a.m.; May 19th 7:30 p.m. A morning then an evening service on through the summer.

We were shocked to hear of our nephew and niece's little boy Ronnie Swanson of Kelowna, being run over, crushing his shoulder and hip badly. He is in the Kelowna hospital.

Closing thought: "Success is in the way you walk the paths of life each day; it's in the little things you do and in the things you say. Success is not in getting rich or rising high to fame. It's not alone in winning goals which all men hope to claim."

DERWENT THEATRE

Showing at Derwent theatre on Sat. May 11 and Mon. May 13, "Man from Bitter Ridge" an outdoor drama featuring Lex Barker, Mara Gorday and Stephen McNally; Wed. & Thurs. May 15 and 16 "Man from Laramie", a man-hunt thriller in technicolor. 44

Sat. and Mon. May 11 and 13 "Man from Bitter Ridge" in color. An outdoor drama full of action. 44

WOODVALE

Last Friday Herman Wolters and Harry Portsmith were very unpleasantly surprised when they stepped out of the former's house after lunch to find a grassfire raging in the yard between the buildings. It had been noticed too by several neighbors who arrived almost immediately upon the scene and the thirteen men eventually present managed to keep it under control and finally subdued it without too much damage being done. A can of paint and three tractor tires were destroyed, which is after all, loss enough.

Mrs. Paul Goutier accompanied Camille Goutier and his wife, when they brought Jeanne and Robert back to school in Morinville, and Joseph to St. Joseph's college in Edmonton. They stopped on the way to pick up Peter Goutier at St. Albert, who went along to Morinville for the ride. On the return trip they stopped again at St. Albert and in Edmonton and paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Yvon Benoit near Vegreville.

Work on the land is progressing fast, several farmers have already sown wheat last week and seeding will become general this week.

The dance at the Woodvale hall was fairly well attended and as often is the case with a smaller crowd, everyone had a good time.

Softball was played on Sunday at the schoolgrounds by pick-up teams from Thorncliffe and Woodvale and quite a number of spectators attended this first ball game of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells and children of Paradise Valley recently brought their grandmother Mrs. Jim Rose back home after a visit with them. On their way back they called in at the W. Riley home.

Scouts from Buffalo Coulee Attend Wainwright Course

The first May week end with lovely summer weather and returning green of spring was thoroughly enjoyed by the Boy Scouts of Buffalo Coulee who attended the school of instruction for Scouts held at Camp Wainwright from Friday to Sunday night. Seven boys, namely, Vernon Smith, Ernest Emmott, Colin Kennedy, Keith Marfleet, Donald Strue, Grant Haverslew and Barry Gabrielson with their leaders Hennig Haverslew and George Spak went down after school on Friday.

Scouts were also in attendance from Vermilion, Edgerton, Ribstone and Camp Wainwright. The boys all had a wonderful time of fellowship and fun as well as a lot of good instruction and participation in Scout work, given to them by three Scout leaders from Red Deer.

On Sunday morning the boys paraded to church service at the Anglican church at Camp Wainwright and on their return were served a sumptuous turkey banquet. The boys were high in their praise of accommodation and meals served at the Wainwright camp. They returned home about 6:30 Sunday evening tired but happy.

All the boys from here received good marks on their work and four of the seven were chosen as patrol leaders. This, it would seem, speaks very well for the leaders and the boys, who are a rural group and have only been organized for just over a year.

Carl Heckbert

AS I GO ABOUT THE Constituency I am asked the question: If you are elected what would be your feeling about the agricultural problem in the West?

I may say in reply that if I were not most interested in a great many farmers I would not be a candidate in this election; but it is because I feel that representation on the Government side of the House of Commons is essential to the securing of additional benefits for agriculture that I am standing for election.

I will use every possible effort to further any proposal advanced which is not prejudicial to the best interests of Canada to improve conditions among our farming population. First and foremost I would press for measures which would bring the farmers' income into line with his costs which have risen to an enormous extent in recent years.

Efforts would be put forward to arrange a more effective distribution of shipping facilities and for the placing of more dollars in the hands of the farmers, either through credit advances on grain that cannot be presently marketed our through the provision of adequate storage facilities and the purchase of grain awaiting final disposal.

I would press for a thorough study of marketing and other problems with the submissions of our farm organizations given close attention, it being considered that their intense interest in present day difficulties would be productive of facts on which to base remedies.

Your support before and after election day is solicited for—

CARL HECKBERT
LIBERAL CANDIDATE

Mouse, Freedom Fighter, Battle Disease

A mouse and a "Freedom Fighter" from Hungary form an unusual combination in the team which is battling Muscular Dystrophy. A chance meeting with Dr. Hans Selye (left) of the University of Montreal, brought Dr. Eors Bajusz (seated, with the mouse on his hand) into contact with Arthur Minden, Toronto lawyer and president of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada (third from left) and Dr. David Green, 1st vice-president (right). Last October Dr. Bajusz joined the "Freedom Fighters" in his native Hungary. Before that he had spent two years at the Institute for Muscle Research in Budapest. Escaping to Canada, he is now contributing to the welfare of sufferers in his new home by conducting further research, aided by a grant made by the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The mouse is one of a special strain which has inherited muscular dystrophy through scientific breeding methods.

Canadian softwoods which are plentiful and adaptable to many purposes, are used more than hardwoods. Softwoods are the most important for pulp production and find many uses in the engineering and construction industries.

EXAMINATIONS

Sal, our teenage daughter, looked out at the sunshine and sighed, "Gee, I'll be glad when examinations are over and I can be out all the time."

Her Pop, who had vague memories of making similar complaints in the long ago, responded "Honey, examinations are never over."

I tried, then, to get across to her and to Bill the challenging facts we must all learn.

Life conducts examinations every minute of our lives, and marks our papers with impersonal justice.

When young, we drift through life, unaware of the constant exams and the handing out of marks. But we are being marked, then, as always, with ruthless justice. In later years, child-like still, we sometimes try to forget that we are daily writing our own examination papers. We try, foolishly, to put the blame for results on some unknown "they" or far-off "it" when a low mark comes our way. But deep in our hearts, we all know whether we did our studying the solid, steady way or tried merely to "cram" in the odd moment, or to trust to luck for the answers.

Being afraid to recognize that life is a daily examination is foolish. The fear does us no good, merely makes us poor performers. There is more joy in recognizing that life is a challenging test, and doing our best to get high marks.

And high marks are not, after all, too difficult to win. It takes very little more energy to win than it does to think up alibis for failure.

I'm not sure I put the lesson across. Perhaps it is too much to expect teenagers to understand, when so many of us adults failed to do so.

We've tried to turn over to governments a vast number of matters which should be our own responsibility. We've often traded some of our freedom for what we thought would be more security against the challenge of life. We've asked governments to legislate our morality, develop our culture (as if anyone can do our reading for us!), and spend our money.

But Life, like a firm schoolmaster, will not let us escape in that way. We are marked, in the end, for our own individual performance, for our own mistakes and our own decisions.

But it can be fun, this challenge. When Life writes OK on your examination papers, there's no feeling of joy to match your satisfaction. And since we're all being marked, whether we like it or not, why not roll up our sleeves and try for honors?

Irma Visitors At O.O.R.P. Meeting

MANNVILLE. — The monthly gathering of the O.O.R.P. ladies met in the Elks hall on Monday, April 29th. Five new members were initiated: Mrs. T. Dolinski, Mrs. E. Kreller, Mrs. E. Matney, Mrs. J. Bauer, and Mrs. B. Stephenson. Eight or ten visitors were present from Irma and two from Lloydminster.

District Deputy Supreme Honored Royal Lady Mallet and Honored Royal Lady Prior addressed the meeting. Honored Royal Lady Goshko thanked them for coming and for the many helpful suggestions.

Lunch was then served and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Frayed wiring, defective stoves, untidy attics and basement rubbish invite tragedy," Mr. Bridges said in asking Albertans to exercise the "simple rules of fire safety, particularly in the home."

Funds to pay the universal old age pension are obtained from a two per sales tax, a two per cent personal income tax, plus a two per cent corporation income tax. Cost is now about $9 million a week.

Have you tried the ride that put bumps out of business?

Even if you can only spare a few minutes out of a busy day, take a demonstration ride in a new Plymouth with Torsion-Aire suspension

It's downright wonderful . . . what a difference it makes when you get out of the ordinary and into a new Thrill-Power Plymouth with Torsion-Aire suspension.

Just take a beautiful Plymouth a few miles down one of those old bumpety-bump side roads and you'll see what we mean. It is an entirely new ride experience, because of Plymouth's remarkable Torsion-Aire suspension. It's like coasting along on a thick, velvety carpet.

And your turning and braking feel entirely different, too. For Plymouth's Torsion-Aire suspension keeps it from "heeling over" when you round a corner . . . and keeps the nose of the car from "diving" when you stop.

But why not get the rest of the story while you're flashing along in the lowest, sleekest Plymouth ever built? You'll love it—every bit of it.

Just dial for a demonstration in a new Thrill-Power Plymouth!

How about tomorrow? Phone us, and we'll bring a fresh, frisky new Plymouth to your door. Try its new V-8 or 6 Thrill-Power GO . . . Push-button Torque-Flite automatic drive . . . Total-Contact brakes . . . and all its other exciting advances!

As Mrs. Jean Axley is shipping old woollens, etc., the W.A. will use the donations of Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. McEachern and one day this week the rags will be sorted. At the last meeting it was suggested blankets, tea towelling, pillow cases or print might be obtained.

Alberta To Be Centre of An Extensive Hail Research Program

Alberta is to be the centre of an extensive hail research program this summer. Cooperating in this project will be the Meteorological Division of the Department of Transport, the Stormy Weather Research Group at McGill University, the National Research Council, and the Research Council of Alberta. This summer's project will last about 100 days, commencing June 1. The aim of the project is to learn more about the natural processes by which hail forms: there is at present much uncertainty about these processes, and a great deal of reliable fundamental information is needed. The principal tool of the project is to be a weather radar, especially designed and built for the purpose by Decca Radar (Canada) Ltd., in Toronto. This equipment together with the personnel to maintain it, is being provided by the National Research Council.

The Alberta public will be asked to assist the research by supplying specific information as to hail occurrence throughout a large area of the province, and these reports will be related to the upper level radar weather maps, which will reveal the location of all the storms within a radius of 100 miles, and at heights up to 10 miles.

Scientific director of the project will be R. H. Douglas, of the Meteorological Division. In addition to assigning Mr. Douglas to this work the Meteorological Division will also make available all normal weather observing, forecasting and analyzing facilities. Mr. Douglas conducted a pilot study in Alberta last summer during which the co-operative hail reporting scheme was tested over a four thousand square mile area. He has been assigned by the Meteorological Division, for the past three years, to the Stormy Weather Research Group at McGill University. This group has devised the system of multiple-level radar maps that will be employed this summer in Alberta. They used this system last summer in their own hail research program at Montreal; during that program, 500 reports of hail were received, providing surface data which are now being related in detail to the storm structure as revealed by the radar storm maps.

HOW IT BEGAN—In 1955., the Research Council of Alberta, acting upon advice of an ad hoc committee authorized the information of an Advisory Committee to initiate active studies on the nature and occurrence of hail. For 1956, a modest sum was provided for ancillary expenses and with the co-operation of the Meteorological Division of Department of Transport. A preliminary program was initiated during the summer of 1956, the outcome of which has been the enlarged co-operative program for 1957 described in the foregoing press release.

Remember folks, there will be church at Wildmere church on Sunday, May 12th, Mother's Day, at 7:30 p.m. The student is to arrive today, May 7th.

Sing a Spring Song with Citrus

In the spring a young woman's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of slimming down, doesn't it—in order, of course, to meet the conditions of the original rhyme! Nothing fits this good thought better than salads which furnish plenty of nutrients and few calories.

The grapefruit in season now are so sweet no one will ever miss sugar, and the Valencia oranges which Florida harvests this time of year are easy to section and seedless, so they're ideal for salads. Add cottage cheese, cool cucumber slices, scallions and radishes for color and crunchy eating, and a tangy low-calorie French dressing. Save your grapefruit shells to make pretty little flower holders.

Low-Calorie French Dressing

Blend ½ cup water and 2 teaspoons cornstarch; cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Remove from heat; add ½ cup Florida grapefruit juice, 2 tablespoons salad oil, ¾ teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon each paprika and dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon tabasco and ¼ cup catsup; beat until smooth. Add peeled clove of garlic. Shake before using. YIELD: 1¼ cups.

Prayers were held in the National Hall, Derwent, on Monday evening at 8 oclock with funeral services at St. Josephs Roman Catholic church in Derwent on Tuesday, May 7th. Interment was made in St. Marys Catholic cemetery at Derwent. The Rev. Father S. V. Zenko of Lamont officiated.

Moyers were in charge of the arrangements.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

Saskatoon, Sask.,
April 25th, 1957.

To the Editor,
Vermilion Standard.
Sir:

Some time ago we wrote the press using a pen name. Several publishers replied telling us they only publish correspondence over the name of the writer.

We feel that a truly democratic free press should grant their correspondents the right to use a pen name. This as we see it, is as necessary to our having a free press as the secret ballot is necessary to our democratic elections. In both cases the need for secrecy arises because employers, landlords and others who possess economic power over their fellow men, are in a position to and do exercise influence over the acts and expressed ideas of others! Is our free press progressing to greater freedom? Or are conditions bringing about less freedom of the press?

Roy Reid.
523-Ave. H., Sth.

Vermilion, Alberta,
May 9, 1957.

Editor, Vermilion Standard.
Dear Sir:

May I, through the columns of the Standard, respectfully draw the attention of Vermilion Park authorities to the filthy mess being made by people washing their cars at the north beach of Vermilion Park lake?

I am given to understood by a sign placed at the east entrance to the park that car washing is absolutely prohibited in the lake, so why is this infraction of the law allowed? Have you nobody to check up on such violations? Yours for a little cleanliness.

Nature Lover.

Pays Tribute To Retiring Fire Chief

Office of the Fire Commissioners
Province of Alberta
Edmonton.

Mr. Thos. Wilson,
Secretary,
Town of Vermilion.
Dear Sir:

It is with regret that I learn of the enforced retirement of former Fire Chief Tom Conboy due to ill health. I am sorry to learn of the cause of his retirement and I am sorry to lose a most conscientious and sincere co-worker in the cause of fire prevention.

I have come to know Tom personally because of his position as Chief at Vermilion during the past 11 years. In the administration of the Fire Prevention Act, one fact is always uppermost in my mind; that being the importance of the duties and the responsibilities of the local assistant to the Fire Commissioner, that is the Fire Chief in our towns and villages. There are many cases within my experience where the good work of Chief Conboy has been material to prevention of loss of life and property. There are many other cases where his knowledge, energy and persistence as a Fire Prevention Officer have been valuable in preventing and eliminating hazards that are recognized to be responsible for our serious fire losses elsewhere throughout the province.

My sincere wish is that once released of the official responsibilities as Fire Chief that Tom will begin to enjoy better health and that he should take comfort in the high standard of facilities for protection of property and prevention of fire in the Town of Vermilion with the added satisfaction of knowing that he has been an important part in establishing those conditions.

Yours truly,
A. E. Bridges,
Fire Commissioner.

TOWN OF VERMILION

Any person who is the owner, or claims to be the owner of lands abutting upon the portion of the street or lanes to be closed, may petition to be heard, either by himself, or by his agent.

THOS. WILSON,

Dedication Service Held In Anglican Church, Mannville

MANNVILLE.—A special service of dedication was held at Christ Church, Mannville, on Sunday evening at which time the Rev. C. MacPherson dedicated seven pews and the lights to the glory of God and in loving memory of the following departed parishioners: Mrs. Mary Coulter, John Croft, Burton K. Jones, Mildred Maude Jones, Edward Manz, Ernest A. Mercer, Robert Sutton and Harry Thomas. An inscribed memorial plaque was placed on each pew and a plaque in memory of Mildred Maude Jones was placed on the wall near the light receptacle.

In his sermon, Mr. MacPherson spoke of the appropriateness of memorials of this nature and of how they served a two-fold purpose: they both honoured God and also were a lasting tribute to those who have fought the good fight and finished the course of this life. He spoke on the Resurrection and emphasized that the eternal life of the soul begins in the here and now—it is here that we are shaping our eternal destiny.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks to Dr. Evans, Dr. Stephens and Dr. Miller, also the matron Miss McPhee, and the nursing staff for the kindness given Mrs. Hicks while she was a patient in the hospital, and to Mr. Moyer and Mr. Williams for their prompt and efficient service in transferring her to the hospital. We would also like to thank the many friends for the beautiful flowers, gifts and the cards sent to Mrs. Hicks.

L. B. Hicks and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of David Henry Smith
—who passed away May 11, 1955.

"My Dear, can it be true that two years have passed
Since God called on you.
The call was short, the shock severe
To part with you whom I loved so dear.
The voice I used to hear is still,
The hands I used to touch have disappeared.
Day by day I miss you more
As I walk through life alone.
Your memory is as dear today
As in the hour you went away.
'Tis sweet to know we'll meet again
Where troubles are no more
And that you we loved so well
Have just gone on before."
—Sadly missed by loving wife and family.

Vermilion and Buffalo Coulee Scouts Attend

Scout District Council Holds Bronze Arrowhead Course At Wainwright

A successful Bronze Arrowhead Course was held at Camp Wainwright this last week end. The course was organized by the Battle River District Council, The Boys Scouts Association, and the idea was originally perpetrated by Assistant Scoutmaster Groves, Camp Wainwright Troop. At the last meeting of the District Council, the Assistant District Commissioner, Mr. Harold Harvey, was requested to organize the same, the bulk of the work in this connection therefore falling on his shoulders — result Provincial Headquarters assigned Field Commissioner 'Ric' Clarke of Red Deer district to the task of conducting the Training Course designed to provide training for Patrol Leaders and those aspiring to be patrol leaders in the near future, and, at the same time, give our scouters (who are all fairly new to the job) an outline of this work.

Through the valuable assistance of Col. Gemmell, Camp CAO who is also Hon. President of the District Council it was possible to accommodate approximately 40 Scouters and scouts in Camp Wainwright, which provided an excellent background for the course.

Scouts attended from Vermilion, Buffalo Coulee Chauvin, Edgerton and Camp Wainwright. Scouters present were Mr. Harold Harvey, ADC, Wainwright. Scoutmaster "Bud Leggett, Camp Wainwright Troop. Assistant Scoutmaster Ivan Groves Camp Troop, Doug Perry Scoutmaster, Chauvin: Frank Eteon Assistant Scoutmaster Chauvin, Mel Goode, Cubmaster Chauvin: Jim Saker, Asst. Cubmaster, Chauvin, Henning Haverslew and George Spak, Scoutmasters, Buffalo Coulee: Grant Salmon, Cubmaster, Camp Wainwright Pack: Morris Kimball, Scoutmaster, Edgerton.

The weather co-operating in superb fashion, training was fast and furious, packed with interest for boys and Scouters alike. Ric Clarke was a keen and forceful inspiration, never sparing himself a moment to put the training across, and Doug Jardine and Bill Horne completed an efficient training team who made their influence deeply felt by all involved in the course. Ric conducted the interesting and well-planned program in a way which will not easily be forgotten and it is pleasing to note he will be assigned to this district in the future.

Included amongst the Scouts attending was Troop Leader Bill Skeene, Edgerton, who is to be the District Council representative at the World Jamboree this summer. Also attending was a Queen Scout from Vermilion.

One of the highlights of the week-end was the Camp Fire Ceremony held on the Camp Troop "Camping Site" in a perfect setting Saturday night. ASC Groves acted as Camp Fire Chief. Complete with crescent moon, a frog orchestration from a nearby pond and the honking of wild geese going north in fading sunset, it was unforgettable. Shedding their inexperience in the easy way always possible in the warm brotherly Camp Fire atmosphere, our local Scouters excelled themselves in stories and skits. The singing was hearty, the comradeship close too, as the dying embers of the camp fire flickered and Ric Clarke prepared to close the evening, the Scout Promise echoed across the dark, warm air — clear and definite (thanks to the [illegible] of Cubmaster Salman who [illegible]. It was a night to [illegible] for some time to come.

On Sunday morning, Scouts and Scouters attended morning service, the RC members going with Asst. Scoutmaster Groves to the RC Chapel in Camp and the main body attending with Ric Clarke at St. Pauls Protestant Chapel, Camp Wainwright, where Padre Mercer (himself a member of Camp Scout Group Committee) received the colours of the Camp Wainwright Troop and Pack. After morning service Col. Gemmell, Hon. President of the District Council, and Dr. Don Hauck, President, visited with the Scouts and Scouters. Later in the afternoon Mr. Gordon Ross of Vermilion, District Commissioner, also visited.

The outcome of the Course - 33 boys qualified to wear the Bronze Arrowhead Badge.

This course is typical of what can be arranged in the future (if the ADC and District Council Secretary can bear up) and the next urgent course to be arranged must be a Training week end for our Scouters, who are all comparatively new to the game. Now that the District Council is organized these things must come to pass and we should go on from strength to strength creating a useful and thriving Scout district.

The District Council wish to express sincere thanks to Col. Gemmell, Camp CAO, Major E.C. Cohen, Chairman of the Camp Wainwright Scout Group, Cubmaster Salmon Camp HQ) and all other Camp personnel who rendered such wonderful assistance, without which the Course could not have been the success it undoubtedly was.

4-H CLUB GRADUATES

In a survey among 4-H Clubs in the North Battleford area, Saskatchewan, aimed at locating the present whereabouts of 200 young people who were club members in his vicinity from 1946 to 19550. J F Allan, Agricultural Representative for the district, has come up with some interesting findings

The survey was inspired by the Royal Commission on Agriculture and Rural Life, particularly as it related to the recent report on the movement of farm people away from the farm.

The 4-H Clubs surveyed by Mr. Allan were all located in the area between Highgate and Maymont on the south, and from Spiritwood to Glaslyn on the north and the farming area in between these lines. In the survey the records of 143 young men, and 56 young women were analyzed.

Of the 143 young men 96 of them were farming in their own district, three were farming in other parts of Saskatchewan and one was farming in Manitoba In short, one hundred out of the 143 young men included in the survey were still farming. The remainder were engaged in construction, teaching, accountancy, and military training.

Among the 56 young women included in the survey, twenty-eight were still farming, 22 in their home community, three elsewhere in Saskatchewan and three in Alberta.

Of the balance, nine were married to men working in the smaller cities of Saskatchewan, eight were working in restaurants, four in business, two in nursing, two teaching, and two were in religious training.

A greater proportion of the young women were now married than were the young men.

Plenty of Petals On These Crocuses

Little Miss Shirley Calvert found oddities among the crocus flowers last week end. One she picked had seven petals and another one went considerably better with eleven petals. It must be the fine warm season, certainly a banner year for the crocus as they are blooming by the thousands.

The Vermilion Standard

Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, May 9th, 1957. Page 1 -- Second Section

By Edna M. Craig, District Home Economist

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

This week I have an announcement of interest for you with boys or girls between the ages of 13-18. It concerns the Vermilion Fair Summer Camp.

Fair Camp will be held this year at the School of Agriculture from July 22 to 27. Those who wish to attend are urged to send in applications early as a large attendance is anticipated. Practical courses in household science for the girls and agriculture subjects for the boys are given and entertainment features are being arranged. Those attending are guests of the Fair Board for the three days of the annual exhibition.

Applications will be accepted in the order in which they are received and preference is given to those who have not previously attented.

Applications and further information are available from my office in Wainwright or from Mr. S. C. Heckbert, Secretary Manager, Vermilion Agricultural Society, Vermilion, Alberta.

It is a worthwhile educational and social experience for boys and girls.

WHAT DOES GOOD HANDICRAFT REQUIRE?

The following suggestions for good handicraft comes from Miss Helen Mosson, Clothing Specialist for the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Keep these in mind when working on articles for the local exhibition this year.

Handicraft is an art possessing good taste and good taste is acquired by applying the principles of beauty. It is important that the article serve the purpose for which it is intended. It should be practical and attractive at the same time. The design should be simple and pleasing and conform to the shape of the piece. There is harmony in a good design and much of it depends upon color used with discrimination. Stylized, conventional or geometric designs that fit the shape of the article are best. Naturalistic or pictorial ones should only be used in pictures.

Proportion is worth keeping in mind. Delicate trimmings belong on delicate shapes, and bold trimmings on bold shapes.

$200 Scholarship In Agriculture for Varsity Students

The Alberta Institute of Agrologists have announced that a $200.00 scholarship, for a student entering first year Agriculture, will again be offered in 1957. The scholarship is tenable at the University of Alberta and is made available by the professional agrologists in the province. The award is granted on the basis of scholastic standing. Any high school student may apply and should address his or her application to the Registrar, Alberta Institute of Agrologists, University of Alberta, Edmonton. The Closing date for applications for the scholarship is August 10.

The 1956 winner was Duncan Manuel of Innisfail. Duncan comes from a farm west of Innisfail where his father specializes in Shorthorn cattle. He graduated in grade 12 with the highest average in the school. He has been active in 4-H activities in his community. Duncan has just completed his first course at the University of Alberta.

Farm Tractor Again Enters The Accident Statistics Realm

After being dormant for several months, the farm tractor has again entered the Alberta accident statistics realm.

The resumption of spring work on the farms has again brought warning of the death dealing power of the tractor unless it is safely and carefully operated.

Several deaths already have been reported this year in different parts of the province.

Last year there were 16 deaths caused by tractors in Alberta, compared with 22 the previous year. No doubt the Farm Safety Week proclaimed by the provincial government last year had a beneficial effect in promoting farm safety.

The deaths last year through tractor operations included four children. In addition, there were four deaths from trucks, all the victims being children under 7 years of age.

An analysis of the tractor deaths last year as compiled by the Alberta Safety Council shows four were due to the machine overturning on a highway. Six others were due to the machine side-tipping on a field and one was due to backflipping. There were four deaths in which the victims were run into by tractors and another was due to the tractor being struck by a truck.

Deaths last year from combines numbered three, while 3 others were ascribed to power equipment.

The Alberta Safety Council plans to again stress this year all the factors in safety for tractor operations. It also plans to undertake tractor tipping demonstrations in the Peace River area in extending an intensified safety campaign to that region this summer. Expert operators will show the causes of tractor tipping and how to avoid these hazards.

A Farm Safety Week is being planned during July. In that month, there will also be tractor driving competitions at various fairs and exhibitions, all these efforts on a combined scale are expected to bring about further reductions in tractor mishaps and serious physical injuries to Alberta residents.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

The regular monthly meeting was held in the evening of May 1st at the home of Mrs. R. C. Mead with full attendance and two visitors present. Mrs. G. Dollman and Mrs. A. Mead.

Members answered roll call with "Men in the News".

A general meeting of all the branches is to be held in Vermilion on May 7th at 2 p.m. to hear Miss Lewis from the Extension Department in Edmonton, speak on foods.

Mrs. Ralph Strome was appointed delegate to the May convention. Resolutions to be presented at the convention were read and discussed.

Convener of Citizenship, Mrs. R. C. Mead, gave an interesting talk on "Lost Children of B.C." as appearing in May 11 issue of Maclean's magazine. A short discussion period followed.

For the social part of the program Mrs. Reeves read a letter in the form of a travelogue from Miss Ruth Gray, a former teacher at Campbell Lake school and at present teaching in Germany.

The meeting adjourned with the Mizpah following which Mrs. Scarfe and Mrs. McIntyre served a delicious lunch.

Princess Anne W.I. would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped so willingly all winter to make the card parties the success they were. Many thanks folks and it is hoped to see you all again next season in the very same places!

Surging Campaign in Alberta To Combat Fire Demon On Farms

Through the length and the breadth of Alberta, there is a surging campaign to combat the fire demon on farms. This killer took the lives of 18 persons last year, including five children.

An estimated 30,000 school pupils have been enrolled in the drive to save lives of the farm population and avert accidents.

These youngsters are in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 in rural schools, in addition to others who are taking correspondence school courses or are pupils in Indian residential schools. They have just completed their Farm Fire Safety essays in a competition sponsored for the sixth year by the Alberta Safety Council.

Each teacher is to select the two best essays and forward the essays to the superintendent who in turn sends his selections to the Alberta Safety Council. Final judging will be completed in Edmonton May 22.

For the boy or girl writing the best essay in the school division, county, correspondence school or Indian school, there will be a specially designed lapel pin. The school room will receive a hand-lettered wall plaque.

In addition to the school division prizes, there are three provincial awards. The first prize is $50, second and third prizes $25 dollars each. These winners and their teachers will be given a one-day all expense trip to Edmonton to attend a luncheon on June 17 at the Macdonald hotel when Lieutenant-Governor J. J. Bowlen will present the provincial awards.

Farm fire safety is emphasized in posters distributed to schools in Alberta rural areas. Last year, the farm property loss from fires was estimated at $750,000.

During the last 10 years, 200 residents of Alberta have died in fires while the damage to farm homes, buildings and livestock totalled $4,800,000.

Eight of the most common causes of farm fires are: overheated or defective flues and chimneys, defective and worn heaters, stoves and pipes, electricity overloaded outlets, improper fuses and poor wiring; hot ashes, sparks and open fires, misuse of kerosene and fuel oils, such as when starting fires, spontaneous combustion of hay and lightning striking farm buildings.

HAREUTHERS ADD MODERN FOOD STORE TO MEAT MARKET AND LOCKER PLANT

Open to the general public this week is the greatly enlarged store of the Hareuther family, who have expanded their meat market and frozen food locker business to include a large and convenient food floor.

The new business will be known as "Hareuther's Red & White", and the history of the family undertaking in Vermilion is an interesting one. Even in a town well known for its numerous and successful family projects, the Hareuthers are unique. At the outset the business included the father, the late Mr. P. Hareuther, the mother, three sons and a daughter. On the lamented passing of Mr. Hareuther Senior, soon after the establishment of the business, the proprietorship passed on to the other members of the family who have managed it faithfully and efficiently since.

The Vermilion Food Locker and Meat Market was opened in town on Jan. 2, 1949 bringing to Vermilion and district the first frozen food locker service, as well as an excellent meat market. Three years ago the building was enlarged to handle the growing volume of trade built up by good service and fine products.

Now, to meet the trend of the times, another change has been made and a large and important service added to those already given by Hareuthers. An ultra-modern food floor, commodious and convenient, is the result. Besides fresh meats, and frozen foods, a complete line of groceries, canned goods, fresh fruits and bakery products are now available.

Thus Hareuther's Red & White now provides a complete food service, a roomy and attractive store and a cheery efficient staff who are anxious to serve everyone to his or her entire satisfaction.

OPEN HOUSE HELD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, EVENING

Mrs. Hareuther Sr. and the family were hosts Wednesday afternoon and evening when open house was held in order that all might see the new store. Refreshments were served and the food floor duly admired. On Thursday the new department was opened with many specials, free flowers for the ladies, gifts for the kiddies and valuable prizes on the hour to the customers.

WIN PROFICIENCY AWARDS

The high standards set by Hareuthers in operating their meat market and locker service has been duly recognized and for the past three years they have received Proficiency Certificates from the Dairy Branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

WILDMERE WINKS

Here is an item we missed. In April a joint meeting of the Auburndale and Wildmere church boards was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Seale of Battleview. Auburndale boards comprise B. Seale as President, Mrs. Wear secretary-treasurer, Ted Marfleet, John Green, Alf Green, Geo. Symes and Alex Stone who was absent through illness. Wildmere — A. Holte is President, Mrs. J. Wallington secretary-treasurer and Frank Gibson. Frank was unable to attend that evening. It was a pleasant meeting and now Wildmere board knows better where it stands financially and just what our responsibilities are. A delicious lunch and chat over tea cups brought the evening to a close.

Remember folks, there will be church at Wildmere church on Sunday, May 12th, Mother's Day, at 7:30 p.m. The student is to arrive today, May 7th.

On Saturday evening Little Fay Luchyk sang at the Quota quest for talent, "Cinco Robles", accompanied by Mrs. B. Rogan. We listened to the re-broadcast on Sunday afternoon and both Fay and Mrs. Rogan were grand. Keep up the good work and may you win one of the awards Fay.

Ball games are going again as Wildmere won the first game on Sunday from the Woodvale boys. A second pick-up game was also played. Both the games took place at the Woodvale school grounds.

Several from our corner attended the dance at Woodvale on Friday evening where Fortier and Young furnished the music with Danny Watt as M.C. A very nice crowd turned out even though it is a busy season.

We are sorry to hear Herman Wolters of Tolland had the misfortune to lose by fire three tractor tires, besides feed stacks near by where the tractor was sitting.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers and family and Bill and Adam Smith were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood. The occasion was a birthday supper for Mrs. Gibson who had a birthday May 1 and Mrs. Cruthers on May 7th. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. We wish them many more happy birthdays.

It is nice to see the fine grocery addition to Hareuthers. It certainly presents a bright cheery atmosphere.

All you business men please do not forget that the country folk would appreciate a rest room on the street level. A town as prosperous as Vermilion surely can arrange to provide for that much needed convenience.

Annie at Islay — Sorry, that corn 'Spancross' is a McKenzie seed product, not Pikes as I told you.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nelson on the birth of a son; also to Mr. and Mrs. W. Wells, a daughter.

Sorry to hear Mrs. B. Newman of Battleview has been in hospital. Speedy recovery Elsie. Hope Mrs. J. Thompson Sr., Mrs. F. Eyben and others are feeling better soon. Glad to see Mrs. B. Gouldin town again on Saturday.

Wildwood East

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hilts and family visited the Drysdales here on their return from visiting at the coast all winter.

The Misses Eileen and Doris Jack spent their holidays under the parental roof.

Walter Barton is helping G.D. Jack with spring work.

Mrs. Jack Wyley entertained the ladies on Thursday afternoon. While there they tied two quilts. The members voted to donate all the money in their strong box to the Cancer fund.

Some of our residents are still tormented by the mumps.

Charles Barton from Ardmore and Wainwright is helping E. Jack with spring work.

The farmers are inviting all the ladies of the district to be present at their next F.U.A. meeting to help complete plans for their picnic on Farmers' day June 14th.

Mr. J. A. Smith, M.P., will speak in the Wildwood hall Friday May 10th at 8:30 p.m. — come one, come all!

Baby Boom

Baby carriages block the sidewalks in Montreal, according to a recent visitor to that city. Other communities may not be quite as congested but all of them report plenty of brand new Canadians, says The Financial Post.

In the first few years of the war, births started to jump, with over 250,000 in 1940 and almost 300,000 in 1945. And since the war we have been doing still better with over 477,000 or almost half a million babies born in Canada last year.

It is this rapidly expanding birth rate which is the main reason for Canada's recent spectacular growth and the main hope for its continuing. Immigration has helped, but the biggest gain by far in population will come from our new production.

Canadian softwoods, which are plentiful and adaptable to many purposes, are used more than hardwoods. Softwoods are the most important for pulp production and find many uses in the engineering and constructio industries.

Liberals Launch Attack On Social Credit Stronghold

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — The Liberal party flexed its muscles in Alberta last week and launched its major assault on this stronghold of Social Credit.

Its weapon was Rt. Hon. L. St. Laurent who appeared in Edmonton and Calgary to speak on behalf of Liberal candidates seeking House of Commons seats in the June 10th federal election.

'Uncle Louis' appeared to be in top fighting trim when he arrived in Edmonton last week to give the keynote speech opening the party's campaign in western Canada

According to press reports from the east the prime minister is setting himself a leisurely pace as he campaigns across the country He visited nearby St. Albert and toured a veteran's hospital in the city as well as addressing a rally attended by nearly 2000 persons who gave an enthusiastic reception.

He didn't discuss Social Credit Credit financial policies, including the payment of dividends, but pointed out that there is no way by which government's can produce money out of thin air. He defended the Liberal government's welfare program but emphasized that welfare payments aren't made possible by some magic formula.

He confined himself mainly to outlining the Liberal government's program and pointing to its 'accomplishments'. He also stressed national unity, and said his party is striving for a united Canada. He hit at those who claim it is time for a change by speaking of the prosperity Canada has enjoyed and telling his audience it is unwise to abandon a winning combination.

Mr. St. Laurent also told Albertans in an indirect sort of way that they will have more voice in government if they elect Liberal candidates who would help shape policy by sitting in on the Liberal caucus.

In Calgary he went a 'bit farther', and argued that since it seemed likely the Liberals will be returned to power, it would be 'regrettable' to see Alberta's members sitting off in a distant corner of the Commons with a third or fourth party.

There were outbursts of heckling in Edmonton and Calgary, but in both cases the hecklers were drowned out by noise from the crowd. However, in Edmonton, the PM upbraided a heckler who repeatedly asked what the government is doing for the Indians.

Prime Minister St. Laurent came to Alberta on the heels of Solon E. Low, national leader of the Social Credit party, who appeared a week earlier. The province has still to hear from John Diefenbaker, leader of the Progressive - Conservatives, but he'll be here shortly to give his side of the argument.

SOCIAL CREDIT HOLDS EDGE

So far, however, there appears to be no single burning election issue in Alberta, and the pattern is likely to be the same as in other elections, with Social Credit holding the edge, followed by Liberals and Progressive-Conservatives.

PREPARE FOR FISHING SEASON IN ALBERTA

Spring has officially arrived in Alberta, and the fishing season isn't far behind.

In preparation for said fishing season, the government fisheries branch has started the annual stocking of trout in Alberta's small prairie lakes. There are approximately sixty stocked lakes in the province and biological surveys are still in progress to ascertain the extent of winter kill and to determine whether restocking is necessary.

ALBERTA PROGRAM [illegible]

The Alberta trout planting program is a revolutionary one which has excited interest all over the continent. Biologists have discovered that an abundance of food in small prairie lakes promotes fantastic growth in fish.

Trout planted as yearlings and fingerlings in the spring reach fighting size by fall, and by the following year are as big as three pounds. The only trouble is that sometimes they winter-kill through depletion of oxygen in the water, and new plantings are necessary.

The C.C.F. says:

The C.C.F. believes it is time that Canada took as good a care of the farmers as it does of bankers, manufacturers and pipe-lin builders. In 1946 farmers' real incomes were higher than now. Why? Well, the profits taken out of farmers' earnings are very much higher today than they were in 1946. Canada's gross income was 18 million dollars higher in 1956 than in 1946. The farmers' share in this prosperity is 45% less than it was in 1951. Farmers—20% of the population—get 7% of the national income.

Every vote for the Liberals says "We farmers want to keep getting less and less!" A Conservative or S. C. vote says, "We can still be fooled into thinking we can get more by switching from Tweedle-dee to Tweedle-dum." ONLY the C.C.F. HAS A FARM PROGRAM DRAFTED BY FARMERS, FOR PARITY.

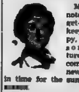
Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



Motorists are notoriously gadget-minded. To keep them happy, the accessory manufacturers have come up with new items just in time for the summer touring season.

The adjustable comfort cushion, for driver or passenger, is designed to help you relax more on a trip. It's made of shredded latex foam rubber, is scientifically shaped. Slip it behind your back and drive in complete comfort for hours. If you're a passenger, put it behind your neck, lean back, and take a nap in ease.

Come beach-time, you may welcome absorbent terry cloth seat covers. they're wonderful protection for your car upholstery against damp swim suits, sandy children or Rover's paws. If you are planning a trip (and who isn't these days), the map-measure compass can be a big help. Just roll the tiny wheel of this watch-sized gauge over the map route you're taking and it automatically dials the exact milage.

Since I travel over thousands of miles each year researching to make car travel easier for the woman and her family, I naturally have a few gadget "pets" of my own. One of them is a clothes brush that's washable and made of foam rubber. For freshening up on the road, I'm especially fond of a disposable wash cloth that serves a double purpose. After you wash your hands with it, it quickly dries and can be used as a towel.

These are but a few of the many travel accessories on the market. They're all designed to make your motoring comfortable and more convenient.

Letters to the Editor

The Standard does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion Alberta.
Dear Sir:

In a recent issue you published an article entitled "Pro[illegible] teachers' salaries cause concern to Council, and School Board".

The teachers of the Vermilion School Division feel that they have made legitimate demands for increases in salary and that the article does not express the opion of all the ratepayers as it purported to do.

In defence of the teachers' position we submit a copy of the letter written by a teacher in support of the Edmonton teachers' salary brief. It expresses so well "The case for the increase" that we secured permission to publish it, in the hope that the ratepayers of M.D. of Vermilion River No. 71 might not view our demands in such an unfavorable light.

We hope that you may find room in your columns to present this, our side of the question.

Very truly yours,
Salary Committee,
Vermilion Local A.T.A.

The Case for the Increase

We are all more or less familiar with the industrial development in our province and in our city, and particularly with the three oil refineries on the eastern outskirts. In these three refineries some 800-1000 workers earn their living, and render a real service to their community by producing essential commodities, and at the same time they make a fair margin of profit for their employers. These workers process raw material, a natural resource, into usable products.

I, too, work in a refinery — at Kingsway and 101 Street — Victoria Composite High School — and I have 1180 colleagues working in the various schools of the Edmonton system. We do not process a natural resource which is infinitely more valuable. Our product is not directly marketable, nor is it consumable. It must be absorbed into our society. We aid that absorption by helping to integrate useful, skilled, socially-acceptable young people into our society. You will agree, I am sure, that we too are performing an essential service for the community—our employers.

Perhaps this comparison has been sufficiently prolonged. This is about as far as it can be stretched anyway because now I wish to mention qualifications and salaries — and there is no longer any comparison.

The first group of refinery workers, processing a natural resource by mechanical means, earning while learning, enjoy a much higher reward from the society they serve than do my colleagues who have chosen to serve society as teachers. The lowest paid employee in one of the major oil refineries is a young man aged 19 or 20, with a Grade IX education, who drives a small pick-up truck used to get the mail and run errands. He works a 40-hour week at $1.63 per hour which is (40x1.63x52) $3390 per year plus fringe benefits which his company estimates at 35c per hour per employee The beginning teacher with one year of training began work for Edmonton Public School Board last September at $2325 per year - $1065 less than the truck driver.

The training rate for "process men" in the refineries averages $1.80 per hour for a 42-hour week which is (42x1.80x52) $3931 per year. They are required to have grade XI education. This salary of $3931 is exactly $306 more than the salary paid by the E.P.S.B. to a beginning teacher holding a Master's degree. It is approximately equal to the salary attained by an Edmonton teacher holding a Bachelor's degree in his sixth year of teaching! And the $3931 salary is the training rate! In time, depending upon plant expansion, moves, retirements, etc. they work up to a salary of $5624 plus overtime, premium pay, etc. and of course all fringe benefits — a present, practical maximum of $6388.

Just before Christmas the personnel manager of one of the refineries phoned my principal and me to ask if we could recommend a boy with Senior Matriculation to start in the laboratory at $310 per month — $3720 per year—plus all fringe benefits with a raise in six months, and thereafter to be fitted into the company's salary structure at $3720 per year! The beginning teacher with a Master's degree began with E. P.S.B. last September at $3625 - $95 less than a Sr. Matric is worth to an oil refinery—yet with approximately the same work week and with maximum salaries that are not far apart

The apprentice printer is required to have a Grade X education. In the course of a 7-year apprenticeship, during which he earns as he learns, he becomes a journeyman printer at roughly $4150 per year approximately $650 higher than the average salary paid to Edmonton teachers last year.

The Edmonton Journal of Jan 29, 1957, informed us that the new basic rate for E.T.S. drivers, on the basis of a 40-hour week would be $3692 in 1957 and $3962 in 1958. Those figures, too, compare very favorably with average salaries paid to teachers.

Why do we do it — we refinery workers in the Edmonton schools? We do it because we believe that there is no more important job of work to be done anywhere than the education of our youth. We do it because we know our present technological development and our high standard of living is the result of education applied to natural resources. We do it because we think it imperative that the heritage of the past be transmitted to the future. We do it because of the challenge of the work and because we prefer to work with people rather than with senseless matter and inanimate machines.

The members of the School Board have the teachers' brief before them. In the near future we shall be bargaining across the table, but you are faced with a problem far more fundamental than salary negotiations between teachers and school board. Our bargaining is but one small phase of a much larger problem. You as a school board — the agents of the community are competing with industry for the services of highly-trained personnel. And you are losing! Edmonton and Calgary together require more teachers this year than are presently enrolled in the Faculty of Education. And out of 427 students who graduated from three of your city high schools only sixteen entered the Faculty of Education.

The value of a generous salary scheme lies in its long term effect. We want career teachers, people who are dedicated to their work and who will remain in the employment of the Board for up to forty years.

If teaching is to compete with other occupations, the rewards must be equal to those offered elsewhere. Only in this way can we attract people of ability to the most important service of all.

You require a goodly number of teachers this year as replacements and for newly completed classrooms. We hope, in all sincerity, that you get them. We cannot — as professional men and women — hope that such a vital service as ours might be denied to the youth of the land. Bit you know, and we know, that in getting them you are denying these services to some other area that neds them as badly as Edmonton. There is a very definite teacher shortage, but only in the classrooms, not in the province nor in the country. And surely the figures I quoted earlier explain that shortage. We believe the case for the increase to be sound and well-justified. Can you, in all honesty, equate the Chauffeur's license with the Master's Degree? What do you want for the children of Edmonton — better gasoline?"

Camp Leaders' Conference At Red Deer in May

An Alberta Camp Leaders Conference, open to all who will be active in any phase of camp work, is being held at the Red Deer Composite High School May 25 and 26. The Conference arranged by Community Recreation Bureau of the Provincial Department of Economic Affairs in co-operation with the Alberta Camping Association, is open to all persons over 17 years of age, who are concerned with camping.

The camp will include in its program instructions on outtripping, Indian and nature lore, workshops on camp standards, camp worship services, films, and other matters of interest to camp leaders. A fee of three dollars covers cost of the course including room and board.

Applications must be in by May 10, to Community Recreation Bureau, Room 425, Legislation Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

Super Continental Begins Third Year Of Operation

Winnipeg—Canadian National Railways sleek Super Continental marked its second birthday in trans-continental passenger service on April 24.

Two years ago the new diesel drawn train covered the 2,985 miles from Montreal to Vancouver in 73 hours and 20 minutes. Now its running time to the West Coast has been cut to 70 hours and 50 minutes.

Eight complete sets of locomotives and cars which are required to provide the Super Continental service, have covered a total of two million miles in the last two years.

"The National Policy," approved by Canadian voters in the election of 1878 and continuously followed since, is the policy of placing a tax or tariff on imports for the purpose of building industry in this country. Originally, import duties were used mainly to raise revenue.

Child Safety Campaign Opened Sunday, May 5th

A Child Safety Program sponsored by the Alberta Department of Public Health opened on May 5th as announced by the Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, Minister of Public Health. Purpose of the campaign Dr. Cross stated, is to stimulate individual and community action to reduce the number of Alberta children killed and injured by preventable accidents.

The program is being organized by the Health Education Services of the Department of Public Health in co-operation with the civic health departments and health units of the province. Co-operating in the drive are nearly 200 Home and School Associations in various communities, the Boy Scouts Association of Alberta and the Girl Guides Association of Alberta.

Last year 132 Alberta children under the age of 14 years were killed in accidents according to the preliminary report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics. A study of the coroner's reports and police reports on these accidents reveals that 76% of them could have been prevented by reasonable forethought and care of adults. In addition it has been estimated that 5800 children received injuries needing medical attention during the year.

A breakdown of the 132 child accident fatalities reported by the Bureau of Vital Statistics shows that motor vehicle and farm tractor accidents took the lives of 44 children; drowning claimed the lives of 32, asphyxia, 20; fires, explosions and scaldings, 14, gunshot wounds, 9, mechanical accidents, 4, and others, 9. 56 per cent of those killed were four years old or younger and 84 per cent were nine years old or younger.

More children are killed by accidents than any other single cause the Hon. Dr Cross pointed out. This makes accident prevention a challenge to public health.

Some rivers that rise in the province of Alberta flow south to the Gulf of Mexico, others flow north to the Arctic Ocean.

Health Unit Notes

WELL BABY CLINICS

The Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit holds Well Baby Clinics at monthly intervals in eighteen places in the Unit area and at weekly intervals in Wainwright and Vermilion. The purpose of these clinics is:

1. To weigh babies and give advice on infant feeding and general care. Babies are weighed at each attendance and the weight is recorded on a card which is kept by the mother and also on the "Infant Health Card" which is retained by the Unit. In this way it can be easily seen whether or not a baby is gaining weight at a satisfactory rate. If necessary, children are referred to their family doctor.

2. To immunize and vaccinate babies at as early an age as possible. It is advisable to start immunizing a child against diptheria, whooping cough, and tetanus at four months, as these diseases particularly whooping cough are most dangerous during the first year of life. It is not generally appreciated that whooping cough is high on the list of causes of death in infants under one year old. During recent years there have been few cases of diptheria and this is due to the extensive immunization program that has been carried out. If immunity is not kept at a high level in the majority of children, there is always the possibility of diptheria breaking out in epidemic proportions. The danger of contracting tetanus through an open wound is always higher in rural areas.

The course of inoculations consists of three injections at monthly intervals and a fourth injection after four months. Booster shots are given one year after this and then at two yearly intervals until the child starts school. The injections are practically painless and most children have little or no reaction after them.

If vaccination against smallpox is done early in infancy, there is very much less reaction than in later life. Also if an adult has to be vaccinated there is less reaction if he or she has been done when a child. The best time for smallpox vaccination is just before the course of diptheria, whooping cough and tetanus or after the first three injections.

Every inoculation and vaccination is marked on the card kept by the parents. This means that if people move to a different district, the local health authority there can see at a glance what inoculations have been done and can give booster shots when they are due. This information is also kept on the infant health card; when the child goes to school, all information regarding immunization is transferred to the School Health Card and the booster shots are given where necessary.

Two Million Copies Holy Scriptures Distributed In Canada by Gideons

Two million copies of the Holy Scriptures have been distributed in Canada by the Gideons since 1911.

The 2,000,000th copy—a Bible specially bound in gold finished leather—was dedicated on April 13 at the King Edward-Sheraton Hotel, Toronto. It was presented to Manager A. Gordon Cardy by Alberta Stedelbauer, President of the Gideons International in Canada and it is interesting to recall that in 1911 the King Edward was the first Canadian hotel to receive Bibles for its guest rooms from the Gideons. One of these original copies will be on display during this ceremony and it has an interesting story. It was returned to Canadian headquarters in 1951, together with $2, by a lady in South Carolina, who confessed that when she and her husband were in Toronto on their honeymoon and staying at this fine old hostelry, they had taken it with them—in 1911. So it came back, after 40 years.

Indicative of the rapid growth of Scripture distribution by this body of Christian laymen, the first millionth milestone in distribution was passed in 1952 (41 years after organization in Canada) at Victoria Hospital, London, Ontario—in which institution the Hospital program of The Gideons had its beginning in 1920. Whereas this second millionth copy of the scriptures (Bibles and New Testaments) has been placed only six years later.

The presentation at King Edward-Sheraton also marked the annual Spring Fellowship Dinner of Toronto Camp of Gideons and coincided with a Zone Rally of the Brampton, Oakville-Milton, Toronto, Toronto West and York County Camps.

Who are the Gideons? An association of Christian business men, interdenominational in character and international in scope, whose aim is to win others to Christ as Saviour and Lord, by example and personal witness, and who have adopted an ambitious program of Scripture distribution as a means to that end—in hotels, schools, hospitals, penal institutions and other places where the travelling public will be challenged by the message of the Bible. A new program was launched last month in making Bibles available for the campus dormitory rooms of university and college students.

First organized in 1899 in U.S.A. the movement has now spread to 26 countries and has a total membership of over [illegible]. Of these 1,717 are in Canada organized in 121 camps from coast to coast. Assisting them in many ways are 697 members of Ladies Auxiliaries, organized in 68 groups.

Although over [illegible] Bibles have been placed in hotel guest rooms in all Canada's ten provinces, this figure is dwarfed by distribution of New Testaments now totalling 1,213,348 mainly among Grade five pupils of our public schools, each one the personal property of the recipient. In addition, over 300,000 Bibles have been presented to Canadian Schools for use in classrooms.

Throughout the world Scripture distribution by the Gideons International totalled 34,345,072 Bibles and New Testament at the end of 1956.

What are the results? Does it pay? A steady flow of letters come to head office, from persons of almost every age, in all sorts of circumstances, telling of blessing received, of lives changed. Every issue of the national magazine "The Canadian Gideon" features extracts from recent letters. Picked at random, because it concerns the King Edward-Sheraton Hotel here are brief extracts from a letter received in 1952 and which may well refer to one of the original Bibles placed in 1911:

"The eldest of eight children, my father grew up with little time or thought for God. In early manhood he drifted to Toronto. One night he entered the King Edward Hotel and picked up a Bible that had been there for such men as he. Carelessly he threw open the cover and his eyes fell on Isaiah 57 20-21. 'But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.'

Though my father was a sinful man, he was honest, and realized that the pleasures of sin enjoyed with worldly companions had failed to bring peace to his heart. The Word of God had fallen as seed in good soil and soon brought forth fruit in a life genuinely surrendered to the Lord. With the joy of salvation in his heart, my father returned west to witness to the unconverted members of his family, and in a few months had the joy of seeing each one accept Christ. Later three of his brothers entered the Christian ministry. As I write these lines, my father, at the age of 71, is pastoring a church. My sister is active in Christian work. My younger brother is an evangelist and I am now in my 16th year in evangelistic work. It is not unnatural that I should want to thank you The Gideons, for that Bible which reached my father and resulted indirectly in countless conversions. God bless you."

The local Vermilion-Lloydminster Camp with members in Vermilion, Lloydminster, Marwayne, Mannville and Glendon have been able to place several thousands of copies of the Bible and The New Testament in Hotels, schools, jails, hospitals. New Testaments have been presented personally to children in schools of Vermilion School Division and the Lloydminster Inspectorate. This year the local men have taken the additional responsibility of making these presentations in the School Divisions of Wainwright, Vegreville and Two Hills.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE Federal Constituency OF Battle River-Camrose

Regardless of what happens in the election on June 10th, the Liberal party will have almost absolute control of one house of our Parliament.

Either Liberal or Conservative victory in the House of Commons will find the Liberals with a very tight grip upon affairs in Parliament. Depending on what happens in the election of Commons members, this control will vary from ability to cause deadlock to virtual one-party government.

This is true because Canada's senators are appointed by the prime minister. Accordingly, the Liberal group in the Senate has grown steadily since 1935, until today there is an overwhelming majority of Liberals in the Senate. Liberal control of the Senate was illustrated nicely in 1956 when that body required only one day to pass the contentious pipeline bill which had [illegible] days of vigorous debate in the House of Commons.

Regardless of what happens on June 10th this part of Alberta will have representation in the Liberal party in Ottawa. One of the six senators for Alberta lives in this constituency and has been long connected with the work of the Liberal party in this province. This is true in spite of the fact that this part of Alberta has not elected a Liberal Commons member for years. It is not necessary to elect a Liberal to the House of Commons in order to have a voice in Liberal party caucuses. We are already guaranteed a voice in the person of an appointed Liberal senator.

The Social Credit party has been in existence for many years in Alberta, and now forms the government in two provinces. No Social Credit senator has ever debated in the Senate. The C.C.F. party has elected members at one time or another from nearly every part of Canada, and now forms the government in Saskatchewan. No C.C.F. senator has ever debated in the Senate.

Conservatives cannot agree with many ideas held by these two parties. Nevertheless, we feel that it is neither democratic, fair nor wise to deny these parties Senate representation.

Conservatives believe that the Senate has an important part to play in our parliamentary system and that its importance will grow as the nation matures. Conservatives are pledged to reform the Senate, as a resolution to this effect was passed at the same national convention which elected John Diefenbaker as party leader.

You can give John Diefenbaker your support on June 10th by voting for Cliff Smallwood, your Progressive-Conservative candidate.

(Inserted by the Battle River-Camrose Progressive - Conservative Association)

C.G.I.T. Held Graduation Service At First United Church

A graduation of any kind is an exciting experience — the reason being that it gives a sense of achievement. Graduation means success — but to be successful there are certain requirements that must be fulfilled. All this is true of the C.G.I.T. and on Sunday evening at a beautiful and inspiring service, conducted in its entirety by members of the C.G.I.T., three members graduated, Donna Cooper, Marjorie Waldenberger and Margaret Goodwin. A fourth member, Florence Rooks, who is now a nurses' aide, graduated in absentia.

The service commenced with the C.G.I.T. and their leaders entering from the back of the church singing as a Processional the grand hymn, "Oh Jesus, I Have Promised". All took their places in the choir loft.

Conducting the service was Margaret Goodwin the Departmental President. Norma Harle read the scripture and led in the evening prayer. The C. G. I. T. then sang the anthem "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?". The organist for the evening was Mrs. James A. Smith, one of the group leaders.

Miss Sue Carmichael, herself a graduate two years ago, and at present Departmental Superintendent of C.G.I.T. at Vegreville, gave the address.

Doreen Hicks voiced a lovely tribute to "Mother", in keeping with Mother's Day.

The actual graduation ceremonies were commenced when Marie Tovell wished the graduates every success in the future. She spoke of the contribution that Donna, Marjorie, Margaret and Florence had made to C.G.I.T. and to the church.

Each of the graduates present responded by telling just what their years in the C.G.I.T. had meant to them. Donna and Marjorie ended their remarks with fitting poems, and Margaret by singing a hymn, "I Would Be True".

Mrs. E. M. Stewart, Departmental leader of the Vermilion C.G.I.T., addressed the graduates and presented each with a diploma and a beautiful red rose.

One of the several interesting features of the service was the attendance of former graduates Anne Stewart, Hazel Barr and Joyce Armstrong who acted as ushers, and took the offerings.

The pleasing service attracted a congregation which nicely filled the church.

At the conclusion the graduates were congratulated by the C.G.I.T. leaders and church representatives.

Former Vermilion Lady Dies, Seattle

Mrs. Pearl Wener, aged 81 years, widow of the late Mr. Moses Wener, died in Seattle on April 25th. Mr. Moses Wener commenced business in Vermilion in 1910 and retired in 1932 at which time he and Mrs. Wener moved to Seattle.

Predeceased by her husband some eleven years ago, Mrs. Wener is survived by four sons, Myer at Los Angeles, Harry at Winnipeg, Sam at Seattle, Jacob in Edmonton, and one daughter Dorothy in Seattle. There are five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Rod McDonald, of Clandonald, Severely Burned In Explosion

Rod McDonald, an 18-year-old mechanic of the Imperial garage at Clandonald, was rushed to hospital in Vermilion on Wednesday afternoon suffering severe burns to his face, head, shoulders, arms, hands and even to his knees, sustained in an explosion and fire caused by a trouble lamp breaking.

It appears that Rod was working in a pit under a car in the Imperial garage and in some manner broke the bulb in his trouble light. This set off an explosion of gas which had accumulated in the pit, followed by a fire.

Although he was alone at the time McDonald managed to get out of the pit which had become in a flash, a roaring inferno of flame. He rushed out of the garage with clothes blazing.

Fortunately, Constable Jim Ferguson of the Provincial Highway control squad, was just outside the garage at that moment. He administered first aid, having a well stocked kit in his car, and is also well versed in the art of using it. He then rushed the young man to the Vermilion hospital for medical care, Arnold Olson and Rev. Brian Brown accompanying him on the trip, caring for young McDonald on the way in. The 22 mile trip in the emergency was made in 17 minutes.

It was found that the injured man was suffering third degree burns to his face and head, and second degree burns to hands, shoulders and arms. In the opinion of rde tsthoco irsbp at opinion of the doctors the patient had received excellent first aid and this together with the fact that he was brought to medical care so quickly, resulted in his condition being much more favorable than is usually the case with such severe burns. On Thursday McDonald was stated to be out of danger.

In the meanwhile volunteer fighters had confined the fire to the pit in the garage, using water and fire extinguishers.

In the meantime these air cadets are to be highly congratulated in being awarded these much sought for scholarships, with the officers in charge of the Vermilion Squadron No. 97, Mr. Stan Masyluk, Mr. Bert Moore coming in for much reflected glory.

They will present a sixteen item program which will include folk songs, spirituals and songs from some of the well known musicals.

The choir is under the direction of Jack Brown and consists of girls ranging in age from 11 to 15 years. Watch the Standard for further particulars of this fine musical evening.

T. B. Testing To Start Soon In Vermilion River M. D.

The Federal Department of Agriculture, Health of Animals Division, have veterinarians conducting tuberculin testing in Eagle M.D. 81 and within a week or so will commence testing in Vermilion River M.D. 71.

This work should progress favorably, but in some localities there may be a misunderstanding as to the requirements. Tuberculin testing is undertaken under Part X of the Animal Contagious Diseases Regulations established by Order in Council P.C. 5369 of Oct. 25, 1949, which requires that all cattle in the area must be submitted to a tuberculin test when and at the time requested by the Veterinarians conducting the test. If reactors to the test are uncovered compensation is paid to the herd owner on a standardized basis. Test is compulsory, but free, and failure on the part of any stock owner to comply with this order is subjected to prosecution under the Animal Contagious Diseases Act. All herd owners are notified in advance of the test which should give sufficient time to have cattle assembled properly tied or confined in a chute, at the time specified by the Veterinarian.

This is urgent work and in the national interest. It is hoped that the response will be such that prosecutions under the Act will not be necessary.

The full co-operation of all cattle owners is requested, and if the response is the same as has been received in other municipalities, the work will progress rapidly.

Copies of area regulations are distributed to every owner, read these and study them. Additional copies may be obtained at the Municipal office or Dr. E. J. Young, Veterinarian in charge Vermilion Subdistrict.

Opening Stock Car Races At Lloyd. Monday, May 20

Stock car enthusiasts from this part of Alberta and Saskatchewan will be converging on Lloydminster on Victoria Day, Monday, May 20th.

Opening races of the season are being held at the Lloydminster Exhibition Grounds commencing at 2:00 p.m. There are seven races scheduled including an Australian Tag Match which is something a little different.

To date there are cars entered from Edmonton, Battleford, Vermilion and Lloydminster. Of special interest to local followers are the entries of "The Earl of Pollard" who cut quite a swath last year and of Gordon "Slim" Allan who has emerged from "The Earl's" mechanic pit to try his hand at this fast growing sport.

Engineer Inspects Highway 41

Following representations made to the Minister of Highways last Friday the Vermilion Social Credit group received word Monday that an engineer would immediately make a survey of Highway 41 and recommend the work required to bring the highway up to standard. Frost boils this spring have made the road impassable in spots.

Citizens Urged To Co-operate In Town-Wide Clean-Up Wednesday

Preparations are well under way for a town-wide clean-up with pick-up day set for Wednesday May 22. On this day a fleet of trucks will converge on every part of town and cart away the garbage. All garbage meanwhile should be piled at the rear of each person's property in easy access of the lane so that no time may be lost by the pick-up men on their rounds.

Each and every householder and business proprietor is expected to clean up every bit of debris around their premises and have it piled for the pick up on May 22. Clean-up is more important than ever this year as the "Battle of the Rats" is on. In order to remain rat free the Town of Vermilion must offer them no harborage, no place to hide up and no garbage for food.

The clean-up is organized by the civic committee of the Vermilion Board of Trade headed by E. Clendenning with Tom Watts and Leo McKernan as members, and carried out in co-operation with the town council.

Officers from Boards of Trade from all points in this section of Alberta, together with officials of the Vermilion River and Minburn municipal districts, gathered at the annual spring-time banquet sponsored by the Vermilion Board of Trade, on Monday evening.

The program, highlighted by a most extraordinary and absorbing address by Professor B. A. Lindberg, Faculty of Commerce, University of Alberta, also provided an excellent opportunity to meet the visitors and for the guests to become acquainted with each other. It was surprising to note that many of the representatives even from such neighboring towns as Dewberry and Marwayne, Elk Point and Derwent had not met before and were ever so pleased to have the opportunity to become acquainted.

The Spring Time banquet, an annual event, was held in the Anglican Parish Hall. Catering was by the Happy Hour group of St. Saviours W.A. who served one of the excellent dinners for which they have become so well known. There were 111 present at the enjoyable affair.

Israel Miller, President of the Board was Toastmaster and introduced those at the head table and many of the out-of-town guests. He then called upon Mr. E. M. Stewart to introduce the guest speaker, Prof. Lindberg. Born in Oslo, Norway, Professor Lindberg came to Harvard University and in 1954 was brought to the Faculty of Commerce, University of Alberta.

The address fully lived up to the topic Professor Lindberg had chosen, "Something to think about". He commenced his talk by saying how fortunate we are in Alberta, how many things we have for which to be thankful. He developed his theme bringing in uranium and nuclear energy, and stated that the problem of overcoming the hazards connected with them would be simple as compared to their development. His absorbing talk touched on automation, the revolution in transportation, our mobile population. Facts of today needed a blending of formal or school room education, with informal education gained by experience.

In closing he left the idea that we have three main avenues of thought: education of the hands (skills), secondly, skills of the head (abstract things), thirdly skills of the heart (attitudes), the underlying actions of the people need lots of attention.

"Yes" said the professor, "revolutions have surrounded us, giving us many things to think about, and we wonder what to use as a guide. These few lines which I will close with can be looked upon as an administrator's prayer.

"Our Father, as we go out among men to do our daily work give us the courage to change those things which should be changed now, endow us with the fortitude to endure those things which cannot now be changed, grant us the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other."

Professor Lindberg's address was absorbing, thought-provoking and was listened to with wrapt attention. He was warmly thanked on behalf of those present by Mr. Warren Rosequist and by His Worship Mayor Hill.

On behalf of the guests in attendance, Mr. David Iverach, vice-president of the Wainwright and District Chamber of Commerce, voiced the keen appreciation of all the guests present for the opportunity to meet together and for the opportunity to hear such an outstanding speaker and address.

The guests included the following:

A. M. McGladrie and C. Richardson, Kitscoty; M. W. Kovach and R. S. Barwick, Elk Point; A. R. Kay and Reeve Kelly of Vermilion River M. D.; R. Conner and E. Leonty, Myrnam; Leo Maltais and W. A. Boyce, Dewberry; Chester Gamble and J. J. Croxford, Mannville; John Swan and J. M. Reinheimer, Marwayne; Wm. Taylor and Harold Trace, Innisfree; Harvey Johnson and Felix Woloshyn, Derwent; E. Cuthbertson and Dave Iverach, Wainwright; Geo. Kravetz and R. S. Reddy, Vegreville; Peter Thiessen and Bill Davis, Clandonald; Merlin Moncreiff and Wm. McLean, Islay.

President Isreal Miller and his entertainment committee of Warren Rosequist, A. J. Champion and A. E. Kaiser are to be highly commended for their arrangements for this annual spring time banquet, and for the happy thought that brought Professor Lindberg to Vermilion as the speaker on this occasion.

Kin Scholarship For Top Grade Nine

The Vermilion Kinsmen Club has announced that it will provide a $25.00 scholarship to the Vermilion Junior High School student who achieves the highest aggregate score in the Grade IX Departmental Examinations.

The Elks Club of Vermilion already awards a $25.00 general proficiency scholarship based on high academic standing during the school term and on participation in extra-curricular activities. Since the Elks scholarship does not necessarily go to the top academic student, the Kinsmen Club felt that their award would be a welcome supplement to the existing Elks scholarship.

Water and Sewer For Marwayne

MARWAYNE — The town is full of activity with the crews of workmen putting in the water and sewer lines. The big undertaking is made possible by low interest money borrowed from Alberta's Social Credit government.

Valuable Player On Edinburgh Cup Winners

Mr. and Mrs. Brent Macnab Jr. and family have arrived home from Quebec where they have spent the winter. Brent is a member of the Quebec Aces hockey club which recently won the Edinburgh cup in the series against the Brandon Regals, the winners of the Western league.

Brent apparently had a terrific season as the Hockey News of April 27th had this to say about him:

"Macnab incidentally has had a tremendous season. He has been the Aces best rearguard and a scoring scourge throughout the series."

Monday, May 20 Public Holiday

Next Monday May 20th, has been declared a Dominion-wide statutory holiday. It is known as Victoria Day and takes the place of the former May 24th holiday being celebrated on the Monday previous to the 24th. Stores, schools, offices and most business places will be closed in Vermilion that day.

CLEAN UP . . PAINT UP . . . KEEP IT UP

The reams of eloquent verse written by poets each spring can hardly be attributed to inspiration from humans. The muddy [illegible] emerald carpets are the magic handiwork of nature. The bursting buds which make of every tree an admired debutante, and the multi-hued flowers pushing through the sun-warmed soil are nature's creations.

In fact about the only unsightly things we see about us in spring, sights which would jar the sensibilities of any poet, are man made . . . drab paintless houses, grey and weather-beaten barns, broken down fences, [illegible] and streets, unsightly garbage piles, "graveyards" of discarded cars.

[illegible] for years now has tried to do something about eliminating such things. In Canada each spring a beautification campaign is conducted urging citizens to clean up and paint up their properties. This year in Vermilion the annual clean-up is on now and plans have been made by the Board of Trade in co-operation with the town to make this the biggest campaign of the kind to date.

We shouldn't wait for special days or events to stir us into cleaning up our surroundings. Beautification should be carried out whenever it is needed. However, if you must wait for an occasion then jump on your local Clean-Up campaign wagon with vigor.

In Vermilion we should not rest on past achievements in this respect, so in order to attain the objective sought, every business man, every householder, must do his or her part in keeping Vermilion a clean, neat town.

HOUSING WOEFULLY INADEQUATE FOR CANADIAN OLDER CITIZENS—

"Twenty years ago one person in eighteen was over 65, now it is one person in 12, and the trend is continuing. Community life in Canada, as in the United Kingdom and elsewhere is going to have to adjust to an increasing number of older people in our midst, in terms of employment practices health and recreation programs, and the provision of suitable housing," declared Mr W. S. Goulding of the School of Architecture University of Toronto. Mr Goulding who has recently completed a study of existing housing for older people in Canada for Central Mortgage and Housing Corp. was addressing a meeting of the Gerontology committee of the Health League of Canada. He pointed out that the shift from country to city living has over the years created a two-fold problem: the rambling farm house had in the past left ample space for older folk, but the small urban home was too small to accommodate two generations, let alone three. He said that the answer did not lie in the large institution, for increased years did not necessarily mean infirmity.

"The older person needs to feel that he is a citizen first; in an institution he feels that he is an old person first," he said. "Let us keep the institution for the sick old person, and try to see that the general housing stock in our communities provide for the needs of an increasing number of older persons."

He pointed out that the key to housing for older people at the moment lies in Sec. 16 of the National Housing Act.

Mr Goulding added that homes for the aged do not necessarily have to be of the institution type; they may be self-contained houses or cottages, boarding house types with housekeeping and meals provided, or elderly people may go into ordinary boarding houses which are inspected by provincial institutions regularly.

He said that we have now passed the stage when urban housing problems can be handled by small charitable endeavors alone. More and more old people in our cities cannot find any suitable place to live and our population is rapidly getting older. What is a real problem now may become an impossible problem if we leave it any longer, he concluded.

Marwayne C.G.I.T. Hold Mother and Daughter Banquet

MARWAYNE. — The C.G.I.T. Mother and Daughter banquet was held in the United Church hall on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. with [illegible] mothers and daughters, seven invited guests including Mrs. MacKay and Mrs. Metcalf of Vermilion and Mrs. Johnson, leader and toastmistress present. Charlotte Tupper gave the toast to the Queen; Betty Ann Murray to the Mothers and Mrs Jale replying; Lorna Katzmarzyk to the Church and Mrs. MacKay replying. Mrs. Metcalf spoke saying how pleased she was to see girls from her former S.S. class in the C.G.I.T. group. Mrs. Sonley spoke briefly for the W.M.S. The girls presented Mrs. Johnson with a gift and in a gracious reply she thanked them for the gift and also for the co-operation in the year's work and said she would have to give it up for a year.

After the bountiful banquet was partaken of from beautifully decorated tables the group went to the church for a program, the girls giving a resume of the year's activities and work, songs, slides and pictures taken by Mr. Roy Pinsent and Mr. W. Hancock — some were of last year's banquet.

Mrs. MacKay spoke briefly, at first to the mothers about helping in C.G.I.T. and S.S. work and then to the girls on "Jewels of the Kingdom". She spoke of jewels in the Queen's crown and then of the three jewels of the Kingdom they could wear in their crown — The jewel of knowledge of good and evil; The jewel of wisdom to be able to choose the right and honor Jesus' name; Virtue, a precious gift, the centre and largest jewel in their crown — moral virtue, goodness and uprighteousness.

The girls repeating the C.G.I.T. prayer brought a long to be [illegible] evening to a close.

FARM ACCIDENTS

Last year 60 farmers in Alberta lost their lives from farm accidents. Everyone who operates tractors, grain loaders and power take-offs know the danger. Most accidents occur when the operator is tired or in a hurry. Let's be more careful. I have never known of anyone who turned the same tractor over on himself more than once.

GETTING ICING TO SET

So many women have trouble getting icing to set on cakes that I thought I should give them a little tip. Put a pinch (not a very big one) of Plaster of Paris in the icing when mixing. Get the Plaster of Paris from your druggist and tell him what you want it for. Anyone afraid of getting gall stones should not use this recipe.

GARDEN CORN

Corn fresh from the garden is so much better than corn picked in the Okanogan and several days old before it gets to country stores. Use early varities such as Altagold, Spancross and Sunshine seed about May 20. Everyone ought to grow garden corn in this area.

THOUSANDS OF TREES

The government tree planter operated by Howard Armstrong formerly of Vermilion was in this district for 3 days last week. Howard says that he planted over 17,000 trees during that time. Some other farmers had quite a few to plant but we could not keep the planter here any longer. It looks like this district should have a planter of it's own.

KILLING DANDELIONS

Dandelions and other leafed plants can be killed in lawns by spraying with 2,4-D. The poison will not hurt the grass. Be sure to wash out the sprayer well before using for insect sprays. Somebody said wash the sprayer ten times to be sure there is no weed killer left. It takes such a little 2,4-D to kill vegetables and flowers. Also watch the drift of spray from the lawn onto the garden.

T.B. TESTING

Dr. Young informs me that testing of cattle for T.B. is to be started in M.D. of Vermilion River very shortly. A number of government veterinarians are coming from Eastern Canada to help out here. Dr. Young says that the M. D. of Smokey Lake gave 100 percent co-operation to the "vets" in that area. I hope the same will be said of everyone in this district.

RAISE MORE COLTS

I have been urging people to raise colts for some time. Now I understand that Rod and Alex MacMillan, (1mile West of St. Andrew's Church) have a Percheron at service.

YOU AND THE ELECTION

The enumerators were at our house the other day and the voters in our family now know where to vote. The next question: Who to vote for?

Millions of Canadians will be asking themselves during the next few months. Here is how we propose to go about answering it at our place. We decided, in a family confab last night, that we'd take the following steps:

(a) Know the Candidates: We are starting at once to find out what parties and what candidates are going to fight for election in our constituency. We'll try to find out how well they've conducted the affairs they have been charged with by others.

(b) Quiz the Candidates: Each candidate in our constituency is going to get an invitation to spend an hour or so in our living room trying to tell us why we should vote for him or her. And we'll have a list of questions to ask: How do you stand on the Canada Council getting $100,000,000 for culture? Do you believe the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. should be given $470,000,000 in the next 6 years, presumably also for culture? Do you believe in compulsory farm marketing boards having taxing power over the individual farmer? Will you reduce taxes, or will you support every expensive project that you think will win some votes?

(c) A Written Commitment: The candidate who can be assured of our vote will be the candidate who will give us a written commitment that he or she will stand up and vote and speak against any further welfare schemes until the welfare money now being paid out is worth what it was worth when the payments began. Until the old age pension will buy at least as much as it did the year it was started, this country just can't afford economically or morally to spend money for less worthy projects.

In short, we are going to make absolutely certain that as far as the candidates in our riding are concerned, they'll know at least one family has no use for any politician who will spend the people's money to buy the people's votes.

TEACHERS' SALARIES

Dear Sirs:

A comparison cannot be made between the oil industry and the teaching profession — they are two separate livelihoods. Incidentally, salaries paid cover a full twelve months employment and annual holidays, only. Other factors are involved but one cannot labour these points.

As the dominant population here is that of farmers, whose financial returns are hazardous and who are struggling (and I do mean struggling) to keep their investments intact by the prompt payment of taxes, perhaps the Salary Board will be good enough to let us know where this extra money is to come from. What with the busses, the question of salaries and the administration of this educational system today the taxpayers are hard put to attempt to pay any further moneys. The public are not forced to purchase oil products, but it is deplorable that the educational group's forceful tones in the purchase of services should use the children as the medium to attain their ends, rather than publicise their merits, upon which increases could be considered.

Yours very truly,
"OILER."

Banquet Marks Graduation Exercises at Mannville

MANNVILLE.—On Friday, May 10th, Mannville High school sponsored a graduation banquet for the 1957 graduating class, their parents and honored guests. Rev. I. Holter asked the blessing to begin the banquet. A delicious turkey dinner was served to sixty-five people by the ladies of the United Church W.A. The tables were appropriately decorated according to the Graduation theme.

Toastmistress for the evening was Miss Connie Gerhart and the toasts were as follows: Toast to Education, proposed by Gary Bennett, reply by Mrs. Rea; toast to Guests, proposed by Benny Bury, reply by Mrs. Enfield; toast to Graduands by Mr Doherty, reply by Agnes Keuschnig.

The banquet was closed by the singing of God Save the Queen.

Honored guests included Mr Frame, Chief Supt. of Schools in Alberta, Mr. F. B. Facey, Supt of Vegreville School Division and Mrs. Facey; Mr. R. J. Whitson, M.L.A. and Mrs Whitson, Mr. H. A. Doherty, principal of Mannville school and Mrs. Doherty, Rev. and Mrs. Holter, Mayor A. E. Williams and Mrs. Williams.

HARBOR LIGHTS THEME

The theme of the 1957 Graduation exercises was "Harbor Lights" and the scenery was exceptionally well done. On the stage against a background of a sunset and sea was a lighthouse with a beacon flashing. And in the middle of the auditorium was a large lighthouse. Against this background, fifteen young people from Grade 12 received congratulations and good wishes from the teachers and school division. Mr. Russell Whitson, bringing congratulations from the Vegreville [illegible], commended the young people for having reached a milestone in their education, stating that from the age of 15 they have continued their education through their own initiative. He was sure that whatever field they choose and if they give their utmost, they will go far — and if they continue to strive to reach a goal through individual initiative, the results will be gratifying. Mr. Whitson congratulated the mothers and fathers and teachers for a job well done.

In his short address, Mr. Facey quoted excerpts from "Alice in Wonderland" with respect to Alice and the white rabbit that "you will get somewhere if only you walk long enough." With apologies to Kipling, Mr. Facey read a poem he had composed on the famous "If" with appropriate words for the occasion. And he hoped that the students' thirst for knowledge would never be [illegible].

Miss Connie Gerhart and Mrs Twe Horton sang the theme song "Harbor Lights" accompanied by Miss Donna McCauley.

ACADEMIC PINS AWARDED

As is the custom at the grade 12 graduation, academic pins for the grade 10 and 11 students are presented and Mrs. Bang as president of the Home and School assisted Mr. Doherty in presenting pins to the following students: Grade 10 — Eunice Sawchuk, Donna Doherty, Jackie Hasino, with the award for the most improvement for the year going to Kenneth Schock. Grade 11 — Harold Keuschnig, Dixie Schreyer, Danny Hasinoff, Bruce Anderson with the award for most improvement to Harold Keuschnig.

CLASS HISTORIAN

Mary Grech as the class historian gave a few highlights and secrets of the graduating class in a very engaging manner with a bit of good natured fun to which none could take offence. Those introduced by Miss Grech were: Darlene Enfield who plans to be a teacher; Robert Allan who will attend McTavish Business College; Connie Gerhart is planning a nursing career. Gary Bennett, popular president of the Students' Union who will enter the field of telegraphy. Doreen Gerhart, whose main aim right now is to pass Grade 12. Benny Drury, no definite plans for the immediate future. Maxine de Kat who plans to train for the much-needed field of physio-therapy. Dennis Millitz, hopes to become a radio and television technician. Agnes Keuschnig, also planning a nursing career. Anita Schreder will enter the clerical field. Ernie Osinchuk hopes to become an aeroplane pilot. Sylvia Tomyn plans to attend Alberta College. Robert Willis has as his goal a meteorologist and Mary Grech will enter the field of education. These are a typical group of Canadian young people — hard working but fun loving too. Miss Grech hoped that she had in her history of the class, helped people to know them better.

Mr. John Misik on behalf of the Students' Union presented gifts to the graduands.

VALEDICTORY

Robert Willis in his valedictory address expressed the wish that the class would live up to the hopes and expectations of their teachers and parents. Some of the students had started their elementary education in rural schools but as a group in the present school they have had fun and through the students union and organized sport have learned the true value of sportsmanship. They have been encouraged by both teachers and parents and will now look to the future and not to the past.

Piano selections by Miss Donna McCauley and accordion selections by Miss Lillian Zahara added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mr. Frame, Chief Superintendent of Schools for Alberta expressed his appreciation of the pleasure of his trip down to Mannville on the good road. He compared it to the many trips over rough or muddy roads in the past years. He also expressed his appreciation of the lovely banquet.

It was an inspiring sight, this group of young people who have done gruelling work in the past few months and he congratulated the young people for what they have accomplished; now they are standing poised on the edge of the work-a-day world. He congratulated the teachers for honoring the students with honor pins.

ADDRESS BY MR. FRAME

In his address Mr Frame commented on the fact that our ancestors brought culture and folk lore from the countries of their origin and that is a rich heritage for any country. Time was too limited to talk on many countries so he chose one, England, the country of his mother's birth. Being born on the prairies his mothers description of the trees, orchards, etc. of England didn't mean much to him — but when he visited England himself her words meant a great deal to him. Mr. Frame described the churches and taverns and the countryside of various parts of England that he visited.

Mr Doherty paid tribute to the unseen ones, the grades ten and eleven for their untiring work in preparing the hall and scenery and preparing the lunch, ad the many other tasks that go to make the graduation a memorable night for the grade 12 students.

Lunch was served by members of the Home and School Association and dancing resumed to the music of the Viking Jives after a short intermission at midnight.

Liberal Candidate
Battle River–Camrose Constituency

Last week's issue of this paper contained a brief outline of the Liberal candidate's attitude towards the extension of Government policy on behalf of Western farmers.

A question has been directed to the candidate for the Liberal Party: "Why don't you make lavish promises to the farmers in the hope of getting more votes?"

I can only reply that I do not believe in making promises that are not reasonably sure of fulfillment. It is quite easy for candidates of opposition parties to make all kinds of promises if they see fit because there is little likelihood for the next four or five years at least that they could possibly be called upon to live up to the promises.

Indications are that the Liberal Government will be returned to office — even if they have a smaller majority as has been intimated by opposition parties — and it will be the Liberal Government that will administer the affairs of Canada for several years to come. It would appear logical that our agricultural constituencies in the West be represented on the Government side.

It is worth a trial. Let's see what a supporter of the governing group can do. If the results are not as desired the voters will know how to deal with the situation at the next election.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Summer Sore Throat

A sore throat in the summer time is your body's warning signal that you might be coming down with a serious illness.

A sore throat at any time can warn of an impending cold, or a more serious respiratory tract infection such as influenza or pneumonia. However, these illnesses usually strike during the cold, wet months of winter and rarely occur during the summer.

A summer sore throat may be the first sign of measles, diphtheria or poliomyelitis. If it is coupled with fever you should call your physician immediately for prompt medical diagnosis and treatment can stop a potentially serious illness from [illegible] too deeply rooted.

[illegible] most summer sore throats [illegible] early symptoms of the common cold. Although antibiotics are of great value in controlling serious respiratory infections, they are largely ineffective against the common cold.

In fact, scientists have yet to discover any completely effective agents for the common cold—summer or winter variety. Although unable to prevent or cure them, physicians can help to remove much of the sting from common cold symptoms.

For the headache and muscle fatigue accompanying a cold, they recommend aspirin. For the stuffed nose often accompanying the cold they may prescribe the nasal decongestant Tyzine. For the patient, they advise patience—for the cold causing germs, no matter what the medication, can persist in your body for as much as a week, or longer.

We can do little to prevent summer sore throats, but with proper care, we can prevent more serious illness from developing after the first warning signs.

Ray of Hope

X-ray radiation has long been of much a tool for treating cancer as surgery, but new techniques have given the invisible "scalpel" a keener cutting edge.

Since World War II radiation has been stepped up from one million to as high as three million volts, allowing larger total doses of X-rays to be beamed to deep-seated tumors and cancer tissue with fewer undesirable effects on surrounding normal tissue.

More recently, streams of minute electrical charges from the atom-smashing betatron have been directed at cancers in human patients. And methods of revolving the patient through the beam—resembling the familiar kitchen rotisserie—further pinpoint the attack so the tumor receives more radiation, and normal cells less.

A minute pellet of Cobalt 60, the so-called wonder metal, has been powerfully charged with radioactivity, making it the world's smallest X-ray therapy "bomb." The atomic pellet can be injected directly into the malignant growth where it gives off energy equivalent to a three million volt X-ray machine.

Regardless of the source of radiation, the treatment is painless and side effects are usually mild. Localized tanning or reddening of the skin, much like sunburn, may develop. There may be nausea similar to motion sickness, or mild diarrhea. These side reactions may be relieved easily by the doctor with ointments for burns, the motion sickness drug Bonamine for nausea, and other simple remedies.

X-rays of course cannot be used against all cancers. Surgery, hormones, synthetic compounds and even certain [illegible] are also employed.

Versatile Vitamins

Thanks to the British Navy we know the value of vitamins, for some 200 years ago the Admiralty accidentally learned that a daily ration of vitamin rich lemon or lime juice would protect its sailors from scurvy. It was not until the early 1900's, however that the name "vitamin" was actually applied to the naturally occurring substances since found so necessary for healthy life.

Modern scientists have determined the amounts of specific vitamins that man needs and thus enabled physicians to prescribe vitamins, either individually or in combination, to combat dietary deficiencies.

Special formulations of vitamins help bolster the patient during especially trying periods of his life. For example, the multi-vitamin Obron is specifically designed to fortify health requirements of the expectant mother. Also, ASF multi vitamins have been formulated to fill special needs of the patient undergoing physical or physiological stress such as surgery, severe burns and serious infections.

The vitamins are quite versatile. Having proved their value in medical practice they have also been put to good use in many industries, including cosmetics, baking, food packaging and photographic supplies.

Some of the vitamins are now being manufactured synthetically and are tailored to meet the specific needs of the industry in which they are used. One of these, synthetic dry vitamin A, produced by the Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc. has been found useful as a skin nutrient in cosmetics. It is also used to enrich dry milk and other food products.

It is through the pioneering of the British Navy that we today recognize the versatile vitamins and enjoy healthier and happier lives.

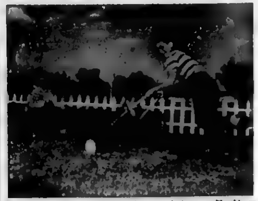
Charming pictures such as this are surprisingly easy to shoot.



Springtime activities, whether it is a happy gardening scene like this, or the first sandlot baseball game of the year, offer excellent picture opportunities.

Picturing Reflections

We'd like to take a minute to share some reflections with you. No—not the usual mental ones—but the actual kind made in mirrors. Ever since the fateful day Narcissus looked too long and too lovingly into a shimmering lake, man has been attracted by reflections of himself. And when it comes to picture taking, he runs true to form. He seems to find a special fascination in mirror pictures, too.

If you'd like to try a little looking-glass magic yourself, don't hesitate for a moment. You'll find it's really quite easy to get [illegible] results even the first time—armed only with a simple camera and flash or flood lamps.

When you want to picture a subject along with his reflection in the mirror, there's one fact to remember in judging distance. Place your subject in front of a mirror and be sure your camera is aimed so that it images his reflection, too. Now measure the distance from camera to mirror, and add to it the distance between your subject and the mirror. In other words, if your camera is five feet from the mirror and the subject is one foot from the mirror, the reflection will be six feet from the camera—and six feet is the distance at which you should shoot.

Remember, too, that your flash or flood should be on your subject, not on the mirror. So direct the light to one side or the other—not straight at the mirror—to avoid getting a bright glare spot in your picture.

—John Van Guilder

Spring Activities Call for Camera Action

Spring is a season humming with all kinds of activities which make fine subjects for the family snap-shooter. It's really "open season" for shooting and you can't afford to let your camera be idle much of the time.

Spring brings longer days—days that may boast a chill in the shade but a sudden soft warmth in the sun—which means more activities out-of-doors and more outdoor shooting. And sure as the solstice itself, it's a time for putting the family's best foot forward in bright spring finery—a time for painting and polishing everything in sight around the house—a time when every housewife assaults her home from basement to attic and feels compelled to move every piece of furniture in the place.

Everywhere, lawns and parks and woods explode in a surf of green. And the home gardener, too, knows it's time to "bend his back and dig" if he wants the "results and roses" Edgar A. Guest used to write verses about.

Sports loom large on the spring horizon, too—everything from the informal launching of the marble season to the formal debut of big-league baseball. And speaking of baseball, we're sure there are more than a few fathers umpiring some fine sandlot games right [illegible]

As you can see, all the activities we've mentioned are part of the spring picture—an important segment of family living that deserves to be recorded as it happens.

"Spring adds a precious seeing to the eye," Shakespeare said—and there's much to see around us amid the light-hearted harlequin moods of people and the weather. Even if you can't predict exactly what man or the elements will do, you can be sure they'll be doing something.

Farming the Woodlands Is Big Forestry Job

Perpetual Harvests Topic of Largest Woodlands Meet

Montreal — Forest Management, the science of growing and harvesting trees like a farm crop, was a key topic at the 39th annual meeting of the Woodlands Section, Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, which has just been held in Montreal's Sheraton-Mount Royal Hotel.

The three day conference, the largest gathering of its kind ever held anywhere, was concerned with increasing the productivity of [illegible] forests and the efficiency of forest operations.

To provide for future wood crops, said W. A. E. Pepler, manager of the Woodlands Section, the individual pulp and paper companies manage their woodlands on a sustained yield basis. "Just as the farmer plants, tends, and harvests his crop and at the same time maintains his soil to produce future harvests, the pulp and paper foresters harvest a tree [illegible] regrowth, [illegible] and with [illegible] maintain the forest land so that it will produce continuous crops," said Mr. Pepler.

Highlighting the importance of scientific investigation as one aspect of forest management, the heads of Canada's four forestry schools told the meeting the "what and how" of research at the universities. Most university research is of a fundamental nature, they said. But it provides the background for the development of faster-growing and hardier trees.

Studies are being made in Canada leading to the development of insect and disease resistant trees, a step similar to the development of rust resistant wheats. Other studies cover the use of parasites and insecticides to control insects, fertilizing the forest by aerial spraying, and preparing the forest floor to facilitate reseeding.

The Tree Farm Movement also got a big boost at the conference. J. L. Van Camp, general manager of the Canadian Forestry Association, said it was the most important single step that individual Canadians have taken in active forest management. Hundreds of small and large private woodlot owners now display the Tree Farm sign as certification that they are growing trees on a managed basis to provide continuous crops. In addition, he said, they are growing trees as a cash crop, and [illegible] land that was not suited for other crops.

The Tree Farm Movement is sponsored by the Canadian Forestry Association, a non-profit organization devoted to improving forestry practice in Canada. Any one with a woodlot he is prepared to manage can apply to the local or provincial committee for certification as a tree farmer.

The heads of Canada's forestry schools, attending the 39th annual meeting of the Woodlands Section of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, outlined the place of the universities in [illegible] and forest management. Forty-Nine Educational Policies Available For Essay Winners

Despite shining exceptions, Canadian corporations on the whole have not taken seriously the needs of higher education, Dr. Sidney Smith, president of the University of Toronto, has declared.

Business gifts to education, he added, should be regarded not as charitable donations but as an essential cost of doing business and staying in business.

Noting that when a company employs a university graduate it is purchasing the services of a person whose education beyond secondary school has cost anything from $2000 to $50,000, Dr. Smith stated that the company employs him because it needs him for its operations. The salary it pays could be called his maintenance cost, he said.

The employer, however, is not required to pay for the capital investment in his education — the heavy cost of training him— so that the company may profit from his vision and his skill, Dr. Smith declared.

"That," he said, "has already been paid, partly by him and his parents and mostly by the university he attended."

The University of Toronto president is one of a panel of leading Canadian and American education authorities who will judge a $75,000 university scholarship contest for Canadian and American youth, sponsored by Johnson & Johnson Ltd., a leading manufacturer of surgical dressings, and its American associate company.

Any person of any age residing in Canada and the U. S. is eligible to enter the scholarship contest and an adult may designate a child to receive the prize. The contest provides for 49 paid-up policies for education ranging in value from a grand prize of $10,000 to 36 fifth prizes of $1,000 each. The competition takes the form of an essay of 50 words or less on the subject: "A good education is important because . . ."

Other Canadian judges are Dr. Norman Mackenzie, president of the U of B.C and Dr Jean Bru[illegible] and deputy registrar of Quebec

All Modes of Travel Will Be Utilized

United Church Young People Plan Dominion-wide Summer Caravans

Caravaning by bus, train, car, truck, tractor, airplane and boat will be the experience of some 200 young people of the United Church of Canada this summer.

A Christian Youth Caravan team is a group of four or five young people witnessing in the name of the Church in a community where there is a special need for a vital witness.

In past summers across Canada teams served on Indian Reserves, on student mission fields, on large rural charges, in a children's hospital, in military camps, in lumbering communities, in new housing areas and in the frontier areas of our country. This summer it is expected that there will be an emphasis on Indian work and work in down town churches.

In British Columbia teams have been flown to northern coastal outposts. In Newfoundland teams have been taken in Church's mission boat to isolated [illegible] and in all provinces between Caravaners travel by bus, train, car, truck and [illegible] to reach their areas of service. The significant thing about members of Christian Youth Caravan Teams is that they are all volunteers; they are not paid. Among the volunteers of last summer were teachers, farmers, nurses, students, factory and office workers. Some served for seven weeks while others served for varying periods. The minimum length of service was two weeks.

Teams this summer will hold Church Vacation Schools, assist with services of worship, give leadership at Youth Rallies, conduct Religious surveys, make home visits and perform many other services in the name of The United Church of Canada.

Their work in a community varies with the needs of the particular locality. Last summer in a large military camp a Vacation School was held for 300 children while on a small Indian Reserve home visitation was a major project.

Of special importance last summer was an experiment conducted by a team in a children's sanitarium. Caravaners brought the joy of a Church Vacation School to children confined to their beds.

Two summers ago 14 Ontario young people offered their lives for full-time service in the Church as a result of Christian Youth Caravan work, and across Canada a significant additional number of young people have entered United Church Theological Colleges and the United Church Training School in order to prepare for full-time work in the Church. Many of the young people who pioneered in the Caravan movement in Canada are now serving the Church as ministers, directors of Christian Education, missionaries and deaconesses.

The Christian Youth Caravan movement began in The United Church of Canada in the summer of 1949 and from that time it has grown steadily in every province. The Rev. Beverly Oaten, Paris, Ontario is Chairman of the National Committee which is a part of the Youth Department of the Board of Christian Education. Miss Dency McCalla, Youth Secretary, of The United Church of Canada is Secretary of the Committee and Miss Betty Bone, Director of the summer's work.

Applicants interested in sharing in this project should write for further information to The Director of Christian Youth Caravans, Room 323, 299 Queen St. W., Toronto 2B, Ontario. Letters of inquiry will be sent to the Committee responsible in the area where the applicant lives. Applicants should be eighteen years or over with at least Grade 10, with at least two weeks of holidays to give to the work of the Church, and with some experience in leadership in Church groups.

New Wing of Royal York Hotel

The 17-storey wing of the Royal York Hotel now under construction is the inspiration for the house of blocks that 3-year-old Cathie Stewart is building. Looking on are R. A. Mackie, right, general manager, Canadian Pacific Hotels, and Angus P. MacKinnon, manager of the Royal York Hotel. An artist's conception of the 400-room wing of the hotel, costing $10,000,000 and standing 17 storeys high, hangs in the background. The above incident took place during a recent convention of the Canadian Construction Association at the Royal York Hotel, attended by 1,200 delegates.

Quick Trip to the Grave

At 20 miles per hour it takes an average driver 22 feet just to get his foot off the accelerator and on to the brake. It is also a proven fact that the distance required to stop increases as the square of the speed. That is, it takes four times as far to stop at 30 m.p.h. as it does at 15, according to an editorial published in the current issue of Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

This being so, the logical way to cut down traffic accidents is to slow all drivers down. Instead, we have a strange phenomenon of large cities in Canada and the United States plastered with billboards admonishing the drivers to drive carefully, while the city fathers are quietly increasing the speed limit in those same cities.

The theory behind increasing speed limits is that the slow drivers cause accidents. This may be so, if everyone wants to bowl along at 60 or 70 m.p.h. and someone ahead with a trailer cannot safely go faster than 50. However, it would seem safe to assume that if everyone were travelling along at 50, there would be no traffic problem, trailer ahead or not.

Within the city, drivers and pedestrians alike take their lives in their hands every day coping with the increasing speed. One has only to watch pedestrians trying to cross one of the big through streets, such as University Avenue in Toronto, where the pedestrians cower on the curb making sudden dashes to cross the wide street, like so many panicky rabbits, to see an example of this.

With rising speed limits goes a corresponding rising death rate; in the United States last year, motor vehicles accounted for more than two-fifths of all accidental deaths. The total was 40,000 dead from motor vehicle accidents — 2,000 more than for 1955 and 5,000 more than the 1954 total.

On the other hand, it may be just a passion for perfection — if you are going to do a thing, do it thoroughly. There is no doubt that you can do a more thorough job of smashing into a brick wall or into another car going at 70 m.p.h. than you can do at 30 m.p.h.

Alberta Will Use Air Power To Fight Forest Fires

by KEN MASON

Edmonton. — Officials of the Alberta Forest Service may have been given a preview of thing to come last week when for brief time they were faced with a serious forest and bush fire situation.

Thanks to quick action by fire fighters and a change in conditions which brought rain showers and cooler weather the fires were quickly brought under control. Mopping up operations and patrol action are continuing.

If there's such a thing as the bright side of forest fires it is probably that the outbreaks gave the forestry branch a valuable workout. Lessons from experience in the past years, the worst is probably yet to come. Usually hazard is greatest in late May and early June when the forests are tinder dry.

The fires started earlier than usual this year due to a combination of hot, dry weather and violent electrical storms. There are 12 major fires all in northern forested areas and many were started by lightning.

This will be the first season for extensive use of air power in the fight to protect Alberta's forests and the air arm of the forest service made its first tour of operations last week.

The government has purchased a $31,000 Fleet Courier aircraft which can land and take off in 500 feet or less, and in addition is prepared to charter whatever private planes and helicopters are needed. Emergency landing strips are being carved out of the bush in isolated forest areas.

The Courier and a chartered helicopter proved their value last week when several bush fires broke out in a remote area about 75 miles north of Lesser Slave Lake where Indian and Metis settlers were clearing brush.

Eight key men were ferried in to direct the settlers in fire-fighting operations. The aircraft also carried in firefighting tools, camping equipment and food supplies. They landed at an emergency strip at Lubicon Lake and in fields within half a mile of some of the fires.

Result: the flames were under control within a short time.

Aircraft also were used to take forestry officers on reconnaisance flights over fire areas, and will be used extensively for spotting from now on whenever the fire hazard is extreme.

The serious forest fire situation last year was probably a major factor in selling the government on the idea of aircraft. It was an expensive lesson. There were 218 fires and the cost of suppression was $620,000. But thousands of square miles were burned over and the loss in timber and young growth was many thousands more.

The government found it had to use aircraft last year and chartered them. Forestry men within the department of lands and forests have been urging the government to use aircraft for several years.

Even with the increase in the protective force public co-operation is necessary to keep the forests green. From now on more and more workers, campers, hikers and anglers will be using the forests and forestry men will be appealing to them to use caution.

Taking the Click Out of Railroads

A crew of welders, 24 in all, are presently engaged in taking the click out of travelling on the railroad. The men are expert welders and are welding that little gap between the end of each rail. This was the cause of that clickety-clack one heard the wheels hitting that little bump. Now it's all one long rail, welded together making for smoother, and decidedly more quiet travelling.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE Federal Constituency OF Battle River-Camrose

One of the most serious problems faced by the people of Canada is inflation. It has become more serious in each postwar year until today the financial authorities are debating whether the dollar is worth fifty cents or even less compared with its purchasing power at the end of the war.

Inflation effects everyone who earns or spends money. While those on pensions or fixed incomes suffer most no one escapes its demoralizing effects.

A few glances at certain aspects of the inflationary spiral will show quickly that inflation, if unchecked, can undermine the structure of our nation's economy.

Family Allowances and Old Age Pensions will buy less than they did a few years ago. Young families and old people are accordingly receiving less help.

The municipal dollar will not go as far as it did a few years ago, so municipalities are having to cut services or raise mill rates. Teachers' salaries are paid from municipal funds and municipalities are finding it hard to pay the increase in salary which the teachers are asking for. Such professions as teaching and nursing become less and less attractive as the purchasing power of salaries decreases.

Working people must ask for more money and employers must add the increased cost of labor to the price of their products. The farmer finds that machinery costs have risen to the point where the grain he can produce with it is too expensive to sell on the world's markets.

Possibly inflation's worst result is that the person who has invested in insurance, annuities or pension plans, and other forms of small investment, finds that the dollars he put away have now less purchasing power. He wonders if it is, after all, advisable to save and invest.

Conservatives realize that efforts to curb inflation, while unpopular in some quarters, must be made if hundreds of thousands of small investors and enterprises are not to be ruined. Conservatives believe that the small investors are the best guarantee that the development of the Canadian economy will remain under Canadian control. A Conservative Government would make every effort to bring inflationary trends under control.

A VOTE FOR CLIFF SMALLWOOD WILL HELP ELECT A CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT WITH JOHN DIEFENBAKER AS PRIME MINISTER.

Alberta Govt. Increases Pensions

Alberta's Social Credit Government had good news for pensioners last week. Maximum allowable incomes were increased for persons who receive disability pensions and widows' pensions.

The new amounts are: $840 for a single disabled person or a widow; $1,280 for a married disabled person, and $1,740 for a married disabled person living with a blind spouse. The old maximums were $720, $1,200 and $1,320. And for the first time, women whose husbands are in mental or TB hospitals can get widows' pensions. The allowable incomes are the same as those for the disability pensions.

The increases come into effect July 1, simultaneously with increased pension payments. Pensions are being boosted to a maximum of $46 a month from the present $40. The increases are in line with rises in federal old age and other pensions.

Ladies From England Anxious To Find Employment in Alberta

16 Wickham Road,
Camberley,
Surrey, England.
April 26th, 1957.

The Editor,
The Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alta., Canada.

Dear Sir:

I was very interested to receive a copy of The Vermilion Standard dated March 28th last, in which you printed on the front page an article about my father, Mr. J. G. Tillett, of Vermilion, who made the return trip safely after a visit to myself and my brother here in England. My daughter and I were sorry not to have been able to accompany him and have since been reviewing our own position. We have now decided to sell up and seek employment in Canada.

My father's poor sight and hearing and his great age were against our finding out much regarding the employment situation over there, and I would be very grateful indeed if you could possibly put us in touch with someone who could tell us more. We have written to Canada House in London, and received the necessary emigration forms from the Department of Citizenship and Immigration, but we would like more regional information as to our chances of getting employment reasonably quickly, as we do not have unlimited resources.

Briefly, my daughter is 24 and a shorthand-typist with good speeds and experience and I am 55, active, experienced domestically as to cooking, housekeeping, children and some nursing, and also five years in the hotel trade.

If you can put us in touch with someone who could help us with information as to where work is likely to be obtained, I should be more than grateful. Also, if you care to print this letter, in whole or part I should be most happy for you to do so.

Yours sincerely,
Irene Iddison.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Enough can not be said regarding safety precautions on farms and in the home. Now is the time for you to check on your daily routine. How many times do you carelessly use implements and equipment? How about pesticides, cleaning agents and other poisons?

Is your home a safe home?

Avoid Back Injury

Before you lift a heavy article ask yourself the following:

Am I in the proper position?

Do I have good footing?

Can I lift this by myself or do I need help?

Why not let my legs do the lifting instead of my back?

Why take a chance?

Danger From Animals.

With your children outside all day long it's a wise idea to see that they are protected from animals which can be dangerous. For pre-school children a sturdy fence around the house yard—with a large area for play and plenty of play equipment will keep them interested. Keep your eye on the child, even though you can't be outside also check often and know where they are. When they lose interest in their activities you'll know and be able to distract them from wandering away.

Water Safety Is Important

Swimming and boating accidents occur all too frequently. With precautions they can be avoided. Don't forbid your children to swim. But when they want to swim make sure they are doing so under capable supervision. Teach them the rules of water safety and observe these rules yourself.

There is no lack of information to help you to safe living. However you must make sure you know and practice safety measures.

4-H Beef Club Meets At Marwayne

MARWAYNE. — The members of the Marwayne 4-H Beef club met on May 4th at Mr. Walter Kvill's where Alex Letts instructed them on how to judge and prepare calves for the show ring. The members were then given a chance to judge the calves themselves. After this Mrs. Kvill served everyone with a very enjoyable lunch.

On May 7th the 4-H members gathered for their monthly meeting. The Achievement Day, to be held at the Marwayne sports grounds on June 1st, was discussed and it was decided to have a booth. Mr. Johnson and Mr Earl Grey volunteered to organize committees for the booth and the Grain club members are required to help.

Mr. Letts showed some very interesting films and the evening came to a close with a lunch, the boys eagerly washing the cups.

Feeders' Day At University June 1

Saturday June 1, is the date of the 38th Annual Feeders Day at the University of Alberta. To be held as usual at the University Livestock Farm, reports and discussion will continue from 10.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. Lunch at a nominal charge will be available on the grounds.

Feeders' Day offers an opportunity for research men of the Department of Animal Science to meet and discuss with farmers and others results of experiments conducted during the past twelve months. Among the [illegible] experiments to be reported this year will be protein-energy relationships of swine rations, supplements for growing and finishing hogs and [illegible] feeding of grain and supplements [illegible]. Results of other swine experiments released will refer to creep feed prestarter rations for pigs, comparison of Lacombe x Yorkshire crossbred pigs with purebred Yorkshires and breeding methods for elimination of [illegible].

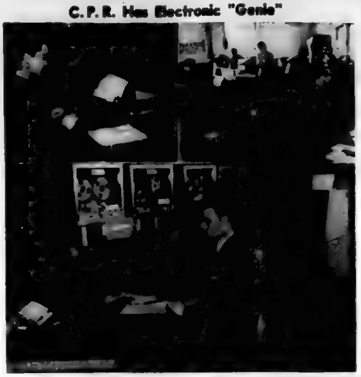
Year after year keen interest is shown in these Feeders Day reports. Dr. L. W. McElroy, head of the Department of Animal Science tells us that [illegible] copies of the 1956 printed report have been distributed, 2,000 of them to people who asked that their names be placed on the permanent mailing list. Greatest satisfaction is obtained by attending Feeders' Day and entering into discussion. If this is impossible a request to the Department of Animal Science, University of Alberta, or to the Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture at Edmonton will result in a copy of the report being mailed to you immediately after the event.

C.P.R. Has Electronic "Genie"



A giant, new "electronic brain" with nerve endings in scores of cities, towns and hamlets across Canada has gone to work for the Canadian Pacific Railway. Key figures in the operation of the I B M electronic "genie", capable of producing answers to the most complicated problems in railway paper work, will be local agents who will feed information over the company's communications network from stations and yard offices across the CPR system. Upper left Miss Dona Hunter operates a "flexowriter" in Toronto freight office which simultaneously reproduces a punched "tape" carrying information which is transmitted to the Toronto "data center", similar in its function to the Winnipeg "data center" shown in the upper right, evaluates and processes this information and, if required, transmits it to the "705" installation in Montreal. Lower inset, M. T Devlen, general supervisor of the CPR's integrated data procedure research, sits in at the operator's console of the "705". Thus, the giant electronic brain is fed information from widely scattered points in the vast CPR system and results of the processing can be returned to the source by the same procedure.

Wax your linoleum for longest wear, and don't scrub it too often. Harsh scrubbing to remove imbedded dirt will eventually wash away the linoleum. Manufacturers generally advise a hard-gloss wax polish and a damp mop for best results.

Mother's Day Service, 4-H Club Meeting Feature Islay Activities

The 4-H Grain club met at the home of Mr and Mrs Dave Martin. A ball game started off the evening. Then a short business meeting was held with President Raymond Kowalski in the chair. Mr Alex Letts, the assistant D. A. at Vermilion showed some slides on grain plots, among them the championship plot of the province. Then there was a sing-song and best of all, a lunch! Raymond moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Martin for a lovely lunch and to Mr and Mrs Mratin for the use of their home.

New products come on the market regularly. Call in to Miller's store and ask for a "rat repellant". We think it should be good, perhaps better than Warfarin. Mr. Whitcher Sr has his doubts.

Miss Janet Bell was home for the mother's day week end. On Monday Janet was to be initiated into a new position in a real estate office. Over the week end Mr and Mrs. Jim Allan had as guests from Calgary, Mr and Mrs Bell, Ian and Heather, relatives.

The church was filled Sunday morning for Mother's Day service which many parents attended. In the evening Rev MacKay gave a very excellent address on "Honor thy father and thy mother". Thought-provoking it was too, to the parents as well as the children. Flowers in the church were beautiful.

Mrs Winnie Torrance had telephone calls for the day from daughter Gwen in Calgary and Marjorie in Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Bill McLean attended the Home & School convention in Edmonton as a delegate from the Islay Association.

The 4-H Sewing Club met on May 1st at the school and on May 10th as a rehearsal in preparation for Achievement Day on May 22 in the evening.

More Pedigree Stock For Duke's E-P Ranch

The E-P Ranch owned in part by the Duke of Windsor will continue as a pedigree stock venture, according to Colonel Douglas Kennedy, director of the operation.

In an exclusive interview from London, England, with "Agriculture 'Round the World's" globe circling farmcaster, Ron McCullough, Col. Kennedy reported further pedigree stock shipments are now underway as a result of the success of the first year's operation.

The shipment includes Galloway and Hereford cattle, along with large white hogs. Eventually the Ranch's cattle herd will number 200 head.

Col Kennedy, on a recent 2½ week visit to the Ranch, found the British imported cattle stood the winter well. It was on this basis that further shipments of cattle have commenced. Colonel Kennedy views the Ranch's future with "reasonable optimism."

The Duke, his private secretary, and the Colonel, which make up the operating firm, plan to use the E-P Ranch as the keystone for further expansion to other agricultural enterprises in Western Canada. Colonel Kennedy pointed out the Ranch operation is completely independent of his firm, British Livestock Exports.

Turning to Britain's present dairy and cattle situation, Colonel Kennedy pointed out the stable price levels of pedigree cattle in comparison to those of dairy farming. For this reason some emphasis in dairy farming may be diverted with the increased interest in British pedigree cattle.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Much of your success as a driver depends on your attitudes. Emotional instability or maladjustment of any kind can seriously affect the driving ability of a person, according to studies by Drs. Leon Brody and Herbert J. Stack of the Centre for Safety Education, New York University.

For more than 20 years, psychologists have been studying [illegible] him to court accidents, pay heavy fines, disregard simple courtesy for a fellow driver. They have come to the conclusion that the difference between a good and a bad driver is not necessarily knowledge or skill but psychological traits called attitudes.

Attitudes have to do with the application of knowledge and skill. For example, [illegible] times have you seen an impatient driver try to pass another on a curve? He probably knows very well why such an action is dangerous or unlawful. Yet, his attitude at the [illegible] makes him risk his life, violate the law.

Poor attitudes are manifested in many different ways. Scientific studies show that drivers with bad records are apt to be aggressive or intolerant of others. They tend to resent authority and are inclined to have an exaggerated opinion of their importance and abilities. Many times they act impetuously and lack responsibility. Such attitudes are known to be caused by some basic fault in the individual's personality or by maladjustments as a result of unhappiness at the home, at work or in his relations with other people.

On the other hand, good attitudes on the road are generally shown by persons who are both good workers and citizens. Such good attitudes, however, may temporarily disappear. A so-called model driver may suddenly become preoccupied with a personal problem and forget his usual road habits. The studies also show that if a driver with good attitudes is subjected to continuing mental or emotional strain, he is apt to become a chronic violator.

Marriage Brokers Play Cupid

Marriage brokers, date clubs and lonelyheart correspondence cupids will help introduce over 500,000 Canadians this year for fees ranging from 50 cents to $150, reports editor Frank Rasky, in Liberty magazine. Canada's 3,750,000 single men and 3,325,000 single women are fair game for these "merchants of romance", who have built up a giant industry Rasky calls "the loneliness soothing business".

Canada's 13 gossip tabloids and 138 foreign-language weeklies run most of the "loneliness soothers" advertisements, since many daily papers refuse to accept them. "Their ads palpitate with seductive adjectives and seem as potent as the mating call of a lonesome moose sounding the siren for female moose," says Rasky. "I'm not so beautiful. But not so ugly either," one widow advertised. "Look me over."

One divorced 45-year-old lawyer came to a Toronto marriage agency with a really ingenious scheme to relieve himself of alimony payments. "My ex-wife," he said, "is receptive to remarriage. But she isn't sufficiently dramatizing her availability. And, naturally, she'd take a dim view of any help I might offer. I'm ready to pay her registration fee — if you can persuade her to become your client, by sending her circulars for a special 'Bargain' fee." The agency's honeyed circulars finally brought her into their office. She is now amicably wed to a candy manufacturer — to the immense relief of her ex-mate.

WRITING-ON-STONE PROVINCIAL PARK

May 20 is an important date in two southern Alberta areas. The official opening of the Writing on Stone Provincial Park, near Milk River will take place that day. The park is 25 miles south of Milk River and 735 acres in size. One main purpose of the park is to preserve the writings, believed of Indian origin, painted on the sandstone. They were first discovered and recorded in 1850 by James Doty, American government emissary treating with Blackfoot Indians.

The "Empress of England"

The Canadian Pacific's new 25,300-ton "Empress of England" sails past Quebec City with one of the ancient capital's most famous landmarks, the Chateau Frontenac Hotel, in the background. The white-hulled liner completed her maiden voyage from Liverpool to Montreal recently. Constructed with its sister ship, the "Empress of Britain," at a combined cost of $35,000,000, the "Empress of England" is one of the most modern ships afloat and is completely air-conditioned. The Empress of Britain, and the Empresses of England, Scotland and France will make a total of 44 calls at Montreal during the season and provide accommodation for more than 75,000 travellers. The "Empress of England", with a service speed of 21 knots, has space for 150 first class passengers and 900 tourists.

STUTTERING

Common Between Two and Five

Many children go through a period of stuttering between the ages of two and five. They try to say something, hesitate, then they try again to utter the sound or word they want to use. They may repeat the first letter of a word several times, or a whole word, or may even become so stuck they can't utter a sound. A great many children stutter at some time in learning to talk. By understanding its causes you may prevent it becoming a per[illegible].

Nervous Tension Is To Blame

A young child's stuttering is the signal of too much nervous tension, making him lose control of the delicate muscular balance he needs for speech. That's why in this early stage, you should do nothing directly about his correcting his speech, such as having him say a word or sentence over again. Your job is to find out what's making him so tense. This may not be simple since the causes can be varied and far removed from the speech itself.

Hide Your Own Anxiety

Ignore the stuttering itself and for the time being accept your child's speech as normal. Above all, do your best to prevent him from becoming anxious about his speech. Remember that your anxiety is readily felt by him. If you're upset, or show more pity, he'll react with more hesitation and stuttering.

Fatigue has a bearing on speech control; stuttering spasms happen more often when the child is overtired. The stammering child needs more rest than other children. An early [illegible]time is important. Poor toilet or feeding habits may cause emotional tension. Dealing wisely with feeding troubles, or with bed wetting may cause the [illegible]ing gradually to disappear.

An emotional shock or fright sometimes results in stammering. Your task here is to build up his feeling of security after the disturbing experience. Let him pour out his fear and anxiety and don't try to correct his stuttering as he tells it. Help him forget the nasty shock by giving him pleasant experiences to enjoy, such as a family outing or a new plaything.

Are Your Demands [illegible]

It's possible that his stuttering began when he tried to speak like the older ones around him. It turned out to be too much of a load. If you demand a lot from him and set impossibly high standards, he may find trouble in this hard business of learning to speak. When a child is making fast progress in talking why complicate things by making a show of it in having him recite nursery rhymes and jingles? Don't urge him to say long words or show amusement when he makes mistakes in pronunciation.

Sometimes, after a long illness, a child will start stuttering because he isn't quite ready to resume his usual daily routine. See that his readjustment to everyday normal living takes place gradually. He had extra attention during his sickness and if you take it away too suddenly, the emotional reaction may show up in stammering.

Children who show a tendency towards stammering are usually overactive emotional youngsters. Too much activity and excitement in play can have a bad effect on their speech. A regular routine is needed for them. Keep movies and parties to a minimum. Temper tantrums, jealousies, fears in fact any sign of emotional insecurity should be examined carefully and handled with patience. When there is constant quarrelling between parents, lack of harmony in the household the child's speech development may be deeply affected. Emotional security is your child's main need. The periods at which stuttering is most common after the 2 to 3 age are when he enters school and at adolescence—both times of big adjustments of life.

Steps Towards Helping Him

Parents can do a real job of helping to prevent or cure stuttering if they always keep in mind the close tie-up between the child's emotional stability and his speech habits. Relieve his tensions and never hurry him in his attempts to talk. Give him a chance to speak without interruption, listen with patience. Some direct ways of helping your child strengthen his speech muscles are through blowing bubbles and balloons, whispering and singing. They also bolster his confidence and make him feel he's doing something to overcome this uncomfortable habit. Curing the confirmed or severe stuttering is not a quick or easy matter and setbacks are to be expected. It may be advisable in stubborn cases to seek the advice of speech specialists.

A combined business and social took place Tuesday evening at Marie Miller's home, May 14th. Acting secretary Kay Stewart was pinch hitting for Dorie: how did ball practice go? Kay did very well and had a lot on the ball. We were looking for you, Dorie, up to the point where lunch was served, and was it good.

A letter from the District secretary in regards to the Grande Prairie convention was read and dealt with, and Tania Sigorjonnson volunteered to represent the Club and will go T.C.A. She will give a full report on convention activities after the annual banquet on May 22nd. Speaking of banquets the hostess, Marie, served just that after the brief business discussion on Tuesday night. "How that girl can cook" really, it was just wonderful! Thanks again, Marie, we all hope you get to go.

Alberta Travel Booklets

Both the new booklets being prepared by the Alberta Travel Bureau are in the hands of the printers by now. One is the new Accommodation Booklet, which lists, with their rating in the new star classification all the motels in the province. They are rated in Alberta on the same basis as in B.C. and Saskatchewan, so travellers will have a standard of accommodation from which to choose.

The travel bureau is also preparing to issue its new Information Booklet, which outlines the various scenic and holiday attractions in the province, and gives helpful information on Alberta travel conditions to visitors.

WILDMERE WINKS

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. H. Coburn of Battleview on the birth of a daughter on May 6th; also to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt on the birth of twin boys on May 11th.

On Wednesday last Mrs. A. Holte and the writer attended the annual St. Paul Presbytery meeting of the United Church held in Vermilion at the church. One hundred and twenty-two registered. It was a very interesting meeting and one met so many fine ladies from other parts. Mrs. Graham of Lloydminster was elected president to replace Mrs. C. Davis of Vermilion whose term expired. Mrs. Davis has done a good job as president these past two years. She is now literature convener for the Presbytery. The reports of the different W.A.'s was really interesting and many have done some wonderful work. The ladies who provided dinner are to be congratulated on the good meal they served and also for the excellent lunch after the meeting. The next annual meeting will be held in Vegreville, the first Wednesday in March. Mrs. McElroy of Edmonton was the guest speaker. As her talk was very enlightening and interesting the time really slipped by. She answered numerous questions afterwards.

Mrs. W. T. Garnett returned home Sunday from the hospital where she had spent a few days. May you soon feel better once more Gwen.

Mrs. Buster Newman of Battleview returned home on Saturday evening after spending nearly two weeks in the hospital. A speedy recovery to you Elsie.

We had our first United Church service at the little church on Sunday afternoon. Mr. H. Breithaupt is our student for the summer. He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte of Wildere. Next Sunday church will be at 7:30 p.m. so plan to attend and hear this fine young man in his chosen work.

We must thank Rev. Minchin for his fine church services held at Preston Central during the past months.

J. Wallington was one of the lucky people who won a hamper of groceries at Hareuther's Red and White store on Saturday.

Did you notice the wonderful lighting system Stephens have installed in their store? It is certainly a big improvement over the other lights and makes the store so bright.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford of town have been visiting their daughter Mrs. F. Gibson and family of Basswood.

Seeding is going on early and late although it has been cold some of these mornings. We hope that warmer weather will soon return. Saskatoon bushes are in blossom, also pin cherries, but we wonder just how much damage the frost has done to them.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Wageningen and Florent of Woodside called for a short visit on Sunday afternoon at the Wallington home. Come again folks and stay longer. How are the gold fish?

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the MacDonell family on the loss of a loving father. His cheery greeting and happy smile will be greatly missed by everyone. His day's work on earth was over and God took him home to his well-earned rest.

We owe Mrs. Cosh of Wildmere a sincere apology for leaving out her name in the W. A. church service we had at Easter. We only noticed the mistake last week. Very sorry Mrs. Cosh, hope you forgive us!

Congratulations, even though late, to Marion McQuid and husband of Calgary and also to Esther Hudson and husband of Edmonton for a long, happy married life. These girls lived in Tolland and Thorncliffe districts. Marion's parents still reside at Tolland while Mr. and Mrs. Hudson moved to the city some years ago.

With Vermilion W. I.

A special meeting of the Vermilion W.I. was held May 7th in the banquet room of the Brunswick hotel when fifteen members and nine visitors gathered to hear Miss Edna M. Craig District Home Economist from Wainwright. Miss Craig had a most interesting and instructive film on preparing, freezing and serving fruit, meat, vegetables and baking. The ease of preparation and attractiveness of all frozen products when displayed on a table set for dinner made us hungry and we all, or nearly all wished to go right out and buy a home freezer.

A report was given on old woollens sent to be made into blankets. These blankets will be back very soon and we have several to sell at very attractive prices so if anyone wishes to replenish their blanket supply phone Mrs. J. C. Perrier.

There were 45 sick calls reported, one fruit basket sent, three get-well and two sympathy cards sent.

Roll call was answered by exchange of plant slips.

Mrs. Julia Garnett won the Mystery box. Lunch was served by Mrs. J. W. Bell, Mrs. E. Rooks and Mrs. George Reasbeck. Mrs. Shepanski of the Brunswick hotel very kindly made tea and coffee for us. The Vermilion W.I. wish to express thanks to Mrs. Shepanski and the management of the hotel for the many kind things they did for us.

All were deeply grieved to hear of the accident to Jim Shepanski the day after we met at the hotel and we all trust and pray he will soon be on the road to recovery again.

Wins Scholarship At Banff School

Just as the Standard goes to press, Mr. Martin Shalka, on behalf of the Alberta Hotelmen's Association, announced that Miss Margaret Goodwin has been awarded a scholarship which entitles her to attend the summer session in music at the Banff School of Fine Arts during July and August. Miss Goodwin is a grade 12 student and an outstanding singer and pianist.

Margaret then entered the open mezzo-soprano or gold medal class and again placed first with a mark of 85, and thus won the gold medal. In this competition Margaret sang a French song, "Ouvre tes yeux bleus", by Massenet.

The talented artist is 17 years of age, a grade 12 student at the V.H.S. She is a daughter of Mrs. Agnes Goodwin of Vermilion. Her teacher in singing is Mrs. K. A. Minchin.

First Cottage Built At Vermilion Park Lake; Demand for Lots Brisk

The first summer cottage has now been completed at the Vermilion Lake in the provincial park. It has been built by Wm. Markosky of Mannville. Mr. Markosky who is a well known builder, is presently constructing the addition to the Mannville schools. He also plans to erect another cottage at the lake which will be for sale.

The lots for the cabins were surveyed this spring and staked out. They are not sold, but are leased at $15 for the first year, and $10 per year thereafter.

A short time ago the Board of Trade undertook an advertising campaign to interest people in the lots as sites for summer cottages. There was a brisk demand, eleven being leased to date with many more prospects. Those already leasing lots intend to build right away, and come from several points from Lloydminster on the east to Edmonton on the west. Quite a number have come from the city to look over the park as a result of the newspaper advertising.

From now on there will be quite a building boom at the lake, and committee secretary Ken Urquhart receives requests for information practically every day.

Opening Day At Vermilion Golf Club

The Vermilion Golf club cordially invites all golfers and would-be-golfers to join with them for the first event of the season this Sunday, May 26th.

At 2:00 p.m. flights will commence teeing off in a mixed 2-ball foursome tournament. There will be no entry fee, nor any charge for the golf. The event is open to everyone, beginners, seasoned golfers, male and female, young and old alike. All the Club asks is your entry before the two o'clock deadline to be included in the draw for flights. Names may be entered by phoning Gerald Stephens at 367 during the day and 270 in the evening, or Ken Greenwood, 162 or 52.

The Club invites you to bring along a picnic basket, have supper on the lawn at the club house and stay to see the Seagram Gold cup film. Free coffee will be supplied through the supper hour.

The attention of juniors and beginners is drawn to the fact that only a few more names are needed to make a start on the proposed school of instruction. If there are any points concerning golf on which you would like a bit of help, turn in your names now.

The Lloydminster Golf club have scheduled their [illegible] tournament for Sunday June 2. It is hoped there will be a strong representation from Vermilion for this event.

Outlines will also be given on the courses of study for Grades 10, 11 and 12. Bursaries available to students will be outlined.

A very special invitation is issued to Grade 9 students and their parents to attend this meeting.

School Beginners to Register June 9, 10

Tyloski. If this has not already been done, father and mother should call at the primary school on the afternoon of June 9th or 10th and see that their little son or daughter is duly registered so there will be a seat for him or her when school opens this fall. Mrs. Ronnie Bauer Wins Prize in Contest

(From Country Life Section of Mannville Mirror)

First prize of $22 in Country Life's Dividend contest has been awarded by the adjudicator to Mrs. Ronnie Bauer, whose post office address is Vermilion. The young mother of two children sent in her letter on the subject of how she planned to spend her oil dividend of $22 quite early in the contest. It was retained with others, including the earlier winners, for judging in the finals.

The decision was made on the basis of simplicity, sincerity and originality as well as freedom from duplication. Many good entries in the contest were eliminated because their writers expressed similar thoughts and it would have been impossible to select one.

Because Mrs. Bauer expressed her thoughts in simple language, couched in verse form, and what she had to say was not said by anybody else in just the way she said it, she wins the grand prize of $22.

The publisher, Mr. T. W. Poe, has expressed sincere congratulations to the winner and he wishes all contestants to know that their entries were all read and catalogued before final selection was made.

Most entrants, like Mrs. Bauer, appear to be thankful for the receipt of a few extra dollars through the Alberta Oil Dividend, and most mothers, like this and previous winners, appeared resigned to the necessity of serving the little children's needs first. Some very touching letters were received, as well as others that were exciting and thrilling. On the whole, the contest provided both readers and staff with a novel exercise, and if writing the letters was as enjoyable an experience as reading them in this office and judging them, then our Dividend Contest must be marked as a success.

Mrs. Bauer's winning letter follows:

MY $22 DIVIDEND

I thought I'd buy
A rug that's new,
Or get the kids
A toy or two
I've looked at shoes,
I've looked at clothes,
I'd even thought
I'd see more shows
I've wracked my brain,
Can't think no more;
So I'll spend it at
The grocery store

Mrs. Ronnie Bauer,
Vermilion, Alberta

The Boys' and Girls' 'A' teams have not been definitely chosen but students have been practising and endeavoring to obtain places on the teams.

Over the long week end the Vermilion Boys' 'A' team went to Lloydminster for some baseball games. The first game showed the boys facing a defeat of 25-9 against the Lloydminster team. Because of the weather, the remaining game was called off. We wish the boys better luck next time.

House League standing is still in the same position as it has been all year, Carmen is leading with 42½ points; Service is in second place with 35½ points and Laurier is still in the cellar with 11 points.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday afternoon, May 23rd, at 2:00 o'clock at the First United church, with interment to follow in the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay will officiate.

Rod McDonald Improving

The Standard has now received additional information regarding the serious accident to Mr. Rod McDonald of Clandonald, who was badly burned in an explosion and fire in a garage pit.

George Carlton rescued Rod from the flaming pit by pulling him by the head, up and out from under the rear of the car. At this time young McDonald was in a state of shock and was standing helplessly in the inferno. Once out of the pit, Mr. Carlton assisted by Fred Goddard and Carl Burns, beat out the flaming clothing by rolling the victim in a blanket. Considerable difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the fire in Rod's hair and in so doing Mr. Burns suffered bad burns about his hands. In the meantime Mr. Henry Schneider extinguished the fire in the pit with a fire extinguisher.

At this point Const. Jim Ferguson entered the garage and applied first aid and rushed the young man to the Vermilion hospital where he is at present. Although his condition is still serious he has shown marked improvement.

VISIT IN VERMILION ON WAY TO DRAMA FESTIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reynolds of Brantford, Ontario were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. West and Miss Gertrude Craig. Mr. Reynolds was manager of the Canadian Life office in Edmonton before the first World War. He was a member of the cast of the Edmonton players in the Earl Grey trophy contest in Winnipeg in 1911 when their production of "The Tyranny of the Tines" won top honors. Captain Reynolds served in the 194th Battalion, Edmonton Highlanders, under Col. W. C. Craig. Mr. Reynolds has been continuously interested in the Little Theatre work and the Dominion Drama festival of which he is a governor and which he will attend all this week in Edmonton. During the Festival Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Duncan, 10842 68 avenue, Edmonton. Mrs. Reynolds is a sister of Mrs. A. M. West, Miss Gertrude Craig and Mrs. J. Duncan.

Sees Many Changes In Thirty Years

His first visit to Vermilion in some thirty years brought many surprises to Paul Lehanky who grew up and attended school here leaving to attend university about the year 1923. Paul found that he didn't even know his way around but eventually spent a part of the afternoon renewing old acquaintances with Ashlyn Cooper. Paul was accompanied by his wife, daughter Naida and son Paul. They live at Ellscott where they operate the post office and a general store. This is in the Athabasca district. They had spent the week end visiting cousins north of Derwent.

Work Commences On Half-Million Dollar School In East End

Work has now commenced on the new half million dollar junior and high school being erected in Vermilion by the School Division Board. Foreman of construction is Mr. Vic Kapchinsky who is presently engaging carpenters and help for the big job ahead. Conservative estimates place the time for completion of the building as one year from now. The actual amount of the tender is $411,262.95.

The school has the equivalent to sixteen classrooms plus a large gymnasium. It measures 321 feet from east to west, and 098 feet running north and south. The building will face west. Contractor is C. H. Witham Ltd., of Edmonton.

While the total cost of the school is $411,262.95, grants from the Alberta government exceed $232,000.00. The balance of the cost is repayable by the Vermilion School Division over a fifteen year period.

Heavy Fire Loss At Farm Of Steve Krushinsky

Fire at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Krushinsky caused a heavy loss by destroying a chicken house, brooder house, barn and larder house. Fortunately no livestock was lost. Nearby granaries were saved thanks to the help of many neighbors who rushed to the scene and to the Vermilion fire brigade who brought the fire truck out from town. Telephone operators co-operated by notifying neighbors of the fire and asked for help.

Even the house which is removed from the farm yard was endangered by the flying embers and sparks.

Mayor Hill No. 1 Ostrich Driver

Mayor Hill is sporting a big red rosette and first prize ribbon as a result of winning the ostrich races at the Edmonton Spring Horse Show last Thursday night. Mel must have made a hit as the announcer was paging him again on Saturday evening, wanting him to perform again.

Derwent Man Hurt In Accident At Edmonton Airport Hangar

DERWENT—F.O. Mike Chykaliuk, formerly of Derwent, son of the late Demtro Chykaliuk of Derwent, was seriously injured and bruised when a Mitchell bomber swerved out of control and smashed into the Edmonton airport hangar.

This accident occured at 3:30 p.m., Thursday, May 16. Mike was rushed to the University hospital where he is now hospitalized. His sister, Mrs. Steve Semeniuk of Derwent was at his bedside 27 hours later and found him in satisfactory condition.

The plane was operated by F.O. T. Champion, who was the pilot and F.O. Mike Chykaliuk was co-pilot. When the plane came in for the landing the pilot found the brakes out of order. Mike acting quickly pulled the emergency brake and brought the plane to a stop. Had the emergency failed, it would have taken 418 hangar on a piggy back ride.

F.O. Chykaliuk attended the Derwent high school and in Edmonton attended Victoria high school with his friend, F.O. T. Champion.

Mike joined the air force in February, 1955 at Claresholm, and received his wings in April, 1956, at Rivers, Man. He has been in the R.C.A.F. reserve squadron since May and was due for a discharge at the end of August. He has plans to enter the University of Toronto this fall term.

On behalf of all the relatives and friends from Derwent, we all wish F.O. Mike Chykaliuk a speedy recovery.

COMMUNITY SALE

The community auction sale planned by Vermilion Branch for June 22nd is shaping up very well. It is asked by the committee convenors Don Keen and Bob Mullen that listings be made with them or with the secretary E. H. Buckingham. Would everybody please note that Bob Mullen is one of the convenors of this committee and not Geo. Richard as advertised last week.

Residents of Vermilion and district are asked to contribute anything that has a sale value. Everybody has something that is in the way and they will be glad to get rid of it. The committee is anxious to make listings so that articles can be got together in good time.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

This is the year (1957) that membership in the Legion is to be doubled. An appeal is made to all ex-servicemen and women in and around Vermilion to see the president of the Vermilion Branch, Thos. Thompson, or the secretary, E. H. Buckingham, or any one of the executive.

The Legion does a lot of welfare work among ex-service personnel. Also, assistance is given in many ways in connection with pensions, gratuities, etc. Veterans had a common cause and now they have a common bond in belonging to the Legion. Only ex-service men and women have the privilege of belonging to this organization.

TWO MEMBERS DECEASED

Two life members of this branch died during the past month. John Derrough, a first war veteran, and Ewen MacDonell, who saw service in the South African War in 1900.

Members of this branch attended both these funerals as a matter of respect and honour for their comrades who had passed on.

STILL LOWER THAN AVERAGE—

There were no doubt many moans and groans by ratepayers when tax notices were received in Vermilion this spring, as for the first time in several years the mill rate took a jump, meaning that Mr Citizen will pay a little more into the town coffers than he has been paying before.

On the basis of the 1956 tax rate Vermilion people were fortunate in that they ranked the lowest of any town of which the Standard has a record. Our 47 mills compared with 60 mills at Three Hills, 57 at Wainwright, 50 at Ponoka, 57 at Stettler, 56 at Lacombe, 56 at Olds and 50 at Edson.

Stettler rate for 1957 took a leap of 8 mills, making it 65, while Vermilion's increase of 6 mills to 53 simply brought it more in line with the other towns on the 1956 rates. It is also safe to say that Vermilion has a little more to show for the taxes than any of the other centres mentioned, more hard-topped streets and oiled roads, cleaner lanes, better garbage collection and street cleaning departments, ultra modern hospital facilities, and soon will have superior school accommodation. A sidewalk construction program is rapidly catching up with needs in that department.

The rate could have been eased upward possibly in previous years without any question as to the need as Vermilion has been operated on a very low municipal rate. Naturally enough, councillors always hesitate to raise mill rates and so it is left until there is just no other way out. In comparison we are still among the more fortunate when it comes to taxes.

Gentlemen:

Once more the year is at the spring so enclosed please find my renewal money order for another year. In eleven years a lot of water has gone under the bridge both East and West, but the Standard still is a welcome visitor from a land that will probably always be home to me. And even though it is with regret I note the passing of old acquaintances and friends I also note that many are still about and enjoying life even though, like myself, somewhat older, and I must say that through the columns of your paper I feel I have an almost personal acquaintance with some whom I did not know in the days in the West. When I came on a photo of the elder Mr Cooper in —was it Liberty? —some time ago, I felt as if I had unexpectedly met an old friend.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
J. WM. TITUS.

Mr Tom Smith and family are among the latest arrivals from England, coming from Rotherham, Yorkshire.

It is doubtful if any town anywhere ever saw an exhibition of real community spirt to equal that shown on Arbor day, Monday, when over sixty public-spirited citizens turned out to dig holes in the packed earth and plant trees in the hitherto barren town park. Holes were dug, fire brigade filled them with water and the planting gang went to work.

Wheat all through the country is showing great growth, the warm weather bringing it along fast. Rain is needed to make the grain jump and to bring along the grass for grazing.

We're Being Watched

An eye in outer space is likely to be keeping watch on the world within the next decade, reports The Financial Post. That is the way rocket research is leading. Scientists are saying that 200 pounds of a fuel made from cesium or rubidium will be enough to keep a 'satellite' full of televiewing instruments circling the world for a year.

Health Unit Notes

MENTAL HEALTH A WAY OF LIFE

What is Mental Health?

Mental health is so closely linked with how we think, feel and do that it would be unwise, if not impossible, to tie it down to a simple definition. There is, however, one quality common to people who enjoy good mental health—emotional security.

Such persons are useful members of society, reasonably happy and well-adjusted, who get along with their families, friends, schoolmates and business associates. They have their share of the "blues," get into quarrels and once in a while lose their tempers, but they have learned to take the ups and downs, the troubles and annoyances of every day living with a minimum of damage to themselves and others. As you'd expect, these people are able to meet life's serious crises successfully.

Fortunately, mental health is not a case of "either you have it or haven't". Just as physical health can be improved, or become run down, so too with mental health, that is the encouraging thing about it and the one which seems to be the most misunderstood. A weak or sickly individual can build better physical health and similarly most of us can do something about strengthening our own and our children's mental health.

Mental health isn't something that is separate from the rest of us, to be strengthened with a "set of exercise" or a "course of treatments." It's interlocked with our physical health, social life, church affiliation, family relationship, work, play and community participation. In short, good mental health might be described as something we have or can develop from balanced living.

Overwork, not enough recreation, selfish living . . . these won't necessarily make us mentally ill but they can lower our mental health. Regular, adequate meals, eight hours sleep, fresh air and exercise is time-tried advice for general health. It applies to mental health, too! Family life, the church and social activities should play their important roles, each in reasonable proportion.

In this way we can keep emotional equilibrium . . respect for ourselves and others, self-control, tolerance of other persons' views, ability to give as well as to take, making decisions and accepting responsibilities, facing up to problems and meeting success and failure with equal grace . . ability to "get along."

ESPECIALLY FOR OUR CHILDREN

Good mental health has been described as a family matter, flourishing in happy home life. How a child is brought up, the kind of family spirit about him —this is what mainly decides the kind of adult he'll become.

The things that are so vital to sound mental health in children are basically simple . . love and affection, praise and encouragement, a feeling of security in the home, a chance to really grow without being smothered by too much love and too many 'dont's'.

Wise parents today realize more and more that children need a healthy emotional background just as much as good food and clothing and education. If you wish more detailed information about this, there are many helpful publications free through your provincial health departments or local health units.

"GREEN ACRES"

SHARPEN THE DISKS

Everyone knows that dull disks on the one-way and the disker and shovels on the cultivators ought to be sharp to do a good job of cutting weeds. It also takes less power and less gasoline to pull the implements around the field. For disks on the one-way there is an emery stone set-up which can be run from a belt on the tractor. With this piece of equipment disks can be sharpened on the farm.

SPRAYING THE WEEDS

Farmers in the West are not spraying fields of growing crops to kill weeds as much as they did a few years ago. Yields per acre are less and less every year. This is not good farm management. Everybody knows that big yields make for bigger profits. Kill those weeds in the 2 to 3 leaf stage. Many farmers leave it until too late to do a good job.

BURNING STUBBLE

Very few stubble fires were seen this year in this district. These farmers applied for permits to burn the stubble. It is against the law to burn straw, stubble or brush without a permit. Stubble worked into the surface soil is the best thing we can do to check wind and water erosion. Also, it adds fertility to the soil.

SPRAYING NATIVE LAND

Buck-brush, willows, poplars, etc. can be killed easily by spraying with a mixture of 2,4-D and 2,4-5T. Get a circular from this office on how to do it. Grass cannot grow in a patch of buck-brush. Why not give the wild land a spraying and get more grass? Trees, weeds and grass cannot grow in the same place.

SEEDING CUKES

Cucumber, squash and pumpkin seeds should not be planted outdoors until the soil is very warm or they will rot instead of germinating. There is no reason why everyone cannot raise cukes, pumpkins, marrows and squash in this district, but wait until after June 1st, maybe June 5th to plant the seed.

RATS ON THE MOVE

At this time of the year Norway rats move from winter quarters to new places. Farmers and town people should keep a watch for them and report to the municipal office whenever any are found. As a matter of fact it is a violation of the pest control act if anyone fails to report rats on one's place. Poison bait is provided free of charge for killing rats. Only by the co-operation of everyone can we hold the rats in check.

THE TRUCK DRIVER

Men Who Make Alberta

Many fields of endeavour have been more glamorized, none are any more important than that of the men who provide the transportation necessary to our prosperity. This is true of any section of the civilized world, but nowhere is the truth more apparent than in Alberta.

Distances are great in this sprawling land, the population is spread over a huge area, and the economy of each area is dependent on all others. One of the most important links between the various centres of population and the widely scattered farms are the highways and the men who make the long hauls in the big trucks. With our dependence on national and international trade, the trucker is called upon to bear a large portion of the transportation load leaving and entering Alberta as well.

Yet all too frequently, the trucker comes in for unjustified abuse . . . his driving ability behind the wheel of a huge highway transport is sometimes criticized by people who show no particular talent when driving small passenger cars.

The truth is that collectively, the truckers' record for both safety and courtesy is second to none on our highways today. He drives a vehicle that is harder to handle than anything on the road, day and night, in all types of weather. His employers and customers stand for no incompetence. Their capital and their goods are in his hands. He just has to be good, and his record proves that he is.

With the trucker, driving is a profession, not a pastime or a means of personal transportation . . . and like any professional he knows his job . . . the best ways of keeping the wheels of Alberta industry turning and its population supplied with its needs.

Mannville Legion W. A. Celebrates 2nd Anniversary

MANNVILLE. — At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion No. 33, Mrs. G. H. Rudd was presented with a Past President's badge and Lapel pin in appreciation of her faithful service as auxiliary president during the past two years. Mrs. Tom Thompson, Zone commander from Vermilion, made the presentation, to which Mrs. Rudd fittingly replied.

Approximately 25 members of the Vermilion Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion Post 11 were present at this meeting to help the Mannville Auxiliary celebrate their second anniversary.

After the evening's business was dispensed with, all ladies present partook of a delicious lunch, the highlight of which was a lovely cake baked and decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Dorothy Bauer.

Holy Name Church, Vermilion, Is Setting for Beautiful Wedding

Crisp nylon lace over crepe fashioned the gown of traditional white chosen by Miss Evelyn Marie Klaschinsky for her wedding in Holy Name Church to Mr. Glen Baldock. Her waltz length gown was designed with bouffant skirt, a fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and a bolero jacket of lace with lily point sleeves. Her jewelry was the groom's gift of black Alaska diamond necklace and earrings to match.

She wore a fingertip veil and carried a cascade bouquet of American beauty roses and fern.

Rev Father Landrigan performed the ceremony for the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Klaschinsky and the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Baldock, all of Vermilion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was preceded up the aisle by the groom's sister Mrs. S. Greaves as Matron of honor, gowned in nile green lace, and the bride's sister Miss Louise Klaschinsky whose dress was pale pink net over taffeta.

Attending the groom was his brother Mr Bev Baldock, and the bride's brother Mr Ronald Klaschinsky.

Mr. Stan Greaves ushered the guests and Mr. James McGaughey played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served to thirty-eight relatives at the Legion Hall. The bride's table was laid with ecru linen cut work cloth and decorated with pink tea roses and tall tapers. Centering the table was the three tiered cake, baked by the groom's mother and beautifully decorated by Mrs. Orley [illegible].

Rev. Father Landrigan proposed the toast to the bride which was ably responded to by the groom and also by Mr. Larry Basler.

To receive their guests Mrs. Klaschinsky wore turquoise nylocord with a deep pink hat and corsage of roses. Mrs. Baldock wore turquoise French crepe with white accessories and rose corsage.

Later in the afternoon some sixty to seventy guests attended the reception in the Legion hall. During the reception Rose Kuzek and Louise Klaschinsky entertained with piano accordion music.

Mrs. Leo Klaschinsky kept the bride's guest book.

The happy young couple left on a trip to Banff and Jasper. The bride's going away outfit was avocado green tweed box suit with yellow accessories.

Out of town guests included two of the bride's aunts, Mrs. Leo Ehman of Holdfast, Sask. and Mrs. Monica Luknowsky of Kelowna, B.C. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot of Saskatoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hogoboam of Camrose, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Greaves of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fry of Violet Grove.

Carl Heckbert
Liberal Candidate
Battle River-Camrose
Constituency

We hear a good deal from opposition parties claiming that nothing whatever has been done by the Liberal government of Canada on behalf of Western Agriculture.

We hear claims that if this or that Party is elected to office they will, virtually at the stroke of a pen, make everything "hunky-dory" for our farmers. Doubtless statements of that kind will be taken by intelligent people for just what they are worth.

The Liberal Government HAS provided for

1. PRAIRIE FARM REHABILITATION. Thousands of water developments have been brought into being. One and a half million acres have been made into community pastures. Hundreds of families have been moved to better lands to better their chance of success.
2. THE FARM LOAN BOARD a Liberal measure has been amended to improve the loaning situation.
3. AGRICULTURAL PRICE SUPPORTS have been provided for farm products.
4. BONUSES have been paid on A and B Grade Hogs with $6 million used for the purpose (in 1956).
5. THE FARM IMPROVEMENT LOAN ACT has made it possible for farmers to finance essential machinery.
6. FREIGHT PAID ON FEED GRAIN shipped to eastern market.
7. THE CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING ACT has been passed to assist in marketing farm products.
8. WORLD MARKETS are being consistently and efficiently sought.

BUSIEST TRUCKS in the business!

Wherever big jobs are being done, Chevrolet trucks are there, putting their mightier kind of muscle to work. Chevrolets are Canada's busiest trucks by a wide margin . . . because they're the unbeatable champs of every weight class!

Next time you're out, check the trucks you see at work. It won't be long before you get the message . . . truck after truck, from lively pick-up to giant load hauler, is a Chevrolet.

And that's not hard to understand. Because truck buyers who know their business, know that Chevrolet trucks give more on-the-job hours, more operating economy, more hauling efficiency than any other trucks, bar none.

Look at the facts. Engines . . . thrifty 6's or mighty V8's, every great dependable Chevy engine delivers the right horsepower, the usable horsepower for your job . . . gets the most out of every gallon of gas.

Transmissions . . . only Chevrolet has revolutionary new Powermatic that gives you easy, efficient automatic shifting through 6 forward speeds with direct-drive cruising economy. Or take your pick of Hydra-Matic, Powerglide or Chevrolet's famous synchromesh transmissions.

Styling—Chevy has modern Work Styling that fits the job, gives you more efficient loading, longer life. Handsome Work-Styled cabs bring you panoramic visibility, concealed Safety Steps, High-Level ventilation and other big advantages.

Get the whole impressive story from your Chevrolet dealer right now. Have him show you why no truck can meet your needs half as well as Chevrolet . . . or give you more for your dollar!

Bowtell Bulletin

May 21st — and we had a snow storm this morning.

Twenty-nine attended Pleasant Valley church on Sunday when baby Williams was christened. Mr. and Mrs. Freestone were godparents. Thanks to Nora, the church was nice and clean.

Beverly Sherwood had her tonsils removed on Tuesday.

The writer and family were pleased to have the following visit us recently: Mr. Gow and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Knutson and Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Dedelly.

We are pleased to report Miss M. Gow back to good health again. She is employed at the Misericordia hospital, Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson plan on leaving our district in the near future for Vegreville. Mr. Johnson has been in poor health for some time.

If you want a good fish story, folks, ask Grandma Jones for one.

It is certainly nice to have the gravel on the road now that the rains are starting.

Mrs. A. Morrison was noticed with her little grand-daughter of Edmonton Saturday.

Many happy returns on your birthday, William. Is it sweet sixteen? Also many more birthdays to Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Knutson and Tom, who all celebrate on the 28th of May.

Logan Gow had a dog get into his wee chick pen and killed about 75 of them. Nora Ronaghan lost a number with crows.

Most of the gardens and crops are being finished up.

Some ten ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Robinson for the Loafers' Lodge May meeting. Thanks go to Mrs. Walker for the kind donations. The next gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Harrison.

We wish to extend our own and the district's deepest sympathy to the Davis family in their sorrow.

Where, oh where is our Vermilion rest room? Hope that the town council hasn't forgotten about their rural shoppers!

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Mrs. James Gordon and Mrs. Lloyd Knutson attended the annual meeting of the Vermilion Presbytery at Vermilion on May 8th. 122 were present.

The Paradise Valley Brownie Pack leaders would like to extend a 'Thank You' to everyone including the mothers who purchased the Brownies' cookies on Cookie Day. It made it possible for the Brownies to now get their beret or tams and complete their uniforms.

The regular Paradise Valley W.A. meeting was held in the church basement on May 7 with twelve members present. Mrs. Knutson and Mrs. Nickle led the devotional period. The Paradise Valley W.A. have been invited down to the Edgerton W.A. meeting on Thursday evening June 6. A bee will be held sometime in June to have the church and Sunday school building painted. Any volunteers to help will be welcomed. The date of the strawberry tea was set for June 13. Mrs. Nickle and Rose Sirett will be hostesses for the next meeting Tuesday, June 4 at 2 p.m. in the church basement. Mrs. J. Gordon and Mrs. C. Bleakley served a delicious lunch after the benediction.

Mrs. Robert Fair of Vermilion and Mrs. W. A. Gunn left Tuesday morning for points in Minnesota, going by car. It is quite a few years since these sisters left their home in that state to come to Canada.

Baseball and softball is the order of the day. On Wednesday evening the P.V. girls played the Edgerton A girls at Edgerton and were on the right end of a 14-6 score. On Thursday evening they took on the Senior ladies from Lloydminster and came out the winners again by a count of 8 to 5, much to their surprise. Helen Krawchuk did the twirling for the locals. In baseball the A boys did not fare so well as they lost to Edgerton by an 18-16 score. On Friday evening the Little League boys went to Chauvin and came home all smiles as they won 3-[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McAmmond of Calgary were recent visitors with Mr. McAmmond's mother Mrs. John McAmmond, and his brothers in town and district.

MAN - TO - MAN

"The way I see it," a big, good-natured American tourist said to me, "you Canadians ought to be yourselves and us folks in the U. S. A. ought to be ourselves, and we'd get along fine. When you've got a beef, name it and speak up bluntly; and when we're sore, we'll say so too. After all, you ain't a baby country — you're too big for sulking and you ought to deal man-to-man."

I liked what he had to say, and I took his advice. First, I told him I was sore at Congressional Committees for crossing our borders with their slander. I hate Commies as much as anybody does, but I think we're capable of unearthing them, ourselves without using the scatter-gun techniques of some U. S. A. Committees.

"Okay," he said, "and you ticked us off. Good. Nobody went to war about it!"

"Another thing," I said, while I still had my dander up, "is the way some of your windy senators rant about so-called Canadian cartels and monopolies in Canadian newsprint. Don't they know that the 1957 capacity of newsprint mills either in the States or controlled by the U. S. A. is bigger than the capacity of all Canadian-owned mills?"

"That true?" he asked, skeptically.

"True as you're born," I told him and I dug up figures — American figures—to prove it.

"Well," he said, shaking his head, "that just shows what I mean. You folks sulk over such things, instead of speaking up. Down home, we talk back to Washington plenty. You ought to do the same. But you pussy-foot too much. Americans would rather you'd get these things off you're chests. If you don't, one day you'll blow up on us something awful!"

I think he is right. I was happy to note the other day that at least one Canadian industrialist, P. M. Fox, blasted Washington politicians in language they could understand and with figures they couldn't refute. If more leading Canadians would do the same thing when necessary, we'd have a healthier, happier relationship with the U. S. A. Surely, as mature friends, we ought to be able to deal, as my American tourist put it, "man-to-man."

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE Federal Constituency OF Battle River-Camrose

The Liberal Government has finally found a policy to attract the voters in agricultural Canada. After some twenty-two years in power, twenty two years of opportunity to put any policy in practice, the Liberal government now talks of a new deal for agriculture.

There is to be a Royal Commission, we hear. Conservatives ask "Has there not been plenty of time for this in the past? We've had royal commissions on nearly everything else!"

Certain Liberal candidates are mentioning cash advances on farm stored grain. Here Conservatives can't help but wonder what is going on. This policy was advocated by Conservative spokesmen in the last sessions of Parliament. It was denounced in no uncertain terms by members on the government side. Now it is Liberal government policy, the candidates say.

Conservatives ask, "How did this about-face in government policy take place? Or is it simply wishful thinking on the part of Liberal candidates who have never attended a Liberal party caucus?"

The Liberal government has had the opportunity to implement any policy it cared to where Canadian agriculture was concerned. It has had an overwhelming majority since the last federal election, at which time conditions in agriculture had begun to worsen noticeably in comparison with other Canadian industries. It could have used that majority to force passage of its own legislation. The fact that it has done nothing is, Conservatives believe, sufficient proof that it is not likely to do anything if re-elected thing if re-elected.

Conservative farm policy includes the appointment of a royal commission to study the spread between producer and consumer prices of various farm products. Conservatives endorse the principle of cash advances on farm stored grain. These are two points of CONSERVATIVE policy which the Liberals are now claiming for their own. They've had their chance. Let's give Diefenbaker and Smallwood a chance.

WILDMERE WINKS

The Wildmere W.A. held their May meeting on Tuesday the 14th. Owing to a busy time not many were able to attend. A Scripture reading and theme song opened the meeting. Mrs. Wallington reported on the joint church board meeting; Mrs. Holte told of Rev. McLaren and the Presbytery meetings. Our W.A. is a year old this month. The President read the President's address of Alberta Conference in Calgary. Mrs. Holte had a letter from H. Plante, a former student minister here. He had written a short story for the boys' Sunday school paper and it had been accepted. The story is about our little Wildmere church so we hope to see it. We are to have our stuffed toys and used clothing ready to send to Miss Horning in Japan by August.

Mrs. Wallington is to see about insurance for the church which the W.A. will pay for. Mr. Holte to inquire about paint to do the inside of the church.

Mrs. Rendell had devotional and she gave a talk on the Anglican nuns in St. Mary's Abbey at West Malling, Kent, England. A very good paper.

Church next Sunday is at 7:30 p.m. All were pleased to see Mrs. W. Ford of town at church. She is at present visiting her daughter Mrs. Gibson.

On Friday evening Mr. Holte's sister and husband of Edmonton visited them and on returning to the city Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Holte accompanied them. They came home Monday evening with Mr. Breithaupt who had spent Monday visiting a friend in Edmonton.

Miss Alice Clark of Triangle is now working at the Rio cafe in town; Doris Fadden is employed at the Ponoka Mental hospital; Bertie Fadden is working for Frank Gibson of Basswood.

Roy Garnett made a flying trip home over the long week end from his work north of Edmonton.

We are happy you had such a nice birthday Mrs. Moore, may you have many more.

Uranium Era

If science and industry had never progressed beyond the initial cost stage there would never have been an aluminum era or a nickle era or even an iron era. All these metals were prohibitively expensive to use at first for almost any purpose. So was electricity and steam. But new processes combined with greater and more effecient output brought costs down steadily and uncovered more and more economic uses.

The same development asserts The Financial Post is certain in the uranium era just ahead. Already there are definite indications that costs of producing atomic power from uranium are coming down sharply.

A hard frost 7 degrees of it, featured the weather this week. It was registered Tuesday night and Wednesday morning and no doubt did considerable damage to blossoms, some coarse grains which were well up and garden plants. Monday night and Tuesday morning the low spot was 28 degrees above.

Seeding is all but completed in this area, a good two weeks ahead of any year since 1950.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

With June the traditional month for weddings, many of you will be planning showers for the June bride of your community. If you know that the bride has had several [illegible] showers held in her honor, perhaps you'd like to make yours special.

SHOWER THEMES

Recipe Shower

Each guest brings her favorite recipe typed or written neatly on file cards. The hostess provides the filing box. Menu suggestions accompanied by shopping lists could be included. Some suggestions could be: meal for unexpected [illegible]; quick meals for wash days; snacks for an evening's entertainment. The menus should accompany the recipes and menus. Also you could include—recipes for Keeping Husband Happy, and similar novelty items.

Clean-Up Showers:

This is an unglamorous but very practical shower for the bride who won't have to pack and move her gifts to a distant home. It could include waste paper baskets, brooms, mops, soaps, detergents, bleaches, clothespins, scouring pads, floor wax, furniture polish, cleaners, steel wool, dish clothes, tea towels, etc. Also a covered grape basket could be added to be used as a cleaning supply carry-all. Such a shower could be hilarious if anyone is gifted in making up verses to accompany the gifts. A bundle of rags for dusters and floor cloths would be appreciated as the bride in a new home has no old [illegible] around.

Here's a game suggestion which sounds like fun:

Bride's History

Divide the guests into groups with each group being given old magazines, scissors, glue and paper. The first group composes the history of the bride as a baby; using pictures from the magazines; writing history (real or fiction) and using article headings and [illegible] where possible. An example could be, "Her mother used to ask — pasting here an article heading such as "Why does my baby suck her thumb?" Other groups can do pre-school days, school days, teenage, career, courtship, and the wedding. At the end of a given time, the various histories are combined in a book, and after every one has seen and autographed it, given to the bride as a keepsake.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Did you ever stop to think that the family car—that trusty means of transportation — can also help in the building of good family relations. A friend of mine recently told me of his experience in this respect.

A busy man, he realized one day that his ten year old boy no longer came to him for counsel or to seek his companionship. He set out to find a common interest, and discovered that his boy, like many youngsters, loved automobiles and could identify any make of car. One Sunday, he suggested a drive with his son.

On the road, he explained to the boy the meaning of such road markings as double white, single and dotted lines. At one point, he asked his advice on whether or not to pass the car ahead. This lead to a discussion of passing on hills and curves. Soon the boy's interest carried the conversation to car mechanics, and then on to other subjects. The boy discovered his father was easy to talk to and that he understood the problems of growing up. Their Sunday drive together became a ritual and served to cement a firm relationship between father and son.

The same can hold true for mother and daughter. By taking Susie with her on afternoon drives when she can demonstrate visually the importance of safe driving, Mom will instil in her daughter the need for safety on the highway.

Employer's liability insurance coverage was ordered checked by the insurance committee of the board, for possible duplication of coverage occurring by the hospital entering into a similar agreement with the Workmen's Compensation board.

A number of patients' accounts requiring individual attention were reviewed by the board and instructions regarding disposal were given the secretary.

Remedy for Inflation

With industry and consumption working overtime almost continuously since the end of the war, the incentive to work harder and better has worn pretty thin, points out The Financial Post, but it is more hopeful of the future. With industry facing an easier pace it says consumers are not standing in line ready to take everything or anything offered.

"A normal man is going to put a little more enthusiasm into his job, be a little more careful to do a better job, if he knows there is someone else ready to step into his shoes. And certainly a little harder work with more actual goods produced in the same length or time, is the most effective control yet devised for inflation."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barclay Are Farewelled At Clandonald

Quite a large crowd gathered in the Orange hall on Monday, May 13th to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barclay who are leaving [illegible] to take up residence in their recently purchased home in Vermilion. A couple of hours passed very quickly in square dancing and some games usually associated with younger children. Some were a little rusty not having played drop the handkerchief etc., for some sixty years or more — however they seemed to soon catch on. Our thanks go to Bob Peck who contributed much to the success of the evening. Bob brought his speakers and went to some trouble explaining modern square dances to the many greenhorns present and then did a highly commendable job of calling.

Following a tasty lunch the Barclays were presented with a handsome coffee table by Mr Hugh Hagen. Prior to the presentation, Hugh in his remarks, noted how Ed and Charlotte had done their part in developing the community during their many years of residence in our town. Mrs. Barclay had taught the public school for several terms until forced to resign because of ill health. Ed had been associated in our thoughts with the motor grader and snow plow and although coming in for some good-natured leg pulling by the speaker had done a real job over the years. Following the presentation all joined in "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" and many expressions of hope for the Barclays' future happiness in their new surroundings.

RODDY MacDONALD IMPROVES — Credit to George Carlton, Carl Burns

The many friends of the MacDonald family were shocked to hear of the serious accident which befell Roddy during the past week. Word of his condition is more reassuring now and the news of his improvement is being followed with keen interest by all. Much credit goes to George Carlton and Carl Burns for their prompt action in pulling Roddy from the blazing pit and then rolling him in a blanket to smother the flames which enveloped him. Carl suffered some burns to his hands during the rescue but fortunately we believe these are not of a serious nature.

VACATION IN THE U S

Driving their car to Wetaskiwin, they accompanied their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Clymie and family for the remainder of the trip. Another married daughter Wilma has her home in the California city. While visiting an amusement park the Goad's daughter Gladys had the misfortune to lose a considerable sum of money and Wilma's husband a valuable pair of binoculars when their car was broken into.

F. U. A. Sets Up Car Insurance Pool

EDMONTON. — The Farmers' Union of Alberta completed arrangements for the setting up of a Farm Union Car Insurance Pool according to Mrs. W. C. Taylor of Wainwright, Chairman of the Union's Car Insurance committee. Under this plan the farmers will take out car and truck insurance with the Co-op Fire and Casualty Company. When 7500 vehicles are insured their policies will be put in a pool and in subsequent years their rates will be set on the basis of the experience they have had — few accidents low rates, many accidents high rates.

Commenting on the plan A. W. Platt, President of the Union, said: "This is a self help plan to get insurance at cost. Not only are we cutting out costly administrative frills but by giving our members a stake in the business we can demonstrate that safe driving pays. We fully expect that farm people will demonstrate that accidents can be reduced. He also stated that while this scheme was limited to Farm Union members there was no reason why large city groups could not also take this car insurance business in hand and reduce their rates by developing similar plans."

An Untidy Lot

The grass is growing fast along Canadian highways now but not enough yet to hide the litter of bottles, cans, boxes and other junk that has been accumulating since last fall. Go almost anywhere to the park, or the airport or to some picnic spot and one will see trash scattered about, and the more prosperous we become the greater the scattering.

Canadians, declares the Financial Post must be about the untidiest of civilized peoples. When they come to the last cigarette, or candy, away goes the empty box in the gutter or on someone's lawn. They act as if the garbage can has never been invented.

THE TALE of the ANXIOUS AGENT

(he worries about your goodwill)

There was a certain agent who had much treasure. He guarded it carefully since it was not his own, but belonged to his customers. This treasure was called Goodwill. With other agents of his same company, he found that this treasure increased when he satisfied his customers.

Therefore this agent did many things. He served his customers faithfully. He sold only first-rate goods. He did many other things while he worried about the treasure.

Then one day he realized the truth: There is no need to be anxious about Goodwill. Good service and good products will not only increase it, but will also protect it. Now the agent is not anxious.

Moral: Your good will is the most important prize in the world to any company. Every National Grain agent knows the importance of a satisfied customer, and he will take any reasonable step to see that you are satisfied. You see, he offers the kind of goods and service that earn long-time friendships. Call on him soon, won't you?

Paradise Valley Graduation Featured By Addresses, Presentations, Dance

On Friday, May 10th the parents, honored guests and teachers gathered in the Paradise Valley school auditorium to honor the Grade XII graduands. Mr David Clark, principal, spoke on behalf of the staff concerning the fine co-operation of the students, parents and the School Division. Following this Mrs. B. Kent, accompanied by Miss Janet Kent on the piano, favored with two lovely songs. Miss Helen Krawchuk was the valedictorian. She spoke of the memories of school years gone by and the opportunities that lie ahead of the graduands. Mr. Baptist, high school teacher, proposed a toast to the graduands to which Miss Sharon Walter replied appropriately. Mr. A. Weeks spoke on behalf of the divisional board, expressing his good wishes to the graduands. Mr. E. Walter, vice-principal, then presented the graduands with their class rings, recalling several humorous and serious incidents of each student during his or her school career.

The graduands were: Chane Bush, Helen Krawchuk, Robert McLean, Violet Teasdale, Fred Weeks, Sharon Walter, Shirley Wiley, Margaret Wolfe and Eva Brassington who was unable to attend due to illness. Fred Weeks spoke on behalf of the graduands thanking the Students' Union for the rings. He also thanked Mr. Walter for the kind words of encouragement to the graduands. Mr. Davidson, local school board chairman, spoke of the benefits of education.

The guest speaker Hon. A. O. Aalborg was introduced by Mr. Simonson, the superintendent of schools for Vermilion School division. After complimenting Mr. Aalborg on the wonderful job he is doing in the legislature Mr. Simonson continued on with words of encouragement for the graduands in the different vocational fields.

Hon. Mr Aalborg expressed his pleasure in being able to attend the Paradise Valley graduation exercises. He then recalled old memories about the graduands and their parents. Following the by-gone day memories he discussed the topic of education and gave a very interesting talk on the definition of education. "Alberta's most valuable investment is her young people and it is hoped that this will remain so", said Mr Aalborg. He then expressed sincere best wishes to the graduands and their future.

Mr. Clark thanked the speakers and the banquet came to a close with "God Save the Queen."

The auditorium was decorated in boughs of beautiful white and red roses linked with white streamers. Each place card held a white rose and on the curtains were white roses in formation of "To Our Grads of '57"

At 9.00 o'clock the graduation dance began. The music was supplied by the Edgerton Starlighters. Guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Walter and Cecil Reid, vice-president of the Students' Union. The evening commenced with the graduands leading the dance. The crowd then joined in and the Grand March followed. There was a dance in honor of each of the graduands and each honor dance was danced with a parent of the graduands. A buffet style lunch was served during the evening. Iced punch was a special attraction at the table.

The undergrads wish to thank everyone who helped or contributed in any way to the success of the evening. The staff and the graduating class wish to express their appreciation for all the assistance they received. They also wish to congratulate the undergraduates on the very splendid banquet and dance they so capably directed. The 1957 graduation exercises will remain a highlight in the history of the Paradise Valley school.

Farmers' Day Friday, June 14th

Friday, June 14, is Farmers' Day and all school children get a holiday. As for the farmers, they'll probably be too busy to take the day off. This special Farmers Day is set by Alberta's Social Credit government.

The O.O.R.P. will hold a Lilac tea in the Elks hall on Saturday, June 1st. There will also be a display of handicraft by the Handicraft Guild. 43-47

The C. C. F. says:

14 cents on every dollar of their sales to distributors is what the machinery manufacturers monopolies made. (Legislative Inquiry Report, Sask., 1952) On a $5,000 combine that's $706 they made out of the farmer.

Reliable statistics show that the average Canadian farmer, claiming $2,000 a year for his labour, would receive almost no return on his capital investment. Canada Packers had an average annual profit (after paying large salaries to Presidents, Directors, etc., etc.) of 27% on capital investment since World War II. From 1954-55 profits in iron and steel industries increased by 33% in textiles by 74% and others in proportion. ONLY THE C. C. F. SAYS, CUT MONOPOLY PROFITS AND GET FARM PARITY.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

Cool weather and frost, some hot days and then cool again on May 20th, very near the freezing point.

A recent letter from France from the Whelan family tells us they had snow there in May — something unknown in those parts at that time of year. In seven months the Whelans will be returning to Canada.

May 9th the Allandale W. A. met at the Thrandeson home in town. The date for the W A. supper was set for July 3. More details about this later. The June meeting will be at the I. Nelson home on June 13th.

Congratulations and our best wishes to Mr and Mrs. Frank Schmidt (nee Helen Nelson) on the birth of twin boys on May 11th, Wayne Allen and Bruce Edward. Their grandfather Mr. Idelore Nelson and their great aunt Ellen Omness were twins.

Mr Rector had a very fine sermon on May 12th paying tribute to mothers on "Mother's Day".

Company at the Baldocks on May 10th were daughter Beryl, Tommy and family from the city, sister Georgina and Morris from Saskatoon and aunt Mamie and uncle Wilmer from Camrose, to attend the Baldock-Klaschinsky wedding and visit over the week end

Visitors at the Idelore Nelson's over the week end of May 10th were Mr and Mrs. John Ockerman, the latter's parents from Ferguson Flats and sister Lily and Harold Swanson and daughter Beverly from Fort Saskatchewan. Mr. and Mrs. Ockerman were visiting at the Swansons and all motored from the Fort On Sunday the 12th Karl and Olga Ockerman and Johnny Ockerman called for the day and mother and dad returned to the Flats with them.

To the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Glen Baldock of Vermilion our congratulations and best wishes.

Allandale was represented at Mr and Mrs. Ed Barclay's farewell party in Clandonald. We wish Mr and Mrs. Barclay well in their new home in Vermilion.

On May 14th Mrs. Mabel Lee went by bus to the city where her brother Rufus Omness was to meet her. While in Edmonton the Omness family and Mrs. Lee visited at the Walsh home [illegible] to visit Mrs. Lee had spent a week at Wainwright with her daughter Isabel, Jimmy and family.

Visitors in the district May 15 were Omer Easton, Mr. M. Maire and Mr and Mrs. Nick Klaschinsky and daughter Sh[illegible] from town.

[illegible] service was held on Sunday the 19th and it was good to have an evening service. Mr. Rector had an interesting sermon on the third commandment. May 12th service will be at 11:30 a.m.

Mr Gilbert was taken to an Edmonton hospital. We all wish him a speedy recovery and hope he will soon be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nelson and daughter Alva from Lloydminster were visitors in the district last Sunday May 19th.

Mr. Arnold received a letter from the Phillips family in Victoria. They are comfortably settled in a suite for the time being not too far from daughter Kathleen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Nadchuk (May Butler) and family. Mr Phillips and Edwin are working

Mr and Mrs. Glen Baldock spent the long week end on the farm at Glen's parents' home.

Rev and Mrs. MacKay and sons David, Jimmy, Dennis and Stephen from town spent the afternoon of May 20th at the Omness home, gardening.

Closing Thought: "Success is being big of heart and clean and broad of mind. It's being faithful to your friends and to the stranger, kind. It's in the children whom you love and all they learn from you. Success depends on character and everything you do."

S. C. Leaders Outdraw Prime Minister At Edmonton Meetings

EDMONTON. — Alberta farmers should finish this year in a somewhat better financial position, if the first three months of the year are any indication.

The Alberta bureau of statistics in its first quarterly report of 1957 shows a substantial boost in the cash income of farmers and paints a rosy picture of the province's economy in general.

Farm earnings from grain and livestock sales increased by a total of $22,205,000 during January-March over the same period of 1956. The main reasons appear to be sizeable jumps in grain deliveries and a higher wheat board adjustment payment.

But whatever the reason, farmers earned $56,201,000 from grain in the first three months of this year, which represents a healthy increase of $16,424,000 over income for the same months last year. Livestock earnings were $39,122,000, or an increase of $5,781,000.

Combined with income from dairy and poultry products, the farmers raised in something like $100,000,000 in the period under review, against $78,300,000 for the same period a year ago.

It could be the first glimmerings of a brighter trend in the farm economy. At this point it would certainly seem that indications point to better days for those who work in Alberta's primary industry

Certainly all other phases of the economy are remaining buoyant. Albertans purchased more automobiles and trucks during the first three months of 1957 than ever before, and retail trade hit new highs for the period, according to the bureau's report.

BIG DRAWING CARDS

The top men of Social Credit proved bigger drawing cards than the Prime Minister of Canada at a mammoth rally in the capital city last week. Approximately 2400 persons all but packed the Northern Alberta Golden Jubilee auditorium to hear National Socred Leader Solon Low and Premier E. C. Manning.

It was Social Credit's biggest meeting of the campaign to date and received an enthusiastic reception from the crowd which outnumbered that drawn by Prime Minister St. Laurent when he launched the Liberal campaign in the west.

The highlight was Mr. Low's announcement that he is prepared to accept a challenge from the prime minster and have some member of the privy council examine a telegram sent to Sir Anthony Eden during the Suez crisis last fall so Canadians may know the truth about it.

Mr. Low has suggested the telegram from Mr. St. Laurent may have threatened Canada's withdrawal from the Commonwealth unless the fighting in Egypt stopped within 24 hours. Branding the statement a 'downright lie' the PM claimed his oath of secrecy prevented him revealing the contents but he could show the wire to any privy councillor who would confirm that there was no such threat.

The meeting, which was attended by the capacity crowd, cheered, applauded and gave standing ovations to Messrs. Low and Manning. There was one lone heckler who soon gave it up as a bad job after being shouted down by the crowd repeatedly.

FRIENDS and NEIGHBORS

Suggestions that there's "active dislike" in Canada of Americans or that the two nations don't trust one another as believers in democratic practice are both untrue and unhelpful, declares The Financial Post.

Between Americans and Canadians there's a strong bond of active good will and even affection. No other neighbors in the world get along so well together.

Let us, as old hands in the business of running the democratic form of government, argue, debate and criticize as freely as we wish: but let's refrain from nonsensical and harmful statements about dislike and mistrust. These are figments of disordered imaginations.

How about that SUB. date?

Pot Luck Supper For Guides, Mothers

A Guide and Brownie 'Mother and Daughter' pot luck supper was held in the Elks hall on May 22nd with an excellent turn out. All were very pleased to have the men do the serving so that all the mothers could sit down to supper with their daughters.

After supper Mr. Gordon Ross presented to the Brown Owl, Mrs. Grace Stewart a 'Thanks' badge, telling of her many years of service in the Guide movement. Tokens of appreciation were then presented to the four Brownie leaders and two Guide leaders.

The leaders and officers gave their reports which showed that a very active year had been put in and there are approximately sixty-two girls active within the organization.

The officers elected for the coming year are as follows:

President—Mrs. Mary Mitchell
Secretary Mrs. Dot Webb
Treas. -Mrs. Grace Stewart
Badge Sec.—Mrs. G. Clenden-[illegible]
Guide Mother's Rep.—Mrs. N. Klashinky, Mrs. C. Long
Brownie Mother's Rep.—Mrs. W. Rosequist and Mrs. R. Carroll.

There is always a great need for leaders. Two of the Brownie leaders obtained their warrants this year but they need assistance. Anybody interested in this work please turn your names over to any one of the above officers.

A small surprise party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frissell Sr. on Saturday night last. All the family dropped in with birthday cake and the trimmings to wish Mr. Frissell happiness on his 73rd birthday.

Canadian Legion Activities

VETERANS ASSISTED

During January, February and March 446 veterans were given assistance by Edmonton branches of the Legion. The report was as follows: Veterans, Legion members, 135; Veterans, non-Legion members, 411.

Our only comment is that all veterans should belong to the Canadian Legion. Ex-servicemen who have the wherewithall to pay the yearly fee of $5 won't miss it and it may help some poor fellow to get by who is not so fortunate.

On the other hand veterans who might some day need help ought to belong when they have the money so that they will not feel embarrassed when they need help. However, the Legion is always anxious to help a veteran whether or not he is a Legion member.

LEGION WINS AGAIN

The Legion Little Leaguers beat the Rotary Little Leaguers on Monday night by a score of 18 to 8. There was a good crowd out to see this game. The youngsters are putting up a good brand of baseball

It is gratifying to everyone including Coach Larry Besler to see the sports-men and sports-women around Vermilion turning out to see these games. Let's keep it up and give the kids our support.

PROVINCIAL CONVENTION

This year the Canadian Legion Provincial convention will be held from June 9 to 12 at Lethbridge. President Thos. Thompson of Vermilion Branch and Neil McLean, past president, will represent this branch at the convention.

Rotarians Plan Car Roadeo

The Vermilion Rotary club will again sponsor a car roadeo, in the interests of safe driving, this year, and the date will be Farmers' Day, June 14th. The event will take place starting immediately after noon. Location will be the hard top street from Webb's garage to the Treasury Branch corner.

[illegible] are invited for [illegible] contestants. Each should be sponsored by some organization or business in town or in any surrounding town or village.

The roadeo was won last year by Earl Pollard who was sponsored by the Superior Body shop in Vermilion.

Send your entry to Ed Herang or George Sens.

Elks Playground Commissioned For Summer

The Elks playground in the west end of town has recently seen considerable work done on equipment with the result that this once popular spot is again proving an attractive place for the children to gather. Swings, ocean waves, and monkey bars are again in good shape. Members of the Big Brother Williams were hard at work during the past week or so renovating and fixing up playground and equipment and it is to be hoped that older boys and girls and adults too, will refrain from damaging this expensive lay-out.

Successful Opening Day Held At Vermilion Golf Club Sunday

Last Sunday afternoon the Vermilion Golf Club held one of the most successful opening events in the history of the Club.

Nearly sixty golfers participated in the afternoon Mixed tournament. Winners of prizes for low score were Mrs. E. A Locke, with Stan Waldenberger as her partner. Other prizes went to Miss Rita Majeau with partner Jack Coxford, and to Mrs. Ross Beake with partner Ken Martin.

Following the tournament a picnic supper was enjoyed by all, followed later in the evening by the showing of the Gold Cup Canadian Open film.

The weather was perfect and the course in excellent condition which combined to make a very pleasant day for everyone.

Special thanks go out from the Club executive to all who helped make such a success of the opening. To the ladies who supplied free coffee for everyone during the supper hour, to Fred Stewart for showing the film, and to everyone else just for being there.

The Vermilion Club were happy to welcome golfers from several other points, from Lone Rock and Lloydminster in Saskatchewan and from Wainwright, Mannville, Edmonton and Cold Lake in Alberta.

The first session of the Golfers Clinic, offered by the Vermilion Club to all juniors, senior beginners or anyone with a golf problem, will be held at the club house this Saturday at 10:00 a.m. For this, other than juniors who cannot attend a Saturday session, evening times will be arranged, but all juniors are requested to attend on Saturday at 10 a.m.

Men! Don't forget the Open Tournament at Lloydminster this Sunday June 2nd. Qualifying rounds start off at 8 a.m. so don't forget to set that alarm.

CALGARY HERALD CUP

St. Paul United Presbytery W. A. Elects Officers At Vermilion Meeting

The W.A. of the First United church, Vermilion, was hostess to 122 delegates to the fourth annual meeting of St. Paul United Presbytery held May 8. All visitors were welcomed with a social cup of coffee and refreshments, after which the "Call to Worship" was given and business got underway at 10 a.m. The theme of the meeting was "Peace and Hope".

Guest speaker was Mrs. D. K. McElroy of Edmonton, who dealt with problems that beset W.A. groups both at local and Presbytery levels and suggested means and methods of meeting these problems. She urged all women to attend the annual meeting as it is the meeting where all the business is attended to and such business is vital to every woman of the United Church.

Mrs. McElroy stressed the fact that money raised under the name of the Church should be used in United Church work and she named the following projects which are sponsored: Alberta College: St. Stephens Home; Mountview Home: Naramata Training School; School of Narcotics and overseas relief to our missionaries and Agnes Forbes Home.

The following slate of officers was accepted to fill vacancies in the executive:

President — Mrs. H. J. Graham, Lloydminster
Literature Convener — Mrs. T Davis, Vermilion
Manse Convener — Mrs. A. Desmond, Vegreville
Press & Pub. — Mrs. A. M Scholton, Vegreville.

The next annual meeting date was set as the first Wednesday in March, 1958 at Vegreville.

Dedication of New Manse Planned For June 12th

Final stages in completion of the new manse for the First United church in Vermilion have been reached and plans for the Rev. Mr. MacKay and his family to move into it are now being made.

Located across the street from the church the new manse has been constructed by W. Pettigrew and associated contractors. It is a spacious home designed to serve the rather special requirements of a minister's residence and includes numerous features in which members of the congregation and the general public may be interested. An opportunity to inspect it will be given everyone on Wednesday afternoon, June 12th.

Arrangements are being made for a dedication ceremony at the manse in the afternoon following which tea will be served in the church hall. A special service in which visiting officials of the United Church Presbytery will participate will be conducted in the evening.

Mannville Elks To Sponsor Paper Car Bingo

MANNVILLE. The Elks lodge at their last meeting decided to hold a Paper Bingo in order to help their activities. A committee of three was appointed to attend the Sport Association meeting for the 1st of July celebration. Delegates will attend the Alberta Elks Association convention in Lethbridge June 7th and 8th.

Members were reminded of the blood donor clinic in June and asked to help such a worthy cause by donating.

Owing to being a busy time of the year the attendance was not as large as usual, but was very satisfactory.

After the meeting members were served with lunch.

Arthur C. Majury Passes Away

Arthur Cleland Majury, for the past 44 years a highly respected and esteemed resident of the Auburndale district, passed away suddenly at the Vermilion hospital on Tuesday afternoon. He was taken ill at his farm home fifteen miles south early Tuesday afternoon and was rushed to the hospital but passed away a short time later. He had given up active farming in 1955 due to a heart condition.

Mr. Majury was born in County Down, Northern Ireland, sixty-eight years ago. Some 44 years ago he came to the Vermilion district, commencing to farm. During the first 25 years here he taught school as well as carrying on farming operations. He took a keen and active interest in sports and life of the community.

Mr. Boase is a son-in-law of Mrs. Elder in Vermilion. A wire received shortly after the rioting by Mrs. Elder stated the injured man was not critically hurt and that the family was not in any danger.

Mr and Mrs. Boase and two children went to Formosa about one year ago.

Red Cross Campaign Shows Slight Increase for Province

While final results of the 1957 Red Cross campaign for funds will not be determined until the end of the year returns reported up to May 15th are slightly up over the same period in 1956 and indications are that the 1957 appeal will be a success.

With a provincial quota of $537,500 for 1957 as compared with $303,200 last year, collections up to May 15th total $438,497, 81.6% of the provincial objective. This figure includes returns of $143,614 from Calgary, $96,927 from southern Red Cross branches; $151,720 from Edmonton; $32,843 from the northern branches and direct donations of $3.5[illegible]. Over eighty districts have reported exceeding last year's returns by varying sums.

While books on the campaign are kept open until Dec 31, Red Cross branches which have not as yet completed their campaign are urged to do so as soon as possible in order not to infringe on other charitable appeals.

HOLIDAY IN ALBERTA THIS YEAR!

As stated elsewhere in this issue — from thrills to relaxation, from sport to sightseeing virtually every type of holiday attraction is available to the vacationer in Alberta. Thousands of Albertans who have not previously enjoyed the facilities of their own province are now doing so, and enjoying their vacations more than ever before.

For those who have not yet considered a holiday in Alberta the many wonderful possibilities should be considered. A network of fine highways leads everywhere, with national and provincial parks, untamed areas to the north, the sophistication of cities, and restful lake resorts, are all yours for but a few miles of travelling. See your own province first and holiday in Alberta this summer.

Fair Warning

Highway cops have a heart after all, says the Financial Post. It reports new traffic signs in the U.S. which now warn drivers that they are speeding. Hooked up to radar systems they flash, "Slow Down, You Are Speeding". But a camera farther down the road records if the motorist takes notice or not.

The unrivalled scenic splendor of the Rocky Mountains in Alberta is a perpetual magnet for artists and color camera enthusiasts.

In 1939 the federal government collected tax revenues of $47 per capita, at the 1944 war time peak $234 per capita, in the current year more than $330 per capita.

The Old Age Pension Issue

There is a matter of grave national concern which we would like to call to your attention, namely the failure of the Federal Liberal Government at Ottawa to recognize the critical plight of thousands upon thousands of old age pensioners in [illegible] and to take effective [illegible] to give to these people, who helped build and mold our nation, just recognition in the form of pensions sufficiently large [illegible] to [illegible] the standard of living to which they are morally entitled. It is physically impossible for any single person without [illegible] of support to live decently on the $40.00 monthly pension allowed by the Federal Liberal Government. The increase of $6.00 a month which becomes effective on July 1st [illegible] short of [illegible] the [illegible] pension deficiency.

The cost of shelter alone is so high in Canada today that the pensioner without other means of support has [illegible] left after paying room [illegible] to buy food, clothing, fuel [illegible] the few simple necessaries that are a part of our daily living.

By enacting the old age security law five years ago, the Canadian Parliament recognized the old age pension plan as a national problem, and the responsibility for providing adequate pension payments rests solely on the Federal Government. Apologists for the government will dismiss the fate of the pensioner by contending that he would not be faced with poverty in his old age if he had saved his money while he was working. The Social Credit Movement denounces this approach as a most callous, most irresponsible, most unjust attempt to hide the shortcomings of the Liberal government at Ottawa.

Men and women who are living on old age pensions today have played their part in the development of our nation. Many of them have not been able to save because of costly illnesses or injuries in their families, others have seen their [illegible] savings wiped out to meet living costs [illegible] periods of unemployment. For [illegible] of them, the ten most productive years of their lives were lost in the depression that held this country in its grip from 1930 to 1940.

Any attempt to shoulder the blame on the provinces is equally irresponsible. With passage of the Old Age Security Act, the Federal [illegible] assumed [illegible] responsibility for the [illegible] old age pension plan at age 70. Every Canadian citizen contributes to this plan through the payment of a special income tax and by paying the ten percent federal [illegible] tax. The attitude of the present Liberal government [illegible] be understandable if [illegible] were times of financial [illegible]. It is inexcusable when we are living in the period of [illegible] prosperity in our history. We can afford countless luxuries and non-essential expenditures in our national budget. We can afford to set aside 50 million dollars to establish a programme of culture. Last year the Canadian taxpayers contributed 40 million dollars to the operations of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. This year the government is considering recommendations that will cost the taxpayers more than 60 million dollars to maintain the CBC, and by 1962 the cost will be over 100 million dollars a year. In the past five years the contribution from the national treasury to the National Film Board has doubled. Keep in mind that while these expenditures were being considered all members of Parliament, including Liberal members, must have been fully aware that the cost of living in Canada has practically doubled since the war and that this drastic increase in living costs has had a very telling effect upon the general welfare of our senior citizens. Still the best the Liberal government at Ottawa could do for them this last session was a measly increase of $6.00 per month. There is a very healthy surplus in the Federal Treasury at the present time. Surely able-bodied Canadians from [illegible] to coast deeply resent this callous treatment of our senior citizens and will express their resentment at the proper time.

Let me say a word about the Social Credit position with respect to culture. No group representing the people as a whole is more aware of the value of cultural development than is the Social Credit movement of Canada. But we believe that you cannot buy and sell culture across the counter for dollars and cents. We believe that culture [illegible] within the individual and cannot be forced on a nation by any group, be it the Canada Council or any other organized body. The treatment of the old age pensioner exemplifies the type of thinking that now controls our Federal Liberal government at Ottawa. There is no problem about finding money to spend on a Canada Council, or the C.B.C. or the National Film Board but there is not sufficient money, in the minds of the Liberal [illegible] at Ottawa to provide our senior citizens with a bare basic standard of living.

We of the Social Credit Movement believe that the Federal Old Age Pension should be raised immediately to $80 a month. We further feel that this $80 a month pension should in cases of [illegible] need be supplemented by an additional grant of up to $20 a month, where such grants are matched by the provinces. I am certain the Social Credit Movement of Alberta and of British Columbia would most willingly enter into such a pension scheme with the Federal authorities, a pension scheme which would assure our needy senior citizens of total monthly pension of $100.00. This is not a case of charity but rather one of justice.

Dewberry Boy Undergoes Delicate Heart Operation

Brian Collins, nine-year-old son of Mr and Mrs Tom Collins of Dewberry, is home after a heart operation in an Edmonton hospital. The young lad underwent surgery early in May for a delicate job to open another valve in his heart. He is progressing very well. A photographic example of these operations is graphically shown in the March issue of Time magazine.

Mrs Barney Conlin has moved to the city where she will spend her time close to many of her grown children. Mrs Conlin has been a victim of a stroke for the past eight years and has to stay in bed. She has not a sad view of life at all. Her hair is still its natural color. We can only say what a tremendous spirit she must have to be so cheerful in her condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Braithwaite of Vancouver are visiting sons and families in the district.

Frank Bowman and Ralph Landen went to Lac La Ronge on the holiday week end. No fish - lake frozen over.

One trout was the total of Bobbie Braithwaite's trip to Pearce Lake last week.

Miss Evelyn Parker is a wheel chair patient in Elk Point hospital. We sincerely hope her illness will leave her.

A large amount of rape seed is going in around the district. W. Holman with 300 acres leads the field.

The new school auditorium came in very handy for both the junior and high school graduation dances Friday and Saturday. We believe a full report will be given by the school union on these two events.

Henry Danderfer is now employed as a welder in Edmonton for Pool Construction. He has moved his family to the city. His farming is being done by Jack King.

On the second Friday in June the Farmers' Day Picnic will be held on the Dewberry sports grounds. Junior baseball, girls' and men's fastball will be held. A game of baseball between the Alabama Colored Ghosts and the Cuban Grapefruiters (local talent) will be a feature. Also on the program will be some horse events such as a Cowboy race, Stake race, Clover Leaf and the musical chairs. Both junior and senior events in horses.

Money doesn't grow on trees but the odd dollar does lay on the road. Ask Dave Finlay - he knows where to find them.

Tom Jarret had the most luck in fishing on the holiday when he landed six trout at Pearce Lake.

June 1st will see the big school track meet in Dewberry, while on June 2nd (Sunday) there will be the C.W.L. picnic.

Sandy Ewen is putting himself up a new house just south of Pinky Wilkinson's.

Construction and road repair is in full swing, along with gravel jobs through the country. Motorists, please use caution.

Most seeding is now complete in the district. Crops look good, although there is some frost damage.

C.W.L. PICNIC, DEWBERRY

C.W.L. picnic will be held on the Dewberry sports grounds on Sunday June 2. Races, ball games and bingo, refreshment booth. No admission charge. Everyone welcome. 47

Not many of the sight-seeing expeditions travelling through Alberta miss the opportunity of seeing the grotesque skylines and weird canyons that stretch for miles in the graveyard of the dinosaurs situated in the Red Deer river valley.

Of Many Things . .
By AMBROSE HILLS

ON DOING GOOD

Henry David Thoreau, the sage of Walden Pond, once wrote: "If I knew for a certainty that a man was coming to my house with the conscious design of doing me good, I should run for my life."

As I grow older I distrust the do-gooders more and more, and, like Thoreau I am tempted to run for my life when one of them appears. Do-gooders lack humility. They think they know all the answers, and they are all too eager to impose their perfection on the rest of us. Their causes, their charities, their religions are thrust upon us by these do-gooders with the suggestion that if we do not embrace them we are lost.

Often I've wished I had the courage to shoo them from my doorstep without a penny. If I have charity to bestow, I ought to go out and bestow it, and put a bit of my heart into it. God knows if man has time and money to spare, he needs no organization to disperse it for him: unless he is in the millionaire class. A chat with his own priest or minister would soon open up to him all sorts of avenues for his good works. The kind of good works that may not be allowed on income tax returns, but are likely to get done without personal effort.

A very good fellow came to my door recently. His organization had held a meeting and he and all the other canvassers were highly enthusiastic. Each had been furnished with a "canned" sales talk. I liked the man, but I did not like the sales talk. It placed a lot of emphasis upon the fact that there'd be an official receipt for income tax purposes. I gave some money but I gave it grumpily, and with resentment in my heart, instead of charity. I knew a dozen cases where the money would have served a better purpose, had I the heart and energy and tact to place it there.

Maybe I'm wrong. The man did jar some money from me and no doubt part of it will be spent in helping someone who needs help. But I cannot shake the feeling that it is all too impersonal and far-off, and that in some degree I degraded myself by paying others to do my good works for me.

The Government organizations have turned charity into a matter of bookkeeping. Income tax blanks, because we go along with deductions and politics. Perhaps people like me are party to the scheme, pay and shut up. If so it serves us right.

"GREEN ACRES"

BUNKER SILOS

Trench silos and bunker silos are similar except that bunker silos are above ground. The cost of building a bunker silo is quite low being not more than 25 cents per ton of silage. Silage is a [illegible] feed for cattle and sheep. More farmers in Alberta are building silos every year. There are a number in this district and everybody who has one is well satisfied. Get circulars at this office on putting up silage. Next month is the time to build a silo. Then you are ready to put up the silage in July. Use oat greenfeed, wild oats, sweet clover or any hay crop.

PURE BRED SIRE AREA

An item in the Alberta Gazette under date of May 15th, 1957 states that boars have been added to the pure bred sire area now in force in M.D. of Vermilion River.

For the past five years it has been required that all bulls in this municipality must be pure bred and now boars have been added.

HAY PELLETING

Pelleting of crushed grain for [illegible] and poultry has been popular for several years. Now it looks like pelleting of hay will be a common and cheap way of handling and feeding grain or mixed feed. Science is changing the art of agriculture in so many ways that it is impossible to keep up with all the new things coming out.

WEIGHING MARKET HOGS

You can lose 2 cents a pound or [illegible] $5.00 per pig by keeping them around until they weigh 220 pounds live weight. It pays to have scales on the farm. On page 54 of the May issue of the Country Guide you will find an easy way to build a hog scales at very little cost. It is better to be sure about the weight of your pigs than to be sorry for not marketing them sooner.

LICE ON DELPHINIUMS

So many good delphiniums are lost each year from [illegible]. I looked at my plants [illegible] and sure enough plant lice were found on the young leaves. These leaves soon curl around which prevents the spray from getting in where the insects are feeding. I sprayed my plants right away with malathion. Other insecticides such as DDT or black leaf 40 are also good.

SECOND PLANTING

Yesterday I made a second sowing of radishes, lettuce and peas. These crops will come along 21 days after the first sowing. This gives me a longer season for fresh vegetables. Another point is that turnips, beets and carrots for fall storage should be seeded rather late as early sown crops are usually too coarse and woody before we are ready to store them.

Hugh Evans Reminisces About Early Days In Vermilion

By Margaret Bentley

HUGH B. EVANS

Back in 1903 Hugh Evans and his partner in the ranching business, Lance Playne had hard riding and a lot of searching to do when they rounded up their stock. There were no fences, no real roads, just a few trails, because this area hadn't been surveyed then. There were few, if any, "homesteaders" either. Even the ranches were scarce and far between. Headquarters for the partners was a small shack down river about eight miles from the present site of Vermilion, and sometimes the cattle ranged from the 'hay bottoms' there up the river as far as the spot where Vermilion now lies. Other times they were found to the north where the Crosses presently have their modern ranches. Once in a while they would wander south to the tiny settlement of Breage, now given the district name of Bowtell.

It wasn't the first ranching venture in Western Canada for Hugh Evans. He had originally come from England in 1891 to attend school in St John's College, in what was then known as the Qu'Appelle Valley. After a year at the theological and agriculture school he took up ranching in the Beaver Hills, but returned to Gloucester at the request of his family, in 1897. But after four years, some of the time in England, and some at sea, the call of the west was too strong to be denied. He, in company with Lance Playne, set out for the wilds of Western Canada again. Arriving in Edmonton he found that it was already a town, and seeking to go beyond the confines of so much civilization, he heard of a ranching district near Two Hills on the Vermilion River. The partners ranched there for two years, but stories of much better hay meadows further along the Vermilion river brought them to what is now the Clandonald crossing. The hay meadows there were indeed extensive, and certainly there was no congestion of traffic at that spot. There were however, some settlers already in the district. One of the earliest ones was George Powell who ranched on the land now belonging to the Hines family. He had come up from Nebraska to make a home for himself and his family in this part of Canada. George was a fine man, but he had one interesting eccentricity. He completed every sentence with the phrase "Y'know". Once, when he was showing a new hand around the place he pointed out his horse and said, "This is Si y'know". The stranger, not being familiar with George's unusual punctuation, remarked entirely seriously, that was a funny name for a horse. But George didn't see any humor in the situation at all. He told the fellow "You're fired, y'know", and he WAS fired and he DID know and that was the last of him in these parts.

Building a shack was one of the first projects, and when the partners were busy at that they didn't have time to hunt or fish so their diet was restricted to a monotonous mixture of oatmeal and corn syrup for a considerable period of time. To this day corn syrup is a food that Hugh Evans can readily do without.

Shopping was a major expedition. It took approximately two weeks to get to Edmonton over the unsurveyed territory, with little or nothing in the way of trails. Of course the time for the trip depended on just how smoothly the travelling went. There was the journey when the wagon came to a stretch of muskeg and in the pouring rain it settled into the soft ground. Although it was after midnight camping was out of the question so it was a matter of carrying the 'stores' onto firmer ground by hand, then a stove had to be taken apart bolt by bolt, and the pieces lugged on ahead. The wagon was still stuck so that the best efforts of horses and men couldn't budge it so that too had to be dismantled and transported onto firmer land piece by piece. It was situations like this that made a trip to Edmonton no matter to be lightly undertaken.

In the spring of 1904 it was decided to scow some supplies down the Saskatchewan river to the mouth of the Vermilion river (Lea Park) and then put them on a wagon for the remainder of the trip south to the ranch. To bring the wagon through it was necessary to clear a rough trail from the Saskatchewan river up the bank to higher land, and then there were primitive bridges to be made where fording was impossible. These structures were just large trees laid side by side across the small creeks, with a topping of willow brushes . . but they were passable. It was necessary to bring in a greater variety of supplies and equipment that year because the land was being surveyed and the partners made the transition from ranching to homesteading.

One day, later in the summer the men had spent the day away from the shack, and returning at evening through the virtually uninhabited countryside, were surprised to hear music. The modern supposition that someone had left the radio playing just didn't occur to them . . . perhaps because no one had invented the radio as yet. But who could be giving out with the music? When introductions had been accomplished it turned out that the guests were Peter G. Pilkie and his sons, Willie, Charlie and Rob. They had scowed down the Saskatchewan and had taken the trail to the ranch on the Vermilion river. They stayed for a few days and then forded the river on their way south to the tiny settlement of Breage, their destination.

That summer was a busy social whirl, for the partners had another guest later on. Henry N. Stephens had followed the same route as the Pilkies, and he too visited for awhile before fording the Vermilion on his way south. He had a wagon load of supplies, and his destination was a spot approximately one mile south of the present site of the School of Agriculture, where he started 'Stephens Store'.

However the social life wasn't entirely dependent on the arrival of the occasional traveller who came by way of the Saskatchewan. Since they had first arrived at the ranch the partners had Indian callers from time to time especially when the word would mysteriously and quicky spread through the apparently empty countryside that a beef was being butchered. And then there was the business of trading. Salt and broken hay rake teeth were the choice items in the eyes of the Indians, and for these they would barter venison. A handfull of salt would be worth a quarter, and a broken rake tooth, a half venison. These Indians were of the Salteaux tribe. They were not treaty Indians but roamed the area living a nomadic life, following on the heels of good hunting. They were friendly, but very taciturn visitors except for 'No Thumb' so named because he had lost one of his thumbs. He was the humorist of the feathered head dress set, and during the pidgin English and sign language conversations would actually break out into a large smile. The Indians always answered 'yes' even when they meant 'no'. It took a little getting used to.

Another social contact was the occasional dance at Breage which [illegible] to take place in a sod shack and were a lot of fun even if the dust [illegible] down from the rafters pretty steadily and the music was hard to come by. Often they danced a whole evening to nothing more musical than someone playing the bones, a rhythmical knocking together of two pieces of wood.

After the partners had been ranching and 'baching' about five years Lance Playne married Hugh's sister and the shack became more of a home. This getting married seemed like a good idea but the only trouble was that there weren't many available ladies in this part of the country.

However, on one of his infrequent trips to Edmonton Hugh [illegible] a friend of his sister. She had [illegible] there as a governess to the children of an English family who had decided to settle in Western Canada. But the lady had the mumps! Hugh was not one to be discouraged by a temporary detail like that. In due course an invitation to visit at the ranch was accepted and it wasn't long after that that Hugh and his bride started housekeeping at the ranch. Mr and Mrs Playne took up a neighboring place of their own.

When the railway came through in the fall of 1905 the Breage settlers moved into the village site of Vermilion. Matt [illegible] who had named Breage was one of these along with Bill Raddatz and Curt Wilson who had been partners in a blacksmith business housed in a tent at Breage also moved to Vermilion. Henry Stephens had changed his location to be nearer the railway. Craig Bros started their store. Hayward and Long were already in business having come to Vermilion from the Innisfree district.

That was the beginning of Vermilion and many changes have taken place since then. Mr and Mrs Evans retired from their farm and came to live in town about fourteen years ago. They still take a lively interest in the changing scene about them. One becomes fond of a place especially so having seen it grow from an empty spot on the raw prairie land into a thriving community of more than [illegible] people.

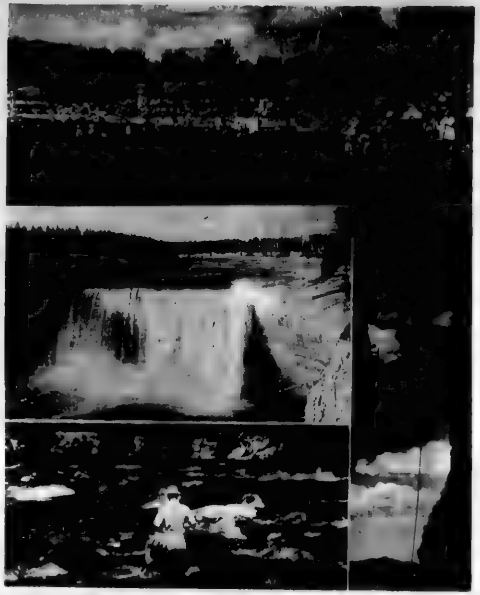
ALBERTA OFFERS MANY HOLIDAY ATTRACTIONS



From thrills to relaxation, from sport to sightseeing, virtually every type of holiday attraction is available to the vacationer in Alberta. Thousands of Albertans who have not previously enjoyed the facilities of their own province are now doing so. Examples of the attractions to be found in Alberta are shown above, with the fine beach at Elk Island Park, top, representative of the hundreds of other lakes and beaches in the province enjoyed by residents and visitors alike. Right, a perilous moment in a mountaineering trip in the Jasper National Park. There are climbs suitable to climbers of all ranges of experience in the province's national parks. The roaring tumble of great masses of water toppling over Alexandra Falls, along the Mackenzie Highway, is drawing increasing numbers of Albertans to that section of the province each year. Bottom, fishermen can find game fish to their liking in almost all lakes and water courses in Alberta as a consequence of fine natural conditions and of an extended fish planting program by the Department of Lands and Forests

Pleasant Valley News

Last week the valley was a lovely sight with the fruit trees all in bloom -- just as lovely as any orchard at the coast. Let us hope that the fruit did not suffer from the frost of last week. A hard frost was registered here, resulting in thick ice on water troughs.

All are busy as can be in the gardens. The tree planters were at Lawrence and Gordon Gould's farms where quite a few thousands of trees were planted. Much easier than shovelling holes. They started in the morning and were all done by noon

Don't see many visitors these days. The weather has been grand and a lot of gardens are well up.

Mrs. Gillies spent a few days with yours truly last week. We visited Mrs. McClelland one day her apple blossoms are a lovely sight.

Harold and family spent a few days with his parents last week.

Hi Isobel glad to hear that you have a new car. Come and take the writer for a drive or more fun still we could have a [illegible] in the pasture.

Bill Gillies and family spent the long week end with all the folks. A real good time was [illegible] Sister Betty's home.

The [illegible] family spent Sunday [illegible] Chrissie Gould's home [illegible] enjoyed the wiener roast [illegible] dam. A lovely spot for children. It's on Mrs. Gillies' farm.

The writer [illegible] a real surprise on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Moore visited. It was a joyful occasion as long time no see. Mrs. Gillies and Chrissie arrived to get raspberry canes also. The writer has a lot if anyone cares for any.

With sunlight dappling hills and trees
All the promise of days to be
With long sweet hours -
And the joy to see the lovely flowers

Shower Held For Mrs. Boe, Mannville

MANNVILLE. — On Wednesday, May 22, in the United church parish hall a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all who were able to attend a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. John Boe (nee Donna Ackerman).

The group assembled was a most congenial one, therefore the contests found no one lacking in co-operation. The highlight of the evening was proved to be a "do-it-yourself" hat contest for which crepe paper, pins, cellulose tape, tiny cake cups and paper pie plates, were provided. All those present had to do was to make a hat. Judging from the creations which resulted we feel sure that women can do most anything. Following this many beautiful gifts were graciously received by Mrs. Boe who, in a fitting manner thanked everyone. Lunch was then served, and much enjoyed during a social hour that followed.

The simplest activities offer wonderful footage for the movies that will be the history of family life.

Make Movies of History in the Making

When it comes to recording "family history" in the making, there's really nothing quite like a home movie camera. And more and more families are finding out how much shared fun and pleasure home movies provide—both in the taking and in the showing that proudly follows.

These, in our opinion, are reason enough for this popular trend. But we keep feeling that two other factors may also have had something to do with making home movies "better than ever". First, there are the marvelous new easy-to-operate movie cameras now available so inexpensively—and secondly, many home movie makers are becoming aware that even the best movies are improved by a little editing.

To return to the new cameras for a moment—we'd like to tell you about two of them we're quite impressed with. One is considered by many movie enthusiasts the-best-little-camera-for-the-money now on the market. It's a quality camera—a maker of really fine 8mm movies—that won't strain the family budget because it costs just under $37. With its fast pre-set lens, this camera makes movie taking as easy as snapshooting. There's only one simple setting according to the built-in exposure guide—and you're ready to aim and shoot. Easy, isn't it?

Another wonderful new 8mm movie camera combines fixed-focus simplicity with the extra convenience of magazine loading. It's compact enough to fit into pocket or purse, and so light in weight it's an ideal traveling companion wherever you go. Again, it offers 8mm film economy, but the film comes in pre-threaded magazines that permit the easiest, fastest loading possible. Though this model has the versatility of more elaborate equipment, it's priced just below the $120-mark.

Taking advantage of the lower prices on cameras like these, many families have made home movies a regular part of their leisure-time activities. They shoot the youngsters playing out in the backyard, the family on vacation, a happy birthday party, a swim in the bright sunshine, Junior's first day at school, a trip to a museum, a sandlot baseball season, [illegible] with Rover. Whenever [illegible] the family's doing [illegible] they enjoy, Dad or Mother [illegible] the story on film from start to finish—the complete story in full action.

McLAUGHLIN'S SELF-SERVE

"Do's and Don'ts" For Grade One At Dewberry

The May meeting of the Dewberry Home and School was held at the usual place on May 9th with a very good attendance — of ladies! — present. Evidently the men, poor spineless creatures, were overcome by the unusual strain of hard work and had allowed their wives, fresh and relaxed after a day of doing nothing, to represent them, while they retired to bed for a well-earned rest!!

The minutes were read and adopted. A new lunch committee was formed consisting of Mrs. Leo Maltais, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Bakala.

The next subject for discussion was whether the Home & School should have a booth at the track meet. After some of the queerest of motions and voting, it was finally decided they would. Could the queerness of the procedure be at all related to the part that the meeting consisted almost entirely of women?

Conveners appointed to look after booth arrangements were Mrs. Holmen, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. J. Porter, Mrs. McMullen and Mrs. Jack Rainey.

A committee to nominate new officers at the June meeting was then appointed. It consists of Mrs. Holmen, Mrs. Durnin and Mrs. McMullen. Final arrangements in regard to the coming graduation banquet and dance were then settled.

As program for the evening, Miss Kneen, the grade 1 teacher, gave a talk on "Do's and Don'ts" in connection with grade 1 pupils. This proved interesting and instructive. Remember parents, teach them to tie their own shoes and mark their overshoes. Simple teachings taught at home in a casual way give a wonderful start at school. Many more excellent suggestions were made by Miss Kneen.

A short play containing a good moral lesson was then presented.

The meeting adjourned and a lunch was served.

Greenlawn Good-Will Club

The Greenlawn ladies Good-Will Club met at the home of Mrs. Vivian Curtis on May 15th with thirteen members and two visitors present.

The minutes were read and adopted. Josephine moved the club donate $20.00 to the Crippled Children's fund. Seconded by Blanche and carried.

A motion was made that the club members clean the Greenlawn hall on May 26th, in the afternoon.

Vivian Curtis donated the door prize, which was won by Margaret Good. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

AUBURNDALE PICNIC

The annual bazaar and picnic of the Auburndale United church will be held at the Community centre one-half mile north of the church on Friday, June 14th commencing at 2:30 p.m. Supper will be served. Full program of ball and races. Sale of work and home cooking. Everybody welcome. 47-8

Safe Farming . . . No Regrets

During farming operations when time means so much, the rush to save seconds may result in the loss of a lifetime. Accidents don't just happen — they are caused. Prevention is therefore the keyword to safety.

This year, up to the time of writing, five tractor fatalities have already been reported says Bill Perkins, Farm Safety Director, Alberta Safety Council. But unlike other years in which the death toll struck at youth and all ages, 1957 tractor fatalities snuffed out the life of persons over 40 years of age.

Tractor safety is of utmost importance as this piece of machinery is usually a killer. When tipping occurs the operator is seldom thrown clear of the machine. It may be a stone or root in a field that is to blame or a soft spot in which both wheels bog down or trying to get traction with a pole — home-made style. Tipping may also be caused by hitching above the draw bar, turning too sharply or starting with a jerk on a slope.

Before inspection or repair of farm machinery takes place all power machinery should be shut off. How often do persons approach moving parts that snap at loose clothing and before they realize what has happened become entangled in the moving parts. Unshielded power take-offs are bad examples. Crawling under or over moving belts is a dangerous practice too.

A final appeal is made to mothers. Keep small children under supervision while the rush is on. With their curiosity and inability to stay in one place it will be well worth your while. And don't forget that morning and afternoon coffee break for your husbands. It eliminates fatigue which is the cause of many accidents.

Miss Esther Mary Hudson, the daughter of Mr and Mrs. E. V. Hudson of rural Edmonton and for many years resident in the Thorncliffe district south of Vermilion, became the bride of Mr James David Burke son of Mrs. E. Burke of Edmonton and the late Mr. Burke. The ceremony was performed by the Rev Mr. Fowler in St. Faith's Anglican church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her attendants were Miss Eileen Burke and Miss Joy King.

Mrs. Shillabuer played the wedding music and Mrs. Aubrey King of Vermilion was soloist.

At an evening reception in the Corona hotel, the toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle Magistrate T. O. B. Gore Hickman of Lethbridge.

Regular Meeting Registered Nurses

Seventeen nurses met at the home of Vera Barr for their regular meeting on Monday, May 27th. It was nice to see so many out and to welcome Mavis Haverslew back with us.

The 'Jitney' street dance is being planned for Tuesday June 11th so keep that date open.

Weather permitting, a lawn supper is being held at the Cross farm on June 23 to bring the year's activities to a close.

The nurses have offered to assist Miss McPhee in holding "Open House" at the hospital—so everyone is going to be real busy next month.

A very interesting report was brought back from the convention by Miss McPhee and Mrs. Sweeney, making us all wish we had been there. Congratulations to Viola Maggs (a nurse in training at Lamont) who has been made President of the Student Nurses' Association of Alberta.

A delicious lunch was served by Pat Tucker, Mary McLaughlin and our hostess, Vera Barr, which brought a very enjoyable evening to a close. Fresh buns and cream puffs — what more could you ask? See you all at the dance girls.

Former Vermilion Man Loses Life

Wallace Mashell, aged 56 years, met sudden death in Edmonton on Monday along with Charles Butz, when the truck which they were operating came into contact with live wires near the Mayfair Golf and Country club. Both men were electrocuted.

The mishap occurred while the men were dumping a truckload of earth in order to level an area about 500 yards from the club house. The large gravel truck, with a metal box, had backed to the edge of the ground being filled. As the truck box was raised it apparently touched two of three electric power wires carrying 4,000 volts.

Wally Mashell lived in Vermilion and district for many years, coming here in 1917 and leaving to live in Edmonton in 1938.

He is survived by his widow, one daughter Mrs. Patricia Lakusta and one son Robert in Edmonton and one son Sgt Martin Mashell in Camp Shilo, Man. There are nine grandchildren. Three sisters and three brothers also survive.

Funeral services were held this Thursday afternoon at the Chapel of the Chimes, with interment in the Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Derwent To Hear Peter Chaba

Smith, Battle River-Camrose Social Credit candidate.

Jimmy suffered very much and was a complete invalid, most of his body being paralyzed. They who loved him could not help being thankful that he has gone to live where there is no more pain.

Funeral services were held at Foster and McGarvey Funeral Home on May 21st. The pallbearers were Jimmy's three brothers Ken, Gary and Billy, and cousin Terry.

There were beautiful flowers from [illegible] and loved ones.

The Rev Bainbridge officiated and spoke comforting words from Samuel 12, verses 15 to 23.

Interesting Series of Programs Feature Rotary Meetings

The Programme Committee of the Vermilion Rotary Club with Ernie Buckingham as chairman, continues to arrange a most interesting series of subjects and speakers for the regular weekly luncheon meetings.

Choosing his hobby of stamp collecting for the subject of a talk to his club mates, Alex Palin outlined the history and scope of Phylately. His own absorbing interest in the subject was conveyed to his audience, all of whom were impressed with the many features of this hobby which attracts so much enthusiasm by people in all walks of life all over the world.

Citizenship week was recognized in the programme of May 17 when Mitch Taylor as chairman introduced two local citizens who had just recently been awarded their documents of Canadian citizenship. Paul Godt, presently manager of the Vermilion Co-Operative store, described his own experiences in planning to come to Canada from his native Denmark. His account of the steps leading to granting of Canadian citizenship and his sincere expression of appreciation impressed the Club members with the significance of this occasion in the lives of new Canadians. Carl Richartz, who came to Canada from Switzerland, also expressed his pride and satisfaction in having secured official Canadian citizenship.

Last week George Hoskins, a member of the Rotary Club at Vegreville, related the purposes and functions of the John Howard Society. His description of the assistance given by this organization to unfortunate citizens acquainted members of the Vermilion Club with this important avenue of community services about which so little is known by most people. George's able talk was much appreciated and the local men were specially pleased to have several Vegreville Rotarians as visitors for this occasion.

Soaring peaks, cattle country, all augment Alberta's travel charm.

High School At Kitscoty Honors Twenty-two Graduates

KITSCOTY. — Friday May 17 saw one of Kitscoty High school's largest graduating classes climax their school careers in brilliant graduation exercises. A banquet held in the Legion hall was wonderfully prepared and enjoyed by all. Attending the banquet were the graduates, their parents, members of the school and dorm boards, and honored guests. Mr Richardson acted as chairman, while Mr Worth of the Faculty of Education was guest speaker. Other speakers included Mr. Purvis and Mr. Simonson.

The valedictory was given by Miss Olga Ulan who very capably expressed the feelings of the entire class in a well given address.

Janet Kent, as class historian, gave a brief and well prepared history of the graduating class. Both of these addresses were broadcast over CKSA the following Saturday.

Mr. Worth, as guest speaker, built his address around the theme of the valedictory address and gave a very interesting and stirring speech. He outlined the wide opportunities for the graduate and wished them the very best in their chosen careers.

During the course of the banquet, Carsten Christensen, as Students' Union president, presented Miss Dunsmore with a gift on the occasion of the 25 years of her teaching experience.

At the conclusion of a very bountiful dinner, the graduating class left for the high school to have pictures taken. From there the scene switched to the new high school auditorium and the dance began. Special dances were held for all the graduates, these ending shortly before midnight. After lunch, dancing resumed again until 2:00 a.m. Music was by the Combos who were at their very best.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Spring is rhubarb season! Do you have a patch. If you do, you you are very fortunate, especially if you use rhubarb in many delicious ways.

Here is just one of the numerous recipes:

RHUBARB ORANGE PIE

Filling:

4 cups rhubarb pieces (cut in one inch pieces).

1 orange peeled and cut in pieces.

¾ cup brown sugar, firmly packed.

¾ cup granulated sugar.

⅛ teaspoon nutmeg.

⅓ cup flower.

⅓ cup melted butter.

Roll out pastry for one 9-inch crust. Allow ¾ inch overlap to make a good seal for edge of the pie.

Combine, rhubarb, orange, sugars, nutmeg and flower. Place in pie shell. Pour meted butter over all. Top with either a full crust or a lattice crust.

Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F) 40-45 minutes. This makes one 9-inch pie. Sounds good, doesn't it?

If you'd like further rhubarb recipes send to my office in Wainwright for our pamphlet on rhubarb.

Teacher Recruitment Discussed At Mannville Home & School

MANNVILLE. — The regular meeting of Mannville Home and School Association was held in the auditorium on Tuesday evening, May 16. Following the opening exercises, Mrs. O. Younge chaired a panel discussion on the teacher shortage problem in Alberta. Members of the panel were R. J. Whitson, Miss Mary Grech, Mrs. North, Mrs. C. Finlay and Mrs. Hasinoff. The following points were brought forth. Children should be taught to respect their teachers. Young people must realize that teaching is a worthwhile profession. It was felt that the dollar is stressed too much at career night.

The Saskatchewan Government is planning to recruit teachers from England. It was felt that industry is competing with the teacher profession by advertising and that perhaps a similar plan would help to attract students to the educational field. It was suggested there might be an apprenticeship scheme for teachers the same as for tradesmen. The training period should be longer. One of the teachers said that the elementary teacher required the most training. She felt that the faculty of education was the easiest to enter and that the course did not give one sufficient training in showing a student how to teach. The prestige should be raised. It was agreed that a good teacher should receive more pay, but here also the problem is that the taxpayer cannot afford to pay any more, and that more aid might be sought from provincial and federal governments.

Mr. Doherty then introduced the guest speaker, Mr. H. J. M. Ross, past president of the A.T.A. and vice principal of Parkallen School.

In the course of his address Mr. Ross stated that education is for our children and we as parents, should be concerned about it. In the last five or six years education is becoming news. Teaching is an ancient and honorable profession. It used to teach man how to survive. We cannot see what we are preparing the child for in the future. He traced the changes in world society. The pace is speeding up. Not so long ago the radio was fairly new—now we are in the atomic age and the electronics age. Viruses are being conquered and people are living longer. The world is growing smaller due to engineering feats. It is a constant battle of brains of the Eastern and Western worlds.

Then turning to the teacher shortage he said teachers will be [illegible] competent. A teacher must have much knowledge in other fields. Society has not yet decided what they want for a teacher. School is a sacred trust. Teachers must establish their own prestige.

Following a brief question period, Mr. O. Willes thanked Mr Ross for his inspiring address.

Mr. Van Dusen reported that total receipts for "Maytime" were $808.00 and expenditures $346.63. A hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. Doherty and his staff for their cooperation in distributing tickets. The president thanked those people who assisted in securing chairs, providing trucks and also billets and lunch for the casts.

The following people were appointed as a nominating committee: Mrs. J. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. O. Willes and Mrs. C. Finlay.

Mr. R. J. Whitson asked that the records of the rural schools be turned into Mannville school where they will be kept as permanent records.

The meeting adjourned. Brass served lunch.

"Valley Maids" C.G.I.T. Mother And Daughter Banquet At P.V.

PARADISE VALLEY — The Valley Maids C.G.I.T. 4-H Clothing Club held their 'Mother and Daughter' banquet Tuesday, May 21st in the United church basement. There were six girls, their mothers and [illegible] guests present. After a delicious meal of ham, salad, ice cream, strawberries and cake Jessie Churchill proposed a toast to the Queen. Patsy Churchill proposed a toast to the mothers and Mrs. Nysetvold very ably replied. The guest speaker for the evening, Miss Mewha Provincial Supervisor of Girls' 4-H Clubs gave an interesting talk about 4-H work on an International, National, Provincial and local level. Following the banquet the girls held their 4-H Achievement program. This took the form of a meeting with Ellen Teasdale presiding. Jessie Churchill, the secretary, read a report of the year's activities and Patsy Churchill read the treasurer's report. Roll call was answered by an etiquette hint. The rest of the program consisted of demonstrations and songs as follows: A song 4-H Clover by the group; demonstration "Care of the hands and hand lotion" by Shirley Nysetvold and Sharon Dobson; a song "In the Garden" by the group; demonstration, 'Laundering' by Mildred Teasdale and Jessie Churchill, a song "We Are Ever Sewing" by Shirley Nysetvold and Sharon Dobson; demonstration "Looking [illegible] Best and Posture" by Ellen Teasdale and Patsy Churchill; Dress Review. The girls had been judged in the afternoon by Miss Mewha and Miss Craig, the Home Economist from Wainwright. At this time Miss Craig gave a talk commenting on their sewing and demonstrations and gave them helpful suggestions for their future work. Prizes were awarded as follows — 1st year collection of work 1st, Sharon Dobson, 2. Mildred Teasdale 3 Jessie Churchill; 2nd year 1st Ellen Teasdale. First Year Project Book: 1. Patsy Churchill, 2 Shardon Dobson, 3. Shirley Nysetvold; 2nd Year Project Book, 1, Ellen Teasdale. The girls then presented Mrs. Dobson, assistant leader, with a lovely cake safe. The girls and Mrs Dobson wish to thank Margaret Wolf, Helen Krawchuk and Gloria Elliott for serving at their banquet, also a special thanks to all who helped in any way to make the evening a success.

The C.C.F. says:

The CCF program of parity and security for agriculture through guaranteed forward pricing, crop insurance and cash advances, is no election promise bait. These are things that every CCF M.P. has worked for through the years. THE CCF HAS BEEN SAYING IN PARLIAMENT WHAT YOU WOULD HAVE SAID FOR YOURSELF IF YOU HAD BEEN THERE. In election years the other parties chant a 'ME Too' chorus. But they defend the monopolists and their profits and profiteering and parity mix no better than oil and water. ONLY THE C.C.F STANDS FOR "ENDING PROFITEERING AND SPECIAL PRIVILEGE." Remember, election promises are a dime a dozen. Only in the C.C.F do PROMISES AND PRINCIPLES AGREE.

Thoughts on Filming "The Graduation Story"

Today's boy or girl graduate is a full-fledged star, given feature billing in a week-long series of events and activities — those shared with members of his class at school, as well as others in which his family plays host at home. Graduation Day itself has become merely the climax to a round of functions and frolics!

That's why the "graduation story" demands an active camera throughout the week preceding the actual commencement exercises—continuing right up to the Great Day itself when that diploma finally becomes part of family [illegible]

As on most family occasions, Dad or Mother will probably be the official picture-taker—unless some friend or relative has the foresight to present the graduate with a handsome gift of a camera. If so, you can expect the new camera to cover both the highpoints and the sidelights of the occasion. In fact, if the young graduate himself is doing the shooting, you can be sure everything worth remembering will be recorded on film for the future.

Some of the best albums we've ever seen have been ones filled with snapshots taken with a camera that came as a graduation gift. And the fun of taking pictures at graduation time was the beginning of a snapshooting habit that has given each recipient countless hours of pleasure and many hundreds of wonderful pictures.

If you're trying to make up your mind about a suitable graduation gift, why not stroll over to the nearest camera shop and see the assortment of fine gift possibilities on display? There's a camera to suit every taste and budget—and it's a gift practically every young person would be pleased to receive.

A camera with its own flash attachment—a stereo camera—or one of the new low-priced movie cameras—any of these will mark you as a most generous, thoughtful giver of good wishes. Young people lead busy lives—so much happens so fast that pictures are the only way to record the happy times they want to remember.

That's why camera gifts are so warmly welcomed by each year's new crop of graduates—and that's why we say Commencement Day can be the beginning of some fine camerawork, too!

MORE OLDER PEOPLE

Canada is one of the younger nations of the world but like [illegible] highly developed countries in average age of population we [illegible] the oldest, declares The Financial Post. The reason is simple. Thanks to better medical care, better food and better and better hygiene our people are living far longer than in the early days and far longer than people in primitive countries today.

Thirty-five years ago only 2.8 per cent of our population were over 70 years of age. Fifteen years ago it was 4 per cent. Now it is almost five. And that tells only a part of the story. Because our population is growing the number of people in this over seventy group is growing too, three quarters of a million today as against less than a quarter of a million in 1921.

JUST AS FIT

Fret not that because you're an executive your health must be worse than your subordinates, advises The Financial Post. Survey among industrial physicians by the American Management Association finds "no evidence" that employees enjoy better health than their bosses. On the whole they are just as sick—or you're just as fit.

4-H Sewing Club Holds Achievement Day at Islay

ISLAY. — On Wednesday evening, May 22, the 4-H Sewing club held their Achievement day. A large attendance showed the interest of parents and friends. The evening opened with "O Canada" with Elaine Sweet at the organ. Linda Redmond was in the chair. They held a model meeting exceptionally well conducted. In correspondence read, was a letter from Anne Kneen, who had been a patient in the Islay hospital, thanking the club for a bed jacket sent her. The program followed: Elaine Shirriff and Lyn Davidson showed how to wash a woollen sweater; then a duet by Dennise Dodsworth and Lyn Davidson accompanied by Elaine Sweet at the organ. A demonstration by Linda and Sharon Redmond showed how to dress to flatter your figure. Elaine Sherriff sang "Whispering Hope" accompanied by Sharon Redmond on the accordian. Dennis and Grace Simmons showed how to clean shoes; then Linda Redmond gave an organ solo; a couple of girls showed the right and wrong way to dress for garden work, for the Junior High school girl and for attending a 4-H meeting. The first year girls showed their projects an apron made from a flour sack and trimmed with scraps from Ma's sewing basket a dickie, etc., this by Grace and Lyn. The second year girls were much advanced they modelled their housecoats which they will wear at the dorm next season then pretty dresses, all of cottons. This was by Linda, Elaine Sweet and Frances Kowalski. A group song accompanied by Sharon Redmond on the accordian Elaine Sweet rendered an organ solo 'Morning Prayer' followed by a tableau Elaine Sheriff reading a poem and an 1892 Grand ma appeared and in due time a 1957 bride and attendants.

Miss Mewha gave criticisms re their work, and said the club was more than sewing as they also learned to carry on business, socials etc and she showed the good points as well as the poor ones and commended the girls on their exceptional work saying they must have good leaders and that they must have liked their work.

Mr Milo Fleming was then invited to speak but he didn't get the last word as Mrs Moncrieff took the floor and was presented with a gift from the girls. Then Sharon and Linda Redmond were presented with gifts for best project book for the year Sharon first year and Linda second year. Mrs. Moncrieff then spoke ending up with a very amusing story and commending Mrs. Olive Redmond for her assistance throughout the year. Now the girls are at their gardening. This community certainly should be very thankful for such leadership. It is a job done just for the pleasure in doing, not for any financial reward. Miss Mewha said she knew an area of 25 girls who would like to be a club — but there was no one to lead.

Besides articles already mentioned as being modelled there were many more such as pyjamas, blouses, coat hangers, bags for laundry, patches, etc.

Many of the ladies, as grandmas, aunts and great aunts, bemoaned the fact that in their day there were no such clubs.

Mr. Farmer

REALIZING that our Western economy depends almost entirely upon the prosperity of the farmer, it is hoped that results of appeals made for improvement in farm legislation may be possible with continued and forceful presentation of your problems to the Parliament of Canada.

Minority group representation has failed to bring results.

Vote for Carl Heckbert on June 10th, who agrees, if elected to present the case for Agriculture to the caucus of the Liberal party, who, after all, are the only ones who can effect beneficial changes.

Carl Heckbert will press for:

1. Adaptation of the present Canadian Farm Loan Board into a really Comprehensive Plan for Crop Insurance to include all hazards.
2. Provision for depreciation on necessarily constructed grain storage buildings on the farm, with the same benefit to farmers as now applies to oil companies and others.
3. Extension of quotas and a more realistic policy in the allocation of shipping facilities.
4. Advances on stored grain, or, alternately, provision of permanent storage facilities owned by the people of Canada and the removal of grain from the farms under purchase.
5. Continuation of the Canadian Wheat Board and the inclusion of grains not now included in their operations.
6. Thorough investigation into the possibility of advanced prices for farm products disposed of on the domestic market.
7. Amendment of the Prairie Farm Assistance Act to include all who suffer the loss of crops regardless of whether the affected area is in blocks as now required.
8. To set up a NON-PARTISAN COMMITTEE from all over the riding to advise your representative from time to time.

VOTE HECKBERT, S. CARL X
for the best chance for results

Paradise Valley Garden Club

PARADISE VALLEY — The third meeting of the Garden Club was held at the home of Alice Doty on May 16th commencing at 7.30. The meeting came to order with the seven members repeating the 4-H pledge. The roll call was answered by tips on how to care for shrubs and the garden during the early spring. Plans were made for meetings to follow throughout the summer. Ruth Walter and June Teasdale are to give a demonstration at the next meeting. Linda Stepanoff offered her home as the site for the next meeting. The girls who have shrubs were requested to get any shrubs that may have died from Ruth as she has some extra. Girls whose perennials died have ordered some more. Ruth and Alice are getting pansies from Mrs. Guy or Mrs. Swedak. Mrs Doty served a very delicious lunch after the meeting. June thanked Alice and Mrs. Doty for the lovely lunch and the use of their home.

School Beginners to Register June 9, 10

The attention of all parents who have children eligible to commence school in September, 1957, is directed to the fact that these kiddies should be registered with the primary school principal, Miss O. Tykuski. If this has not already been done, father and mother should call at the primary school on the afternoon of June 9th or 10th and see that their little son or daughter is duly registered so there will be a seat for him or her when school opens this fall. For complete details see the advertisement elsewhere in this issue. 46-T

V.L.A. Assists Veterans In Production Line Farming

The Veterans' Land Act is designed to assist veteran farmers in farm planning, farm management and to encourage production-line methods. Grassland farming, low cost, high utility pole type housing for livestock, double tandem milking parlors, self feeding bunker silos and other self feeding methods are part of the Production-line program.

It is first important to draw up a simple integrated farm plan with the idea of specializing in some one major project to save in labor and equipment costs.

Should hog raising be selected as a major project on a family sized farm, it may be made into a profitable business if production-line methods are used and proper husbandry practiced.

Followed are a few of the most important things to consider for profitable hog raising.

1. Select the Best Possible Breeding Stock

It is not essential to purchase expensive pedigreed sows when starting out, but select sows that are long, relatively lean, with deep sides and well sprung ribs, heavily muscled hams and clean smooth necks and legs. They should be from large litters and have 12 to 14 evenly spaced, well developed teats. The boar should be the same general type.

2. Care of Breeding Stock

The bred sow requires special care and feed to assure strong, healthy litters. Avoid feeding a heavy grain ration. A balanced diet of feeds high in proteins and minerals is important. Early cut green alfalfa hay or alfalfa silage with free access to a mineral mixture containing salt, calcium, iron, and potassium iodide makes an ideal ration for bred sows. Very little, if any, grain is necessary. An ample supply of fresh water must also be available. Plenty of space for exercise is most important.

3. Proper Housing

This is a 'must', particularly in cold weather, if large healthy litters are to be saved. A well planned hog house is ideal but not necessarily essential. Old barns or other outbuildings can be made to do. The important thing is that they be dry and free from draught. It is not too important that the building be particularly warm as long as a warm cosy nest, apart from the sow, is provided for the little pigs. If electricity is available, a heat lamp may be used, with excellent results, but if not available, a small well insulated nest will do the trick.

4. Give Proper Care At Farrowing Time

Place the sow in the farrowing pen three or four days prior to farrowing, scrub her with soap and water and remove germs and parasite eggs, cut her ration in half and feed a laxative ration. Most important of all, be present when the sows farrows to remove the little pigs as they are born, dry them off and keep them in a warm place to avoid chilling. When all are born, place them in a warm nest apart from the sow. They will soon learn to come out when hungry and then return to the nest for the extra warmth it provides. This will avoid crushing or injury in any way. Give the sow nothing but warm water the first day, on the second day feed wheat bran and shorts with five tablespoons of Epsom salts; on the third day, start with a little grain and gradually increase to a full ration in two weeks.

5. Control Diseases and Insects

Cleanliness is the best defence against all diseases and parasites. Clean and disinfect pen before farrowing by scrubbing with lye solution, vaccinate sow for erysipelas before breeding and the pigs two weeks before or two after weaning. Give required dose of reduced iron to little pigs when one to two and three weeks old together with about three drops of concentrated cod liver oil, break out needle teeth as soon as pigs are born and prevent scours by not feeding the sow too much too soon after farrowing, as well as keeping the pen dry and clean. It is also very important to keep the little pigs free of worm infestation by keeping them off land used by old pigs. Transport them to clean pastures.

6. Creep Feed Suckling Pigs

When about two weeks old, pigs will start eating solid food but should not be made to eat with the sow. To prevent this, a creep into an alley or small pen should be provided where pig starter may be fed in a self feeder with plenty of fresh water or sweet skim milk available.

7. Care After Weaning

After weaning at six to eight weeks old the pigs may be transported to a new clean alfalfa pasture where they may have access to a self-feeder of ground grain from which the hulls have been sifted out. Protein supplement and mineral mixture should be well mixed with ground grain. It is most important that fresh water be available at all times. Shade and shelter can be provided by the use of portable cabins.

After the pigs weigh about 70 pounds, sifted grain is not required. They may be switched to a self-feeder with a regular fattening ration by simply making the entrance small enough to keep them out. In this way, pigs of all sizes may be kept in the same pasture.

In recent years antibiotics have been fed with outstanding success to reduce feed costs and for earlier marketing. Be sure to follow the directions of the manufacturer to the letter for the desired results.

In order to receive the best possible grades hogs must be sold at 200 to 210 lbs. A cheap set of scales will pay for themselves many times over if any quantity of hogs are being sold.

By following a few comparatively simple rules and by adopting labor saving production line methods, hogs may be raised at a substantial profit. Don't be an 'in and outer'. Stay with the hog business consistently year after year and they will lift the mortgage off the farm.

Appointed To Board On Objectionable Publications

The appointment of Mrs. J. Ferris of Red Deer to the Alberta Advisory Board of Objectional Publications is announced by the Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Economic Affairs.

Mrs. Ferris was born and educated at Provost. She attended the University of Alberta and latterly taught Home Economics at Lacombe and Stettler. Married at Lacombe, the new board member has resided at that centre and Edmonton and Camrose. She moved to Red Deer last March.

Mrs. Ferris has been active in community affairs and has been closely associated with the I.O.D.E., Home and School and Anglican Church W. A. She was the first secretary-treasurer of the Lacombe Regional Library.

Other members of the Advisory Board are Mrs. A. F. Maure chairman, and F. O'Hare, Edmonton; J. Dutton, R. Jeacock, Lethbridge, R. Plumerfelt and Mrs. Ivan Robison, Calgary.

Modern pools and clear, spring-fed lakes beckon the swimming enthusiasts, while many of the sturdier souls spend long hours riding or hiking along scenic mountain or prairie trails of Alberta.

GOLDFISH BY THE BAG

Goldfish by the bag are now being sold in Canadian stores. Sealed in a polythene bag with enough food and especially treated water to keep them healthy for at least two weeks, they can be carried home without spilling, then emptied, water and all, into a regular fishbowl. The new packaging method makes goldfish available in smaller communities where the stores have no aquarium facilities.

Political Battle Centres on Alberta As Liberals Attack Social Credit

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — Can anyone blame Alberta voters for being bewildered?

It seems this province is one of the richest political plums in the June 10th election, and Albertans are being bombarded on all sides by opposing political views.

Alberta is under attack by the heaviest artillery the Liberal party can produce in its effort to wrest some power away from Social Credit. And Social Credit, on the other hand, is striving mightily to retain its 11 Alberta Commons seats or perhaps add a few new ones.

On top of this, the Progressive-Conservatives are conducting a spectacular campaign and the CCF party is telling us that socialism is the only answer to Canada's problems.

The Liberals make no secret of the fact that they are making a determined, all-out bid to crack the stronghold of Social Credit and check the advance of the party before it grows any bigger.

To date during the current campaign this province has had visits from no less than seven federal cabinet ministers, headed by Prime Minister St. Laurent.

"It was not always thus," observed Premier Manning during a recent Socred campaign rally as he referred to the invasion by the federal cabinet. "Twenty years ago when Alberta was a poor relative of Ottawa's you couldn't drag a federal cabinet minister out here!"

The Liberals are basing their hopes on the argument that Albertans should vote for candidates who will sit in on the government caucus and help shape national policy. A vote for Social Credit, they say, is a vote for a splinter party which will never be a national power.

Social Credit is countering with plans for prosperity for everyone, government closer to the people, and government which will uphold the rights of the individual.

The Progressive-Conservatives don't appear to have blown up a storm so far with their claim that they will restore dignity to Parliament, reduce taxation and provide more services. Only one thing is clear so far, and that is that everyone wants to get Social Credit out of power. The Liberals believe they have a good chance of defeating Solon E. Low, National Social Credit leader, in his riding of Peace River. They point out hopefully, that he hasn't spent much time in Peace River in recent years, and that the vote will be split among five candidates this time.

The Liberals are also eyeing southern Alberta and hoping to crack it for the first time in many, many years. They are particularly interested in Lethbridge where the Social Credit sitting member, John Blackmore barely got the nomination with a large faction opposed to him.

As it stands now however, no sharp trends have become evident, and the questions won't be answered until election day, June 10th.

However, for the record, here is your correspondent's fearless prediction (subject to change without notice, so no bets taken).

"The Liberals will gain two to four seats but Social Credit will continue to hold the majority of Alberta ridings in the Commons. The Conservatives will be doing well to retain the two Calgary seats they held at dissolution of the Commons. CCF-ers won't admit it publicly but their party stands little or no chance in prosperous Alberta and the Lab.-Prog (Communist) party, with only one candidate in the race, isn't even a factor."

BOOMING BETTER SALES

New car sales in the first four months of 1957 hit a sensational total — probably about 136,000 worth close to $400 million, says Jack McArthur in The Financial Post.

April—with an unofficial 43,000 sales—wasn't quite as buoyant as some people in the industry had hoped. Nevertheless it was a good month by any standard.

Logical conclusion: It still looks like a top sales year for new car dealers. It could yet be a record year (best previous 607,000 last year).

Hearty western hospitality is an unbroken tradition in the home of the world's biggest annual competitive frontier-days celebration, the world-famous Calgary Stampede.

Mannville Cadet Corps Holds Annual Srping "Scheme"

MANNVILLE — The boys of Mannville Army Cadet Corp held their annual spring scheme on the week end of May 24-26. Through the courtesy of Mr W Tate they were allowed to use pasture land whose rolling and well wooded nature was ideal for the kinds of maneuvers cadets learn to do.

Camp was set up on the evening of Friday May 24th. After the tents were pitched and beds prepared, the affair was sent off to a good start by a weiner roast in which five pounds of dogs, six dozen buns and a generous quantity of mustard and relish were consumed with gusto.

Saturday after breakfast at 6 a.m. (the boys wouldn't let the chief instructor sleep any longer) the morning was spent in shifting tents to better locations, setting up a telephone system connecting all tents, and in perfecting the camouflage of the camp to the extent that it was virtually impossible to see any sign of its presence from the normal approach routes.

Saturday afternoon was spent in fieldcraft maneuvers and in learning techniques of patrols, sentry duty and reconnaissance. The learning of this work was made more interesting by strong rumors that people from town, including several ex-cadets were planning a night raid. The boys entered into the spirit of the idea. An instructor from Edmonton brought a supply of blank cartridges which were to be used to give realism to the affair in case of an attack.

Active patrol took place until midnight after which the boys were sent to bed when the expected attack had not materialized. About 2 a.m. the attackers were discovered. They had penetrated the headquarters area. The alarm was given by the firing of blank cartridges and the defenders assembled rapidly. After repeated raiding of the camp with successions of blood-curdling yells the attackers were finally repulsed in disorder when the cadets charged with flash lights. Apparently the shock of being in the bright light terrified the invaders and they retired to avoid recognition. After this the rest of the night was quiet. The cadets went to bed, slept late and after breakfast broke camp and returned to town.

Cliff Smallwood

TO THE PEOPLE
OF THE
Federal Constituency
OF
Battle River-Camrose

The present government of Canada is on trial for policies it has followed where labor, trade and agriculture are concerned.

Any study of the economy of Canada will reveal very quickly that the welfare of agriculture is very closely related to both labor problems and trade problems. If there is any lack of balance in either labor or trade agriculture is one of the first industries to suffer.

The present trade situation is one which is completely out of balance. Canada is the third trading nation in the world, yet our deficit account with the United States has grown rapidly from $901,000,000 in 1949 to $1,[illegible] in 1956. To make matters worse the United States has surpluses of many of the same things which Canada has to sell.

That is not all.

At the same time trade with Great Britain, a country which needs our farm products, has fallen off steadily since the war.

Now couple that set of facts of the present government's unhandling of inflation and its effect on labor costs. As a result of the present government's unwillingness or inability to control inflationary trends, the prices of things produced in Canada's factories have had to rise again and again to enable employers to pay workers necessary increases in pay.

Any economist will tell you that the combination can have but one effect on the farmer. He sells goods wholesale in dwindling markets. He buys goods retail in markets where prices are always rising. We don't need a statistician to tell us that people are leaving their farms. We have only to look around us. If we ask ourselves whether the situation is good for Canada we can only give one answer, an emphatic "NO".

A Conservative government will do everything possible to expand present overseas markets and promote new markets wherever possible. A Commonwealth conference should be called to assist in this. Every attempt will be made to create a better balance in our trade relations with the United States. Above all a Conservative government will admit that a serious situation exists. The present government is not prepared to admit this.

John Diefenbaker has lived in the West nearly all his life and understands the West's problems. Cliff Smallwood has farmed in the West and knows from experience what the farmer's problems are.

Let's give them a chance to try to solve our problems. Give Cliff Smallwood your vote in Battle River-Camrose on June 10th.

Imports from Japan Cause For Concern

A sharp increase in Japanese imports of textile items in Canada is bringing serious competition to Canadian firms.

Value of cotton shirts imported from Japan jumped from $1000 in 1951 to $1,[illegible] in 1956. Knitted cotton clothing went from $2[illegible] to $55[illegible] in the same period. Colored cotton fabrics jumped from $37,000 to $1,720,000 and synthetic fibre clothing from $21,000 to $546,000.

The suddenness as well as the extent of these and similar increases is a cause of concern to the Canadian industry, important sections of which are being "picked off" without an opportunity to meet the sudden appearance of the very low-cost Japanese goods.

The Japanese have promised to limit amounts they will send here. But quotas reported so far are exorbitant for the size of the available market.

There are provisions in the trade agreement between Canada and Japan enabling this country to limit the effects of Japanese imports which "cause or threaten serious injury to the domestic producers." and enforcement will be needed.

'56 Lady Champion Yields Trophy for 1957 Championship

Male pride in being the superior sex when it comes to handling an automobile was restored on Saturday in Edmonton when Wayne Rodacker, Grande Prairie, won the Alberta Teen-Age Safe Driving Road-e-o run-offs. Here Merrill Upton of Calgary, who defeated all her male opponents at last year's road-e-o, turns the Imperial Oil trophy over to Wayne. Formal presentation was made by G. E. Kaumeyer of Imperial, sponsor of the provincial finals. The event includes written exams and practical driving tests, designed to improve road habits and attitudes conducted by the Alberta Junior Chambers of Commerce. Larry Medhurst of Red Deer placed second and Dan Hanson, Medicine Hat, third.

ELECTION DAY . . . FAST APPROACHING—

It won't be long. June 10th, otherwise known as election day, is fast approaching and at the last count 68 candidates had entered the race for the 17 Alberta seats.

The Liberal and Social Credit parties each have full slates of 17 candidates for the Commons seats, while the Progressive Conservatives are contesting 16 and the CCF has chosen 15 candidates.

To complete the list there was one Labor Progressive (Communist) candidate, one who represents the People's Party and one Independent Social Crediter.

Thirteen members of the last house are seeking re-election. Of these ten are Social Crediters, two are Liberals, one is a Conservative. Four members of the last house including one cabinet minister have retired from politics.

WOODVALE NOTES

Since we wrote the last notes three weeks ago we have had all kinds of weather from perfect spring days to storms, hail, rain, snow and two frosts. The latter do not appear to have done much damage though some early Saskatoon blossoms turned brown but later whole valleys and hill sides still looked white with these blossoms and we found some fruit set. Lightning struck the telephone line during the storm of the 16th near the Wesley home splintering two poles, taking the top off a third and blowing the safety fuse in their home. Crops and gardens are showing up but seeding and planting are still in full swing. Work has been done in the schoolyard and the little evergreens show nice and green in the clean strip of cultivated ground.

Mr and Mrs. Paul Gautier had two of their daughters visit them one week end recently, Mrs. Suzanne Benoit from Vegreville and Cecile from Camrose.

May we remind our readers of the Red Cross meeting at Mrs. Margaret Watson's on June 5th when a wool shipment will be made up. Anyone interested can ship with them and they also would like to make a shipment of used clothes to a missionary society.

Don't forget the dance in the Woodvale hall on June 7th as is already advertised elsewhere in the Standard.

Sorry we have so little news this week. Have been busy like everybody else no doubt but we hope to do better in June.

Church services have been and will continue to be held in Ganton hall every Sunday at 3:40 p.m. with preachers from Edmonton and Wainwright. No student minister has been appointed here so far.

More than a touch of magic in its motion...

THE "MILLION-DOLLAR RIDE" . . . ANOTHER REASON WHY BUICK IS YOUR BEST BUY!

Pick a road . . . but not just any road, anywhere. Pick a road that would strain the sinews of any ordinary car. Fill it with chuck-holes and washboard—boulders and wooden bridges. Then . . . try it in a '57 Buick.

Try it at slow speeds where most cars bounce and bounce, jitter and pitch. Nudge the accelerator a bit, to the point where most cars slam and shudder on the rough spots.

But in a Buick? This is magic, you'll say . . . sheer, easy-floating magic!

Actually, of course, this kind of cream-smoothness is something more than magic . . . and considerably more substantial. It's Buick's "Million-Dollar Ride" . . . crafted for you exclusively in Buick with coil springs on all four wheels. And it's one more reason why your best car buy will always be Buick.

So take our advice and see your Buick dealer. One look . . . one Demonstration Drive . . . will prove everything we say. Buick's best—anywhere, everywhere you go.

Fifteen Teen-Agers Compete for Safe Driving Honors

Fifteen young teen-agers from all parts of Alberta and the Peace River block of B.C. were out pitting their driving skills against each other in Edmonton last Saturday in the Alberta Teen-Age Safe Driving Road-e-o. Wayne Rodacker, Grande Prairie, emerged as regional champion after some gruelling tests to receive the Imperial Oil trophy and a cash award. Larry Medhurst of Red Deer placed second and Dan Hanson, Medicine Hat, third. Here Hanson has just driven through rows of flagged markers, braked at 20 miles an hour and attempted to stop on a white line. The Alberta regional road-e-o is sponsored by Imperial and conducted by the Alberta Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Grade 10 Students Farewelled At Buffalo Coulee School

Something new for this community was a farewell party for the Grade 10 students of Buffalo Coulee, held in the gym last Friday night. A good crowd was in attendance. The gym was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and colored balloons. Across the back of the stage in silver letters on black background were the words — "Farewell Grade Tens" and at the front, baskets of lilacs and white cherry and Saskatoon blossoms.

The honored students on the platform were Lorene Everett, Barbara Hinton, Carolyn Renspies, Pearl Kowoski, Bernard Eyben and Wayne Green. Another member of the class, Arlene Newman, was unable to be present.

Honored guests and speakers for the occasion were Mr. O. Bauer, newly elected divisional trustee, Mr. Facey superintendent of the Vegreville School Division and Mr. Wm. Bushko, former principal of the school from its beginning until the past year. Mr Bauer extended greetings and best wishes on behalf of the board. Mr. Facey in his remarks to the students expressed the hope that all would continue with their high school until they graduated from Grade 12. Mr. Bushko, very pleased to be back 'home', had been principal to these students for the first nine years of school, and told of some amusing incidents that had taken place during that time. In the course of his address he said that though next year would find them scattered to Wainwright, Mannville and Vermilion to complete their studies and to make new friends their years at Buffalo Coulee would always be among their most cherished memories. He concluded by wishing each and everyone a happy and successful future.

Miss Shirley Cooper on behalf of the Grade 9 students gave a nice farewell address to their fellow students and presented each one with a pennant of B.C.S. Wayne Green very fittingly responded to this presentation and thanked the speakers and those responsible for having this farewell party for them.

Mr. Bauman acted as chairman. Dancing was then enjoyed by young and old to the music of Williams orchestra of Vermilion and lunch was served at twelve by the Students' Union.

Everyone enjoyed having a visit with Bill and Jeanette at the party on Friday night.

The young people of the district are being kept busy. Each Wednesday and Friday night the Pony league and Little league baseball teams have games with Wainwright. Last Thursday after school the boys' baseball team and the girls' softball team from the school went to Minburn to play and came out on the short end of the score in both cases. This Thursday Minburn comes to Buffalo Coulee for the return games.

The annual bazaar and picnic of the Auburndale church will be held on June 14th at the community centre. Since this is a school holiday and Farmers' day it is to start at 2.30. Supper will be served by the W.A. Ball games and races will be on the program and there will be the usual sale of work, home cooking etc. Everyone welcome.

The last Home and School meeting was held on Monday night. A very fine report of the convention held in Edmonton was given by Mrs. Ruth Everett. After the meeting adjourned Mr. Bauman showed several films. Lunch was served and a social half hour followed.

In this century Canada has had three Liberal Prime Ministers and three Conservatives. All have been graduates in law, though Mackenzie King did not practise the profession.

Quick Canadian Facts

WHAT DO YOU KEEP IN YOUR GARAGE?

Windsor, Ont. What do you keep in your garage? Do you use it as a storehouse in which you keep everything from the lawn mower to that horrible picture of Aunt Sadie?

A leading Canadian automobile service authority points out that the garage was built to house your car and, for the sake of the car, should be used for that purpose.

"Tests have shown," states J. A. Dykes, director of service for Chrysler of Canada, "that being left outdoors in all weather conditions seriously shortens the life span of the finish on your car.

"Indeed," he continues, "tests conducted by leading paint manufacturers show that the most harmful weather condition to an automobile finish is the heavy dew that falls on a car during the night."

Dykes points out that there are a few simple "Do's" and "Don'ts" in the care of auto finish that will greatly increase the life span of that finish.

Do not wash a car while it is standing in the hot sun, or immediately after it has been moved out of the sun.

Do not use extremely hot water.

Do not use harsh detergents or cleaning materials on the finish. This includes many of the household detergents commonly used for this purpose.

Do not use detergents or waxes of any kind on the finish of a new car until the paint has had an opportunity to "cure". This takes approximately 3 months.

Do wash your car in the shade, drying it thoroughly before exposing it to the sun.

Do wash frequently, more often in the winter than in summer, using plenty of water so as to avoid all possible abrasive action on the paint.

Do use a soft sponge and gentle pressure to remove the dirt. If, over a period of time, the finish seems to lack lustre, clean it thoroughly with a mild auto detergent.

Dykes suggested that a process known as porcelainizing will bring out the true beauty of the finish. In this process no covering wax is applied to the finish, but rather a special water-thin liquid is used which seals the pores of the paint and provides an [illegible] porcelain. Upkeep of this specially treated finish is reduced to a minimum. In many instances the car may be washed clean merely by spraying it with water.

Dykes also suggested that chrome surfaces should be kept clean and during the winter months should be protected by a special chrome wax.

Dollar Dip Coming?

Outlook for the Canadian dollar premium — no change until the fourth quarter of 1957 then a possible dip to the 3 to 3½% range.

That's the prediction of J. R. Hughes of the Purdue University faculty, reports The Financial Post.

His forecast is based on an opinion that the current account trade deficit will narrow, but the difference between interest rates prevailing in the U.S. and Canada will not change significantly until after the third quarter.

NEWS from ISLAY

On Sunday the 26th Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone, sons Billie, Georgie and Ronnie arrived at noon at the Misses Muriel and Gladys Stone. In the evening all gathered at Ken Stone's, including Mrs. Roy Stone. In the dusk the children had quite a display of fireworks with the tiny tots certainly enjoying the sparklers.

As we visited at the hospital on Tuesday we saw Mr. D. Buchanan, Mrs. Hancock Sr. sitting up in a chair and looking quite well, Mrs. Martin Sr. also, and Mrs. Geo. Connon. The telephone rang — it was a call for Mrs. Connon. She returned to the room quite excited. It was her daughter Edna calling from Windsor. It was a real thrill. Edna is a nurse in Windsor.

Friday is Mrs. Hancock's birthday, [illegible] years young. We wish you a very pleasant day, Mrs. Hancock.

The June meeting of the United Church W.A. meets Thursday June 6th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Waterfield. It is the missionary meeting. It is also the half way mark for our allocation fund. Please keep the date open. There will be an article to be auctioned, so bring your cheque book.

Discuss Trends in Maternal and Child Health

Modern trends in maternal and child health was the theme of the annual conference of Alberta Municipal Nurses held in [illegible]. Fifty municipal nurses and Health Unit personnel attended. Problems common to public health nursing were also discussed. Included on the agenda were inoculating techniques, communicable disease control, health education, tuberculosis control, administration and personnel relationships.

Shown discussing health education matters are Miss D. Bailey, Vermilion; Dr. P. Rowan, Grande Prairie; Miss Bev Ramsay, Camrose and Miss J. Frodsham, Calgary.

Health Unit Notes

[illegible] eustachian tube [illegible] ear [illegible] of adults [illegible] infections in [illegible] when a doctor [illegible] blocks the eustachian tube and causes mild inflammation of the ear drum.

ACUTE MIDDLE EAR INFECTION

This is unusually a complication of some childhood disease such as measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough or influenza. If your child has any such general infection watch for signs of ear trouble such as earache, sudden rise in temperature, difficulty in hearing, and a noticeable turn for the worse in the illness. If the child is too young to tell about earache and dull hearing he may show signs of ear trouble by a sharp rise in temperature, increasing illness, restlessness, crying, wail, pain and sometimes pulling at the ears. If your child shows some or all of these signs call your doctor at once so that the conditions can be checked before serious damage is done. An acute infection of the ear can develop so fast that an abscess may be formed in a matter of hours, so any delay in treatment can be serious.

HOW WE HEAR

The outer ear helps to gather sound which travels down the outer ear canal to the ear drum. The sound causes the ear drum to vibrate and the vibrations pass into the middle ear and through the chain of little bones into the inner ear. There an agitation of the fluid creates nerve impulses which travel to the brain and are heard in the form of sound. Hearing is dulled after infection or injury damages the ear drum or blocks the [illegible]

Summer Camps In Alberta For Diabetic Children

An important advance in the treatment of juvenile diabetics in Canada has been the development in recent years of the summer camp programme. Last year 260 diabetic children attended six Canadian camps. In 1957 more children will have the opportunity of an active camp program with their diabetes is cared for by a medical team.

In Alberta there are two camps. Camp Charles Best, sponsored by the Edmonton and District Branch of the Canadian Diabetic Association will be held from August 17 to 28, at the Anglican Church at Kapasiwin beach, 39 miles west of Edmonton. The camp secretary is Mrs. A. Denan, 7-1 91 Avenue, Edmonton, Phone 61270. In Calgary Camp Carlson, sponsored by the Calgary and District Branch of the Canadian Diabetic Association will be held from August [illegible] at Bragg Creek, 30 miles west of the city. The camp secretary is Mrs. J. Kennedy, 1735-21A Street, S. W. Calgary.

At home the diabetic child has not the opportunity of sharing the pleasures of an active outdoor life, the fun of group living, the learning of crafts not taught at school and the training in good health [illegible] in the summer camp.

While engaging in a full summer camp programme the child is taught by example, by group classes and by cooperation himself the ways he [illegible] can maintain good control of his diabetes and live a happier, fuller life than was possible for him previously. Almost invariably the camper learns more about his diabetes than he knew before.

All of the camp sponsors stress that diabetic children who wish to attend may do so regardless of financial circumstances. Font branches of the Canadian Diabetic Association and service clubs raise money to maintain these camps. Diabetic children are eligible to attend on recommendation of their physician and approval of the camp committee.

High School Year Climaxed By Graduation Banquet, Dance And Presentations

Grand climax of the high school year and possibly the greatest moment since they entered the portals of the halls of learning to begin grade one for twenty-five girls and boys of Grade 12, graduation exercises of the Vermilion high school were held on Friday evening. The class of graduates were well surrounded by school mates, parents and friends, and the whole program, banquet and the dance, certainly provided a long-to-be-remembered evening as the highlight of their school career.

Mr John David, principal of the high school was toastmaster. Grace was invoked by Capt. G. Holden.

THE GRADUATES

The young lady graduates were introduced by Carol Brown and the boys by Tom Kibblewhite both grade 11 students. Brief remarks about the graduands indicated the highlights by which each will be remembered, their school accomplishments, and what each was planning for the future.

The graduands were Patrick Bentley, Eileen Bauer, Donna Cooper, Lee Coyne, Clifford Cunningham, Margaret Goodwin, Janet Hall, Donna Isley, Daniel Leveredge, Brent Long, Lillian Misick, Clarence Mistal, George Martin, William Robinson, Donald Stewart, Philip Taylor, Lillian Wasylik.

The toast to the graduates was ably proposed by Donald Galloway, with the reply being given by Eileen Bauer.

A musical interlude featured Margaret Goodwin, grade 12 graduate as soloist, accompanied by Mrs. K. A. Minchin.

Delivering the valedictory address is an honor given to an outstanding graduate and this year the valedictorian was Pat Bentley. Pat's address was followed by a message from the president of the Students' Union, Donald Stewart, who outlined the activities undertaken by the student body of the high school during the year.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Awards are given annually for achievements during the school year. These achievements include academic standing, sports, and leadership as connected with school activities.

Crests indicating that the student had amassed 25 points or more went to Donna Isley, Bob Waldenberger, Gladys Wilson, Emil Yarmuch, Bill Robinson, Clarence Mistal, Bryan Ford, Cliff Cunningham, Alice Winters, Hazel Whitlock, Carol Brown, Madeline Carroll, Don Galloway, David Smith, Bill Payne, Keith David, Doreen Hicks, Bryan Calvert, Dale Scott, Fay Wilson, Marie Tovell, Marion Mead, Mary Gibson, Doreen Martin.

Pins, 100 points—Eileen Bauer, Pat Bentley.

Pat Bentley also received a year's subscription to the Readers Digest. An award by the publishers of that magazine to school valedictorians.

ELKS PRESENT VALUABLE SCHOLARSHIPS

Mr Roy Hitchcock, Exalted Ruler of the Elks next performed a very pleasing duty when he presented two bursaries of $25 each. These bursaries are given annually by the Vermilion Elks Lodge to the grade 9 and grade 12 students making the greatest contribution to the academic, social and athletic life of the school.

For grade 9 the winner was Garry Hareuther and grade 12 Eileen Bauer.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

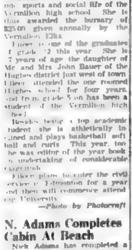
Mr David then introduced Mr D. C. Folk, who delivered the Commencement address. Mr. Folk chose as his theme "Growing" and his talk, at times humorous, but with always a serious vein revealed his intimate knowledge and insight into the character of youth, their desires and inhibitions. The fact that they had successfully completed their high school courses indicated that they had made good and sound preparations for the next phase of their lives.

GRADUATION PROM

Following the banquet was the graduation prom held in the Elks hall. The pretty grads in their graduation gowns, the handsome young male grads, along with the scores of other happy young people made a very pleasant and memorable scene, a fitting event by which to remember "Graduation Day".

Excellent catering was by the United Church W.A. The hall was decorated in a most interesting manner with large cut outs depicting various phases of school activities.

Win Bursaries Offered by Elks



EILEEN BAUER

This young lady was selected by the committee of teachers as the grade 12 student who had contributed most to the academic, sports and social life of the Vermilion high school. She is thus awarded the bursary of $25.00 given annually by the Vermilion Elks.

Eileen is one of the graduates of grade 12 this year. She is 17 years of age, the daughter of Mr and Mrs John Bauer of the Hughes district just west of town. Eileen attended the one roomed Hughes school for four years, and from grade 5 on has been a student of the Vermilion high school.

Besides being a top academic student she is athletically inclined and plays basketball, softball and curls. This year, too she was editor of the year book, an undertaking of considerable magnitude.

Eileen plans to enter the civil service in Edmonton for a year and then will commence attending University.

The Vermilion Rotary Club have undertaken to arrange for at least four concerts at the park during the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks 65 Years Married

Mr and Mrs Louis R. Hicks, esteemed pioneer residents of the town and district, observed the 65th anniversary of their wedding on Saturday, June 1st. An open reception was held on Sunday June 2nd at their home, in commemoration of the unique event.

All members of the family attended the gathering with the exception of one grandson Louis, of La La Ronge, while friends of many years standing called on the respected pioneer couple.

Mr and Mrs Hicks were married at Mount Albion, Ont. on June 1st 1892. They first came to Vermilion in 19[illegible] and have lived in the immediate area ever since, being postmaster at Derwent for many years until he retired to live in Vermilion.

Rotarians Plan Car Roadeo

The Vermilion Rotary Club will again sponsor a car roadeo in the interest of safe driving. this year and the date will be Farmers' Day, June 14. The event will take place starting immediately after noon. Location will be the hard top street from Webb's garage to the Treasury Branch corner.

Entries are invited for sixteen contestants. Each should be sponsored by some organization or business in town or in any surrounding town or village.

Last year the roadeo was won by Earl Pollard who was sponsored by the Superior Body Shop in Vermilion.

Send your entry to Ed Herzog or Ches Waldenberger.

Swim Program Taking Shape; More Plans For The Beach

What's being done about the 'swim' this summer? At least five times a day we hear this question asked.

Well, to catch you up on what has happened, we have to start back away last Easter. Marj Waldenberger, Bob Ackerman and Bob Green all attended the Red Cross Swim Instructor school in Edmonton and all became qualified. Due to Anne Beatty moving to Medicine Hat she will not be with us this summer.

This year we will have four people on duty instead of three as before which means more individual instruction.

Registration will be the same as last summer $1 per person and will begin in a week or ten days. This year we will have an office down on the beach for this purpose and any other administration [illegible] be performed. Be sure you register early so [illegible] will be placed in your proper class.

For those [illegible] swimmers if you plan on taking lessons, early registration is desirable. Since cabins are being installed at the park there will be youngsters and adults too who will wish swimming instruction while on their holidays thus adding to the teaching load.

More and more people are becoming boat owners and possibly many are wishing to attend four or five lessons in boating safety.

NEW DIVING PIER

A new diving pier is under construction. As you possibly know the old one moved out with the spring thaw. New piers are to be added especially for the purpose of teaching competitive swimming. They will aid the lifeguard in keeping track of the swimmers and give the people swimming the protection of boundaries.

TOT LOT PLANNED

More new equipment proposed to make your visit down at the park more enjoyable will be horseshoe pits, park checker boards, new playground equipment and a 'tot' lot. This lot is to be supervised so you can relax and let the little ones paddle and play in safety. These improvements will take time as Dick and John have already [illegible] be waiting to be done.

Remember the rules of the park and the lake front they are there for your protection [illegible] and keep our lake free of disaster.

Follow the STANDARD for further information on the program this summer.

Rotarians Present Courtesy Winners With Trophies

The lady in the picture, Miss Rita Majeau, of the staff of Long's Drug Store was the winner of the courtesy contest which has been conducted over the past few months quite unknown to all anyone but the small committee which managed it. Miss Majeau is a member of the staff of Long's drug store and that firm became the holder of the large trophy which is awarded annually.

Board of Trade Plan Get Out Vote Effort

The Vermilion Board of Trade is advertising the fact that cars are available for anyone wishing a ride to the polls on Monday, election day. Just phone 95 or 121 and a driver will call for you. A sound car will probably make the rounds of the town reminding people that it is their privilege to cast their ballots that day. Polls are open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The contest was handled by the Vocational Service section of the Club under the co-chairmanship of Jack Kneale and Israel Miller.

Legion Team Tops Little League; Finals Start Monday, June 10

Games had to go right to the wire to decide the positions of the four Little League teams. In the last game of the regular schedule Kinsmen pulled an upset by defeating Rotary 11 to 10 in a real thriller. This knocked the Rotary into second spot behind the Legion and boosted the Kinsmen into third place ahead of K. of C.

The playoffs are sudden death games in all instances with the Legion lining up against the Knights of Columbus on Monday June 10th and Rotary facing the Kinsmen on Wednesday June 12. The final game will be held on Monday June 17th with the two winners playing for the grand championship.

The coaches are to be commended for the handling of these teams, however, in some instances the desire to win the game in hand takes precedence over all else. The sponsoring service clubs should advise their coaches that all boys get a chance to play even if just for an inning or two each game. If the lads show the spirit and desire to get out and learn, they should be given their chance. Development of good citizens is the overall aim of this type of activity.

NOW SPEAKS THE VOTER

The moment of decision fast approaches.

Although the typical Canadian is not an ardent partisan of any one party he who truly loves the land of his birth or adoption and who cherishes its traditional liberties will not need to be persuaded to vote on June 10.

He will know that the casting of his ballot has a significance far beyond the preference he is expressing for one candidate over another. As he votes behind that curtain which is the guarantee of his inviolate privacy he will know that he is of that half of the world's population which enjoys real political liberty which is the right to choose.

He is a free man in a land where democracy is neither a hollow sham nor a bitter mockery. Together with some millions of other Canadians he will on this day elect a new Parliament, and in doing so demonstrate his power to both make and break [illegible].

Terrorism and intimidation will play no part in influencing his decision, which will reflect only his convictions. The politicians have had their say; now speaks the voter.

At this moment he is a king, his mother, wife or daughter a [illegible].

None will feel this more than the many thousands of Europeans who have become Canadian citizens in recent years and who are now eligible to cast their first federal vote. Some of them know what it is like to have had this freedom to choose only to lose it. They may be expected to savour the exhilaration of its recovery by voting in heavy numbers.

In so doing they will be proving [illegible] worth to this young country in yet another way. "New" Canadians, comparatively speaking, they may be, but by the very act of voting they show themselves better citizens than the native born men or women who fails to go to the polls.

SAFE SWIMMING

This year for the first time, a National Water Safety Week will be observed throughout Canada during the week of June 22. With your support and co-operation it is the hope of the Canadian Red Cross Society that this project will help decrease Canada's dreadful drowning toll. This sheet lists a few facts to ensure safe swimming.

1. Don't swim alone.
2. Don't swim at unsupervised swimming places.
3. Don't dive into unknown water. Rocks and branches may be hidden.
4. Don't swim after eating. Wait at least 2 hours.
5. Don't swim when overheated. Cool off gradually first.
6. Don't swim when overtired.
7. Don't swim too far from [illegible] the shore.
8. Don't [illegible], you become exhausted particularly if the water is cold.
9. Don't swim after dark unless thoroughly familiar with the [illegible] area, know it to be safe and are accompanied by a [illegible]. Stay close to shore.
10. Don't panic if you should get into difficulties. You must think clearly if you are to do the right thing.
11. Don't duck or push other bathers into water. Playfulness may cost a life.

SLOW DOWN AND LIVE!—

High speed and tired drivers are blamed for most summer highway accidents by the Canadian Highway Safety conference in a reminder to Canadian motorists.

Learning to slow down and take it easy is the beginning of wisdom at the wheel says the Conference which suggests the following code for safe driving:

Slow down at the first glimpse of children playing in the street.

Slow down at intersections, traffic circles and railway and cattle crossings.

Slow down before entering city and town limits and any other crowded area.

Slow down for coffee breaks every 100 miles.

Slow down after dark and under bad weather or road conditions.

Slow down to give the other fellow a chance, even if he is ONLY a pedestrian.

Slow down for greater comfort and less strain. You'll enjoy your trip more and will survive it!

Health Unit Notes

HEALTH UNIT NOTES
EAR TROUBLE

An abscess in the middle ear may grow so fast that the pressure bursts the drum. Pus from the abscess will escape through the hole in the ear drum and appear in the outer ear; this is a running ear. The rupture of the drum will ease the pain which is caused by the pressure but this does not mean that the condition is clearing up and the infection must be treated to prevent it becoming chronic. If the condition is untreated the discharge will continue for a month or so and may then dry up with some loss of hearing. If the child is subsequently exposed to cold or damp the discharge will start again with more loss of hearing after each attack. If this happens often enough and is untreated complete and permanent deafness may occur. When the ear is running do not block the canal with absorbent cotton. Let the discharge escape freely and wipe off when necessary with absorbent cotton moistened with warm water. If there is a hole in the drum take care to prevent water getting into the ear as it sets up an irritation which may cause a fresh discharge. For this reason ear plugs should be worn while swimming.

MASTOIDITIS

This is a serious complication of acute ear trouble and usually develops a week or so after the acute infection is over. Suddenly the child's temperature rises, he complains of increased earache and tenderness behind the ear. What has happened is that the middle ear abscess has not drained completely through the ruptured drum and the infection has been forced inwards and pus gathers in the bone behind the ear. Immediate operation is imperative. Fortunately this complication is becoming rare as more acute ear infections are treated early.

OBSTRUCTIVE DEAFNESS

This is a milder form of ear trouble that occurs more often in older children. It is usually due to mild infections of the nose and throat. There may be no earache but the child has difficulty hearing when he has a cold or sore throat. The difficulty in hearing is caused by infection blocking the eustachian tube and this can usually be relieved quickly by proper treatment.

Blocking of the eustachian tube and resultant deafness may be caused by enlarged adenoids. The adenoids will usually also block the nose making breathing through the nose difficult and so the child becomes a mouth breather. These conditions are cleared up by removal of the adenoids.

A frequent cause of defective hearing in healthy children is the presence of some object in the outer ear. Usually it consists of wax, which may swell up suddenly overnight and produce deafness. It is easily treated by a doctor or nurse who can syringe it out. If a small object gets into the ear canal do not probe for it yourself as you may injure the lining of the ear or the eardrum. Have a doctor remove it.

Food Poisoning

The hot weather of the summer months brings with it the ever present danger of food poisoning. Food prepared in large quantities maybe more susceptible than in family sized amounts. So if your group is catering for a special event, heed the following danger signals and precautions and prevent bacterial growth. If in doubt about any food, boil it rapidly in an open container for several minutes before tasting it. Better still, discard it and serve something else.

1. Wash all food—prepare, cook, store and eat food in clean surroundings. All food should be well protected from flies and other insects.

2. Most bacteria can be destroyed by very high temperatures. Food cooked quickly at high temperatures are more likely to be safe than uncooked foods or those cooked slowly at low temperatures. Commercially canned foods are almost sure to be free from contamination.

Continuous refrigeration of all foods is desirable. Bacteria don't like an acid atmosphere. Protect your sandwich fillings, salads and meats with extra amounts of acid ingredients like vinegar, lemon juice and pickles.

The longer the time between preparing and eating the food, the greater the danger of bacteria developing. Prepare your foods as near to mealtime as possible and keep them covered and cold until serving time.

Foods least susceptible to food poisoning bacteria include bread, cheese, (except cream and cottage cheese) cured or pickled meats, peanut butter, washed raw or cooked fruits; [illegible] raw or cooked vegetables, most commercially canned fruits and sweet foods like jams, jellies.

Beware of these: milk and cream, creamfilled pies, cakes and pastries, fresh meat, (especially minced) fish and poultry and bread stuffing — especially when prepared ahead of time.

HOW TO STAY YOUNG

A magazine gathered a group of experts for a barnstorming session and came up with 143 ways to stay young. A careful reading of this mass of ideas disclosed one strong central suggestion common to them all.

One expert, for example, recommended trying a new route to the office or job for a change. Another suggested changing the pace, working at top speed for a whole week to get the feeling of zest and accomplishment. A third expert ([illegible]) recommended increasing your wife's [illegible] allowance [illegible].

All the way down the line, the hint was there: to experience a new lease on life be willing to change — indeed, initiate some change of your own. How much sense does this make?

I can only say that simply reading these ideas made me feel younger. That is the inevitable result of change and challenge!

Boredom and apathy disappear when you toss away a few blueprints and jump free from old ruts. That's why smart homemakers frequently rearrange the furniture, or change the color of the livingroom drapes.

Did you ever wonder why pioneers leave their homeland and strike out to newer, younger countries? They keep young in mind and spirit by getting away from the old, from the cut-and-dried routine of a safe but dull existence.

Men and nations need the challenge of change to keep young and vigorous in spirit. That's why those countries which adopt some central blue-printed plan, like socialism, thrive very briefly at the beginning of the experiment and then fade quickly into dullness and finally into poverty. The zip and zest of change is gone when a central authority places rigid controls on citizens, instead of leaving them maximum freedom to change and experiment and grow.

Men often let the years stamp them with that same rigidity. How foolish! Tomorrow, for a change, get out and romp with the youngsters, find a new route to your office, wear a flower in your lapel, bring home a present for the family. Make a change. It will keep you young.

Mobile Homes, House Trailers, Subject To License

Mobile homes, house trailers and portable [illegible] as permanent living quarters are now subject to license. Hon. A. J. Hooke, Minister of Municipal Affairs for the provincial government, reminded trailer owners this week that the license year started April 1, 1957 and ends March 31, 1958.

The new licensing plan is a result of representation made to the provincial government by municipal councils. Difficulties encountered in enforcing levies under the Personal Property tax brought about the licensing plan by the provincial government on the municipalities' behalf.

Entire proceeds of the licensing are returned to those municipalities, school divisions or school districts which make claim respecting the length of time such licensed unit locates in their district.

Under the new set-up, the trailer residents will now contribute through taxes to the upkeep of municipal and school services. At present, it is estimated that 13,000 families live in trailers or other like accomodation in the province.

Holiday trailers do not require licenses, Mr. Hooke emphasized.

Feathered Friends — Or, "A Pillow Is For Sleeping?"

By Margaret Bentley

It all started over a friendly cup of coffee one day. The talk turned to pillows, and how they could become soiled, and worst of all, how they could leak feathers. "Well, let's buy some feather proof ticking and transfer the feathers from the old to the new".

Double seaming and pressing between times wasn't such a [illegible] job, with one running the machine and the other, the steam iron. "Fine, now to whip the feathers from the old pillows and cushions into the new ticking".

There was an easy way to do this: it just involved the use of the vacuum cleaner, a small hole in the old pillow for the tube, connecting holes between the old new, and the blower would transfer those little old feathers in no time. It was a beautiful thought, but there seemed to be something wrong with the technique. It was a case of 'no feathers' rather than 'no time'. That didn't work.

Out came the wash tub, and it was placed at the far end of the backyard. There was a slight evening breeze, so the theory was that the sheets hanging on the line would act as a screen, and the feather transfer would take place to the leeward side of the sheets. I held the new casing, and my friend stuffed the feathers she had taken from the old into the new. The sheets, as a wind screen leaked badly around the edges, and what seemed to most people that evening a mere night breeze acted as a full fledged gale on those feathers. I was to the windward of the operation, and shortly was in imminent danger of being mistaken for an old hen in that feather coating. In the onrush of darkness it was fortunate that I did not get my neck wrung, my feathers plucked, and land in a stew pot.

Fortunately the neighbors to the windward side seemed to be out for the evening, and we worked feverishly to accomplish the task and get out of there before they returned. We felt that with a hurricane like that, surely they wouldn't be able to trace the source of the feathers even an hour after we had completed the job.

We soon realized that it was tiring work, and the constant tickle of downy feathers up our nostrils, down our necks and across our eyes, didn't make life any pleasanter. We began to fully understand why several of our friends, when we had asked them to join us in this simple business, had pleaded a variety of excuses and eased away from us. And as the evening wore on with a recapture of elusive feathers a steady part of the program, it got colder. Of course it was out of the question to put on any more clothes — that would just mash the little monster feathers into the clothes we had already covered with the little menaces, and then would give a feather lining and outer covering to any additional clothes. However there was one advantage to our increasing chill. We were by now, [illegible] enough for it to be of considerable help in shaking those little nameless terrors well into the [illegible].

By the time we got to the sixth and last one to be filled, darkness had fallen, the porch light was only a gleam in the distance beckoning us into the warm house. We were working 'by feel'. Have you ever tried to feel a handful of feathers for bulk weight under perfectly normal conditions? Then imagine the increased difficulty of trying to estimate a handful small enough to go through a hole seeming to shrink rapidly in size when your hands are already throughly covered with the treacherous little numbers.

Our hardihood was not up to a prolonged effort about one every pillow we had to take a breather. This is just a figure of speech of course, for we had long since discovered that it was neither safe nor expedient to breathe. It was bad, both inhaling and exhaling; breathing in took the little demons into our nostrils making a sneeze an imminent tragedy; breathing out was a complete and literal dissipation of an evening's efforts, and besides what of the neighbors? Our 'breather' was a short rest in the house where it was warm. We had to stay in the kitchen, away from upholstery and rugs. We didn't dare go walking through the rooms because that resulted in a floating trail of the little unmentionables. So in our rest periods we sat gingerly on the edges of the smooth kitchen chairs and spoke of the money we were saving. The ticking didn't cost much, the feathers we already had, and we were just "out" our time and effort. With every rest period the amount we saved became larger and larger and thus we talked ourselves into going out into the feathery dark to load the next pillow.

Toward the last, with just a little of the sixth pillow to fill up, we took up a cushion to cut it open for the last supply of the little wretches. Off came the first casing — "oh, another one" —cut that open— "another one" —pull that off — "not another one!" — and so on, for eight cases! There were just a few of the little bruisers within that last ticking, and with our customary distribution so many for the wind, so many for the face and neck, some for the grass, a lot for the wash tub, and a few for the new pillow we said that that pillow was probably too full anyway.

By this time I was having dreams of just how I would light the radiant and toast me and toast me (no speeches, just warmth). But before we could get into the house to the fire we had to be plucked. My helpful friend turned the blower on me. That cold night air was being forced at me in gusts of up to 50 miles per hour, through the thoroughly chilled vacuum cleaner! By the time I could get my breath to tell her to stop blowing, those little articles were well distributed half way [illegible].

On the way home (I had thoughtfully suggested that we carry out all this performance at her house and in her neighborhood) I was dragging one wing around each corner, and vowing that I wouldn't do that again, suppose we did save all that [illegible].

But that's a while ago now and I find myself looking thoughtfully at those pillows in the other bedroom. They certainly need new ticking. Not only that, but I think that I've evolved a really foolproof, easy way to transfer feathers. Would anybody care to join me? At their house, of course!

Vermilion To Have District Stagette Convention in 1958

The Stagettes wound up another successful year with a banquet "Chinese Style" in the Rio cafe Wednesday night, May 22nd. Did you enjoy the food, girls? Oh, no, don't ask me what it was . . . see Fore and Wilkie. Well, let's see, chicken mein and sweet sour chow tried with steamed rice a la [illegible] or other garnished with a variety of trimmings and All-a we could say after the banquet was that it was all-a very good, indeed.

President Jean Hildreth welcomed the honorary members, who, by the way, outnumbered the club members. Ernie Duncan spoke on behalf of the honorary members and expressed hopes that they would all be back for the annual banquet in 1958. Your kind words will help spur us on towards convention, Ernie, keep in touch.

Tanis and Marie returned safely from Grand Prairie. Tanis gave a full report of the 3 day activities and states they had a very successful convention and a wonderful time, emphasizing the friendliness of the grand people in Grand Prairie. However, Alberta District Clubs think the people of Vermilion are grand people too and want to come here for the 1958 district convention, so folks lets be extra grand always. Tuesday May 28 will be our last meeting for [illegible] the district governor, be sure and come to the election race, May 28. The race is run and Lena won. We now retire for a few months. We extend thanks to the public for their generous support in the past year toward a good cause.

The above report does not include the checking intake or club [illegible].

Rev. D. Grant Crooks

Annual Missionary Convention At Alliance Chapel

The annual Missionary convention of the Alliance Chapel will be conducted from June 11 to June 16 with Rev. D. Grant Crooks from Soudan, West Africa, as the guest speaker. Several other missionaries will also be present for a Women's Missionary rally on Wednesday June 12th.

In the French West Africa field of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, the Black Bobo people, one of several large tribes still not occupied by the society, had long made a strong appeal for a resident missionary. So the mission chose Rev. D. Grant Crooks who arrived on the field in 1952 to respond to that repeated appeal and he was stationed at San in an adjoining tribe to [illegible] the necessary pioneer work.

For a year Mr Crooks made extensive geographic and linguistic surveys across the Black Bobo northern frontier reducing the language to writing and starting translation of the Scriptures and Christian hymns. In the following year he transferred to Santidougou station south of the Black Bobo tribe and crossed the frontier making surveys and exhaustive comparisons of the two areas, north and south.

In 1955 Mr Crooks was assigned to study Bambara, the trade language, and in 1956 he went to Baramba to supervise the development of the newly adopted program for the indigenous church of that area. Now in America Mr Crooks regards his furlough merely as an interlude before he shall return to resume the Black Bobo project and finally establish the new station among that interesting people.

Co-Ordinator of Teacher Training Addresses The Board of Trade

Mr Aubrey Erle, co-ordinator of teacher training, Department of Education of the Province, was the guest speaker at the Board of Trade luncheon meeting on Wednesday, May 29th.

Mr Erle was introduced by Mr. S. D. Simonson.

In his opening remarks the guest speaker took occasion to compliment the Town of Vermilion for its clean streets, trees and general beauty, which he said was not manifest in many towns in Alberta. He remarked that Vermilion must be a good place to live and where people evidently intended to stay. He also had praise for the Vermilion Provincial Park.

In dealing with his subject, Mr Erle stated that the importance of education has always been recognized in the province but for the past fifteen years, while we have been lavish in the establishment of school buildings and the providing of equipment, the necessity of teacher recruitment and retention [illegible] been overlooked. He closed his talk by saying that the teacher was still the most important force without which education cannot be achieved.

President I. Miller was in the chair and on behalf of those present thanked the speaker for his kindness in staying over from a speaking engagement of the previous evening to address the Board. The meeting was arranged by the Civic committee.

There were two historic battles on the Plains of Abraham, the first won by the English forces, the second by the French forces.

Social Credit Candidate

deals with the Social Credit Agricultural Program

In order that farmers all across Canada may be afforded the opportunity to obtain a fair share of Canada's national income we advocate the following:

1. Low cost and long-term credits to farmers and cash advances on grain stored on farms.
2. A two-price system for the sale of our agricultural products. Products [illegible] be sold at parity prices on the domestic market and those exported abroad would be sold at the best prices obtainable, preferable under international agreement, but supported at levels that would assure that the aggregate of sales in the domestic and foreign markets would return to the farmer his fair share of the national income.
3. Continuation of the Canadian Wheat Board as the sole marketing agency for wheat, oats and barley, with the inclusion of flax and rye.
4. Expansion of terminal storage for grain so that the desired reserve of grain might be carried without it interfering with the normal handling of the current crop.
5. An all-risk national Crop Insurance Act, along similar lines to the plan used in the U.S.A.
6. The expansion of markets for our farm products:
   - A. In the domestic market by equating the effective purchasing power with the aggregate of [illegible] of goods available for sale.
   - B. On the external markets by making surplus [illegible] available to all [illegible] that are unable to obtain these through the normal channels of trade by the acceptance of foreign currencies, barter deals and, in case of extreme distress, by gifts.

We believe that a programme such as this is not merely in the interest of the Canadian Farmers but that it is of vital concern to all the people of Canada in order to ensure that there will continue to be adequate supplies of food at fair prices, that is, at prices that bear a fair relationship to the prices of other commodities. Moreover, we feel that such a programme as ours is of vital concern in helping to promote world peace. World peace requires a well fed people, which can only be achieved so long as there are ample supplies of food at fair prices. Ample supplies of food can only be made available so long as production is maintained at the optimum level and proper provision is made for the storing of the surpluses of one year against the shortages of another. We have been blessed in Canada with a succession of good crops, but judging by history of the past there is every reason to believe that crop failures will occur again. Unfortunately, due to the failure of the Federal Liberal Government, which has been in power for over twenty years, to devise a sound agricultural policy that would operate efficiently in times of good crops, prices of farm products have steadily fallen whilst farm operating costs have spiralled upwards. The net income of those engaged in agriculture in Canada has been generally decreasing year by year. Under these circumstances it has been impossible for the majority of farmers to build up financial reserves and if a succession of crop failures should occur the position of agriculture — the most important industry in Canada today — would be exceedingly perilous. This is why there is today such a widespread demand by farm organizations right across Canada for a nation-wide, all risk crop insurance program.

Surely such a plan should have received the serious consideration of our Federal Government years ago but such is not the case and as a consequence is just one of the many examples known to most of you of how the Liberal Government at Ottawa has consistently ignored the problems facing its basic industry — Agriculture.

Broadway Hit At Columbia This Week

Presented in the award-winning tradition of "Come Back Little Sheba" Burt Lancaster and Katherine Hepburn star in "The Rainmaker." A dazzling Broadway stage hit brings to the screen Burt Lancaster as the Rainmaker who comes out of nowhere to change the lives and hearts of many people. Katherine Hepburn portrays "Lizzy", who wouldn't give in to anyone. Wendell Corey also starts as a married, shy sheriff, and Cameron Brud'Homme plays the part of Lizzy's bratty brother.

Hot tempered, hot blooded, all of them cast together on a hot evening which sends a young woman out into the wilderness alone at night, and develops into an exciting drama from start to finish. See how a woman discovers the wonder and terror in a man's demanding arms.

Shown in glorious Vista Vision with color by Technicolor "The Rainmaker" plays at the Columbia Theatre in Vermilion this Friday and Saturday, June 7th and 8th.

Lung Cancer Death Rate Said 1,000 p.c. Higher Among Smokers

NEW YORK. Men who smoke cigarets are 10 times more likely to die of lung cancer than non-smokers, the American Cancer Society reported Tuesday.

It finds the lung cancer death rate one thousand per cent higher in smokers than among non-smokers. Smoking also boosts the chances of fatal heart attacks by 70 per cent, the society said.

These are final figures from a four-year study of 188,000 men aged 50 to 70. About 60 per cent were regular cigaret smokers, the others had not smoked.

During the four years, 11,870 died.

The findings, which indicate a spectacular association between smoking and lung cancer and heart disease, were announced at the American Medical Association's annual meeting.

Shortly after the report was made, the tobacco industry's research committee issued a statement reiterating its stand that "the cause of cancer and heart disease are not yet known to medical science."

The committee said the report does nothing to change this fact. It added that "the study itself is open to criticism as to methodology, selection of subjects and unsupported assumptions."

In lung cancer, the death rate among two-pack-a-day smokers is 64 times greater than among non-smokers, the cancer society report said.

Exsmokers have less than half the lung cancer risk of those who keep on smoking.

Coronary heart attacks killed 5,297 of all the men in the study, and 3,361 had smoked cigarets regularly at some time. So there were 1,[illegible] more deaths among smokers than would be expected among non-smokers. This put the risk of fatal coronaries 70 per cent higher among smokers.

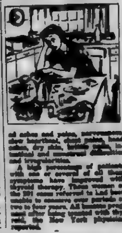
Lazy Thyroids and Tired Patients

The person who "wakes up tired," physicians have recently discovered, may be suffering from the effects of a poorly functioning thyroid gland. This condition, known medically as the "hypometabolic state," is most common after age 40, and commonest in women.

Of 14,000 patients examined in a New York clinic — men, women, and children — 201 were found to be suffering from this condition. The average age of the 201 was 44.22 years; 134 were women, only 67 were men.

The commonest symptoms were morning fatigue and, in women in their childbearing years, certain other difficulties. The author of the report on the New York study writes that, "The diagnosis of the hypometabolic state should be considered when a patient complains of morning fatigue and [illegible] shortness to the point where they frequently state, 'I wish the day was beginning when I go to bed.'"



In such cases, one or two small tablets a day of dried animal thyroid gland, or the purified extract known as Proloid, often will alleviate patients' symptoms and restore them to normal health and vigor, the doctor reported. He cited such recoveries even when the basal-metabolic-rate test did not indicate serious thyroid-gland deficiency. As a test he withdrew the medication in some cases, and the symptoms recurred.

Other symptoms of the hypometabolic state, cited by this and other physicians are a low or subnormal temperature, chilliness, generalized aches and pains, nervousness, [illegible] heartburn, chest pains, headaches, dry skin, brittle nails, intestinal and menstrual difficulties and irregularities.

A high percentage of patients with one or several of all these symptoms have improved with thyroid therapy. Three women of the 201 cases referred to had been unable to conceive over periods of two to four years. All became pregnant after being treated with thyroid, the New York physician reported.

Thrown From Horse, Mannville Farmer Lies For Over Two Days With Broken Back — Survives

MANNVILLE. — Mr Harold E. Cockle of the Challey district is in the hospital suffering a broken back and paralysis of the lower limbs as the result of an accident last Friday. On Friday morning Mr. Cockle went out at 8 a.m. to cut out some cattle. He was riding a Palomino bronc and for some reason about half a mile from his buildings the horse ran away with him. Unable to curb the bronc, it ran about two miles with him [illegible] it stumbled in a rat run in the road and somersaulted, landing on top of Mr Cockle. The horse stayed around most of that day while the injured man lay helpless calling for aid. It is a barren country and being a bachelor, no one missed him.

The next day he started to drag himself along the line fence, clawing into the ground to aid his helpless legs. By Sunday he had dragged himself [illegible] a mile. The heat was terrific in the daytime and he nearly froze at night.

Neighbors of Mr. Cockle, Mr and Mrs. Walter Kutryk, went to his farm on Sunday early and when he wasn't home, they left. But Mr. Kutryk was worried and returned again that evening. He saw the saddled bronc in the yard and knew then that something was definitely wrong and so he and Mrs. Kutryk immediately started a search. They found him Sunday at sunset and brought him into the Mannville hospital where it was found he had a broken back. After a rest in the hospital here, Dr. Hasinoff is sending him to Edmonton for further X-rays and treatment. Mr Cockle's hands were bleeding from clawing the earth but he was conscious most of the time he was out in the pasture needing help so badly. It was a harrowing experience and his many friends in the Challey and Beauvallon districts wish him a recovery soon and hope that his injuries are not too severe.

SOME FISHING!

J. H. Ferguson, son Jim and Neil McLean spent last Saturday and Sunday at Cold Lake on a fishing trip. They caught four fine trout for which the lake is famous, as well as four dozen jackfish, the biggest of which weighed 11½ pounds.

Mannville Farmer Buried When Ditch Caves In

MANNVILLE. — Sydney Jackson, a farmer of the Challey district, was buried to the neck in a trench which was being dug at the farm home. He is in the Mannville hospital suffering a broken collar bone and broken ribs as well as shock.

Mr. Jackson was scraping the trench which was eight feet deep, in preparation for laying the water pipe to the house when the dirt caved in on him.

Neighbors met at the Jackson home on Wednesday morning to complete the job as Mr. Walter Jackson whose house is in the same yard, just returned home from the hospital after undergoing an operation.

The C. C. F. says:

Weeds grow in the spring, promises blossom at election time. How can you tell which ones will produce fruit? The C.C.F. forced old age pensions on the Liberals, the C. C. F. alone fought for health insurance for years; the C. C. F. has always fought for parity prices for farmers. Other parties, AT VOTING TIME ONLY, say "Me Too." But Conservatives and Liberals voted against parity in Parliament. Social Credit votes for parity — and then votes against everything that would make parity possible.

Only the C. C. F. votes in Parliament for parity and for policies on which parity is based. You can't have parity and monopoly implement companies, etc. grabbing, without any control, even bigger profits. You can't have parity while oil, gas and fertilizer monopolists skim the cream. What's Cooking?

Well, quite honestly we don't know just what Mrs. Jones is up to this particular time.

But we are sure we'd never know what was cooking all over this district — and neither would you — if it weren't for our country correspondents.

For them, it is just a voluntary job. But the success of this newspaper depends in no small degree on their loyalty and efficiency.

True, it is not the responsibility of country correspondents to make headlines. But to us, the daily happenings and the comings and goings of neighbors and friends is the most important kind of news in the world.

We're proud of our rural representatives. They carry on their reporting jobs while still doing their everyday work — whether it be keeping house, working in an office or operating a farm.

And if this newspaper is a vital part of our community and its well-being, to them belongs the credit. They help make all of us better acquainted with each other, sympathetic with each other's problems, joyous in the success and happiness of our friends and neighbors.

Remember, too, when you help our country correspondents gather the news of the community, you help all of us make this a better and more friendly place in which to live.

Two Fires In Dewberry Area; News of The District

The weatherman Saturday provided an ideal day for the elimination track meet held in Dewberry

The boys and girls are to be congratulated on the zest with which they engaged in the sports. The percentage of winners corresponds closely with the percentage of students from the various schools as the results show.

To try their fortunes in Kitscoty with winners from other local centres in the Division, there will go from Dewberry 33 firsts, 28 seconds; from Clandonald Separate, 10 firsts and 14 seconds; from Clandonald Public 4 firsts, 6 seconds; from Louise Lake, 4 firsts, 5 seconds; from Rye, 4 firsts and from Hazeldine one first and 1 second. We wish these students the best of luck on Friday.

We were pleased to meet Mr. and Mrs. Morin of Nananda, Dexada Island, B.C., who are in these parts for the wedding of their son Peter to Miss Beatrice Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Dick Elliott. The wedding is to be in Vermilion on June 4. A pre-nuptial shower was held in the hall on June 1st for Beatrice. Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented and Bea thanked all for their presents and good wishes. A bountiful lunch was served.

The St. Anthony's parish picnic on Sunday June 2 was certainly favored with a lovely day and a record crowd. The ball games, races, etc., were greatly enjoyed and the hot dog and lunch booth was well patronized as was the soft drink and ice cream booth. The C.W.L. and the men of the parish wish to thank all who helped in any way to make the day a successful one.

The fire brigade was called out two days hand running to put out fires. On Saturday the fire was at the Rudie Iarrt farm 3 miles east of Hazeldine, now being farmed by Lloyd Hanna. It was feared that the barns and other buildings would be endangered by a fire which started in a field of grain that had not been cut last fall. Fortunately no damage was done to the buildings.

BARN BURNS AT THE COLLINS' FARM

On Sunday the call was to the Tom Collins farm at which a fire of unknown origin caused the complete loss of the barn. The cows were being milked at the time when smoke, then flames were noticed in the loft. The stock were removed in time The fire brigade arrived on the scene in short order and saved the chop house on one side of the barn and the chicken house on the other. Fortunately there was no wind at the time.

Our local fire brigade is very efficient and very prompt in attending both fires. Congratulations to them.

Can some of those fire laddies sprint! Some were at the track meet on Saturday when the fire siren sounded and one of the members of the brigade left the grounds as if jet propelled!

Mrs. Ernest Garnier left for Edmonton on Monday, from there she will accompany her parents Mr and Mrs. Robert Wade Sr. and her brother and sister-in-law Mr and Mrs. Robt. Wade Jr They will go to Vancouver via the States to attend the wedding of John Monaghan on June 8th, then back to Edmonton for the wedding on June 19th of Billy Monaghan. Both boys are sons of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Monaghan, formerly of Dewberry. Mrs. Monahgan is a sister of Mrs. Ernest and Mrs. Erven Garnier, Dewberry.

Flight Cadet Russell Garnier of Stevenson Field, Winnipeg, and his fiancee Miss Jacqueline MacDonald of Cape Breton have been spending a vacation in Dewberry with Russell's relations.

Miss Cathy Fowler, formerly a teacher in Dewberry and latterly in Wainwright, is being married in June at Edson and will move to San Francisco, where her husband is being transferred. He is employed in a bank. Good luck to both.

Mrs. Mary Keys Honored - Birthday

Mrs. Mary Keys was honored by a surprise party on Tuesday June 4th when seven members of the Past Noble Grand Club of Britannia Lodge dropped in on her. Mrs. Keys entertained her guests by singing several numbers, one of which was "Prayer For Peace" It was the unanimous opinion of those present that their hostess had never sung more sweetly, and that is saying a great deal.

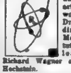
While Mrs. Keys sang, a bounteous lunch, complete with a birthday cake and candles, mysteriously appeared on the table, to the great surprise of the honored sister

Before cutting the cake, Mrs. Keys graciously thanked the sisters, expressing the wish that harmony, health and prosperity be the lot of each individual, and of the Rebekah Lodge as a unit.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

How Do Drugs Work?

The complicated chemical structure of a broad-range antibiotic has been tagged successfully with a radioactive atom for the first time. Scientists at the Pfizer Therapeutic Institute, Maywood, N. J., have accomplished the feat with Terramycin after almost two years of research.



The isotope research that produced the radioactive antibiotic was the work of Dr. J. F. Snell, director of the Maywood institute, and his colleagues, Drs. Richard Wagner and Frank A. Hochstein.

Tagged with radioactive atoms, the molecules that make up Terramycin can now be traced in the body as scientists have been tracing simpler drugs for some time. This opens up an entirely new field of research into the broad-range antibiotics, whose complicated chemical structures have long defied the best efforts of scientists to discover their mode of action and determine how they produce their life-saving effects.

"If we know how a drug works," Dr. Snell points out, "we will know better how to use it."

In addition, scientists working with the radioactive drug hope to find out what the body may do to the antibiotic. It is possible, they believe, that the body may change an antibiotic into still another compound, different in chemical structure, which may actually do the work against the disease germ

Scientists also want to show how and where the antibiotic is concentrated in the body, and thus learn whether it attacks the germ at the site of the infection or performs its task in some more indirect manner.

Rev. Reid Vipond To Officiate At Dedication of New Manse

Dedication of the new Manse of the United Church in Vermilion will be observed next Wednesday, June 12th with a brief ceremony in the afternoon and a special service in the evening.

Several specially invited guests and officials of the Presbytery will be present to mark the occasion. The Rev Reid Vipond, pastor of the Metropolitan United Church in Edmonton and immediate past president of the Alberta Presbytery will participate in a ceremony in front of the manse at 4 00 p.m. At this time Dr. C. W Stephens as chairman of the Building Committee will present the key to the new manse to the Rev C. W MacKay. The Women's Association will serve tea in the church hall immediately after the ceremony.

Numerous features of the new home will be of interest to members of the congregation and the general public, who will have an opportunity to inspect the new manse throughout the afternoon. In addition to the basic plan and layout of the house attention will centre on the interior decorating, finishes employed and several items of new furnishing which were selected by a committee including Mrs. P. Kather, Mrs. H. Bell and Miss Margaret Stephens.

The occasion affords very considerable satisfaction to the congregation and particularly to those active in the Women's Association and the Committee of Stewards who have looked forward for some time to the reality of a new manse.

In recognition of the dedication a special service will be conducted in the church at 8:00 p.m. The Rev. W. MacPherson of Wainwright, chairman of St. Paul's Presbytery, and the Rev. O. Seward, the secretary, will assist Mr. MacKay in this service.

If you like to hear youngsters sing you will enjoy this evening of song. Tickets are available from members of the choir or Mr. Jack Brown. Give one of them a call and have your ticket reserved for you.

Reception For Jim Smith Is Well Attended Saturday

Slightly over 300 people attended the come and go reception held for Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith in the Legion hall last Saturday night. Mr. Smith has been the member for Battle River Camrose in the House of Commons for the past two years, and the plan of a reception was very well received. Mr. Smith is again the Social Credit candidate in the Monday election.

The program was very informal and during the evening Mr. George Stewart, daughter Mary, son Alex and Mr. Ricky Swan favored the gathering with numerous musical selections, violin, guitar and vocal, which were very well received by the crowded hall.

Refreshments were served by the ladies to complete a very enjoyable social evening.

A very pleasant innovation at the Royal Purple Lilac Tea on Saturday afternoon last was the honor paid to four esteemed ladies of the town, all of whom were celebrating their birthdays that day. The ladies were Mrs. Peter Jensen, Mrs. Harry Marfleet, Mrs. L. L. Kehoe, and Mrs. Mary Keys. These ladies had a special table reserved for them by the O.O.R.P. which was centred with a birthday cake.

Alberta Industrial, Agricultural And Tourist Display At Chicago Fair

Thousands of people from major points in the United States and visitors from abroad will have an opportunity to learn of the industrial, agricultural and tourist attractions of the Province of Alberta at the Chicagoland Fair in Chicago June 26 to July 14. A display booth, arranged by the Department of Economic Affairs of the Government of Alberta will exhibit by pictures and material samples, some of the major resources of the province. Alberta representatives at the Alberta display will be Richard Martland assistant deputy minister of Economic Affairs and director of Industrial Development and F. S. Bryant director of Advertising both representing the Province of Alberta. Mr John Gregory of the Alberta Research Council and the following industrial representatives: N. A. Rault city of Edmonton; K. S. Ford city of Calgary; Stan Lamb city of Lethbridge and Hal Ferna city of Camrose will be attending. There is a possibility other cities will be represented. Hon. A. R. Patrick minister of Economic Affairs will be in attendance during the first week.

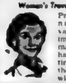
The Industrial Development section of the display will illustrate in four photo panels the basic industries, raw materials and manufactured products and the opportunities for secondary and tertiary industries in Alberta. Samples of the raw material for industry and manufactured items will be on display. Merchandise will emphasize Alberta made products available for export to the United States. Included will be samples of Alberta handicrafts.

Indian handicrafts will be shown complementing the Indian motif exemplified by Princess Crowfoot of the Blackfoot tribe, who will attend daily. She is the great granddaughter of Chief Crowfoot, famed Indian warrior and leader who signed the Indian Treaty of 1877. It was he to whom Chief Sitting Bull turned after the Custer Massacre. Chief Crowfoot later turned the fugitive over to the North-west Mounted Police. Princess Crowfoot whose Indian name is Naperenawanshee, meaning Sweet Woman, is a senior at Western Canada High School at Calgary. She is fluent in English and Indian dialect and has all the normal teen-agers interest. She is preparing for a career as stenographer.

As chief of the Blackfeet, her father who is a successful rancher presides over the activities of some 1500 Indians on the 18,000 acre reservation.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority



Preplanning the next motoring vacation is as important as to make sure you have air in the tires and gas in the tank. You will want to include in these plans a "Checklist for Vacation Safety." Here are some suggestions on things to check before you start.

1. Make sure your car has a complete lubrication job and oil check.

2. See that tires are in good condition, not "bald" or broken.

3. Check to see that windshield wipers work efficiently. Other items to include in your checklist are emergency supplies—a first aid kit, permits, passes, indentification papers, map, flashlight, extra car keys, equipment for changing tires (including jack, wrench, emergency light, or flares) and of course, a good spare tire.

Once on the road, you'll want to:

1. Time your schedule and itinerary to allow for a full night's rest, adequate meals and rest stops.

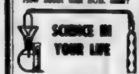
2. Concentrate on the road and traffic, leaving scenery to the passengers.

3. Obey all traffic signs and signals, and keep a sharp eye out for bicyclists and children.

On the road, as in the home—it's safety, first. A little thought and a "safety checklist" can be a big help in making your motoring vacation a happy time.

Railways have been described as "a conveyor belt that links together successive stages in the production process".

How about that SUB. date?



SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

A Step Forward

Cortisone made a spectacular entrance on the medical scene seven years ago. Long-suffering victims of rheumatoid arthritis reported the hormone banished crippling pain almost overnight.

But initial enthusiasm was soon dampened when medical specialists warned that "severe and even fatal peptic ulcers" may follow sudden withdrawal of the drug after a patient has taken a lot of it. With growing frequency, less serious side effects were also reported — upset stomach, aggravation of existing ulcers, and disturbing changes of mood.

Such reports sent laboratory researchers hunting for drugs that could be taken in smaller doses, thus lessening the chances of serious side reactions. Discovery of hydrocortisone, a close chemical relative of cortisone, gave doctors a drug that quickly eased agonizing soreness without severe side effects when injected directly into the inflamed joint. When taken by mouth, however, hydrocortisone presented some problems.

A more promising advance has been made with development of the new "super hormones" such as prednisolone, a compound effective when taken by mouth in doses four to five times smaller than the earlier drugs.

Researchers have recently gone one step further, combining prednisolone with an anti-anxiety drug in a preparation called Ataraxoid. By clearing off the fears and anxieties commonly associated with arthritis, the new combination apparently reduces the patient's need for larger doses of the hormone.

Dr. Peter J. Warter of Trenton, N. J. has reported to a Boston medical clinic that the new drug enabled many patients to cut in half their daily dose of prednisolone and thus reduce side effects. He noted a "striking" improvement in patients' attitudes toward their disease, their family, and their social affairs.

CLAYSMORE CLIPPINGS

Mr and Mrs. Percy Willes are away on a trip to Ottawa to visit their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Willes. Edwin is a member of the R.C.M.P. in Ottawa.

Mr. Bill Horne and Mr. Bill Briggs of Red Deer spent the week end at the Jim Horne home. They along with Jim and Paul Horne went fishing at Stoney Lake. They caught 100 fish and Master Paul is pretty proud of the 19 he caught.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Willes and family and Mr and Mrs. Allan Olstad and family were Sunday evening supper guests at Tim Nelsons in Vermilion.

Saturday evening callers at the Olstad home were Mr and Mrs. Art Bauer and Randy, Lashburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Larcombe. The Bauers are just returning from their holidays spent at Banff, Calgary and Edmonton.

Sunday evening supper guests at the Ernie Larcombe home were Mr. and Mrs. Art Larcombe of Minburn.

As of June 1 the elevators at Claysmore will be closed all day Saturday.

We are very glad to see Joe Bauer home again after his stay in the Mannville hospital and the University hospital in Edmonton. Joe underwent major surgery in the University hospital on May 26.

Quite a number from here attended the show "Mobey Dick" in Mannville last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carlson of Lac La Nonne were callers at the Jack Willes home Monday evening. They left Tuesday morning for a visit to Gull Lake, Sask.

Visitors at the Olstad home Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hawley of Mannville and Sandy Machin.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Alec Shand who passed away in Edmonton last week. Alec was agent at the Searle Elevator for many years prior to moving to Edmonton.

Mrs. Joe Livingstone spent a few days at the Jim Horne home recently. While she was there she spent an afternoon visiting Mrs. N. McHardy.

Gay 90s Hold Last Dance of Season

(From Wildmere Winks)

The last Gay 90's dance of the season was held at the Legion hall on Thursday evening. A large crowd attended. It was like old times to see the Hanna orchestra on hand again, but we missed Harry Young who used to be with them. At the supper hour Mr. and Mrs W. Funnell favored the crowd with a couple of songs, and Mr Hurst the drummer of the orchestra sang some songs too all of which were greatly enjoyed.

There will be a Gay 90's picnic at the park for members and their families and friends June 20th with a basket supper and a dance in the evening at the band shell. See you there folks. T. Thompson and the Hanna orchestra will be in attendance.

Spray Weeds Early

It has been found that weeds do most damage, in competition with growing crops, during the early stages of growth. For this reason farmers usually plan to start spraying about June 1st or very shortly afterwards. In control of broad leafed weeds the choice lies between two types of spray, 2,4-D for wheat and barley, and MCP for oats, flax and legume crops. At the same time, TCA may be used for narrow leafed weeds such as green foxtail in flax. Whatever product is used, it is important to follow the instructions carefully.

An Open Letter from Carl Heckbert

Liberal candidate, Battle River-Camrose

to the people of the Vermilion district

S. Carl Heckbert
Liberal Candidate

MY FRIENDS,—

On Monday next, June 10th, we go to the polls to elect a representative in Canada's next Parliament and I would appreciate your consideration of the record of the Liberal Government before you decide just how you are going to vote.

May I suggest that you give consideration to the fact that our Liberal Government has enacted legislation of the most vital importance to our people, some of the legislation being:

OLD AGE SECURITY
FAMILY ALLOWANCES
NATIONAL HOSPITAL INSURANCE
THE VETERANS CHARTER
THE PRAIRIE FARM REHABILITATION ACT
THE CANADIAN FARM LOAN BOARD ACT
THE AGRICULTURAL PRICES SUPPORT ACT
BONUSES ON A AND B GRADE HOGS
THE FARM IMPROVEMENT LOANS ACT
AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR PAYMENT OF FREIGHT ON FEED GRAIN SENT EAST
AN ACT TO MAKE POSSIBLE PAYMENT OF STORAGE ON GRAIN which meant an expenditure of 3½ million dollars to Canadian farmers
THE CANADIAN WHEAT BOARD ACT
THE CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING ACT
THE PRAIRIE FARM ASSISTANCE ACT
THE FARMERS' CREDITORS ARRANGEMENT ACT.

In addition to these important legislative enactments our Government has done everything possible to insure Canadian unity, to guarantee security from aggression and to maintain Canada's forces and defences to the point where our people may enjoy freedom from the worry of war.

The Government has so managed the administration of the affairs of our country that the Canadian dollar is higher than that of the United States in value and eagerly sought by all countries of the world.

It is doubtless true that the Government has made mistakes, but under all the circumstances they have made very few errors of judgment and Canada today enjoys prosperity in every walk of life, except, perhaps, in the case of the producer of wheat, who admittedly, has had serious problems to face. That these problems are receiving the most careful consideration is sure and I believe that if we can secure the election of a solid core of Liberal men from Western Canada that a great deal more has to be done on behalf of all of our people.

Opposition candidates and their leaders have assailed the record of the Liberal Government and have stated what they WILL DO IF ELECTED. They have given promises that are totally unreasonable, promises which they have not the slightest intention of carrying out, but which they hope will gain votes.

May I ask you to consider these FACTS.

1. The Social Credit Party is running candidates in 121 seats; if they elected all their candidates they still could not form a government and therefore could not possibly carry out the promises they make.

2. The CCF party is running candidates in less than two-thirds of the seats and their support has fallen off noticeably in recent years, so that they are in a position where they cannot possibly fulfil the promises they have made.

3. The Conservative Party apparently claims support in Eastern Canada but will make no major gain in Western Canada and it is apparent that they have tied their major promises to the demands of Ontario for a better tax deal which will certainly not help us.

4. The Liberal Party has experience and will undoubtedly form the next Government, even if it should lose some seats in the East and we should, for once, have a representative of Battle River-Camrose on the GOVERNMENT SIDE OF THE HOUSE instead of being represented by a member of a 'splinter' party which has no influence whatever in the federal field. If seats are lost in the East and gained by the Liberal party in the West we would have a very much stronger bargaining power than we now have.

I am firmly convinced that OUR BEST BET is the LIBERAL GOVERNMENT.

Compare the experience of the four candidates in this Constituency; think carefully as to who can provide you with the best representation, think of the advantage of having a representative in the CAUCUS OF THE GOVERNMENT, where legislation is framed.

Only 350 votes separated the S. C. and Liberal candidates in this riding in the last election. THERE IS A DEFINITE SWING AWAY FROM SOCIAL CREDIT IN THE FEDERAL FIELD — and the votes of former Social Credit supporters will elect the new government; may I suggest that they go to your Liberal candidate, indicating a definite demand that you want more and more legislation to boost agricultural prosperity in Alberta and Battle River-Camrose.

Please be sure to vote on June 10th. YOUR VOTE COULD BE THE WINNING BALLOT. You will be kept informed in the next few years of the progress of your Government and YOU WILL SEE AND HEAR YOUR REPRESENTATIVE who will consider himself as one of you and not merely your friend at a time when votes are being sought.

Be sure to VOTE ON JUNE 10th. If you feel satisfied to do so, may I invite you to VOTE THE FIRST NAME ON THE BALLOT — VOTE HECKBERT S. CARL X

Sincerely yours,
S. CARL HECKBERT, Liberal Candidate

ON JUNE 10th

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clifford Geake

Vermilion Couple Married At Las Palmas, Canary Islands

On May 6th a wedding of interest to this town took place in Las Palmas, Canary Islands, when Evelyn May Wilson, daughter of Mr and Mrs. David Brown became the bride of Kenneth Earl Geake, son of Mr and Mrs Earl Geake, all of Vermilion.

A solemn and impressive civil ceremony took place at 3 p.m. in the office of the British Consul which had been decorated with flags and a beautiful bouquet of flowers for the occasion.

In the evening the Spanish ceremony took place in the Evangelical Church of Las Palmas. The chapel was appropriately decorated with pink and white streamers and adorned with an abundance of seasonal flowers including pink roses, white gladioli, Easter lilies, calla lilies, pastel shade carnations, a palm and other potted plants. Just over the platform and acting as a centre for the streamers was a text God is Love (in Spanish) in harmonizing colors.

Before the bridal march began, Rev. James Carder, missionary in charge of the Las Palmas church, spoke from Ephesians 5:21-31 showing the mutual responsibility in marriage and comparing it to the relationship of Christ and the church.

The bride dressed in white suit and hat and wearing a corsage of tiny red roses entered the church on the arm of one of the head elders of the Spanish church. She carried a white Bible on which lay a matching rose and the white satin marker held buds of the same. She was attended by Violet Edson of Nottingham, England, a companion in the work, who was dressed in [illegible] styled suit and hat of pink. The groom was accompanied by Manuel Acosta, a Spanish friend of the Evangelical church.

FROZEN SOUPS CATCH COMPLIMENTS

Years ago a famous chef once remarked that a woman who couldn't make a good soup shouldn't be allowed to marry. How lucky the 20th century girl is . . . she doesn't even take time to think about soup making! Because she knows if she serves one of the full-flavored frozen soups available at her corner grocery store, she's bound to catch smiles which say "this is so good"!

Today there are all sorts of magic tricks for serving and varying these soups. Take for instance frozen condensed oyster stew . . . serve it plain, add a bit of shredded cheese, or even make a casserole with it. Or combine it with frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup to make a new soup mate. Ideas for frozen condensed pea with ham soup are just as numerous. A reputation for always serving good soups is a challenge to any chef, past or present.

Like to share one of the modern homemakers "inventions" made with frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup . . . then try this recipe for . . .

CREAMED SHRIMP WITH OLIVES

1 can (10-ounces) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup
¼ cup milk
½ cup sliced ripe olives
3 cups cooked rice

Combine ingredients; heat slowly, stirring frequently. Serve over hot rice. Makes 6 servings.

Alberta Sets New Record In Provincial Debt Reduction

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — Could it be a coincidence that Premier Manning chose this particular time to announce the largest single public debt reduction in Alberta's history. Coincidence or not, it is good news to the people of Alberta!

Whether there are political implications or not too, the fact remains that Alberta is out of hock to the tune of $51,421,000 — the largest amount any province has has ever been able to chop off its indebtedness at a single blow.

The action leaves Alberta with a total debt of only $30,817,607, which is more than balanced by cash reserves, liquid assets and investments worth well over $200,000,000. More than ever before, Alberta can claim debt-free status.

According to Premier Manning, the debenture debt repayment is made up of $2,721,000 in bonds that matured June 1 and another $48,700,000 in bonds purchased through the years from the province's special investment funds.

Social Credit was even able to make a profit out of this highly orthodox monetary transaction. At the time of purchase, the bonds were worth $47,617,627, leaving a profit of $1,082,373 by cashing them in now, which is good business no matter which way you look at it.

The remaining indebtedness is made up of $21,218,200 in outstanding debentures and $9,599,407 in treasury bills owing to the federal government. The province has followed a policy of reducing the public debt annually, but this is the biggest reduction in any year.

Premier Manning wouldn't snap at the bait when asked if there was any particular reason for making the repayment at this particular time. He said only that the money was available for the repayment and this is as good a time as any.

While the action may be of political value to the Social Credit cause, it also could provide ammunition for opposition political parties, although it isn't a provincial election that's being fought right now.

Edmonton's total debt recently topped the $100,000,000 mark and the total municipal debt in the province stands around $194,000,000.

Possibly anticipating criticism, Premier Manning answered the questions last week at a political meeting, the same day he announced the huge debt reduction.

He said the greater part of the municipal debt is owing to the provincial government, which means in effect that the people owe it to themselves. Under the provincial program of lending money to municipalities for capital works, the money circulates within the province and so doesn't get into the hands of outside financiers.

He admitted municipal debt has grown, but said this is due to the terrific increase in population. On the other hand, he pointed out under the government lending program all but 3 towns in Alberta have sewer and water, and more than half of the villages enjoy these privileges, unknown a few years ago to people outside the cities, also a record achievement for Social Credit government.

PINK CARD PLAN NOW SPREADING

Don't be surprised if before too long those Alberta pink cards will be acceptable in B.C. and Manitoba.

Those two provinces have motor vehicle financial responsibility laws similar to those in Alberta, and talks are progressing toward a reciprocal agreement. Manitoba has said there will be no agreement until all three provinces require the same minimum public liability and property damage insurance.

Alberta is doubling the minimum amounts but they don't come into effect for a year. However, officials are hopeful that the three provinces can get together before that. At present, any Alberta motorist visiting Manitoba or B.C. must obtain pink cards from those provinces.

The Speaker of the House of Commons is the interpreter of the rules of parliamentary procedure. He must be impartial, favor no party, encourage free discussion and at the same time preserve the dignity of the debate.

This Monday morning it looks much like rain. We really need some right now, for both crops and gardens.

Edmonton gardens look more advanced than ours. It makes a difference when one has the hose going everyday.

The writer met Mrs. Tweedy in the city on Friday and she sends best wishes to all old friends at Bowtell.

The Knutson family visited Mrs Bert Gould last week. It was Mrs. Knutson's birthday and the surprise visit was really appreciated. Too bad that there wasn't a birthday cake with 17 candles aglow. I won't tell.

The writer had a nice chat on Saturday with Mrs. Baxter. She is on her way east to visit her daughter and family.

Mr. Kay from the north is delivering fence posts in this district. These seem very hard to get.

AUBURNDALE PICNIC

The annual bazaar and picnic of the Auburndale United church will be held at the Community centre one-half mile north of the church on Friday June 14th commencing at 2.30 p.m. Supper will be served. Full program of ball and races. Sale of work and home cooking. Everybody welcome. 67-8

This advertisement inserted by the Alberta Federal Liberal Centre

in Battle River-Camrose constituency vote for

Heckbert, S. Carl	X

Cliff Smallwood

TO THE PEOPLE

OF THE

Federal Constituency

OF

Battle River-Camrose

This is the last in a series of advertisements designed to bring some of the points of Conservative policy to your attention. Shortly after this appears in print the people will decide who is to form the next federal government.

Conservatives hope that the vote will be for a change of direction in Canada's affairs and that its leader John Diefenbaker will be called upon to lead that government.

No political party should work for any less than that.

In our opening message a few weeks ago we pointed out that the Conservative party is the only opposition party which has support in all regions of Canada and from both language groups in Canada. This places upon the party and its supporters the responsibility of thinking through the problems faced by Canada as a whole. We cannot and must not be content with discussing a constituency's problems, or even with discussing a region's problems.

In the very short space of eight weeks we have tried to place before you the Conservative point of view on a variety of topics — our farm policy, inflation, national development, [illegible] and trade. There has not been time to do more than this.

Conservatives believe that a federal election is one time when we must [illegible] the needs of a far-flung country which extends from coast to coast. We must remember that Battle River-Camrose is not just an "Alberta" constituency or even just a "western" constituency, but one of 265 constituencies which make up our country. Our constituency has its problems, but they are problems faced by dozens of constituencies in a number of provinces, and cannot be separated from national problems.

We must elect a national government. The Conservative party has as leader a man with years of experience in Canada's Parliament. The Conservative party has as candidate in Battle River-Camrose a man who knows Battle River-Camrose and its problems.

A vote for Cliff Smallwood will help to elect that national government.

Resume Construction of Western Section Trans-Canada Gas Line

CALGARY — Spring construction on the western section of the Trans-Canada Pipe Lines natural gas line from the Alberta-Saskatchewan border to Eastern Canada, got under way May 9 at Penne, 15 miles west of Regina.

Mannix Ltd., of Calgary, the contractor building section three of the 34-inch diameter pipe line, is now working on all phases of construction and in the kick-off area the pipe has been ditched and covered. In order to speed up trenching while the frost still was in the ground, Mannix used a pilot ditching machine to cut the initial ditch about four feet deep. It was followed by two more ditchers which cut the ditch to the required six feet. Although frost was not too serious a problem, the pilot ditcher often had rough going due to the heavy mud.

Sections one and two of the line, from the Alberta border to Penne, were completed in 1956. East of Regina, contractors are ready to start construction as soon as weather and ground conditions permit and as soon as the annual spring road bans are lifted sufficiently to allow heavier equipment on the highways.

Dutton-Williams Brothers Ltd. of Calgary, building section four, is double-joining the 40-foot lengths of pipe on the right-of-way in preparation for operations to follow. Price-Poole Ltd. of Edmonton, on section five, has completed double-joining pipe for its section and has almost completed stringing the 80-ft. joints along the right-of-way. Canadian Bechtel Ltd., of Toronto, section six, also is completing double-joining operations. On the Red river south of Winnipeg, Marine Pipeline and Dredging, of Vancouver is completing a dual crossing with the 34-inch diameter pipe.

East of Winnipeg, Majestic Contractors Ltd. of Edmonton, is clearing and grading section [illegible].

From the Ontario border to Port Arthur, Ontario, on the section of the line to be built by the Northern Ontario Pipe Line Crown Corporation, clearing [illegible] other preliminary work are well under way. The Crown corporation has announced that the contractors to build this section will include Dutton-Williams Brothers Ltd., Morrison and Shivers Ltd. of Toronto, Majestic Contractors and Houston Contracting Company, of Port Arthur.

Flower enthusiasts find a camera a happy addition to their notebooks for record keeping.

Take Notes With Your Camera

Someone once said, "There are few phases of human activity in which a camera cannot serve as a friendly companion—and the best of all possible notebooks."

Today we're suggesting you put your camera to use to record your special interests. Let's say you have an entry in a dog, horse, or livestock show—or maybe it's a model competing in the model aircraft meet—or perhaps you're off on a garden tour or at a business convention. Only with a camera in hand can you really bring home a complete account of the events you attend.

If you collect china or glass, mineral specimens, old guns, coins, or almost any other type of small object, your camera with a close-up lens can provide pictures to exchange with fellow collectors. Should your special collector's items be documents, your camera will be invaluable as a means of copying. With a facsimile record of each item, the original need not be marred by handling.

As a student of nature, you'll appreciate color film and a close-up attachment for picturing specimens in their natural habitat before you bring them home. If your hobby is model aircraft, you'll find your camera a real help in recording each step in construction. And if you're still in school, snapshots can illustrate term papers and laboratory projects—as well as record your student [illegible] in a personal "yearbook" of your own.

In family projects, such as building a new home, a day-by-day picture record is desirable, too—and sometimes can settle disputes about any phase of the construction. Remodeling and landscaping operations also merit the full "before and after" picture treatment.

In business as well as leisure-time activities, a camera can perform worthwhile services for you. Many businessmen have found pictures to be a quick, handy system of note-taking. A few clicks of the shutter—and they have a permanent memorandum of methods of doing a particular operation, business ideas, window displays, store signs, and the like. Today, a great number of artists like to carry cameras to supplement their sketchbooks; hunters and explorers do as much shooting with film as they do with firearms.

Roscoe-Jaremco Wedding Bells Ring At Derwent Catholic Church

DERWENT—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Ascension Ukrainian Catholic church at Derwent, when Lena Jaremco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chanasyk became the bride of Johnny Roscoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Roscoe.

Rev. Cherkiawski performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride's gown of rose featured a fitted bodice of French lace and a bouffant skirt of nylon of tulle inset with matching lace. The gown was modified with lace bolero and matching lace mitts. A rose hat of illusion net and sequines was her head-piece. She carried a prayer book mounted with gardenia and streamers.

Attending the bride, was the maid of honor, Mrs Mary Chanasyk, who wore a waltz length frock of blue nylon. And bridesmaids were Misses Adeline Kiziak, Lillian Misik, and Lilian Roscoe, all wore gowns of blue and yellow with matching headpieces.

Mr. Nick Yackemitz attended the groom as best man, and ushers were Joe Hladernewich, Eddie Bykewich and Steve Fe[illegible].

WILDMERE WINKS

Our district was very deeply shocked to hear that Mr Majury had passed away last Tuesday. He had been a resident of the Buffalo Coulee district for many years. He always took a keen interest in the doings of the community, especially in sport as he was coach of the ball team from that part for several years. There are also many, now widely scattered, who received their public schooling under his guidance. The large attendance at his funeral in Auburndale United church bespoke the high esteem he and his family held around the countryside. Rev. MacKay and Mr Breighaupt gave very comforting words to the bereaved ones. Pall bearers were all close neighbors of the [illegible] he had seen grow up from small boys and had taught them at school, they were Brent Macnab, Ivan McGinnis, Jerold Elward, Alex Stone, Henning Haverslew and Gordon Larsen. Our community along with the writer join in extending heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family in their sorrow. May they find comfort in knowing he is now at rest.

A nice attendance at church on Sunday evening. Mr Breighaupt gave a very interesting sermon. He always has a good story for the children which they enjoy. On Sunday evening the children's choir sang a hymn and did very well. Church next Sunday same time, 7:30 and Sunday school is each Tuesday right after school at Basswood.

While Mrs. Cruthers was in the city following the A. W. I. convention she visited with her two brothers Alex and Norman Smith and their families. She also called on Mr and Mrs H. Howard formerly of Wildmere. She along with Mrs. W. J. Garnett went to see Robert Dibben. They were pleased to note how much he had improved. Keep up the good work Robert. Mrs. Garnett came home Thursday evening and Mrs. Cruthers came back Saturday evening along with her daughter Janet and Jack McFadden who had spent the day in the city. Both Mrs. Cruthers and Mrs. Garnett reported they enjoyed the convention very much. Wildmere W.I. won a prize in the handicraft display. The writer sent up a pair of socks and they received third prize.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farkash of Thorncliffe district on the birth of a baby daughter on Sunday at the Vermilion hospital.

The writer and husband attended the Air Cadet annual inspection held Monday evening on the High school grounds. It was well worth seeing and a great credit to those who train the boys and is also wonderful training for the boys. Afterwards a show was held at the armories. The Cadets served a delicious lunch which everyone enjoyed. Well done boys, we hope to attend again next year.

We are pleased to hear that our sick friends Mrs. Finlay, Mrs Isley, Mrs F Arthur, Mrs F Eyben and Mrs. George Symes are all reported to be improving. A speedy recovery is wished all you folks.

We chatted on Saturday with Mrs S. Sturt, Mrs. H. Frissell, Mrs M. Rudd, Mrs W. Clark, Mrs E. Gordon, Mrs. Mayers, Mrs Lee, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs J. Wilson, Mrs. R. Harle, Mrs. J, Mrs J Bauman, Mrs J.J. Eyben, and Mrs. Bury from Lloydminster. It was nice meeting all these fine people.

Is any other place around besieged by caterpillars? They are really stripping the leaves off the trees in our corner and the cut worms are bad in gardens and crops. A real good rain would do so much good to the gardens, crops and worms.

Arabian Horses Have New Homes

(From Allandale News)

The Arabian horses owned by Mr and Mrs. John Nelson and which have been at the Omness farm since last November, have been sold. On May 27th Mr and Mrs. Ewart and Pauline Frampton from Mankota, Sask., took the stallion El Gattall to their ranch near that town.

On May 30th Mr. Fred Scott, a lawyer from Calgary, came for the mare Rafnaya, and the colt. His ranch Baha Tinta is close to Calgary.

It was recently stated in one of the Arabian news magazines that to their knowledge this colt was the first purebred Arabian foaled in Canada.

Let's Speak Up

Only in a democracy do governments even attempt a balance [illegible] conflicting ideas. This respect for individual opinion can, nevertheless, give rise to injustice by depriving, temporarily at least, large numbers of citizens of the benefits of valid scientific recommendations. Nowhere is this more apparent than in the field of health conservation where misinformed and highly vocal minorities are able to obstruct proven methods of health protection and delay their adoption.

It has been noted that relatively few Canadians are not in favor of pasteurized milk and that, within the last few years, not more than ten percent of the population stand opposed to the fluoridation of water supplies. Yet witness the influence of these minorities. Writing in a previous issue of "Health" Magazine, Dr. L. W. C. Sturgeon points out:

"If ten percent of the population does not want fluoridation, and becomes a very noisy minority the remaining 90 percent are faced with a staggering burden of unnecessary expense in the cost of dental care."

Still further and more recent evidence of this baleful minority influence is provided by Christian Smith in the current issue of Health. He writes that such groups "create an atmosphere of controversy where none really exists. With odd exceptions they rely on quack material imported from the U.S. a country in which people like people anywhere include the good and the bad."

Governments at all levels in Canada must continue to reconcile and balance conflicting ideas and interests. It is not for them to ride the totalitarian and roughshod way over the opinions of any one group. This being so, it becomes more and more essential for those who believe in and support beneficial health measures to identify themselves on the side of truth, to proclaim the proven facts often and clearly — even loudly — so that their case may be heard and treated [illegible].

And in the case of fluoridation, the need for reaffirming the truth over and over again has never been more urgent than today.

Jim Smith, Social Credit, Re-elected With Huge Majority

The work of James A. Smith, Social Credit member of the House of Commons since the hectic by-election two years ago, apparently met with the approval of the electors of the Battle River - Camrose constituency, as he was re-elected in Monday's election with an overwhelming majority. Although it was freely predicted prior to election day that voting would be light as there were no major issues at stake, electors very definitely thought otherwise and turned out to the polls in record numbers to oust a government in Ottawa that had held the reins of power for twenty-two years. In Vermilion 83 per cent of the possible vote was out, Wainwright saw 85 per cent of those on the voters' list cast their ballots, and the same story was true of all other centres and rural polls as well, resulting in 74% of the voters in this constituency casting ballots.

Returns started coming in from Battle River - Camrose polls as early as 6:15 p.m. and when the first six polls were totalled by Returning Officer Reg Mitchell, it was found that Social Crediter Smith was polling almost twice the vote of the next candidate, Liberal S. Carl Heckbert. This trend continued right through the whole 230 polls.

Progressive-Conservative Cliff Smallwood amassed the surprising total of 3750 votes, from a standing start, as there was no Conservative in the 1955 by-election.

JAMES A. SMITH

With the returns now all in, the count stands as follows:

Smith, Social Credit	10,806
Heckbert, Liberal	5,419
Smallwood, Cons.	3,771
Rolseth, CCF	2,175
TOTAL VOTE	22,171

Jim Smith polled 2,217 more votes than in the by-election of 1955, and 1,016 more than the vote rolled up by the late Bob Fair in 1953.

Votes in Battle-River-Camrose since the new constituency was formed, follow:

	1953	1955	1957
Soc. Cr.	9,737	8,536	10,806
Liberal	4,573	8,194	5,419
C. C. F.	2,326	2,773	2,175
Prog-Con.	1,875		3,771

A general upswing in support from all parts of the constituency accounted for the increase in the total vote for Smith, the Social Credit candidate.

The STANDARD will carry individual poll results in its next week's issue, meanwhile, figures from the larger centres in the constituency were:

The first column is Heckbert, Liberal; second, Rolseth, C.C.F.; third column, Smallwood, Conservative; fourth, Smith, Social Credit.

Poll	Lib	CCF	Con	SC
Vermilion	367	29	79	528
Lloydm'ster	277	118	331	553
Camrose	601	197	310	946
Wainwright	444	66	224	674
Paradise V.	46	11	10	132
Blackfoot	8	7	24	76

Clandonald	62	7	21	57
Dewberry	55	24	87	84
Derwent	34	12	24	120
Islay	63	21	87	57
Viking	113	82	82	190
Marwayne	83	17	41	146

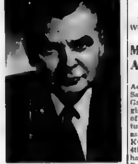
Voters' lists of Battle River-Camrose constituency carried the names of 30,040 voters. With all polls now reported, the number voting was 22,171, which is approximately 74 per cent.

"Splinter" Parties Hold Balance of Power

Conservatives Elect Largest Number As Liberals Ousted

In one of the most surprising right about turns in the history of Canada, the Progressive-Conservatives emerged from Monday's election as the party with the largest number of members returned to parliament hill. The swing saw the Conservatives under dynamic John Diefenbaker elect 110 members as compared to 51 in the last house.

New Premier?



JOHN DIEFENBAKER

Liberals lost 67 seats, electing 103 as compared with 170 in 1953; C.C.F. increased by two seats, 25 from 23, while Social Credit gained two seats in Alberta and two seats in British Columbia for a total of 19, a gain of four over the previous representation. C.C.F. and Social Credit thus hold the balance of power.

It is expected that Prime Minister St. Laurent will resign and that John Diefenbaker will be called upon to form a government within the next day or two.

The gains by the Social Credit party in Alberta were in the Vegreville constituency where Peter Stefura, a young farmer, won comfortably and in Edmonton Strathcona where Liberal Dick Hanna was unseated by Sydney Thompson.

Nine cabinet ministers went down including Hon. C. D. Howe. Hon. James Gardiner retained his seat by a very narrow margin.

Legion vs. Kinsmen In Little League Final On Monday

Semi-finals in Little League baseball were played off Monday and Wednesday evenings with Legion downing K of C 15 runs to 11 and Kinsmen scoring their second straight win over Rotary 17 to 15.

The final game is scheduled between Legion and Kinsmen for Monday, June 17th at 6:45 and promises to be a real thriller. Both teams are heavy hitters so the pitchers have a tough assignment before them.

On Wednesday night the game between Rotary and Kinsmen saw three home runs hammered out, with Wilson and Brennan hitting one each while Pitcher Summers hit the round tripper for Rotary. This game was a dandy as Rotary were down 17 to 9 when coming up in the last half of the final inning and not being retired before they had scored six runs to throw a real scare into their opposition.

Winning pitcher for Legion on Monday last was Williams while Marfleet gained victory for the Kinsmen on Wednesday.

The All Star 'A' team, under Coach Larry Basler are playing in a tournament at Elk Point this Friday. The All Star 'B' team is handled by Joe McIntyre.

Attend the big game on Monday night at 6:45 for a real evening of entertainment. A nice crowd was on hand Wednesday night.

Rotarians Plan Car Roadeo

The Vermilion Rotary Club will again sponsor a car roadeo in the interest of safe driving this year and the date will be Farmers Day, June 14. The event will take place starting immediately after noon. Location will be the hard top street from Webb's garage to the Treasury Branch corner.

Entries are invited for sixteen contestants. Each should be sponsored by some organization or business in town or in any surrounding town or village.

Last year the roadeo was won by Earl Pollard who was sponsored by the Superior Body Shop in Vermilion.

Send your entry to Ed Herzog or Chas Waldenberger.

Appreciation

Rev. and Mrs. MacKay wish to take this opportunity to thank the Boards of the Church, the Building Committee, the Woman's Association and the congregation of the United Church for the lovely new home they have provided for the minister and his family.

The kindly acts of assistance by so many during the move have been deeply appreciated. The move could never have been engineered so quickly had it not been for the many willing hands sharing the load. The gifts and flowers are happy mementos of this memorable occasion.

Our lives and work have been greatly blessed and strengthened by the prayers of our people.

To all we say a heart felt thanks. We welcome a call, to those unable to attend the open house held at the time of the dedication, we will gladly show you around any afternoon.

God's blessing on all we do together and may His work prosper in Vermilion.

Register For Swim Lessons Now!

The administration building to be located at the water front is all but ready to be moved. Mr. Folk, woodwork instructor at V.S.A. will complete the building this week but it will remain in the shops until after "Achievement Day" which is Monday, the 17th. Any time after that the building will be moved to its location ready for duty.

Pretty nice — no more gathering on a park table and have the wind blow records and money all over the beach. Besides, Ken Urquhart says that a phone will be installed too, storage room for first aid equipment — a lot of good ideas.

Registration will come soon so it is important to fill in the registration form provided below. Take the form and $1.00 to the town office or to the lake front office and you will be registered in the proper swim class.

On June 20th the Red Cross will be at the beach at 4:30 p.m. for a Water Safety Demonstration. Watch for posters and plan to attend.

WATER SAFETY WEEK

This is National Water Safety Week. It is a period planned by the Canadian Red Cross Society to bring to our attention the value of swimming and other summer sports and a word of warning of the many dangers that lurk in, near or on the water.

It is a week devoted to an ideal and a hope that sound advice and guidance will control and curtail Canada's dreadful drowning toll.

During our summer months this newspaper and those throughout Canada will carry headlines about the loss of life by drowning. The record is always a sorrowful one. The headlines represent a needless loss of life. They are headlines we dislike printing because they are the background of obituaries of friends, neighbors and their families.

The tragedy of these accidents is never forgotten easily. Summer months are months of pleasure and a drowning casts a shadow that lingers for years.

In most cases drownings are not mere accidents. They are the result of venturesome escapades coupled with an ignorance of water safety. Canada is blessed with thousands of lakes, rivers, and streams. They are a setting of nature for enjoyment by Canadians of all ages, a mecca for pleasure during a delightful season.

This summer, we must be concerned about the rules of water safety. Basically they are simple and practical. A knowledge of these rules and an understanding of their application will mean a happier and healthier summer for and your family.

The outdoors is yours to enjoy. Enjoy living and swim safely.

Vermilion, Alberta,
June 11, 1957.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alta.

Dear Sir

May I take advantage of your valuable space to express to you and to all in the area served by the Vermilion Standard my sincere thanks for the co-operation and assistance that was extended to me during the recent election campaign.

I can assure you that I have been appreciative of all the courtesies extended to me during the campaign.

It will be my hope that the newly elected Government will meet the wishes of our people and that Canada will continue her forward march in the years that lie ahead.

The people having spoken in no uncertain terms, it is to be hoped that all citizens will co-operate to insure a continuation of sound government and that partisan feelings will not be permitted to interfere with our progress in the future.

That there was no biased or unfair personal reference between the candidates has been a matter of the greatest satisfaction to me, as I am sure it has been to those who opposed my candidature, and I am convinced that the other candidates were entirely sincere in their desire to be of service to our constituency and to Canada.

Yours faithfully,
S. Carl Heckbert

"GREEN ACRES"

HIGH GRADING HOGS

Bruce county does it again. Last year this county raised 40% percent grade "A" hogs. This is a high mark for all Ontario. In Alberta the record is only about half as much. On a recent survey taken on 600 Bruce farms it was found that 78 percent used registered boars, 90 percent used balanced rations but less than 50 percent used scales. Maybe the use of scales is one of the weak points in getting high grades for hogs.

2,4-D KILLS WEEDS

An experiment in Manitoba has proved again that weeds in grain crops must be treated early if we are to get good results. In waiting six days there was a loss of 30 per cent in bushels threshed. Young weeds are easier to kill and it takes less 2, 4-D. Weeds are worse in dry years so do not stop treating because the weather is dry. That is the time to do everything possible to get a crop to cut.

WATER THE WINDBREAKS

A pail of water around each tree may save trees from dying that were planted this year. It may be necessary to water trees every two weeks during a dry spell. Evergreens such as spruce and pine may need water during the second or even the third year.

T.B. TIMES

Already the inspectors have found two cows infected with T.B. People drinking milk from cows with T.B. can get it themselves. It will sure be a good thing when all the T.B. cattle in this area are weeded out. Dr. Young asks that I announce that cattle cannot be moved into the M.D. of Minburn without a permit. Why not find out before you move them. Dr. Young says that a lot of farmers are building chutes and head stalls to make an easier and cheaper way to handle stock. Get plans from this office.

FROZEN BARLEY

A lot of barley fields have been frozen to the ground. It is likely that most of the fields will come back. So the only thing to do is to wait a week or ten days before reseeding with Olli or Gateway. Also, green feed can be seeded up to July 1st or even later.

Vermilion Board Plan "Hospital Day" For June 22nd

A regular monthly meeting of Vermilion Municipal Hospital board was held in the hospital May 11 at 2 p.m. with B. A. Macnab, Chairman; P. Noster, Vice-Chairman and Messrs. R. Mead, F. Scott, F. Welsh, Jas. Wallington, Chas. Stewart, secretary present.

Minutes of preceding meeting and financial statement were adopted as read.

Pension scheme was amended to permit employees to participate on the anniversary date of the scheme occurring in the year in which employee started work.

A decision was taken to hold an auction sale to dispose of surplus articles and materials on hand at the end of the construction and renovation program.

The Board authorized changes in the gas installation to comply with the revised gas inspection report.

The secretary was instructed to provide a comparative table of costs which would form a basis for discussing, at the June board meeting, on the subject of employing a part-time radiologist.

A decision was made to hold a Hospital Day on June 22 from 2 to 4 p.m. when the public will be invited to visit the hospital and inspect the buildings, equipment and facilities with refreshments being served.

Accounts payable and salaries were ordered paid, subject to approval of chairman.

Matron's report: In-patients 143; out-patients 40; hospital days 1094; births 16; deaths 1; ops. maj. 4, minor 34; X-rays 178.

Silver and Gold Themes

Area rugs have gone glamorous with a vengeance. A new group of such rugs features designs worked in silver and gold metallic yarns. The yarns used in the rugs are said to be non-tarnishing and give the rugs a richly modern look. The gold tones are particularly handsome in combination with the mellow patina of well waxed floors.

Parks are always of interest to travellers and one of the largest in Ontario, Algonquin Park, which covers 2750 square miles, provides unlimited facilities for tourists.

Of Many Things . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

BURGERS AND MARIGOLDS

The car was low and black and sleek. It had a dignified look, even when parked sideways on a gravel ridge beside the backwoodsy road. I saw the tall, handsome, gray-haired man step from it, kick off his shoes, and pull his pencil-striped blue trouser legs up to his knees. I brought my car to a stop and watched.

Gingerly at first, and then quickly he waded into the soggy ditch and across it to a meadow where millions of marigolds thought they were safe. He gathered an armful in the same quick gay way my young daughter Kathy would have gathered them, and even from the back I could tell his grin was a mile wide.

I slipped from my car and waited for him.

"Got a nice bunch," he said wading the ditch. "want some?"

"Sure do," I said. "I thought about wading for them but just just didn't get to it."

"Sit down," he said. "I've some hamburgers in the car."

We sat in the sun, munching hamburgers he had bought in Lockport and drinking milk from cardboard cartons, and every once in a while he'd glance in triumph at his marigolds. His trouser legs were down again, and he looked neat as a pin.

"Ah," he said, "hamburgers and marigolds. Can't beat a combination like that. They make the best hamburgers at [illegible] in Lockport. There's a good place in Beausejour, too — a place where they grind their own meat — no filler at all. They call them Nips, but I've always known them as hamburgers."

"They make good chips too," I said. "I like chips with lots of vinegar."

He tried to sound cheerful. "Me too," he said. "But I daren't eat too much fried food. If I have chips I shouldn't have hamburgers." Then as if sorry to have brought up such a sad affair, he pointed at the marigolds. "Look at those green stalks just bursting! No flower with as much life and health as marigolds."

We never did get around to introducing ourselves, but being a snooper I took notice of his licence plate. I won't tell you his name, but if you heard it you'd know he could buy every 'burger stand from Winnipeg to Vancouver and still have money left over for a ... shop or two. I suppose folks who don't know him imagine that with his fortune he lives on filet mignon washed down with champagne. You and I are probably the only ones who know that he squanders it instead, on hamburgers from a stand at Lockport and sometimes, no doubt, he goes on a spree and has chips too, washed down with homogenized milk, surrounded by the luxury of Manitoba meadows and armsful of marigolds. Terrible the life these rich big shots lead, isn't it?

Vermilion United Church Scene Of Early June Wedding

MORIN—ELLIOTT

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the United church, Vermilion, on June 4th when Beatrice Elliott, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Dick Elliott of Dewberry, became the bride of Cpl. Peter Morin, son of Mr and Mrs. P. P. Morin, Nanada, Denada Island, B.C.

Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a floor-length dress of white nylon lace and net over satin, styled with fitted top and bouffant skirt and topped with a long-sleeved bolero with sequin-trimmed Peter Pan collar. Sequins also trimmed the skirt. Her lace-trimmed fingertip veil of illusion net cascaded from a coronet of tiny white rosebuds. Red roses and fern formed her bouquet.

Miss Donna Fleming was the bridesmaid and was attired in a floor-length dress of yellow nylon lace and net.

Little Rhoda Fleming was flower girl and looked sweet in a long dress of pink nylon.

Attending the groom was Mr Laurie Durnin and the usher was Mr. Ben Axley.

A reception was held in the Dewberry hall for relatives and friends. Decorating the hall were boughs of greenery brought from B.C. for the occasion.

The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth centred with a three-tiered wedding cake and flanked by vases of flowers.

Mr. Morin Sr. proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom suitably replied.

A dance was held in the hall in the evening which a good many attended to pay respects to the bridal pair.

For going away the bride wore a grey suit with matching accessories.

The happy couple will make their home in Gimli, Man. for a few months, later in Ottawa, as the groom is being transferred to headquarters there.

Cpl. Morin has been in the RCAF for almost five years and has signed on for five more years. Good luck is wished the happy couple.

Three District Beef Clubs Held Achievement Days

Three district 4-H Beef Club Achievement days were held recently at Paradise Valley, Tulliby Lake and Marwayne. A keen interest was shown by members of the various communities as the members groomed and showed their calves for this highlight of the club year.

The Paradise Valley show was held at the farm of N. Stepenoff, Club Leader on May 24th. A total of 13 calves were judged by V. Janssen, Associate Supervisor of 4-H Clubs for Alberta.

The showmanship competitions were judged by N.N. Bentley, Principal of the School of Agriculture, Vermilion. First place was taken by Wilfred Sunderland with a Hereford calf and second was Ellen Teasdale with an Angus. In the Showmanship competition, Myron Sunderland was judged top showman with Fred and Maurice Oester tied for second place.

On June 1st the Tulliby Lake Club exhibited 10 calves to a large number of people from the surrounding community. The judge here was also Mr Janssen with Mr. E. H. Buckingham acting as judge for the showmanship competition. Club leader Oscar Peterson had his members well instructed in the art of grooming and showing calves. A Hereford owned by Gale Nelson placed first with Dennis Maas showing the second prize calf.

Judged top showman was Robert Nelson with Kay Marsh in second place. Several prizes donated by the club and community were awarded to the young exhibitors.

The Marwayne Beef Club also exhibited 17 calves on June 1 under the capable leadership of Walter Kvill and Alvin Parker. A large turnout of town and country people watched keenly as judge Janssen placed the calf owned by Donald Kvill in first place with his younger brother Gerald being a close second. E. H. Buckingham judged Ronald Golightly as best showman and [illegible] as second.

There were also several prizes awarded to members for various achievements, donated by businessmen, the club and by club leaders.

The 4-H clubs do a great deal to promote the beef industry and the art of feeding and showing prize animals, but they go even farther in helping the young members to take their place in the community and become useful citizens. The communities represented by these young people have a right to be proud of the calibre of future citizens which they produce.

Marwayne F.W.U.A. Members Plan To Attend V.S.A. Meet

There were eighteen members and one visitor present at the May 27th meeting of the Marwayne F.W.U.A. held at the home of Golline Kvill. Ruby Kvill and Joyce Katzmarzyk were the co-hostesses.

All were very disappointed that Miss Edna Craig, district home economist was unable to attend the meeting as planned.

The report of the Tag Day for the Candaian Mental Health Association was given. $95.62 was collected on the tag day and $70 received from the local organizations making a total of $165.62. Thanks is extended to all those who contributed.

The second lot of hospital sewing was turned in.

Ronnie Bodner is to attend Farm Young People's Week at the U of A. June 4th to 12 with expenses paid by this branch.

Lillian Tupper and Golline Kvill had their names drawn to attend Farm Women's Week at V.S.A. July 29 to Aug. 1st. Plans are being made for as many members as possible to attend the F.W.U.A. conference at the V.S.A. on Saturday, June 22. Anyone wishing to go please get in touch with Lillian Tupper.

The next meeting will be held on Monday June 24th at either the home of Adele Protsch or Ruby Hale.

Thanks are extended to all those who attended the F.W.U.A. lunch, bake and plant sale on Saturday, June 1st making it a very successful night for the ladies.

Everyone from this district is urged to join in the fun at the Farmers' picnic at Dewberry this year.

WATER SAFETY AROUND

Because children love to play in the water, they must be watched constantly if there are any creeks, rivers or ponds, no matter how small near the home. A ditch, flooded after a storm can be a death trap.

Cover open wells. Attention to this constant danger will prevent tragedy.

Make sure deep excavations in your neighborhood are fenced and small children supervised at play. Anticipate and prevent that one fatal slip.

Garden ponds and plastic wading pools should be supervised while children are at play and closed off when supervision is absent. Remember children have drowned in as little as two to three inches of water.

Around the home teach your children to avoid these dangers.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

By
W. G. MALAHER,
Director,
Research Department,
[illegible] GRAIN COMPANY LIMITED

In a recent article we suggest[illegible] that after five successive years of lower than average protein wheat Western Canada was [illegible] year 1957 would bring a [illegible] protein crop. At [illegible] of course not [illegible] reason to [illegible] protein content of the growing crop will be [illegible] may happen before the end of July there are perhaps good reasons to be hopeful [illegible]

An interesting study made several years ago by the Grain Research Laboratory of the Board of Grain Commissioners sought to determine the average effect of rainfall upon protein content of wheat grown at [illegible] stations in southwestern Saskatchewan. Careful records were kept for five different [illegible] from April 1 to August [illegible] for a [illegible] year period 1922-1940 and these figures were used to determine the average [illegible] crease in protein content per cent increase in rainfall.

One finding of particular interest was that while above average rainfall during the growing season generally tends to reduce protein content additional rainfall [illegible] in April as well as in first half of May and the last half of July has an appreciably greater effect upon protein content than rainfall at other times during the growing season. It will be noted that the times mentioned are periods when the rainfall is normally the lowest.

This season so far rainfall has been below normal and the crop is away to a good start by reason of having been seeded early. Unless then we run into a very wet season from now on, particularly during the last half of July there appears to be reasonable hope for a better protein wheat crop in 1957 than for some years past.

OBITUARY

ARTHUR CLELAND MAJURY

Funeral services were held on Friday, May 31 at the Auburndale United church for the late Mr Arthur Cleland Majury who passed away on Tuesday May 28th. Interment followed in the Mount Auburn cemetery. The Rev. C. W. MacKay officiated.

Mr. Majury was born in County Down, Northern Ireland, sixty-eight years ago. He had lived in the Auburndale district for the past 44 years where he was held in high esteem and great respect by all with whom he came into contact. WOODVALE NOTES

The evening Mr K Rowe showed the slides taken during his European trip last year, was an unqualified success. The school room was filled with people who all enjoyed the beautiful photos and the interesting commentary. We think everyone did some wishful thinking about a trip abroad. Later a delicious lunch and coffee was served in the basement room by the indeed very willing workers, who afterwards cleaned up too. Mr Hohol who with Mr. McGrath had arranged for the evening, thanked Mr. Rowe for his kindness in coming and showing the slides.

The McLean and Isley boys were very fortunate that they only received scars and bruises when the car Nelson was driving after the dance missed an unsuspected sharp turn in the road near Paradise Valley and landed in the ditch. The vehicle overturned and was completely wrecked.

The 4-H garden club enjoyed an evening in Islay when they were invited to the achievement day of the 4-H clubs there.

Mrs. B. McGrath spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Wylie and family in the Wildwood district.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. Whitlock who were recently married in Edmonton. Mr. Whitlock before his retirement used to farm in the Hindville district and his bride, the former Miss Violet Terry, is well known by everyone who shops at Craigs. Their many friends in the district wish them many years of happiness together.

More evergreens are planted on the farms every year. Art Lysons and the Wolters family brought quite a number back from a trip to Moose Lake recently. Mrs. Walters was telling us how they found a crabapple tree with apples from last year still hanging on the branches in a bush on the old Wolters farm. Probably birds had dropped the seed there years ago and it had grown to a full tree and blossomed and bore fruit unknown to anyone.

The Red Cross Auxiliary held a meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Watson on June 6th. No quilt was made this time but it took all afternoon to arrange for a wool shipment, the packing of two big boxes of old clothes, to work out details for the picnic booth, and pricing of bazaar articles. It was also decided to collect cotton rags for sale to make a few dollars. There were twelve members at the meeting, who all enjoyed the delicious lunch served by the hostess after the busy afternoon. Date of the next meeting is tentatively set for July 11th at the home of Mrs. Euna Lysons.

Mr and Mrs. Fred Webber were visitors at his mother's home in Tolland recently. Fred is expected back for a few days again soon, while his wife is staying in Calgary, before returning to their home in the East.

Mrs. Euna Lysons spent a few days with her daughter Mable Crooks and family in Airways.

There were not enough members at the F.U.A. meeting on Tuesday, June 4th, so another meeting is being called for 11th.

A directors' meeting of the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. was held in Union school and it was decided to have the yearly fixing bee on June 18th and reset and repair the line at different places. Members will be called by phone, but please make a note of the day and keep it open. One of the directors startled the others by bringing an air mattress, on which he comfortably reclined after a day's hard work: secretly envied by the others on the hard benches, we suspect!

Curves in the road have brought no luck to Colin McLean. This time, taking the one by Luther Thompson's and meeting a car coming from the other direction, the latter's front wheel caught the hind wheel of his truck and some damage was done to both vehicles, most to the car.

Little Elaine Lysons was bitten on the lip by a dog and the wound required stitches. She spent a night in the Vermilion hospital.

Frost once again, though it seems not have been too heavy around these parts, just nipping the odd bean and flower, and here and there in the potato patch. Further east and north more damage was done. A little rain and wind on election day: a real good rain will be needed soon.

Former Claysmore Man Dies in City

Friends here will regret to learn that Alex Shand passed away in Edmonton on May 29. Funeral services were held on May 31st and interment was in the Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Mr Shand lived at Claysmore for many years where he was an elevator agent up until the time of his superannuation.

Mrs. Curtis Wilson returned recently from visiting her daughter Dorothy at Kelowna, B.C. While away she also visited another daughter Mrs. Tommy Knight at Ensign, Alta., and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Blanche Larson in Calgary.

See Big Power Growth

Expect a growth of some 47% between now and 1960 in Canada's power generating capacity, reports The Financial Post. Combined forecasts of 108 major electric power producers show that another 7.1 million kw is planned. Proportion of thermal generation to the total will rise from 14.3% in 1956 to 19.5% in 1960.

NEWS from ISLAY

The Islay F.U.A. will hold one of those important meetings, decided upon at their annual meeting, this Monday June 17th in the school. Films will be shown too, and the time is 8 p.m.

The 'Old Dolls' played the 'Young Fry' at softball last week and did well too, defeating the 'Young Fry' in a good game with plenty of fun.

It was a very nice meeting of the United Church W.A. held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Waterfield last Thursday. Pleased to have several visitors including Mrs Capatos and her mother Mrs. Cavil, Mrs. Ulva McFadyen, Mrs Harry Waterfield and Mrs M McKerrihan. It was the Missionary meeting. Mrs Vi Schaffer led Devotional period and also read an interesting article from "The Missionary Monthly". The annual strawberry social was planned for June 28th in the evening at the hall. We hope to have a ball game prior to the social.

The Bill Hannon house looks very lovely having received a face-lifting with white paint. It surely adds to the appearance of our village. It was the Anglican church rectory in days past. Now if the power mowers would go along by the sidewalks all over the village — how nice it would be!

Rev Mr Short has been appointed to the United Church of this field, namely, Islay, Kitscoty, Marwayne, Dewberry.

The 4-H Grain club held their meeting last week at the home of Mr and Mrs Ken Stone. Ken gave them some items on care of bees, and got close to the hives of which he has a number. The boys had their usual meeting and then enjoyed a picnic lunch on the lawn. It has been a good year for bees, so far they have gathered nectar very well.

After a couple of hard frosts gardens are laid mighty low. At present (Tuesday night) we are having a nice rain.

Met Mrs. George Connon in Vermilion on Saturday — she too watches the Standard closely for Islay news, so folks, please phone in any item — people far from Islay look for it.

LEAVING FOR ONTARIO early next week, have room for two passengers. Share expenses. Contact Ed Hicks, ph. 515. 49

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Crossfire

In ten years the U. S. death rate from tuberculosis has tumbled 75 per cent.

Medical authorities attribute this startling drop to powerful new drugs, along with better methods of detecting the disease in early stages, better living and working conditions, and improved surgical techniques.

Tuberculosis is not entirely beaten, but public health authorities now have the disease so well in hand that many once-crowded tuberculosis hospitals have closed down for lack of patients. But the battle has had its setbacks, too.

Patients treated with streptomycin at first showed spectacular improvement. Later, the antibiotic seemed to lose its punch. Patients relapsed. The disease flared up again. Staggered by streptomycin, the TB germ retreated, then developed strong defenses against the drug.

Medical scientists countered with combinations of drugs that caught the TB germs in a deadly crossfire and once again put the disease to rout. Today almost every active tuberculosis case is treated with such combinations.

Recently, this same mode of attack has been used against other die-hard microbes. In combating stubborn infections, science now pins much hope on antibiotic combinations such as [illegible], which not only clears up a wide range of common infections, but also strikes germs which have learned to resist even the most powerful of the older drugs.

CLAYSMORE CLIPPINGS

Mrs. Bert Richards and children of Grande Prairie, Mrs. O. Olstad and Orville of Edberg were Sunday and Monday callers at the Allan Olstad home.

Mr and Mrs. Norman McHardy were supper guests Sunday at the Stan McCrae home in Vermilion. Miss Donna McCauley of Vermilion was also a guest there.

A 4-H rally was held at the Willes home on Sunday with 65 in attendance. The group had a barbecue supper which was enjoyed by all.

Mr and Mrs. George Watling and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scott and family were callers at the Olstad home Saturday evening.

Mr Jack Willes and Mr. Fred Watling were in charge of the polling booth at the Claysmore school on election day, Monday.

The frost Saturday night certainly ruined the gardens and damaged grain in this area.

Mr and Mrs. Ernie Larcombe and Bernice spent the week end in Saskatoon. On Saturday evening they attended the wedding of Mrs Larcombe's cousin. They were accompanied by Mrs. Larcombe's parents of Minburn. Beth spent the week end at Innisfree and Leslie in Minburn while their parents were gone.

WILDMERE WINKS

The big election is over and the voters really took an interest and got out to vote as they should. A great privilege we have, compared to many other countries. Let us keep it that way.

On Tuesday evening last the annual Home and School meeting was held at Preston Central school with a small attendance. Mrs. Gilbert Harrison who was a delegate to the H. & S. convention held early in May in Edmonton, gave a wonderful report which was greatly enjoyed. After the business the election of officers took place. Mrs. Gilbert Harrison is president, Mrs. A. Holte vice-president, Mrs. J. Wallington secretary - treasurer and Roy Dibben is chairman of the committee to be picked at the first meeting in September. A hearty vote of thanks was given the retiring officers Mrs. F. Gibson and Roy Dibben. A nice lunch brought the meeting to a close.

Several Wildmere and Basswood folks attended the dance held at Woodvale last Friday evening. Fortier and Funnel's provided the music with D. Watt as M.C.

Some 18 Air Force cadets from Vermilion attended the big air show last Saturday held at Namao. Kenny Graham of Wildmere was among those who went. It was a good show but it drizzled rain most of the time. From all reports however the boys enjoyed the day.

Only a fair attendance at our church on Sunday evening. We were pleased to see Mrs. Ford with us again. Mr Breighaupt gave a good sermon and a nice story to the children. With only a few in the children's choir they sang two verses of a hymn very well. Church next Sunday at 7.30. Come out and hear our student who is very sincere in his work. Gary Cruthers of Wainwright also attended the church service Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Basswood is the proud owner of a nice Propane cook stove purchased through George Symes of Battleview.

On Sunday afternoon Bill Adam and Albert Smith enjoyed a few hours fishing at Dilberry lake down Chauvin way. Result was a few households had fish the next day for dinner.

Old Jack Frost really did things up right Saturday night. Folks looked at their gardens and grain Sunday morning and felt rather disgusted. It wasn't too bad at the writer's, perhaps the lake help save the garden. At Cruthers' a mile west it just blackened tomatoes, corn and beans right to the ground. Rape growers will suffer as it doesn't stand much frost. Quite a lot of it was planted this year. Seems always something to take the joy out of life. If it isn't bugs on oats and barley, rust on the wheat, it's frost!

Mrs. A. Rendell who was to leave our midst this week on the first step of her way back to England has been delayed a bit owing to lack of shipping space on a boat for her belongings. She is going first to Nanaimo, B.C., then on to California to visit with Mrs. Wall, her late husband's sister. On Aug. 1st the two of them will fly to England. We will be very sorry to see Mrs. Rendell leave us as she has fitted in so well and endeared herself to everyone. The best to you Mrs. Rendell wherever you are.

Mr R. Coah, principal of Preston, informs us he sends the paper to his mother in England and that she enjoys the Winks over there. Thanks Mr and Mrs Coah for this information, and a hearty hello to Mrs. Coah Sr. in England.

Little Laverne and Philip Howard were victims of measles a short time ago but are feeling fine again. Nasty things in nice weather.

Canadian Boom Lacks Labour, Says Economist

A very serious economic problem is envisaged by a Toronto economist, unless some constructive steps are taken to deal with increasing labor shortage.

"We are expanding our economy at a rate which corresponds with a doubling in fifteen years. At a time when Canada needs all the man power possible to keep up with this expansion, we are experiencing an acute labor shortage," declared Mr. G. Jackson, Economist speaking to a meeting of the Gerontology Committee of the Health League of Canada held last week.

"The cause of the shortage is threefold. First of all we have the lengthening of the education process. Secondly we are living through a progressive shortening of the work week, and not only are we short of labour but those who are still willing to do a job insist on working a shorter week this year than last and so on. Thirdly, we are pensioning elderly workers while a great many of these people are still capable of earning a living."

Mr. Jackson said that these three influences working together in the same direction when we have a shortage of labour are creating a very, very serious economic problem and creating the problem at a time when Canada is entering on a period of unparalleled economic progress.

"I suspect that we are going [illegible] shortage [illegible] for the rest of our [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] labour as only as we have a population which will grow faster than the numbers of our working population grows."

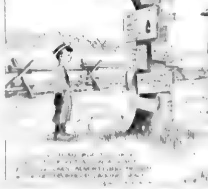
Life's Darkest Moment



Miss K. Stewart, Bride-Eelect, Honored

A very delightful miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr and Mrs. McCormick in honor of Miss K. Stewart bride-elect of June. The bride-to-be was ushered to a hostess chair which was gaily decorated in her honor. Kay was greatly pleased when she discovered the chair was a gift. The gift box was attractively decorated to represent a Maypole. Mrs McCormick and Shirley have just returned from a trip to Portland, Seattle and Victoria so Shirley entertained the guests by showing them coloured slides of the trip. The pictures were thoroughly enjoyed by all. Shirley and Bob Harris were requested to sing "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Bless This House". They were accompanied by Mrs. McCormick on the piano. These selections were well applauded. The guests are convinced that Mr McCormick should attend more showers. He added greatly to the entertainment when he brought in a group of visitors and scattered them among the crowd. Much story telling, fun and laughter followed. Kay thanked her many friends for the useful gifts and invited them to visit their new home in Calgary. A delicious lunch was served and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

Stagettes Fete Kay Stewart

A weiner roast was held in honor of Miss Kay Stewart at the Stagette barbecue pit. After a sumptious lunch of weiners, buns, chips, soft drinks and cake the girls gathered around the campfire and sang to the music of Miss Doris Schmidt and her guitar. By following a treasure hunt map, which took us through a maze of paths, Kay was the lucky winner of the woods. Kay thanked her friends for the very useful gift and invited them all to visit them in their new home in the south.

Red Cross Plays Starring Role In Water Safety

In 1956 water claimed the lives of 55 persons in Alberta, 18 of whom were under 14 years of age. The Canadian Red Cross Water Safety service is aimed at reducing the number of these fatalities. It is the belief of Red Cross that if young people learn to swim, learn to handle watercraft and are taught the proper methods of saving victims this needless loss of life can be very greatly lessened.

Operating in conjunction with the Alberta Safety Council, the Red Cross gives instructions in swimming for both adults and children, conducts schools to train instructors in water safety and presents demonstrations on artificial respiration, water safety, light craft and ice safety and life saving techniques. High standards set for the program is evidenced in the fact that persons taking the Red Cross water safety and swimming tests are required to answer 20 questions with three incorrect answers being a failing mark. Life saving awards are presented in accordance with the regulations of the Royal Life Saving Society.

[illegible] Safety Week will be featured [illegible] 22 but [illegible] the Water Safety Service [illegible] Cross is endeavoring to make every week 'Water Safety Week'.

Vermilion Clipper Swim Club To Hold First Meeting of Season

Last summer some of the teenagers of the community got together and formed a swim club called the "Clipper Swim Club". They elected a secretary who was Shirley Porter, a treasurer Bob Ackerman and president Marj Waldenberger. With the help of the other faithful members of the club a hot booth was operated every Sunday thus raising enough money for the purchasing of 'Special Swim Certificates' for the little tots, swim club crests and a trip to Innisfail for a swim meet.

To win a 'Marathon Crest' a person had to swim across the lake five different times accompanied by a qualified person in a boat and a stop watch. Only five people qualified but this year, if interest keeps up to the present level, there will be many more.

The first meeting will be held down at the beach on July 2 at 7:00 p.m. Past members are urged to attend. All of those wishing to join are asked to contact Syd Moore or Marjorie Waldenberger. The swim club crests and marathon crests have been sent for and will be issued at this meeting.

The policy is not to teach swimming, but to better the strokes already employed. Won't you join?

Wedding Bells

BENNETT—MERCER

Before an altar banked with gladioli and shasta daisies, a very pretty wedding was solemnized in Christ Church, Mannville, on June 1st when Miss Carol Elizabeth Mercer became the bride of Mr. Bruce Maitland Bennett. Rev. C. MacPherson performed the ceremony which united in matrimony the daughter of Mr and Mrs. M. Mercer and the son of Mr and Mrs. J. Bennett, all of Mannville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a waltz length princess styled gown of white lace and net over satin, fashioned with hooped skirt and long-sleeved jacket. Her finger-tip veil of embroidered net and lace was caught to a tiara of brilliants and sequins and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Miss Barbara Arnold was her cousin's maid of honor wearing a ballerina length princess-line taffeta styled with sweetheart neckline and lace bodice. Her tiara and bouquet were of white baby mums and matching tulle.

Bridesmaids were Miss Doreen Bennett, sister of the groom, wearing a ballerina length yellow net and lace over taffeta with matching bolero, and Miss Merilyn Mercer, cousin of the bride, gowned in ballerina length pale turquoise nylon chiffon, styled with sweetheart neckline and a softly gathered skirt. Both wore tiaras and carried bouquets of white baby mums and matching tulle.

Little Miss Gail Mercer was her sister's flower girl in a waltz length green taffeta dress with bandeau of white baby mums and matching tulle and she carried a bouquet of white daisies. Master "Bobbie" Bennett was his brother's ring bearer.

Messrs George and Garry Bennett, brothers of the groom, and Mr Howard McLuckie were the groomsmen and Messrs. Bruce Hubbard and Two Horton were ushers.

During the signing of the register Miss Betty [illegible] sang "Because" and Mrs. Two Horton was organist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mercer chose an afternoon dress of amber nylon organdie with yellow accessories and yellow roses en corsage. Mother of the groom, Mrs. Bennett chose an afternoon dress of navy blue crepe with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

At a reception for 175 guests in the Orange Hall, the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with rosebuds. Pink and white streamers and bouquets of mauve and white lilacs completed the decorations.

Officiating at the tea and coffee urns were grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. A. Cundal and Mrs. C. E. Mercer. Miss Merilyn Bennett was in charge of the guest book. Mr D. Croft proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon trip to the mountain resorts, the bride donned a cocoa wool dressmaker suit with beige accessories accented with an aurora borealis necklace and earrings, gift of the groom, and she wore a corsage of yellow [illegible].

Out of town guests included aunts and uncles and friends of the bride and groom from Edmonton and an aunt of the bride, Mrs. H. Barrento, from Winnipeg.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

ARE YOU ATTENDING FARM WOMEN'S WEEK?

This week is held annually at the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics. It will be held at Vermilion, July 29 to August 1st.

The course is open to all women in rural areas with preference given to those on farms. It provides you with a short holiday filled with fun and worthwhile activities. It provides you with an opportunity to meet other farm women.

The program is planned to include lectures and demonstrations in practical Home Economics topics as well as Agricultural topics of interest to farm women. Provision is also made for recreation and relaxation from the routine of home duties on the farm.

If you are within daily driving distance you are welcome to attend for one or two days. Nearby organizations may wish to arrange for the whole group to attend for a day.

Please advise the School of Vermilion so that arrangements for meals may be made.

Applications for this worthwhile week may be obtained by writing to me at Wainwright or by calling at my office. They are also available from Mr. Bentley, Principal, Vermilion School of Agriculture, Vermilion, Alberta.

TIPS FOR THE WEEK

When you are moving heavy furniture, slip waxed paper under the legs. The furniture will glide along easily and won't mark the floor.

Sprinkle table salt all over a rug and then vacuum it thoroughly you will be surprised how it freshens colors and loosens dirt.

To Reduce Kitchen Chores

You will save yourself much work on your kitchen floor this summer if you will give it a coat of the self-polishing wax called Stride. First wash floor with soap and water to make sure that all the grease and dirt are removed, then go over it with clear water to make sure and remove the soap film. When the floor is dry simply apply the wax with a long handled applicator. The floor will remain [illegible] and shining, with occasional moppings for many weeks.

Vermilion Soldier Takes Part In Memorial Services In U.S.

SHERWOOD, N.D. Canadian soldier apprentices were credited by Mayor [illegible] Steeves with making this community's 20th annual Memorial Day services a marked success.

And the contingent from Camp Shilo, Man., was told by the American Legion commander: "We admire you and only wish that we were young again and able to carry out in our country the service which you are performing for Canada."

Also taking part in the service were were members of six Canadian Legion branches and veterans from the Manitoba, Saskatchewan and North Dakota border areas. The 16 and 17-year-old soldiers from the Royal Canadian School of Artillery formed a rifle troop and a 24-piece military band.

Assembling at the U.S.-Canadian border, the young soldiers and uniformed veterans of the U.S. armed forces lined the route while national flags and Legion colors were trooped down the ranks. About 1200 spectators watched the ceremonial at this town of 394 population located ten miles south of Gainsborough, Sask.

Four soldier apprentices stood guard with arms reversed at the memorial to the Unknown Soldier for the wreath-laying ceremony following a remembrance service. Jack Burton, a retired customs officer and member of the Carievale, Sask. Legion Branch placed the wreath. Maj. Frank Michie of Kingston, Ont. was in command of the Camp Shilo group.

Canadian Legion branches taking part in the ceremonies were Gainsborough, Carievale, Carnduff, Oxbow, Alameda and the combined branch of Storthoaks, Nottingham and Alida, Sask. The Legion parade marshall was Sidney Mann of Storthoaks.

*(Author's Name Below) —

Research scientists have now perfected some chemical re-agents that enable physicians to make a positive diagnosis of certain diseases. Often the cause of a sickness still has to be determined by skillfully eliminating what it cannot be. Sometimes more than one visit is necessary to accomplish this.

To impatiently rush from one physician to another is unwise. You can usually get well much more quickly if after choosing your physician you give him the necessary time to find out what is wrong so that he can help you most.

A great many people entrust us with the responsibility of filling their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Parade of Progress To Open Edmonton Exhibition July 15

"Parade of Progress" is the theme chosen for this year's Edmonton Exhibition parade which will be held in downtown Edmonton Monday, July 15 at 10 a.m. The parade, which fair officials say, promises to be the largest in Edmonton's history, will mark the official opening of the 79th annual Edmonton Exhibition.

Chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the parade is Roy C. Marler. This is Mr Marler's second year as parade chairman. Chairmen of the various sections of the parade include many well known Edmonton and district people.

Planned to depict the fabulous story behind the dramatic development and expansion of Edmonton and Alberta, during the last decade, the parade will pay tribute to the citizens, businesses and industries that are largely responsible for the city's growth.

"One has only to look at Edmonton's skyline to see evidence of progress", said Mr Marler. "The city has more than doubled its population in 10 years and in the process has earned the title 'Fastest growing city in North America'." It is only fitting that an event such as the annual exhibition parade be patterned to portray this unprecedented and rapid growth.

In addition to the floats and displays, the parade will feature a number of giant balloon figures as well as numerous bands, mounted and marching sections, civic and government dignitaries and official parade escorts.

Mr Marler said invitations to participate in the Parade of Progress have been mailed to commercial and industrial firms, to bands, private groups and clubs, 4-H clubs and charitable organizations in Edmonton and northern Alberta. The 1957 "Parade of Progress" booklet containing facts on every aspect of the parade, is also being circulated, said Mr. Marler. Entries should be mailed in to Mr. Walter Sprague, comedy section chairman or the parade organizer, Edmonton Exhibition Association not later than midnight, July 2.

In 1951 when the first exhibition parade in twelve years was held, more than 100 floats and a dozen bands were features. Since then entries have increased every year.

Poultry Producers Will Vote On Marketing Board For Eggs

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — The federal election has become history, but thousands of Albertans can look forward to at least two more trips to the ballot boxes before the year is out.

Sometime in the fall, all citizens over the age of 21 will be asked to vote in a plebiscite to determine whether they want broader liquor laws, permitting establishment of such things as cocktail bars and drinks with [illegible].

And around the same time thousands of poultry producers will cast ballots to decide whether a province-wide board will be given full control over the marketing of all eggs produced in the province.

The government announced that it has decided to hold a combined enumeration early in the fall for both plebiscites. The counting of voters for the egg board, of course, will be only among poultrymen, while everybody over 21 will be able to have a go at the liquor question.

All of which means that Albertans will barely have a chance to recover from the federal ballyhoo before they must start listening to the steady barrage of propaganda bound to be generated by the two plebiscites.

The liquor vote in particular should generate a lot of noise although it will originate mainly from one source and be aimed in a single direction. The 'dry' element in Alberta is plenty strong, as evidenced by the overwhelming number of anti-liquor briefs which inundated the legislative liquor committee last year.

Even though they represent a minority, the drys will be waging an all-out attack, because the forthcoming plebiscite is seen as the turning point. If Alberta votes to remain 'damp' rather than become 'wet', it will probably remain that way for many years.

The wets, on the other hand, can be expected to maintain relative silence, although the evidence indicates they represent the majority. Speaking publicly on behalf of liquor just isn't the thing to do, as any drive to get out the wet vote will be carried on in the seclusion of living rooms, backyards and the beer parlors.

The government has yet to announce the date of the plebiscite, which would be followed by local option votes in all areas if the majority of Albertans like the idea of going wet.

In a way, the plebiscite puts the government on the spot. If the liquor laws are relaxed the blame will be heaped on the government by the people who share Premier Manning's hatred of liquor and who have supported him for his stand against it.

But at the same time, even the cabinet is split on the liquor issue, and it became obvious during the last session of the legislature that a public vote was the only answer. The premier, realized that, but he made certain the resolution ordering the plebiscite didn't come from the government side of the House, so whatever happens he can protest the government's innocence and rightly so.

The outcome of the vote is anyone's guess, but the way some observers see it the majority of city dwellers will favor relaxed laws while in rural areas the anti-liquor faction will put up a stiff fight.

The egg marketing vote will also be a controversial one and likely to have far reaching effects. If a majority of the eligible poultrymen vote for a board, it will be compulsory for all producers to market through the board.

It will be the first experiment with setting up a producer marketing board under legislation passed in 1955. The bill was passed despite vigorous opposition from many quarters, including some Social Credit MLA's who didn't like the compulsory features.

For years the government resisted demands from the farm groups for enabling legislation, but finally yielded in 1955. At the same time however the voting restrictions were made so tough it will be difficult to establish a board.

The farm organizations had asked that the act require a two-thirds majority of those who actually turn out and vote, but the government insisted it must be a straight majority of those who are eligible to vote.

Whether the Farmers' Union of Alberta and the Alberta Federation of Agriculture can drum up enough support is the big question, and only time will tell.

Princess Anne W. I. Notes

Fourteen members and three visitors, Mrs. A. Mead, Mrs. H McKinnon and Mrs. Fred Dougan met at the home of Mrs. G Mead the evening of June 6 for the regular monthly meeting. With the President Mrs. West in the chair, the usual opening procedure was followed and the roll call answered with 'My Most Embarrassing Moment' brought forth some hearty laughter.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Committee reports were given by Social Service and Handicraft conveners.

Report was made regarding the Standard.

FLOCK OF LATE CRANES

Mr. C. Harrington reported on June 9th at about 10 a.m. seeing a large flock of cranes about 30 in all, flying in three 'V' formations, changing to one large V over his place. May 20th is the latest they have been seen flying north in previous years and always before going in a northwesterly direction, but these were flying north-east, going in Onion Lake direction and very [illegible].

Mrs Ralph Strome, who was official delegate to the bi-ennial convention in Edmonton May 27 to 30, gave a very interesting and detailed report of the affair.

The meeting was adjourned with the Mizpah, following which the hostesses Mrs. West and Mrs. R. Strome assisted by Mrs. G. Mead served a delicious lunch.

"A Stranger In The Arctic"

A Story of the Far North

by
NAREEN COOPER WAITE
(Fort Good Hope, N.W.T. 1952)

Many strange tales are wrought in the North. Many legends spring forth from this land with its short summers, its long winters . . . when night seems perpetual.

This is the land where the Aurora Borealis can be seen in its true splendor of dancing colors and occasionally even heard, as it swishes and whispers across the sky. The moon, too, seems brighter and closer to the earth, and can often be seen in the sky both at night and in the gray twilight that is called day. The stars, more clearly defined and brilliant, lend their beauty on clear, cloudless nights, seeming to reflect the cold that is so [illegible].

This is a legend of the North . . . a legend that is told only in the summer when days are twenty-four hours long and no darkness can creep in with its shadows and mysteries . . . its hovering spirits. For the Indian and Eskimo peoples still have their deeply rooted superstitions regardless of the white man's religions that they have adopted. And this legend cannot be told when evil spirits are lurking.

* * * *

A stranger is a matter of great moment in the Arctic. Therefore, when a white man suddenly appeared unheralded in the native settlement of "Little Chicago", it was an event: more than that — a mystery. There had not been a plane in the area. Indeed planes were still rare, a great oddity. Many of the people still trembled in awe when they recalled their first sight of the great bird which had appeared there the year before, carrying such quantities of mail in its capacious belly!

Where, then, had this man come from? That he had travelled long and hard was apparent from the condition of his dogs as well as himself. He bartered with the natives for a carriole and for food and he paid with gold. So he must have been a prospector, and it was then conjectured that he had come from the Yukon.

By means of "moccasin telegraph" word soon reached the settlement of Fort Good Hope, Northwest Territories, approximately ninety miles up the Mackenzie River, preceding the stranger himself by several days.

When he reached the Hudson's Bay Company trading post in Fort Good Hope, this stranger tethered his team of ferocious dogs securely to a convenient stake at the top of the river bank, then silently strode into the store.

Soon the post was thronging with curious natives. The fact that this white man travelled by dog team and that he had paid them no notice quickly dispelled their suspicions that he could be "Nah-kah-nee", an evil spirit.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police constable who was in the store at the time greeted the man and introduced himself as well as the Hudson's Bay Company factor. The stranger volunteered no information but upon being asked his name replied sullenly, "Just Cully." For some reason perhaps they had not heard him clearly . . . those present interpreted it as "Jess" Cully, and so the name remained.

It was only conjecture that he had come from somewhere in the Yukon. That he intended to settle in the area was indicated when he purchased a tent, small oil stove, steel traps and other trapper's supplies and necessities.

[illegible] his campsite [illegible] way between the two settlements. For the next three years, little was seen of him. Though he occasionally did journey to the Fort to sell his furs, he was an aloof, taciturn man. He offered no friendship nor did he invite any. Once he surprised the trading-post factor by asking him for reading material. The factor offered him some of his own books until the supply boat arrived in the summer with new ones.

Cully appeared pleased at this and the factor, a little warmed as well as confused at this seeming thaw in his manner, made another friendly overture.

"Thought you might like to know there's a wedding in town today. Chief's daughter is getting married and there'll be a big feast and dance later on. Everybody welcome. You might like to take it in."

Cully appraised the factor coldly, then picked up his purchases and stalked out.

CHILD TRAINING — DESTRUCTIVENESS

Because it's wasteful, unnecessary and often costly, destructiveness in children arouses despair in the hearts of many parents. Children who destroy things may be roughly divided into two main groups:

1. Those who do it innocently or unintentionally.
2. Those who do it deliberately with malice.

Fortunately the former is much more common and parents who realize the distinction between the two groups, and seek out the underlying causes, are usually able to redirect their children's activities and help forestall the more serious problem of malicious destructiveness.

Innocent Type

There is the bouncing baby who has no respect for anything around the house. For him the desire to taste, feel and examine is all-important and a slap on the hand or loud "No's" have little effect. Fill the needs of this child with toys that come apart and mud in which to dabble. Make sure that the valuables are well out of reach as well as anything with which he might hurt himself.

Curious Type

Usually older and more orderly in his destructiveness, this child will dismantle a watch, unscrew door knobs and tear papers into tiny shreds, then, more than likely, try to reassemble the bits and pieces.

A four or five-year-old who destroys things not his own should be helped to fix up what has been damaged but without scolding. Giving him proper play materials will help satisfy his inquisitive nature: old watches, broken dolls, odds and ends for his fix-it box, reading material that explains how things are made, what makes them "tick" and so on.

Clumsy Type

There is the clumsy child. He touches an article and it breaks; he bumps into things, knocks them over and demolishes them without seeming regard. Help is what he needs, not scolding. The doctor will advise about his co-ordination, sight and hearing. Often it is just a slowness in development calling for patience and understanding in helping the child develop the knack of handling things.

Strong Type

He doesn't know his own strength! Whether he is two or twelve, this child needs special handling. Broken couch springs, trampled garden flowers, flattened pen nibs, bear witness to his muscular vigor. Such children should be protected against themselves. Enforce rules consistently — "no wrestling in the living room or bouncing on the beds."

Consistent reminders may be necessary and, what is more important, plenty of alternatives. For the under six, supply a mat in the basement, heavy blocks, boxes, boards, climbing apparatus and swings for "muscle play" and a desk of his own. The older child should have opportunities for rough and tumble sports. With such outlets for their abundant energies, super-activities in the house can be more readily curbed.

NEWS from KITSCOTY

Mr. and Mrs. R. Milligan and Robert of Edmonton spent a week end here recently visiting with Mr and Mrs Henry Joy.

Sgt Ken Tinney and Mrs. Tinney accompanied by Mr. R. M. Mathewson of Edmonton spent the week end here and took Mrs. Mathewson back to Edmonton for a few days before Mr. and Mrs. Mathewson leave for a holiday to their old home in Scotland. Also visiting here on Saturday was their son George, Mrs. Mathewson and family of Heath. Mrs. Fred Dzus is acting matron of the girls' dorm until the end of June in the absence of Mrs. Mathewson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Gray and family of Edmonton are visiting here with relatives for a few days.

Mr. Jake Christiansen was in Edmonton during the week end visiting with Mrs. Christiansen who is a patient in the University hospital. Best wishes are extended to Mrs. Christiansen for a speedy and complete recovery; also to Mrs. A. W. Govier who is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital.

Mr. R. D. Trask was called to Vancouver at the week end owing to the sudden passing of his brother. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their bereavement.

HEAVY FROST DAMAGE

The gardens and crops in the town and district all suffered severe frost damage at the week end. Some of the farmers are reseeding their barley and flax and many a gardener is busy replanting beans and cucumbers.

1 MILLION NEW CUSTOMERS

Enough people to fill a brand new city almost as big as Metropolitan Toronto have come to Canada from other countries in the past seven years. But had these million immigrants who have arrived since 1949 been concentrated the resulting community would have been strikingly different from any other in the country, because most of these newcomers are young, in the 20 to 30 age group, and over half of them are workers and will be for many years to come.

There can be little doubt, comments The Financial Post, that this immigration had added a great new strength and growth to the Canadian economy.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Woman's Travel Authority

It's important to wear sunglasses during summer days . . . because it makes driving at night easier.

If you have been out in the sun most of the day without sunglasses, the night will actually seem darker to you. In fact, your peripheral vision (essential in sighting the side edges of the road) can become totally ineffective.

Fortunately, even inexpensive sunglasses can be effective for normal eyes. If your driver's license requires you to wear glasses, however, your sun glasses must also be filled by prescription. On the other hand, the law allows you to use the non-prescription hook-on type of sunglasses over your regular lenses.

Ophthamology scientists point out that people who expose themselves to prolonged and excessive sunlight, as on beaches for instances, might choose the darker-toned sunglasses for extra protection to the retina.

Oddly enough, women who feel dowdy in ordinary glasses find they appear most chic in sunglasses styled for glamour. Besides exotic and colorful frames, there are stlyes with gay butterflies, bows, flowers and other amusing what - nots sprouting from the rims.

By darkening summer days with sunglasses, the motorist will brighten nighttime driving vision.

FARMERS' HOLIDAY AT DERWENT

Farm Youth Advised Against Deserting Farm Career

In the course of an address to a large gathering of farm people celebrating the Farmers' Holiday at Derwent, N. N. Bentley, Principal of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, urged farmers to take greater pride in their career. Observing that farming has been good to many people in this province, Mr. Bentley expressed confidence in the future that this industry holds for many of the young people now growing up in rural Alberta.

"In spite of the recognized problems which have continually challenged farm people in the course of pioneering and developing our Agriculture to its present state and notwithstanding the immense changes currently occurring, no thinking person can conclude that the good agricultural lands in Western Canada will be abandoned. They will be farmed and the farming of them will offer rich rewards to those who have the ability and have secured the education necessary to compete successfully in a new and better agricultural economy.

Too often farm families count and recount their troubles, hardships and disappointments without pausing to acknowledge their blessings and the real progress that their hard labour and good management has brought to them. Young people growing up in farm homes repeatedly hear their parents include themselves with those whom they would describe as 'the poor farmers'. It would seem inevitable then that these children should seek for their own future almost any alternative to that of farming. Obviously, farmers themselves hold some considerable confidence in the future of their industry. Their own continuing participation and their investment in it provides proof of such confidence. But they must express it to their sons and daughters and remind them of the freedom, the personal initiative, and the invigorating challenge of contact with nature offered by the vocation of farming."

Mr Bentley stated that he believes that many farm young people will be disappointed in pursuing big wages and easy money reported to be waiting for them in industrial employment. Certainly, few will find away from home the natural advantages and opportunities to become established independent business men that they could have by staying with the home farm and working into their own farm business.

"Not all the young people growing up in rural Alberta can nor should choose farming as their vocation. After a careful appraisal of their own talents and resources some will wisely choose other means of gaining their livelihood but the fact remains that a goodly number will find that agriculture offers them the best prospect for a happy, useful and prosperous future.

To keep pace with the competition and developments that are occurring in modern agriculture junior farmers today and tomorrow must be thoroughly acquainted with new developments in agriculture science and farm business management."

Mr. Bentley stated that the best possible foundation for success in the vocation of farming is a good sound high school education "topped off" with a course at the School of Agriculture where young men who are going to farm will find valuable information and practical training specially selected and designed to serve their purposes.

Missionary Rally In Alliance Chapel

Ladies from Lamont, Hearts Hill, Wainwright and Vermilion met at the Alliance chapel Wednesday, June 12th for a Women's Missionary rally. Several groups from other towns were also invited but were unable to attend.

Mrs. C. Thompson, president of Vermilion Missionary Prayer band, gave words of welcome to visiting speakers and groups.

Reports on the activities for the year were then given by a member of each group.

Rev. D. Grant Crooks, Christian and Missionary Alliance missionary from Soudan, West Africa, was the guest speaker. Mr. Crooks gave a very informative and inspiring message on the life of the native women of Africa.

Messages from Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Roth (nee Cora Wilson) missionaries from India, were also enjoyed.

A highlight of the program was the native costumes worn by the missionaries. Also a curio display depicting life of the natives of Africa and India.

Musical selections were a solo by Mrs. J. M. Schroeder and a duet by Mrs G. Jensen and Miss Margaret McLennan. The offering of $25 will be sent to the Christian and Missionary Alliance Girls' school in Pano, Ecuador.

Following the rally a buffet supper was served to about sixty people in the lower auditorium of the chapel.

Mixed Tournament At Golf Club

The second special event of the season at the Vermilion Golf Club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, June 26 and will take the form of the popular Tombstone Tournament. There will be no entry fee; all that is asked is that you give the committee your average golf score from which a handicap for this event will be decided. All Vermilion golfers, ladies and gentlemen are asked to turn out, and golfers from all other centres are very welcome.

The committee suggest that everyone bring a picnic supper and our ladies' club will provide free coffee during the supper hour.

SEDGEWICK GOLF TOURNAMENT

Two carloads of Vermilion golfers invaded Sedgewick last Sunday for the annual open tournament and of seven men attending, five came home with very nice prizes which speaks well for Vermilion golfers. The championship was won by Austin Smith Jr. of Camrose, and the Consolation of the championship was won by Johnny Johnston of the Riverside Edmonton.

Vermilion prize winners, were as follows: E. A. Locke, first in first flight. Ken Rowe defeated Billy Rose to take the Consolation of the first flight. Duncan Locke defeated N. Rose to take first in the third flight. Lorne Pockett took second in the Consolation of the fourth flight and Ken Greenwood took first in the sixth flight.

The Sedgewick course is in lovely condition and those attending report an excellent reception by the members of Sedgewick Club.

Close Fastball Encounters

Edmonton Fallings won two close games from the Vermilion Cardinals here on Sunday afternoon last, the games being played before large crowds at the ball diamond in the park. The batting of Hazel Barr was a feature as she hit two homers, one with the bases loaded in the first game, and another homer and three-bagger in the twilight encounter.

Fourteen Teachers Resign From Town of Vermilion Schools

At the regular meeting of the Vermilion School Board held on Monday night, the trustees ruefully surveyed no less than fourteen resignations from the staff of twenty-nine. Three of the resignations were from the high school, Mrs. Kibblewhite, Mr. L. Dowling and Miss K. Sigurjonson; four from the junior high, Mrs Z. Turnbull, Mr. Wright, Mr. Evans and Mrs. Cambridge; three from the elementary staff, Miss Seward, Mrs. Wright, Miss Gunderson, and four from the primary staff including the principal Miss Olga Tylosky, Miss T. Sugurjonsson, Miss Bease, and Miss Way.

Marriage is the cause of several of the resignations; several have accepted teaching positions elsewhere, while others are leaving the profession for other vocations.

Six of the vacancies have already been filled.

Present at the meeting were chairman of the board Don Taylor, trustees Ashley Cooper, Ernest Schurman, Claude Brennan, and Ernest Clendenning; School Superintendent E. D. Simonson, and principals Miss Tylosky, Mr Fred Stewart, Mr. Wm. Novak and Mr. John David.

An immediate drive to secure the necessary replacements has already been started by advertising and personal contact.

T. B. Testing Is Making Progress

TB testing of cattle has been underway since May 20th in the Vermilion River M.D. No 71 and to date over 9000 head have been tested and the percentage of reactors is low, only two having been uncovered.

A staff of nine men from the Health of Animals Division are working steadily and the work is progressing satisfactorily.

It is essential that all cattle in the M.D. be tested. Cattle owners are notified in advance. All cattle entering tested herds must be TB tested previously before they are allowed to enter the herd. Any inquiries should be made to Dr. E. J. Young, veterinarian in charge, Vermilion sub-district.

Weather? Dry! Roads? good.

The annual appeal will be opened with a tag day on Saturday June 22nd.

Earl Pollard Again Triumphs In Annual Car Roadeo On Friday

Earl Pollard repeated his success of last year and again won the car roadeo held on Friday. The roadeo, an effort to promote and encourage safe and efficient driving habits, is conducted under the direction of the Highway Traffic Board of the province, and sponsored locally by the Vermilion Rotary Club. The winning driver was in turn sponsored by Abe Friesen of the Superior Body and Paint shop.

Pollard scored [illegible] points out of a possible 410.

In second place was Glen Baldock sponsored by Waldenberger Bros., Imperial Oil agents with a score of 353.2. Third spot was taken by George Martin driving for Herzog Motors 344.4 points. Wayne Edwards, under the colors of Geo Webb & Sons, annexed fourth spot with 312.4.

Martin and Edwards are 'teen agers and thus were awarded first and second in the special 'teen-ager division.

The remaining eight contestants and their drivers were: Wayne Ireland for Northwestern Utilities, Murray Miller for the Walnoco Service, Andre Roy for Canadian Utilities, Gerald Isley for Oilfield Motors, Glen Gibbons for Pettigrew Construction, Bud Baddock for the Vermilion Board of Trade; Robert Brass for Rowe and Sons, Ken Brown for the Vermilion Hotel.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED AT DINNER IN RIO

At 6.30 all drivers and their sponsors, together with officials of the Highway Traffic Board were guests of the Rotary club at a dinner served in the banquet room of the Rio cafe.

Chairman for the evening was Rotary President Reg M[illegible], who introduced Highway Board officials J. W. McKay, [illegible] visor of Safety Education, Edmonton, Inspector Jones of Calgary and Inspector Lawson, Edmonton.

Following presentation of the prizes Mr McKay gave a most interesting address. In the course of his remarks the speaker noted that most of the blame for highway accidents in the past had been placed on drunks, old jalopies and accident prone drivers. While they do cause many accidents, the province has now ruled 10,200 such drivers off the highways, still Alberta's accident rate on highways is increasing. The reason is that officials are looking elsewhere for reasons for accidents.

It was this line of thought that caused the change in the licensing plan for drivers introduced this year in Alberta. A plan which when fully operative will require that every driver must pass a driver's test.

Lack of good vision, which may be unknown to the driver, is the cause of many accidents; lack of the knowledge of road rules, over-taxing of your physical stamina by driving too long. A driver's attitude also has much to do with accidents. Night driving is particularly dangerous due to the change of the pupil of the eye and the meeting of oncoming headlights. Blind spots cause many accidents at night, consequently the speed of the car should be reduced.

Mr McKay's talk was exceedingly interesting and was rapidly absorbed by everyone present.

The roadeo was carried out on the wide hardtop between Webb's garage and the Treasury Branch. Bleachers had been moved in and ample provision made for the crowd of spectators on hand during all the afternoon. Announcing was done by Cpl. [illegible]

He is pictured here with the car he drove.

Kinsmen Little League Champions

Paced by the powerful hitting of Doug Wilson, the Kinsmen Little Leaguers downed a fighting Legion team by the score of 11 runs to 10. This game played Monday evening was the final and gave the Kin team the championship for 1957.

A see-saw battle all the way the game was not decided until the last half of the last inning when with two men on and the game all tied up Doug Wilson slammed out a two-bagger to win the game. Previous to this young Wilson had hammered out two triples to turn in a mighty fine batting performance.

Another performance of note was the great display of relief pitching done by Ross Marian, the third Kinsmen hurler used during the evening.

At the conclusion of the game [illegible] McPherson, president of the V.A.A.A. presented the Dr. [illegible] trophy to [illegible] Pierce who [illegible] captain.

Legion Ladies Thank Blood Donors

MANNVILLE. — The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion Mannville-Minburn Branch No. 33 B.E.S.L. wish to thank all those who turned out to the Blood Donor clinic and made it a very successful effort, 180 having registered. Special thanks to the different organizations for sandwiches and to the registered nurses in our community who so freely volunteered their services and to all those who advertised. A contest between the men's Legion branch in Vermilion and our local men's branch, to see which would have the largest number of donors, was won by our branch. We will be calling on you for support of this worthy cause again next year.

Productivity of Canadian agriculture in 1956 was 65 percent above the 1935-39 average.

Col. Bradburn, O.C. The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, was guest speaker at a banquet on Wednesday evening when "A" Coy. were hosts to their wives. As was openly stated at the happy gathering the sumptuous turkey dinner was to compensate the ladies for their husbands' absence on parade nights each week and for the occasional week end maneuver planned for the summer months. It was felt that after such thoughtfulness the ladies could hardly raise objections to the call of the Company.

Sgt. Major Bob Allen proved an able toastmaster for the occasion. His Worship Mayor Hill brought greetings and congratulations to the officers of 'A' Coy. for very evident rejuvenation brought about in the local reserve company and for the extra fine type of young man in uniform present.

In replying Capt. Bill Scales, O/C of the Company, extended thanks for the kind remarks, and stated the dinner was primarily as a token of appreciation to the wives of the members of the Unit. Without their co-operation it would be difficult to operate efficiently. He also had words of praise for the soldiers themselves who were attending parades regularly and taking a great part in the training program.

Col. Bradburn in his remarks paid tribute to Capt. Bill Scales and stated that following a good many ups and downs the Company here was now flourishing with many on parade and an excellent pipe band.

Capt. Hugh Doherty of Mannville, who at one period filled in at Vermilion as Officer Commanding, had complimentary remarks for Capt. Bill Scales and Sgt. Major Bob Allen for the fine work done with the Unit. Capt. Doherty stated that the object of the Reserve Unit was to train people above average senior N.C.O.'s and officers in case we ever have to fight again.

A fitting thank you was paid to the Canadian Legion W.A. by Ted Herbert for the excellent turkey dinner served.

John Webb favored with vocal solos accompanied by Ron Inman on the piano. These were followed by a sing-song.

Guests of 'A' Coy. on this most enjoyable occasion were Col. and Mrs. Bradburn, Edmonton; Capt. and Mrs. Hugh Doherty, Mannville; Mayor Melvin Hill and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore. Others seated at the head table were Capt. and Mrs. Wm. Scales, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Evans, Sgt. Major and Mrs. Bob Allen.

The program was completed by the singing of "God Save the Queen".

Junior High School Graduation Held At Dewberry

Another event of interest to the people of Dewberry and surrounding country took place in the new school auditorium on Saturday evening May 25. This took the form of a graduating dance for those graduating in Grade 9 and was put on by the Junior High school. Mr. Brown vice-principal assisted Mrs. Witzaney teacher of Grade 9 in keeping things running smoothly. Excellent music was provided, donated by Harlan Green, Tom West and Mrs. H. Webadale. There was a very good attendance of parents and others, especially when one considers they almost met themselves going home from the dance the previous night!

This was the first graduating exercise for Grade Niners ever held here and proved a great success. The dance was lively and enjoyable and the young people discovered that even parents can be fun! Another one next year will be eagerly awaited by those moving up into Grade 9.

Many thanks indeed to the three very kind people who were so generous with their time and music.

Health Unit Notes

Deliberate Destructiveness

While most children's destructive acts fall into the categories listed in last week's Health Unit Notes, there are two additional classifications which are met with, and which require more serious consideration because they are the sources of deliberate destruction.

Gang Mischief

Breaking windows, raiding a house under construction and destructive pranks on Halloween by a neighbor "gang" are only too well known. Destruction is usually not the main purpose however — high spirits, nothing better to do and the deep desire of every child at a certain age to be part of a gang usually lie behind the devastation. Most parents of children from 10 to 13 years of age get a taste of this group destruction.

The reasons for this behavior are not hard to find. The child doesn't want to be considered a sissy; he wants to be accepted by the others so he joins with them in activities he would never dream of doing on his own. Lessons in property value, the rights of other people, sharing the cost of the damages will help cut down on this kind of destructiveness.

Where there is an undue amount of such trouble in the neighborhood, parents would do well to examine the situation regarding their childrens spare time.

If the gang activity is only a minor issue, however, some good antidotes to group destruction lie in trips to factories to tie in with training in the value of money and property, even trips to the police station bring out the problem of community protection. If possible take some of the gang along with your own child.

The Lone Wolf

Finally there is the child who destroys for the sake of destroying — deliberate and calculating. The kind that sets fire to curtains, floods the bathroom or smashes some valuable object with malicious intent. And also include here the child who gets pleasure out of destroying the play of other children.

Something has gone wrong in this child's growing up and unless handled with skill and deep understanding, his attitude can settle into a persistent defiance and destructiveness.

Parents often need professional help (family doctor or mental health clinic) to learn the cause for the destructiveness in itself is but a symptom. Taking matches away from the child who starts fires is but a temporary precaution; the underlying motives should be learned and dealt with. It is usually rather difficult, if not impossible, for the parent to determine the reason behind such behavior that's why outside help is advisable in most of these cases.

AND FINALLY—

Since it's easier to be destructive than constructive, easier to be messy, careless and clumsy rather than neat, careful and controlled, its no wonder that children slip into the habits of destructiveness. But it helps to take heart in knowing that they also learn and unlearn quickly and readily particularly when their stage of development is taken into consideration. With the knowledge of what can and can't be done at certain ages, parents can usually help the child's natural development toward improvement — and that includes winning out over the various types of destructiveness.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Bensmiller on the birth of a daughter on June 9th in the Islay hospital.

The picnic on Farmers day June 14th was a decided success. Fine weather and a very enthusiastic crowd helped to put it over. The committee must have worked hard to make it so successful and are to be congratulated on the fine effort. A feature of the afternoon was the horse racing. The musical chairs was also greatly enjoyed. First in the seniors went to Roy Butz and in the juniors to Larry Bensmiller. Senior cowboy race — 1 Tom Ryan; 2 Allan Bensmiller. Neighbors Rally To Aid Sick Farmer At Rusylvia

The above photograph indicates that the Rusylvia district, some twenty miles north of Vermilion, is a good community in which to live. This spring Wilbur Feenstra was in the hospital time was getting along, with little seeding done on his farm. On June 8th the neighboring farmers organized a huge bee and tilled and seeded 100 acres to crop.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all who so kindly helped to seed our crop for us during the illness of Mr. Feenstra. Such help and thoughtfulness will long be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Feenstra

SEEN AND HEARD

We wonder what Joyce and Jim were doing walking down the highway at 1 p.m. -- [illegible] high heels good for hiking Joyce? Joyce and Jim inform us there was a lovely moon out! We also hear a certain young Miss embarrassed Jim S in the Co-op store Saturday evening?

OBITUARY

William Henry Lumley

Funeral services for the late William Henry Lumley who passed away on June 12th in the Elk Point hospital, were held in the Greenlawn hall on June 15. Interment followed at the Dewberry cemetery. Rev. Mr. Potter of Kitscoty officiated at the services.

Pallbearers were Ike Walker, Joe Ryan, Alvin Curtis, Wally Curtis, Walter Jones and Alta Stone. Mrs. Donald Mathison played the music.

Mr Lumley was an old timer of the Greenlawn district coming from Missouri in the spring of 1906 to Edmonton, then in the fall of the same year to Greenlawn where he farmed until his retirement about four years ago. He was 84 years old.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from:

Loving wife and family; Kate, Annie Veva, Dora and George; Greenlawn Goodwill club; Old Timers; Mr and Mrs. Vic Dennill and family.

Pleasant Valley

The lovely sunshine is very pleasant these days, but the pressing need right now is for rain.

The wild roses are out in full bloom, such lovely dark shades, too. The wolf willow is also in bloom, giving off a grand perfume in the evening. One can smell it everywhere.

The writer has had a number of visitors lately. It is so nice to see the ladies come along and enjoy a chat and a cup of tea. So glad to see you, Doris and little Dickie, and his granny from town.

Thelma Robinson and Isabell Sherwood visited on Friday and a really nice Farmers' Day was spent.

Gordon and Betty Porter came along in the evening. How did you like the cherry pie, Gordon? Hope you slept well!

The Loafer Lodge group held a get-together on Sunday at the Park, and what a wonderful day it was. Fifty-two sat down to a dinner fit for a king.

It was Father's Day too, and they were greatly honored by the ladies. The men were out in full force with their lovely new shirts and pants in all the latest shades, gifts from their wives of course. The children had a fine time in the water, too; once they got in, that is, then they didn't want to come out. We should all do this more often, folks, as [illegible] the summer the park and beach is wonderful to have so close to home with all its beauty and conveniences.

Linda Gould spent the weekend with her granny. All went to Lloydminster to see the Wilf Carter show, and Mrs. Gillies went along too. Quite a number from surrounding districts were also noticed in attendance.

WILDMERE WINKS

We are sorry to hear that little Murray Westman has been a patient in the hospital suffering from tonsillitis. A speedy recovery is wished this wee chap.

Mr Robert Dibben of the University hospital and his mother visited last week with brothers Frank of town, Roy and David, and his sister Mrs. W. T. Garnet, all of Basswood. Hope you are able to come soon again Robert.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen, Mrs. George Seuffert and Shirley Underdown were visitors to the Frank Gibson home in Basswood.

We were pleased to see Mrs Geo. Symes in town on Saturday and to hear she is improving in health. Keep up the good work Gladys, we have all missed [illegible].

Mrs. A. Rendell left from Wainwright on Monday of this week on the first step of her journey back to England. She planned to visit a day in Edmonton with friends, then go on to the Coast where her sister-in-law Mrs. Wall is now visiting. They will go on to California and then fly to England on Aug. 1st. Mrs. Rendell was very sorry she could not say goodbye to all her many friends here before she left, but she was thinking of them all and wishes the very best to everyone. We all say the same to you Mrs. Rendell and wish you a safe and pleasant journey. We hear you are having the Standard follow you!

Jimmie Wallington is a busy man these days with road crews building roads and gravel crews gravelling; also public works, school board and councillors' meetings, and next week court of revision comes up.

Mrs. A. Seale of Wainwright, do you remember June 17th 1927 when you and the writer were patients in the Vermilion hospital and we went to see the elephants in the circus that came to town? We bet Mr Blakely Barton hasn't forgotten!

Pleased to chat with Mrs. Sperberg, Mrs. Haverslew Sr., Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Kaiser, Mrs. P Long, Mrs K Whitlock. We had supper and went to the show with Mrs J Wilson.

Where is our Bowtell scribe lately? Haven't seen her in town. Glad to see Dewberry, Clandonald, Chatsworth and Pleasant Valley news back in our good paper. Keep it up folks.

the understanding heart and the human touch

Food, clothing, shelter . . . yes. But it takes more than these to lift the burden from despairing souls.

This The Salvation Army knows. In its hostels, havens, homes and hospitals, in instances of emergency relief; the understanding heart and the human touch are constantly employed in mending shattered lives and kindling hope in spirits darkened by sin or suffering.

That this work may never flag, YOUR support is needed by faithful workers of The Salvation Army dedicated to these tasks of mercy.

The Mannville Firecrackers would like to thank all those people who helped make their bazaar a success. Mr Stuart was kind enough to let them use his building, and the mothers sent lovely fancy work and delicious cooking. The members made some of the articles themselves. There are still a few recipe books on hand, so let the members know if you would like one. The sum of $18.25 was collected. This money will be sent to the Crippled Children's hospital, Calgary.

Sunday School Picnic, Mannville

MANNVILLE.—The Anglican annual Sunday School picnic was held in the local fair grounds on Sunday, June 16th, with games, races, lunch and ice cream being the main highlights, as well as cool drinks. We wonder how many parents had to use a soothing liniment for strained muscles sustained in the ball game!

Thanks to Superintendent Mrs. Whitson, and the teachers of the pupils.

Do not swim alone under any circumstances. Child and adult alike may panic when no help is near. tf

You need extra-spirited response—you get it with Oldsmobile's fabulous Rocket engine. You need quicker, easier steering; you get it with new [illegible] Centre-Control Steering. No car in Olds' [illegible] handles so handsomely!

HIGHWAY HERO — WITH THE SEVEN-LEAGUE STRIDE!

Road-ruling grace... a specialty of OLDSMOBILE

It's only when you take a demonstration drive that you discover the exhilarating difference between Oldsmobile and all other cars! For it's only on the road that Oldsmobile's major ride and handling advances, like the Wide-Stance Chassis and Pivot-Poise Front Suspension, reveal themselves. Oldsmobile's graceful sureness of control . . . its reflex-quick response to driving demands . . . have set [illegible]

Test Oldsmobile's road-ruling qualities yourself. Visit the Oldsmobile quality dealer of your choice soon and take a trial drive. While you're there, take a good close look at Oldsmobile's luxury—Olds welcomes close inspection! Another thing—check the price . . . it's probably less than you'd guess!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

CORNERING? OLDS IS AT ITS LEVEL BEST
You've never felt so secure. Olds keeps an exceptionally even keel! Rubber-cushioned front [illegible] bar takes bore out of turns; big-car springs are set wider apart both front and rear. The stability that's yours in Oldsmobile is unbeatable!

ROUGH ROADS MEET THEIR MATCH IN OLDS!
Secret of the smoothness? A chassis-full of new road-levelling ideas—to cushion shock, to [illegible] rebound on large bumps, to counter "wheel fight" by another vibration. Don't miss Oldsmobile's spectacularly comfortable new ride!

How about that SUB. date?

MARWAYNE

Wednesday evening the Marwayne and Kitscoty High school boys played ball with the latter winning out. This was the last event of the track meet.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Kvill was in Edmonton over the week end attending her brother's wedding, Mr. Chas. Dalby. Also for a week end in the city were Mr. and Mrs. Reinheimer. Norman and Marion Murray of Edmonton were home over Sunday as was Donnie Hancock from Calgary. Mr and Mrs Hugh Varty and family of Buffalo, in southern Alberta, visited a week with Hugh's sister Mrs R. A. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs Floyd Richenbaugh have two of his brothers whom he has not seen for several years, visiting from Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

The Anglican church held a vestry meeting on Thursday evening.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Golden on the birth of a daughter in Lloydminster hospital. Patients in the same hospital are Mrs. L. Van Camp, W. Kinsella and W. Linklater. Mr. Elmer Parker is now out of hospital. Mr. J. Ure is in the Islay hospital. Pleased to see Benny Murray and Joan Beattie home from the Royal Alex in Edmonton. There was an accident at the bridge on Friday and three men are in Lloydminster hospital as a result.

The United Church service will be held next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Thursday evening the official board attended a joint meeting of all boards of this circuit in Kitscoty to meet the new minister and his wife the Rev. and Mrs. Shortt and to arrange details of his ministry here. Mr. Shortt will preach at Marwayne at 7:30 p.m. the first Sunday in July, the 7th, and each Sunday thereafter, taking his holidays in August.

Under Mrs. Rea's leadership the Explorers held a very impressive graduation ceremony on Thursday evening. Nine of the Explorer group graduated to the C.G.I.T group making 27 in next year's C.G.I.T and leaving twelve in the Explorers besides those new ones expected in the fall. All girls 9 to 11 years old are eligible. Graduation means success — that certain requirements have been filled. This has been work for leaders and girls alike but such a satisfaction to all. Mrs. Johnson helped with the graduation exercises. We are sorry to report she is unable to carry on with C.G.I.T next year, so [illegible] leaders are now being sought. Both ladies have been faithful in their work with the groups and the girls have certainly learned much. A big thank you is tendered to them. Julie Lowrie as president of Explorers presented Mrs. Rea with a gift in appreciation of her services.

Ivan Fleming has bought Mrs. Bystrum's house and will move in right away.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of "Mother" Mrs. M. A. Robinson —who died June 25th, 1955.

"Time speeds on, two years have passed
Since death its gloom, its shadows cast
Within our home, where all seemed bright
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light, and ever will,
Her vacant place there's none to fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in heaven we will meet again."

Ever remembered by
"The Family."

June Bride-Elect Is Showered

A surprise shower was held at the home of Mrs. Anne Winter on Saturday June 8th to honor Miss Isabell Gordon, a bride-elect of the month.

A bride's book was made, accompanied by much merriment. Isabell was then presented with a basket brimming full with gifts. After opening these she very graciously thanked the ten ladies present. Mrs. Gordon, mother of the bride-to-be, also thanked the ladies in appreciation for the shower for her daughter.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. F. Gould and Mrs. J. Winter.

Surprise Shower Honors Kay Stewart

In last week's Standard there appeared an item stating that a shower was held in Kay Stewart's honor by the Stagettes. This was in error as it was a number of Kay's friends and not confined to the Stagette club.

A surprise shower was held in honor of Miss Kay Stewart at the home of Mr and Mrs. Curtis Martin. A hat-making contest resulted in keen competition. The hat worn by the bride-to-be was the winner. A word contest came to a dramatic end in the story of the wedding of the Treasury Branch and the Health Clinic. With a little imagination Cpl. Serby could almost be heard singing his rendition of "Love Me Tender". A small replica of the Treasury Branch, with the accountant H. C. F. Dewald looking wistfully out the window, was brought in by Miss Sharon Martin and Miss Sharon Serby acting as bride and groom. Mrs. King played the Wedding March as the girls came in. When the roof of the "Treasury Branch" was raised Kay found many beautiful gifts inside. Just before lunch was served Miss Shirley McCormick, accompanied by Mrs. King, sang "Look For the Silver Lining". After partaking of a very delicious lunch the ladies were surprised to see the men-folk storm the house wearing the gorgeous creations which had been made earlier in the hat contest. Mrs. Mead played the Wedding March as the men marched in. The evening came to a close as Kay thanked her friends for their lovely gifts and extended an invitation to all to come and visit her in her new home in Calgary.

Junior High School Graduation Held At Dewberry Auditorium

The Dewberry Grade Twelve graduation banquet and dance took place on May 24th and proved to be an occasion that all present will never forget. Actually two events were celebrated the honoring of the students about to graduate and the christening of our new auditorium. The guests numbered 65 including the ten graduands. The auditorium was tastefully decorated by the Grade 10 and Grade 11 students, even to a wishing well. An excellent banquet was served by the Grade 11 students and many thanks and much praise to the ladies who labored behind the scenes to provide the guests with such very delicious food. The table was horseshoe-shaped and at the head table were seated Dene McMullen, the President of Students' Union, who proved to be a more than adequate M.C.; Rev. MacKay and Mrs. MacKay; Mr. Simonson, superintendent of schools and Mrs. Simonson; Mr. Smith, principal; Mrs. W. Holmen, President of Home and School, and Mr. Holmen; Mr. Erven Garnier, school trustee, and Mrs. Garnier; Mr. Rock Mead, school director, and Mrs. Mead; and Mr. Aldridge, guest speaker, and Mrs. Aldridge.

THE GRADUATES

Rev. MacKay gave the invocation, followed by a toast to the Queen. The guests of honor, the ten graduands, were then introduced by Mr. Brown, vice-principal, as follows: Joyce Parker, Betty Timanson, Lorraine Hyatt, Susan Hyatt, Leona Mathison, Goldie Liarc, Jimmie Jones, Rudy Holmen, Charlie Saville, Merideth Whiteside. Response was given by Merideth Whiteside. The girls in their beautiful gowns reminded one of freshly opened flowers and the boys looked very handsome.

The following toasts were then proposed and responded to:

To Parents, by Rudy Holmen; response, Mr. N. Jones. To the Teachers, Joyce Parker; response, Mr Powell. To Home and School, Betty Timanson; response, Mrs. Holmen. To the School Board, Lorraine Hyatt; response, Mr. Mead.

Mr Smith's address as principal of the school and teacher of the graduands for four years was given in words well chosen and suited to the occasion.

Mr Simonson's remarks were very fitting as he addressed chiefly the ten young people.

Leona Mathison gave the class history which was much enjoyed for its spots of humor. One in particular when she recalled telling her mother on the occasion of her first visit from the school inspector (while she was in Grade one) that the undertaker had been at school!

JIM JONES, VALEDICTORIAN

The valedictory address was delivered by Jimmie Jones and we are very sorry space won't permit any quotations. Suffice it to say that Jimmie's words, earnest and sincere, tried to show the true value of education not only when young, but all during life. Two quotations may be made: Jimmie started by quoting Shakespeare's "All the world's a stage" and remarked they were now ending the first act. He ended with "Honor and shame from no condition arise, act well your part, there all the honor lies."

MR. ALDRIDGE, EDMONTON, GUEST SPEAKER

The guest speaker, Mr Aldridge, supervisor of guidance, Department of Education, gave an excellent talk, in particular, to the graduands, showing them the merits of the various professions they have chosen. Charlie Savile gave thanks to Mr. Aldridge.

POISE AND CONFIDENCE

One couldn't help noticing the poise and confidence of these young students as they arose in turn to share in the evening's program. It would seem that a good deal of careful training must have been given before such a degree of confidence had been reached. What greater gift could teachers give their scholars than confidence to face life and all it may bring? And as one looked at these young people and realized how many more like them are almost ready to take their place in the world, it seemed there was still hope for the future.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

During the course of the evening much pleasure was given the guests by two solos on the flute by Harlan Green accompanied by Leona Mathison at the piano. Harlan also took many pictures of guests and graduands and though many ominous clicks were heard as he focussed on some of the teachers, we feel sure lots of worthwhile and treasured pictures were taken.

GRADUATION DANCE

The dance was attended by over three hundred guests. At supper time Mr. Smith once more presented the graduands and more pictures were taken by N. Jones and Leo Maltais. The Grade 10 students served the supper. Excellent punch was provided by Mr and Mrs N. Jones. As one of the girls who is graduating said the next day of the previous evening "I'll never forget it. The only trouble is, it's all over!"

Before closing, the writer would like to mention a very peculiar character who roamed about during the banquet and dance. It is presumed he had a ticket as no one put him out, but his behaviour was most extraordinary. A fatuous grin was firmly plastered on his face and out of the corners of this grin queer sounds emerged "cigars in office call him Donald James no James Donald weighs 7 pounds, 10 ounces" ticket or no ticket, how did he ever get in?"

STEEL SHORTAGE

By 1980 Canada's steel output will only meet 83% of national needs, reports The Financial Post. That's the view of Japanese steel people and they are planning to fill as much of the gap as they can. Their eyes are on British Columbia, where production from primary ore has yet to be tried. A Japanese mission will soon be here to sound out the tariff prospects.

"IN DOING WE LEARN"

*(Author's Name Below) —

Before a physician receives his license to practice medicine he must learn how to do everything necessary to diagnose and treat disease.

Before we pharmacists receive our license to practice pharmacy we must compound prescriptions under the watchful eyes of our instructors, and prove that we know how to properly compound and protect the potency of medicines.

Therefore your future health is always better served when you go to your physician for advice on what to do and what to take and get any needed medicine from your pharmacist.

A great many people entrust us with the responsibility of filling their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Father and Son Banquet Is Held At Marwayne

MARWAYNE. — The [illegible] a father and son banquet in the school on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. fifty being present including the leaders. This very worthwhile group, sponsored by the Elks lodge, had done a very good job during the year with the young boys in their many activities. After a sumptuous banquet, laid on decorated tables, the Cubs then showed some of the standard things learned as well as demonstrating some tumbling to the parents present. On their behalf Mr Curtis thanked the leaders, Mrs. R. Hutchinson and Miss Baldwin for the interest shown and what they had accomplished with the boys. The group will close soon for summer months starting again in the fall. Cub and Scout groups are undenominational and all boys from 8 to 12 years eligible and welcome in the cub movement.

Men Who Make Alberta

THE POLICEMAN

Have you ever considered that the policeman you are grumbling about for having handed you a parking ticket may have, only a short time before, prevented a fatal accident involving your child . . . that the motorist, peeved when stopped for speeding or careless driving, may be only minutes away from killing or injuring you or one of your family? Have you ever stopped to think that as you sleep peacefully in your bed at night, an army of men in blue are on guard to prevent the lawless from having a field day of theft, assault or even murder, at your expense? Sometimes we are all apt to view the policeman as a disciplinarian put in our midst to annoy us personally, and forget that without the law and order that he maintains, our society would fast become chaotic.

With the increasing problems of modern society, through traffic hazards and the complexity of high speed living, the new police constable is required to meet ever increasing standards. His job requires understanding and tact, firmness of character and courage. Twenty-four hours a day he and his buddies stand on guard for our domestic security. He regulates the flow of traffic, prevents and reduces the number of fatal and crippling accidents, organizes and instructs school safety patrols, prevents crime, and, when crimes are committed, is faced with the task of apprehending the culprit often at the risk of endangering his own life.

In short, without the police constable, the orderly process of our everyday lives would be impossible.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Beauty Hints For Hands

By now you'll be doing a good bit of gardening and wondering how to remove the grime from your hands. Here's a beauty hint that is not new, but is very effective just the same.

Make a good rich lather of soap, take a small handful of cornmeal and rub your skin well. Rinse off and if necessary repeat the lather-cornmeal routine. Dry thoroughly and rub in hand lotion or cream.

Here's a method of keeping your nails easy to clean. Before going to the garden scratch a cake of soap, so that your nails are filled with soap. Then when you come in, brush with a nail brush and soil and soap come out out easily and quickly.

While we're in the hand cleaning department here's a tip worth knowing. After you've sliced onions or prepared fish you'll want to remove that all too lingering odor. Rub your hands with salt then rinse in cool water—you'll find the odor banished immediately.

Something New in Blends

Miss Helen Mossein, Clothing Specialist with the Department of Agriculture has this bit of information for us. Recently Canadian textile laboratories have come up with a blend sure to delight every woman. This new blend consists of 65% "Terylene" and 35% cotton. Textile men call it an intimate blend because the fibres are blended and then spun together so that their properties are consistent in every thread of the fabric. It produces a fabric with all the easy care properties of "Terylene" and the comfort and appearances of fine combed cotton. Plain and printed dresses and blouses are made from this fabric. They look like cotton, but resist wrinkles, dry quickly and seldom need ironing. The fabric wears well and retains pleats due to the "Terylene" in the blend. This fabric is new to Canadian stores this year, but is sure to be a staple in wardrobes of the future.

Did You Know?

June is Dairy Month.

1 pound of butter is equivalent 2 cups.

1 pound of cottage cheese makes 2 cups.

1 cup whipping cream doubles to 2 cups when whipped.

1 cup of milk plus 1 tablespoon of vinegar or lemon juice gives you sour milk for emergencies.

1 quart of ice cream gives 6 generous servings.

Closing Thought: "Be faithful to your friends, for true friendship is of a nature not only to to survive through all of the vicissitudes of life, but to continue through an endless duration, only to stand the shock of conflicting opinions, and the roar of a revolution that shakes the world, but to last when the heavens are no more, and to spring fresh from the ruins of the universe."

More Livestock Feed Needed

The number of cattle in Alberta have increased 56% in the last six years, which means that there are three now for every two in 1951. But what about the extra hay, greenfeed and pasture needed to feed this livestock? If owners of cattle have not made provision for the feed they need it is not too late to supplement either hay or pasture with oats cut from green feed or fed off as cover crop. Winter feed must be enough to carry stock from November to May. Any amount less is too great a risk for a successful livestock business.

Protect feed carry over by planting greenfeed and a cover crop. "Put up all the hay you can" urges A. M. Wilson, Alberta's Field Crops Commissioner. "Don't gamble: the risk is too great."

"A Stranger In The Arctic"

A Story of the Far North

by
NADEEN COOPER WAITE
(Fort Good Hope, N.W.T. 1932)

THE STORY SO FAR

Many strange tales are wrought in the North, and when an unheralded stranger suddenly appeared in the Arctic settlements of "Little Chicago" and Fort Good Hope, rumors concerning his origin and background were rife among natives. Taciturn, sullen, aloof, Jess Cully made no friends even among the few whites in the area. When he was invited to a native wedding dance he sullenly walked away.

Now go on with the story.

Cully appraised the factor coldly, then picked up his purchases and stalked out.

He was not seen again until the following summer arriving at the same time as the supply boat from the "outside." To the amazement of all, Cully set up camp on the outskirts of the settlement. He had decided to remain in town a few days.

The Indians held a celebration dance the evening after the arrival of the boat and again Cully surprised one and all by appearing at the festive scene. True, he did not join in the merrymaking but it was enough that he had appeared. Perhaps a crack was beginning in his armor! This was made more apparent when his quick-searching eyes caught sight of Rosa Ringbuck, daughter of the Indian Chief's brother. Here his eyes lingered appraisingly and if one could hear his thoughts they might possibly have been, "It's a lonely life and a cold one in that camp of mine with only dogs for company."

Rosa had just turned sixteen, but the Indian girl matures early and the thoughts of a woman were in her mind as she felt Cully's eyes upon her. She too had long been intrigued by this mysterious, silent not unhandsome man who was Cully. That he must be twenty five years older than she did not matter, for indeed her thoughts were only flirtatious ones. How awed would be her people if strange Jess Cully were to dance attention upon her! How jealous would be Manuel Vitallenny, who even now had noticed the white man's gaze upon her, and was glowering darkly.

Rosa sighed. Manuel was so handsome and dear. Unfortunately though, he was lazy. He had been courting her for the past year but even yet had made no effort to begin making a home for a wife. Her father would never let them marry until Manuel proved himself a man — a man who could provide a good living and a house for a wife and the children that would be sure to come.

When Rosa next looked through her long, black eyelashes to the spot where Cully had stood, he had disappeared.

• • • •

It was three weeks later that Rosa saw Cully again. He had returned to the Fort ostensibly to purchase his new books and other supplies, but upon leaving the trading post he left his goods on the shore by his canoe and then made his way into the Indian village. He evidently knew the curiosity of the natives for he walked past their dwellings several times and finally caught sight of Rosa's large velvety-brown eyes regarding him shyly from the window of one of the cabins. He beckoned to her to come and she did so slowly, her eyes conscientiously studying the ground as she came.

"Understand English?" he grunted at her. She nodded, still not looking at him.

"Where is your father — your pa?" he asked, and she jerked her head indicating the cabin behind her. Without another word he brushed past her and into the door.

An hour or so later word made the rounds of the settlement that Jess Cully had "bought" Rosa.

Jim Ringbuck had been tempted when the strange white man had walked into the cabin and told him, "I have built a fine log house with many provisions for a wife and family. I'm a good trapper. I want your daughter for my wife."

Jim Ringbuck looked at the trapper calmly saying nothing, knowing that Cully would offer him a gift.

"Maybe you need some money to make wedding arrangements" said Cully. "Say — one hundred dollars."

Still Jim Ringbuck remained silent and Cully, understanding, turned to go.

"Two hundred dollar, two warm blanket, much food from store," intoned Jim.

Cully stopped, not turning and stood a moment as if thinking. Then he nodded curtly and went out. At the store he bought two colorful blankets and groceries amounting to twenty dollars. These he took to Ringbuck's cabin and dumped them unceremoniously in the doorway. From inside the cabin he could hear sounds of wailing but disregarding them he stated to Jim Ringbuck "Here is part of my gift to you. I will be back inside of a week with the money. See the priest and make ready for the marriage. No crowds and no celebration, understand that." After this cursory speech he again departed.

In the cabin Rosa wept. To her father she cried, "It is Manuel I want — Manuel I love. Of this strange Cully I am afraid!" But Jim Ringbuck was unheeding: he was dreaming of the fine things he could buy with his two hundred dollars.

Rosa's wedding had not been festive and gay as weddings should be. Cully had indeed meant it when he had stated to Jim Ringbuck "no crowd and no celebration." These had not been merely the words of a nervous bridegroom-to-be as they had thought.

On the day of the wedding the people had gathered and Cully had found them waiting outside the church. They saw his anger in his eyes, in his tautened features. They saw the blood leave his face then they heard his fury pour forth in words both vehement and foul. They shrank before the vicious attack, then, as one body they turned and soon were running noiselessly back to their homes.

So, in the beautiful Roman Catholic church, with its lovely murals that had been painted by priests long ago, the colors still bright and undimmed by age, Rosa Ringbuck became Cully's wife. The familiar old church comforted her and she thought, "Surely God will help me. Surely He is with me."

Rosa had done with tears and she was stonily silent as she returned with this white stranger who was now her husband, to his lonely cabin in the wilds. She was surprised to see the camp that awaited her. Near the banks of the Mackenzie River, with a backdrop of thickly wooded hills, nestled a log cabin. Not large, but neatly and strongly built, it would be warm and comfortable. Inside were many furs stretched and hanging, mute evidence of Cully's skill as a hunter and trapper. Still Rosa felt no comfort nor elation. In her heart she wished it were Manuel who had brought her here, Manuel whose house it was, Manuel who was her husband.

Summer Short Courses Will Be Held at V.S.A. During July

A very considerable number of short courses, conferences and other special events are to be held at the School of Agriculture through the period from the end of June to early August according to the following program:

June 28th — Women's Institutes Constituency Conference.

July 3rd — 4-H Girls' Clubs Competitions.

July 5th — V.S.A. Alumni Re-Union and Rose Ball.

July 7th — District 4-H Clubs Rally.

July 8 to 13 — 4-H Club Winners' Short Course.

July 15 to 20 — 4-H Club Winners' Short Course.

July 22 to 27 — Boys' and Girls' Short Course and Fair Camp.

August 1st — Farm Women's Week.

Older boys and girls attending the 4-H short courses will comprise the largest group this summer. Three hundred clubs operating throughout Central Alberta each contribute a representative who has achieved the highest standing in the club project during the past year. The privilege of attending the short course with all expenses paid by the sponsoring organization comprises the award for this achievement.

Originally only one club short course was held each summer, then as the number of clubs increased beyond the accommodation available at one of the Schools of Agriculture, additional courses were established. This summer one session will be held at Olds, another at Fairview, and two at Vermilion. The program is organized by the headquarters staff on Junior activities and conducted with the assistance of staff members of the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Rural residents in the general vicinity of Vermilion are always specially interested in the Boys' and Girls' short course associated with the summer fair. Every farm family should take advantage of this opportunity offered to their young people for a grand holiday, association with others of their own age and worthwhile instruction in a variety of subjects relating to their own interests.

Farm Women's Week has carried on each summer since 1930 and attracts attendance from a wide area in this part of the province. The major enrollment for the program generally consists of ladies who wish to and can get away from duties at home for a bit of a holiday, a visit with others and an opportunity to participate in a program of lectures, discussions and demonstrations on topics of interest to women from farm homes.

A recent trend in attendance at Farm Women's Week is for ladies and groups of ladies — sometimes the entire membership of a Women's club, Women's Institutes or other organization, to attend selected sessions of the program. The only charge made is for meals and room accommodation when provided.

The program is planned and conducted by the Women's Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture together with the staff at the School of Agriculture. Details of the itemized program are available from any District Home Economist or from the School of Agriculture.

Friday will see the 1956-57 school terms pass into history. Many high school students have been free all this week, while grade 12 have been toiling at writing examinations. They are completed this Thursday afternoon in Vermilion.

Pupils in grades 1 to 8 are free early this Friday afternoon.

4,000 to 5,000 People at Beach On Sunday

A lovely warm day, the inviting beach, fishing, boating, the Princess Pats Band from Calgary, the Wheat Pool picnic — all combined to bring a record breaking crowd to the beach on Sunday. A check was made at each entrance and this showed that just a few short of 1,000 cars were in the park.

Facilities at the park were never better, and the band concert, arranged by the Vermilion Rotary Club, was hugely enjoyed.

7-pound Jackfish Caught, Park Lake

The fish are really growing up in the Vermilion park lake, as Charlie Young will verify. Charlie caught a 7 lb. jackfish which measured 31 inches long, on Wednesday morning just before noon. He was using a rod and reel with a home-made lure at the time of the big catch, and was fishing from the bank on the north side of the lake. The big fellow put up quite a battle before being hauled in.

Tom Smith had been fishing that spot and claimed that a huge jack had been on his hook twice, only to get away. Charlie said he would give it a try, picked a spot a little up the bank and the big fellow struck at the first cast.

Unusual Sight

A flight of eighteen geese, all honkers, flew low over the east end of Vermilion last Friday evening. They were in perfect V formation and were flying north. The sight of geese in flight in this area at this time of the year, hatching season, is very unusual.

Bill Payne, John Gordey and a number of other east end residents watched the flight and hoped that it meant geese in these parts come this hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

SHAW—BATUTE

A very pretty wedding took place at 5:30 Saturday afternoon June 22nd, 1907 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Millburn of Pacific Avenue when Miss Mary Harriet Batute of Wheatfields, Sask., was united in marriage to Mr. John Shaw of Wawanesa, Manitoba, by the Rev. C. E. McIntyre.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a cream net dress trimmed with champagne lace and tucking; while little Miss Ilene McCawley, who acted as flower girl, was prettily attired in a pale blue dress with cream trimmings. She carried the ring on a silver tray covered with flowers.

The happy couple left on Tuesday for Wawanesa where they intend to reside.

On June 22nd, 1957, the sequel to the above story took place in Vermilion [illegible] when Mr. and Mrs John Shaw surrounded by their four daughters and families, two of their three sons with their families and all ten of their grandchildren observed the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding chronicled above. In addition friends came from far and near to pay respects and express every good wish to a couple who had over those fifty years made many lasting friendships and built for themselves respect, esteem and affection wherever they are known.

John Shaw came from London England to Canada in 1903 and worked on a large farm at Wawanesa Manitoba. He was the only member of his family to make the move to this new land.

Miss Mary Harriet Batute came from Durham England in 1906, the whole family emigrating at that time to Canada to settle at Wheatfields Sask. Although their homes were widely separated John Shaw and Mary Batute met through mutual friends. A romance resulted and on June 22nd 1907 the young couple were married as recounted in the newspaper story reproduced above.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw lived for six months at Wawanesa then moved to Purdue Sask. to homestead. Here they lived until 1911 when the second move was made taking them to Unity Sask. where Mr. Shaw entered the service of an elevator company. In [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Shaw transferred to Islay where he was appointed agent for the Federal Grain, now absorbed by the Alberta Pacific. Besides operating the elevator the family again became interested in farming and acquired land just one mile east of the village. Here a fine home was built up and the family lived there from [illegible]. In 1946 Mr. Shaw retired from grain buying and farming, and moved to Vermilion where he and Mrs. Shaw have a new comfortable home and where they have since resided.

The reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw held at the St. Saviour's parish hall on Saturday afternoon was arranged by the members of the family, the daughters and their husbands and families, the sons and their wives and children. All four daughters and two of their three sons were able to attend, along with all ten of their grandchildren. Besides this, other relatives from distant points and many old friends from Edmonton and North Battleford came for the anniversary, thus making it a most joyful occasion amounting to a real re-union of old friends and old timers.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have four daughters, Mrs. Hilda Bell, Mrs. Lillian Teskey, Mrs. Gordon Gould of Islay and Mrs. Edith Boolsman of Edmonton, all of whom were present and arranged the reception; three sons, Bill of Islay, Fred and Ken of Edmonton, Fred not being able to attend.

Others who came some distances to attend were Mrs. Joe Wilkinson, sister of Mrs. Shaw, and her son Robert from Purdue Sask.; Mr. George Rainey, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Shaw, from Purdue Sask.; Mrs. Jack Bristow, Edmonton; Mrs. Al Beecroft, Edmonton; Mrs. E. Maire, Edmonton; Miss Joyce Papworth, Edmonton; Mrs. John McDonald, North Battleford.

A family gathering took place in the parish hall preceding the open reception when photos were taken and the family presented their mother and father with engraved gold wrist watches. Congratulatory messages were received from Mr. and Mrs. Shaw's daughter-in-law's parents from England, from His Honor Lieutenant-Governor J. J. Bowlen of Alberta, Premier Manning of Alberta and James A. Smith, M.P. for Battle River-Camrose.

The messages, gifts and cards made a most pleasing display in the hall. During the open reception [illegible] signed the guest book.

BROTHER, SISTER MEET AFTER FORTY YEARS

Mrs. [illegible] of Cochrane, Ontario is visiting her brother [illegible] in Vermilion for two weeks. This is the first occasion since 1917 that brother and sister have seen each other. This week Mrs. [illegible] and Mr. [illegible] are visiting another brother who is a patient in the [illegible] hospital in Edmonton, the first time the three have been all together since 1913.

Swim Lessons To Start July 2

Early registration for swim lessons was requested two weeks ago; to date there are five local registrations and 30 district registrations.

Classes are no longer arranged according to age alone. How well a person swims is the main factor. Registration prior to lesson time is required to get you into a group of your own calibre. The time table is filling up with district swimmers. This year one new group has been added from Fabyan and very likely Kitscoty, Dewberry, Mannville, Buffalo Coulee will want instructional time. Our instructional staff has increased to four but at the same time we are expecting 400 to 500 swimmers, so don't miss out due to late registration. [illegible] NOW, register at the Town Hall or at the lake front office.

Each year the numbers of people who come to enjoy the lake front and the program staged there [illegible] last Sunday must have topped them all. With this increase comes very minor adjustments which require your cooperation. These are:

1. DOGS ON THE BEACH, pier and bathing area. We ask you not to let pets run loose in this area. It's simply against beach rules of better standards.

2. SMOKING on the PIERS is dangerous to spectators crowding and to swimmers in or out of the water.

3. POP BOTTLES, DIVING MASKS and rubber tires must be kept out of the swimming area. Broken glass can be very dangerous. Rubber inner tubes are dangerous to those using them. [illegible] lifeguards. The lifeguards [illegible] guard all bathers [illegible] otherwise.

GUARDS ON DUTY

Life guards will be on duty the following hours:

Monday through Saturday [illegible] to 12:00 noon, 1:30 p.m. to [illegible] p.m.

Sundays 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

REMEMBER TO REGISTER TODAY — Lessons start on the 2nd of July.

Street Parade Will Be Feature Of Vermilion's 1957 Fair

Plans for the annual Exhibition which is scheduled for July 25th, 26th and 27th, are well advanced and already indications are that entries will be somewhat higher than for some time past. Some of Western Canada's finest herds will be on display and the light horse show promises to be the best ever as Calgary, Edmonton and other horses are slated to take part in the fine show that has been developed at Vermilion in recent years.

The grand-stand attractions programme is to be provided by the well known Irving Grossman Booking Offices at Des Moines, Iowa, and afternoon and evening shows will be different and most entertaining. The Grossman office has supplied attractions on numerous occasions in past years and they have always been of the highest quality with an appeal to all ages.

PARADE A FEATURE.

A strong committee of the Society, working in conjunction with an equally well set up committee from the Board of Trade is seeking the co-operation of all business and service groups in Vermilion and surrounding areas, while communities and groups are cordially invited to take part. An endeavor is being made to secure some of the huge inflated rubber animals on parade, especially for the benefit of the district youngsters, and several floats are already under construction, indicating keen interest in this annual event.

Cash awards will be offered and special attention will be paid to decorated bikes, ponies etc. Further announcement will be made in the succeeding issues of the Standard and meanwhile all organized groups and individuals in the area are urged to get behind the Vermilion Fair Parade and make it outstanding in 1957.

PRIZE LISTS AVAILABLE.

Prize lists for livestock, farm products, ladies and childrens' exhibits are now available at the office of the Secretary Manager, S. C. Heckbert and may be secured by calling at the office or will be mailed on request.

Monday, July 1st National Holiday

Monday, July 1st is Dominion Day, and a National holiday. This year marks the 90th observance of Confederation. All stores and business places in Vermilion will be closed all day.

North Battleford Band At Park On Sunday, July 7

News that will be heralded with delight is that once again people of Vermilion and district will have the opportunity to hear and to see the North Battleford Kinsmen band. Since playing here last year they have won many top honors and apparently are better than ever—if that is possible.

It will be recalled that as well as rendering the wonderful concert from the band shell, the band members gave an exhibition of precision marching that was a marvel to behold.

Many citizens have asked that if ever the opportunity presented, the North Battleford Kinsmen band be brought back to Vermilion, and the Rotary club is thus overjoyed to announce that the band will be here on Sunday, July 7th when on their way to play in the Calgary Stampede parade where they won first prize one year ago.

Full details as to time will appear next issue.

F. W. U. A. Hold Successful Meet

The eighth annual F. W. U. A. conference for District No. 7 was held in the Vermilion School of Agriculture on June 22nd.

Resolutions were dealt with for the coming F.U.A. convention to be held in Wainwright July 4th.

Mr. N. N. Bentley, in welcoming the delegates to the school asked that the younger generation be not discouraged from farming and agriculture.

A very interesting talk was given by Dr. W. W. Wright of the Cancer clinic. Mr. M. D. Fleming, Field Supervisor for the Alberta Wheat Pool, showed a very interesting film on Australia.

A lawn supper was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Rita Finlay of Lloydminster was elected by acclamation as director for District No. 7 and Mrs. Paul Balle by acclamation for Edgerton.

Next year's pre-conference will be held in Dewberry some time in May and the conference will take place in June at Marwayne.

Cubs and Scouts Annual Supper

The Cub and Scouts Association held their annual pot luck supper in the Elks hall Thursday June 13th. A good number of boys turned out with fathers in tow.

After a meal fit for the "Queen's Own" the various reports were given.

Mr. Chas. Heckbert reported on the progress of the addition to the Scout hall, followed by Mr. Gordon Rose who gave a very interesting talk on Scouting and of the World Jamboree which takes place this year. These two men have given freely of their time in carrying on with the Scout troop in the absence of a scoutmaster.

The two Cub leaders, Mrs. Edna Bottorff and Mrs. Blanche Christenson, told of the various Cub activities during the past year. These included hikes, the building of bird houses, presenting of May baskets to elderly citizens and taking the necessary tests for their badges. Moe Lex Hough reported for Mr. Vic Jensen's pack.

An active year both in Cubs and Scouts is looked forward to next fall.

Special Music At Alliance Chapel

The Singing Family of Regina, the Kincheloe Children's Quartette and their father, the Rev. R. M. Kincheloe M.A., preacher and Bible teacher, will present a program of gospel music and message at the Alliance Chapel, Sunday, June 30th at 11:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The program will feature quartettes, trios, duets and solos by the children and a chalk drawing by the eldest daughter.

The Kincheloe family comes from the Canadian Bible College of Regina, where Mr. Kincheloe is instructor in Bible, Greek and public speaking. The children, Eloise 14, David 13, Jonathan 11 and Carol 10, have been singing the gospel to church audiences in the United States and Canada since the youngest was four years of age. Their father trains them and accompanies them on the piano.

Their two months' musical tour which brings them to Vermilion will cover 6000 miles through north-western Canada and the central and southern States. Besides singing and preaching in church services, the summer activities of the Singing Family include camp work, daily vacation Bible school programming, children's meetings and radio work.

Flies To Arctic On Fishing Trip

Herman Dargatz of Vermilion enjoyed the unique experience of flying 1,000 miles north on Sunday on a fishing trip. The destination was Sawmill Bay, just 50 miles this side of the Arctic Circle. The trip took six hours each way.

The circumstances leading to the trip are that the landing strip at Sawmill Bay is owned and operated by Eldorado Mines, located some 45 miles across the lake from them. Mr. Donald Gavel, Mr. Dargatz' son-in-law, looks after the landing strip there. He and Mrs. Gavel and their three children were making the return flight north from Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Dargatz and Larry were at the airport to see them off when the pilot of the plane invited Herman to come along. Landing at Sawmill Bay he did try fishing in a small open place in the bay, the north waters still being ice-bound.

THE OCCASION IS WORTHY OF FLAG WAVING

Business men and organizations are reminded to fly their flags in observance of Dominion Day, Monday July 1st. This year it so happens that it will be Canada's 90th birthday. People all over the world look with respect, and oft times with envy upon living conditions on this North American continent. Life here is not the frugal, often barren, existence it is in so many other countries. We take for granted an ease of living and many other things that are beyond the day-dreams of people elsewhere. Canada's birthday is therefore an occasion for flag waving, so let the flags float proudly atop every one of our buildings on Monday, July 1st.

HIGHWAY DANGER

"The race to a holiday spot will be the last drive for many Canadians this Dominion Day week-end" warned safety officials today. Paul Lawrence Safety director of the Alberta Safety Council said that extra heavy holiday traffic could travel safely if drivers realize that a little patience will be required. "Slow drivers", he said, "should try to travel when traffic is lightest and do their best to give plenty of [illegible] room when required. On the other hand, normal speed drivers should be quick to recognize a slow vehicle and realize that an inexperienced driver or a car in trouble should be given a wide berth and only passed on a straightaway with plenty of visible road ahead.

Unsafe Drivers To Be Expected

Safety experts say that ordinary observance of safety rules is not enough for holiday driving. Extra alertness is needed to be ready to deal with smart alecs who always appear in surprising numbers on beach roads. The safe driver should keep a constant watch on cars at least a quarter of a mile ahead and maintain a safe following distance of a car length for each ten miles per hour of speed. If this is done he will avoid emergency stops and reduce the danger of [illegible] front end and rear end collisions. The safest speed on a crowded highway is the same speed as the rest of the cars. Impatience almost invariably leads to unsafe passing and other dangerous moves.

Death Free Holiday Hoped For

Mr. Lawrence said that no "guess" would be made as to the number of traffic deaths in the Province on the week end. "High-speeds," he said, "have led to accidents which may cause several deaths in one car and this makes any forecast on a Province wide scale impossible. Alberta's death toll for holiday week ends is often light compared to other Provinces and of course we always hope for a clean slate."

ONE LAW - THE LAW OF "COMMON SENSE" —

Evidently the very excellent set of rules and regulations set up by the provincial government last year cannot be enforced. The reason being that, although they do nothing in this regard, a federal department has jurisdiction over marine craft of all types.

As a result, small craft are [illegible] making nuisances and menaces of themselves on the Vermilion Park lake and no doubt many other places too. One thoughtless person in an outboard motorboat can make a complete day miserable - both for all those who enjoy boating with common sense, and for the dozens of swimmers who must constantly be on guard against darting boats and water skiers being whipped about in their midst.

In the case of the Vermilion Park lake there are just two swimming areas, the new beach on the south side and the old original "swimming hole" on the north side. A great deal of money and labor has gone into constructing excellent piers for the use of boating enthusiasts, but there are always the few who insist in launching and beaching their craft where swimming is taking place. In most cases complete disregard of those swimming is evident — in other words a "watch out, here I come" attitude is adopted.

Being a Provincial Park, under a Parks Board, perhaps it would be possible to draft up and enforce local regulations covering the situation here.

In the meantime, to those who boat there is just one law — the law of "COMMON SENSE".

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Field Day

For those of you living in the Metiskow area, a field day will be held at the Experimental Farm Substation there on July 10th. The program will include a tour of illustration plots, films for the children. The afternoon will include items of particular interest for the men, and for the ladies I will be giving a talk on "Preserve by Freezing". If you have any freezing problems, I hope you'll come prepared to ask about them.

[illegible] Drinks For Children

If you have young children to keep cool all summer, you will probably use many of the fruit drinks in powdered or syrup form. If you would like to have a variety of flavors ready for use, here's a [illegible] way to do it.

Mix the powder and sugar in a syrup jug and add water. Mix well to dissolve the sugar. Then when the kiddies cry for a drink, just put a small amount in a glass, add the cold and ice. You'll have to experiment to find out how much syrup to add. Mix several flavors at the same time and everyone can drink their favorite.

If the kiddies get tired of the same flavors, try a little variety by mixing flavors, lemon and lime, orange and strawberry are delicious combinations.

You can also freeze some of the mixed drink, then serve to the kiddies as ice cubes or popsicles. Sucker sticks or wooden spoons make handles for them.

Tip For The Week:

Take along a box of thumb tacks and push one into centre of each paper plate. They can't [illegible] away from the picnic [illegible]. [illegible] clean cloths, adhesive tape and bandages in a plastic bag in the glove compartment of your car.

"GREEN ACRES"

ONTARIO FARM WORKERS

Four young men in this district have been sent to Ontario on the harvest excursion. The cost is $10.00 for the ticket to Toronto and $20.00 to return. From Toronto the men are sent to farms. They must return to Alberta by August 15th to be here for our harvest. Tickets are available from this office.

MALATHION KILLS INSECTS

Malathion kills every kind of insect found in this district. On some of the bottles I noted that the dose was for barn sprays only. For gardens a much smaller dose is needed. For grubs and caterpillars use one teaspoon of 50% Malathion to a gallon of water. For plant lice or spider mites up to 2 teaspoons per gallon can be used.

ALEX LETTS PROMOTED

Assistant District Agriculturist Alex Letts has been appointed to be D. A. at Two Hills. Alex was very efficient and hard [illegible]. I shall certainly miss him and I think the many friends he made in this district will miss him too. We offer Alex and Peggy and family our good wishes on their removal to Two Hills.

FARM CAMPS

Farm boys' and girls' camps are arranged as follows: Lloydminster Fair, July 18th to 20th, Vermilion Fair, July 22nd to 27th. (applications for girls are filled at Vermilion.) About 100 only are accepted at each camp. Don't leave it too long. Get an application form from this office. I fully recommend these camps as good outings and good experiences. By the way there has not been as many boys and girls from Alberta at the Lloydminster camp as from Saskatchewan. What are you going to do about it?

BLACK AGAIN

I heard of one farmer who lost nine calves from Blackleg. No one should take chances with this disease. Vaccinate from 3 to 6 months of age. Don't forget that you cannot save stock after they get Blackleg unless you can give them quick doses of antibiotics. Use the double purpose vaccine for both black leg and Malignant Edema.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES

If this dry weather continues there may be a big shortage of hay this fall. It is not too late to seed oats for green feed. This district is greatly over stocked for a dry year.

Health Unit Notes

DISEASES CAUSED BY RATS

Rats are steadily invading Alberta and as people generally seem to be unaware of the extent of the damage to property and disease that they are responsible for there is set out below a list of diseases associated with rats.

WEILS DISEASE

This is primarily a disease of rats and in some cases up to half the rat population may be infected. The germ which causes the disease is excreted in the rat's urine and can gain entry to the human body in two ways. (1) The germ is excreted into water and if anyone comes into contact with this water the germ can enter his body through minute breaks in the skin. (2) Food may be contaminated with rat urine and if this food is [illegible] the germ enters the blood [illegible] from the stomach. Weils [illegible] is characterized by fever, [illegible] malaise, kidney symptoms and usually jaundice often four or five days. The disease causes an absence from work of six weeks and in some cases has been fatal.

TRICHINIASIS

This is caused by a worm and the spread of infection is from rat to hog and from hog to man. The hogs eat dead rats which are infected and the worms grow in the hogs muscles. Anyone eating this hog meat inadequately cooked will be infected with the worms. The symptoms include loss of appetite, abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea and after two weeks severe muscular pain. The disease runs a course of several weeks.

TYPHUS FEVER AND MURINE TYPHUS

This disease is transmitted from rats to humans by a flea. Symptoms include high fever, headache, pain behind the eyes, dizziness, noises in the ears, cough, and pains in the [illegible]. The patient is mentally confused and excitable and a course red rash appears after about four or five days. Possible complications include cerebral hemorrhage, otitis, neuritis, nerve deafness, gangrene of feet or hands, parotitis, and arthritis. The disease runs a course of twenty days and the patient is convalescent for many years after this.

RELAPSING FEVER

There is a sudden onset of fever, weakness, abdominal pain and vomiting. This lasts for four or five days, then a fine rash appears and the patient begins to feel better. After a few days a relapse occurs and the sequence of events is repeated. This continues for two or three months and then the relapses get less frequent and less severe. This means the total course of the disease lasts for several months. It is transmitted from rats to man by ticks and fleas.

BUBONIC PLAGUE

This is spread from rat to man by the rat flea. There is a sudden onset of headache, backache, high fever, and complete collapse in a few days. extreme enlargement of the glands all over the body occurs and they are painful and tender. Delirium and convulsions sometimes occur and seventy per cent of all cases are fatal.

RAT BITE FEVER

This is due to an actual bite of the rat. The wound heals and then after one to three weeks shows signs of irritation. This is accompanied by fever of an undulating type. It is common in children who are likely to be bitten by a rat while sleeping. There have been several cases of extreme mutilation of a sleeping child by a rat.

FOOD POISONING

The rat carries the [illegible] in its digestive system and food stuffs may be [illegible] by the rats urine [illegible]. The patient has crampy abdominal pain, vomiting and diarrhoea, a dirty tongue and an extreme feeling of weakness. The illness lasts for several days [illegible] to the severity of the [illegible].

All these diseases can be prevented by only one method: preventing the rats from getting established.

Meet Pepi-Jane at Vermilion Fair

Star of the Monkey Circus with World's Finest Shows, at Vermilion Fair July 25, 26, 27, is the [illegible] and loveable 16 month old chimpanzee pictured above, Pepi-Jane. The personification of a real "ham" actor, Pepi-Jane is a recent arrival to Beatrice and Harry Fee's Monkey Circus, where she was introduced immediately to some thirty South American monkeys, most of them seasoned performers. Needless to say the new arrival from Africa proceeded post haste to 'steal the show' from the other and now former stars. Not only did she win the hearts of every customer but she has now become the official mascot of the entire World's Finest Shows organization.

The Monkey Circus is a 'must' for all children visiting the gigantic midway of the World's Finest Shows, and will be a real treat for the adults too. The midway this year features more than forty thrilling rides and amazing shows, and stresses as usual an even larger Kiddieland than ever before, with fifteen wonderful rides for the kiddies alone. 30tf

BUFFALO COULEE ACTIVITIES

Seems to be so many things on that it is hard to find enough days in the week.

At a recent meeting of the Auburndal W.M.S. held at the home of Mrs. John Eyben the C.G.I.T. girls came after school and held an Affiliation service with the W. M. S. Several of the girls and their leaders took part in the ceremony and each of the eleven girls was given her Affiliation Badge by Mrs. Geo Eyben, the W.M.S. President. A donation of fifteen dollars was given by the C.G.I.T. girls to the W.M.S. for the carrying on of the Missionary Society work in S. E. Asia. The president reported that they packed three towel kits for Korea and made quite a number of nylon foam articles and home made candy to sell at the bazaar. Most of the mothers of the girls and Mrs. Bill Arthur and Mrs. Alf Green who had taught the handicraft were in attendance. A social hour and lunch followed.

The Heatherbell W. A. group held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Duncan. The July meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. Woodruff.

The Pony League basball team of B. C. are still continuing their winning ways having won their last Friday game at Wainwright and the one at the picnic last Friday. At Wainwright the Little Leaguers were on the short end of the score but got revenge at the picnic by defeating Wainwright. On Saturday last the Little Leaguers of B. C. enjoyed a show, and a weiner roast at the Vermilion Park as guests of the Vermilion Little League.

The Annual Church bazaar and picnic held at the Community Centre last Friday Farmers' Day was a decided success. Being a holiday it started at 2:30 and a full program of ball games and races was run off.

The Preston girls soft ball team defeated the B.C. girls but the boys Little League won from Preston and went on to defeat Wainwright in the evening. The Pony League went down before the Senior boys but came back to take the measure of Wainwright in a good game after supper.

The sale of work and home cooking took place at 4:30 with most things being sold in a very short time, including the articles and home-made candy made by the C.G.I.T.

The large crowd did full justice to the supper provided and also the ice cream booth. It was mentioned by several that we should keep Farmers' Day for this annual event.

The central meeting of the Auburndale W. A. is being held this Wednesday at the church and business of the bazaar will be [illegible] and a report given of Presbytery held in Vermilion in May. The Battleview group will provide lunch.

The B. C. Curling Club held their annual meeting on June 10 and decided to again hold their annual picnic at the Community Centre on June 28.

The Students' Union final party in the form of a weiner roast had to be cancelled owing to it being such a cold night.

The final meeting of the C.G.I.T. for this season is to be held outdoors at the Park this Tuesday evening with a campfire for toasting hot dogs and marshmal[illegible].

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Green took their daughter Barbara back to the city on Thursday. Barbara had been on two weeks holidays from the University hospital.

We think you have done a wonderful job with your pupils. Those taking part in the recital from Claysmore were Linda Willes and Betty Willes from Stellaville. Doug Livingstone. Doug should also be congratulated on the wonderful job he made as MC for the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Olstad and family attended the Alberta Wheat Pool picnic in Vermilion on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Horne and family were dinner guests at the Bill Woywitka home on Sunday.

Mrs. Ernie Larcombe and family and Mr. Bill Hartner spent Sunday in Edmonton and Lakeview. Ernie was playing ball at Derwent.

Jack and Don Willes and Tim Nelson spent the week end at Long Lake doing a bit of fishing. Mosquitoes of the Long Lake variety really like the taste of Vermilion blood and the boys spent most of Saturday night doing battle with the pests, however, they managed to catch [illegible].

Mr. M. O. Burnett and daughter Marilyn of Kamloops B. C. were week end visitors at the Bob McMillan home. It was a lovely surprise for Mrs. McMillan as she didn't know they were coming. All attended the band concert at Vermilion park Sunday. Mr. Burnett is Mrs. McMillan's brother.

Mannville Musicians Please With Enjoyable Piano Recital

MANNVILLE — On Saturday, June 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium, the pupils of Miss Donna McCauley presented their annual piano recital, which proved to be a most entertaining evening. Each pupil announced the name and composer of selections himself. Miss McCauley is to be congratulated on achieving in most pupils, noticeable smoothness and rhythm of movement in their playing. The never-to-be-forgotten story of Cinderella — musically depicted and told — was most refreshing, and well read by the story teller, Judy Gerhart. Those taking part in same were Heather Morrison, Carol Rostron, Sandra Lynch, Joanne Evans, Mavis McCauley, John Evans, Kevin Manz, Linda Willes, George Pheasey and Judy Gerhart. During the recital, Douglas Livingstone made an admirable master of ceremonies, his wit and humor appearing at all times. He also proved himself a capable pianist in his duet with Miss McCauley. A brother and sister duet also appeared in the program, by Miss Helen Pheasey and brother George, very much enjoyed.

Entertainment between numbers was offered by Bonnie Proudfoot vocal solo, "Bimbo" (that little black boy), accompanied by her sister, Betty. Brian Scoggins, chosing a popular selection, gave a pleasing rendition of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" in a vocal solo. Miss Sharon Polishak proved her versatility when she offered as her vocal selection "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows." If she continues to sing as she does, there will be no need for her to chase after them. Frank McCauley (a perfect little Irishman) sang an Irish song and thoroughly captured the audience's hearts. Lorraine Younge also joins the list of versatile performers for her very fine rendition of two violin solos.

NEWS from ISLAY

Rev. C. W. MacKay gave his farewell sermon in Islay United church Sunday evening. Next Sunday June 30th Mr. E. Schurman will conduct service at 7:30 p.m. Then in July Rev. Mr. Shortt newly appointed minister for this field will hold service at 11 a.m.

A very pleasant social hour was spent Sunday evening after service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. MacKay. A hand carved leather wallet, initialled, and made by Mrs. Neil McLennan, was presented to Mr. MacKay and from the W.A., a cup and saucer to Mrs. MacKay. The Islay congregation were most grateful to Mr. and Mrs. MacKay for coming to our church when in need.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone of Edmonton were visitors for the week end at the home of Muriel and Gladys Stone. Mr. and Mrs. Stone are leaving soon to spend several months in California.

Mrs. Beecroft called on Islay friends last week end having come from the city to attend the Golden Wedding celebration in Vermilion of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw.

A number of Islay neighbors attended the Shaw Golden Wedding. It was a most delightful afternoon. So many of the old friends attending, even from as far as North Battleford, Mrs. Jock McDonald, who also attended their 25th wedding here on the farm. Mrs. Shaw's relatives were present from Perdue, Sask.

Hope to see everyone at the strawberry social Friday, June 28th at 7 p.m.

Omer Easton and Dave Hanna had a nice visit at Kitscoty on Monday and stopped in Islay on the way back while Omer had some small repair job done on his car.

Just what a number of us have been hoping could be done — a wing added to our hospital to care for the chronic cases — was discussed at the annual hospital meeting on the 20th.

The Cubs and two leaders went on a picnic and fishing trip to the Vermilion River last Thursday evening. They caught some fish too! The biggest one hauled out was Randy Jarvis who fell in. Good thing Walter took his wading boots. The boys all reported a good time.

Sympathy of the community goes to one of our teachers, Mrs. Wilson, who received word of the death of her mother in Edmonton on Monday. Mrs. Wilson left at once, and Mrs. Helen McCaughan has taken over the class room.

Boy Scout Investiture Held At Buffalo Coulee

A most impressive ceremony was held around a campfire on the top of Elward's hill when fourteen boys and their families gathered on Monday night for the Boy Scout Investiture. It was a beautiful night and everyone admired the view for miles around.

The boys were called to attention by B. C. Scout Leader Hennig Haverslew and the campfire officially opened with a poem by Assist. Scout Commissioner Harold Harvey of Camp Wainwright. After the salute to the flag, nine boys, one by one, took the pledge to become a Boy Scout, from their leader and received the Tenderfoot Badge from their assistant leader, George Spak. The nine boys were Rex Cunningham, Barry and Lyle Gabrielson, Ronnie Kennedy, Robert and Doug Cameron, Walter Cooper, Roddy Haverslew and Roy McInnis.

Scouter Harvey then invested Colin Kennedy, Vernon Smith, Grant Haverslew, Donald Stone and Keith Marfleet with their second class badges, following which he gave a very interesting talk on Scouting.

Wolf Patrol put on a short skit and the Gild Goose Patrol gave a demonstration of artificial respiration. Everyone joined in a short sing-song with Henry Eyben playing piano-accordion.

As at all camp-fires, tales must be told. Scouter Herb Breithaup, student minister, very effectively told the story of David and Goliath in the form of the old negro spiritual. Using the story of a boy filling a basket at a grocery store, Scouter Geo. Spak showed the boys how they could fill their lives with useful and profitable work.

Scout Leader Hennig Haverslew concluded the story telling by a very fine legend of an Indian medicine man and a young brave. This was very well told and brought out the facts that the boys should respect the experience of older people and learn from them, and that they should fight jealousy whenever it arose. In conclusion, he said to the boys as the medicine man said to the young brave, "The rest is up to you." They were given their start in Scouts — from here on it was up to them to do their best.

Judging by the attentive faces in the glow of the dying campfire these stories will long be remembered by all who heard them.

After the ten Scout Laws came echoing up over the hill, in the gathering darkness Scouter Harvey closed the camp-fire.

After a lunch provided by the Scout mothers, all went home feeling that it had been a most rewarding experience.

WILDMERE WINKS

Wildmere W.A. held the June meeting at the Preston Central school on Wednesday evening with a small attendance. Owing to Mrs. R. Dibben being absent Mrs. A. Smith acted as the secretary. Scripture reading was the second chapter of Matthew. A bee is to be held next Monday June 24th to paint the inside of the church. Any help will be greatly appreciated. The writer is to see about hymn books and collection plate in memory of Mrs. Riley and Aubrey Rendell. Mrs. Westman had the devotional "Word of God which is the Light of Life", a very good paper. While lunch was being prepared, Mrs. Holte and Mrs. Cruthers favored us with a couple of duets and Mr. Breighaut gave some piano selections.

Our next meeting will be held Tuesday, July 9th. Mrs. Westman and Mrs. R. Dibben are on the lunch committee. Mrs. A. Smith has the devotional.

Quite a number from our way attended the Auburndale church bazaar and picnic held at the community centre. Ball games and races were enjoyed. It was nice to see the two fellows playing ball, they are certainly interested in it. Some nice work was displayed in the bazaar and C.G.I.T. and the cooking looked very tempting too. Booths supplied all your needs. The ladies provided a very good supper.

We were pleased to see Mrs. Webster among us at church on Sunday evening. Mr. Breighaupt gave an uplifting sermon on how Jesus will help us if we will only let Him enter our hearts and go to Him in prayer. Next Sunday church is at 7:30. Plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cruthers and Murray of Minburn visited at the Cruthers' home in Wildmere on Sunday. Billie Cruthers went back with them for a few days visit with his nephew Murray. George and Lily plan to move back to Vermilion in the very near future. George will work for Checker Transport.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts and little grandson Dana, recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Hunt, at the Anglican School at Frog Lake, were interestingly entertained. This was by a fawn which Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were raising, it having been brought to them by the Indians who had found it on the reserve. The fawn was well house trained and good company for Dana. On being led outside the fawn was very co-operative, being quite photogenic, and some snaps and movies were taken. Most of these photos included Dana, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Willmer, who was able to stroke and fondle the animal for a long time. Plans are to have the fawn placed in one of the parks later, but at present it favors the generous bottle feedings that are supplied by the Hunt's and takes to its surroundings easily as is the case with most young animals.

Lawn Supper At W. Cross Farm

Good weather and pleasant surroundings combined to contribute to the success of the lawn supper sponsored by the Graduate Nurses' Association on Sunday of this week. Approximately ninety guests enjoyed an excellent picnic supper on the attractive lawn of the Bill Cross farmstead. Mr. and Mrs. Cross, as host and hostess, welcomed their guests from the town of Vermilion and the nearby districts. The picnic was served buffet style with every one urged to partake of the supper in smorgasbord manner and many did enjoy the opportunity of "refills." The tables were set out on the lawn, giving the picnickers the advantage of the very excellent view obtainable at that point.

Mrs. Manson Barr and her committee of Mrs. Walter Coulter and Mrs. Jack Tucker were in charge of arrangements, with the help of the membership of the Graduate Nurses' Assoc'n.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

A few week ends spent vacation - scouting now will help you find a new site, avoid false starts and insure more pleasure for your big vacation this summer. Here's how the scouting can be done:

First, decide what kind of vacation you'd like to try - beach, golfing, camping, fishing, mountain climbing, resort loafing, etc.

Second, get a road map from your service station dealer and circle the area where vacations you want to consider can be found.

Third, go scouting.

If everyone in the family agrees on a general goal, plan a week-end trip and scout a promising area for the site you want. If there's no general agreement, plan two or three week-end tours and check several places.

Each scouting trip is a little vacation in itself — but with a special, fact-finding purpose. Be sure the trip yields the information you want. Try local restaurants. Talk to people. Find out all you can about each spot you consider. When you've gathered facts — and impressions — make your big decision.

Part of your choice will be determined by the accommodations you find. It's a good idea to make reservations as soon as you pick a site.

A vacation scouting week end is a little investment in time — and pleasure — that will earn big dividends in an enjoyable and refreshingly different vacation later on.

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The Wildmere W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Ray Osterburg with thirteen members and two visitors. Mrs. Ford and Mrs. F Swan present. The meeting was opened with the singing of "O Canada", the Creed, and the roll call. The latter was answered by the most useful wedding gift received. Many and varied were the gifts mentioned.

The treasurer's report was read and the W.I.'s are to send $1 per member to help build the office for the F.W.I.C. at Ottawa. The Wildmere W.I. will make up the deficiency in the amount collected from the members. Mrs. [illegible] moved and Mrs. Haines seconded the motion that the report be adopted.

The visitors received a warm welcome from the president, Mrs. W. T Garnett.

Mrs. F. Haines reporting for the social service committee said that three birthday cards and 2 get-well cards had been sent and one sick call made.

A letter was read from Mrs. Artley, Health convener.

The constituency conference is being held June 28th. The members at large are not very well pleased with the date as it happens to be the last day of school with the natural desire to attend the picnic usually held with the closing of the schools. Thus only two felt that they could get away. Mrs. W. J Garnett is the delegate. Mrs A. Holte is the Handicraft convener instead of Mrs. Rendell who has left on her return to England.

Mrs. W. J Garnett presented Mrs. Rendell with an A.W.I. pin. All are sorry to see her leave here.

The project for July is a donation of 15 cents per member to send an Alberta delegate to Ottawa.

Mrs. Cruthers, delegate to the Biennial convention in Edmonton gave her report. There are some 5000 members and 350 branches in Alberta. Do you know that the Broder's canning plant at Lethbridge is the biggest plant of its kind in Canada? She reported that Mrs. Rogers spoke at the convention and that 234 out of 284 groups had donated to the Rheumatism and Arthritic fund. Mrs. Cruthers added a bit of humor which was greatly enjoyed by all present. 546 delegates registered, the largest number ever to attend an A.W.I. convention. Mrs. Cruthers ended her remarks by thanking the group for sending her.

Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. D Hughes. No social as Mrs. D Dibben was absent. Owing to Mrs. Rendell leaving and it being her meeting the July gathering will be held at the park in Vermilion with a pot luck supper. Roll call "How I preserve my peas". Topic — Mrs. Haines; social — Mrs. R. Dibben. Plan to attend and enjoy this outing at the lake on the afternoon of July 3rd.

The meeting closed with a good lunch and chat over the teacups.

Mrs. Holte, on behalf of the Wildmere United Church W.A. members, presented Mrs. Rendell with a group picture of our first W.A. meeting. All W. A. members signed the card along with the picture.

Mrs. J. Wallington,
Press Reporter, W.W.I.

Mannville Bride-Elect Honored

MANNVILLE. — Friends of Miss Eileen Arnold gathered recently at the United Church Parish Hall for a shower. The misses Edith Gedke and Berna Cotter favored the group with a vocal duet, "Walk Hand in Hand With Me", while the C.G.I.T. group made things merry with their rendition of "Old Claude Hinecker Had a Farm". Gifts were presented on behalf of Eileen's friends, by Miss Beryl Swain, cleverly enclosed in a miniature red barn. NEWS from ISLAY

Congratulations to Gerald Inman on passing pianoforte examination with honors, also his teacher, Mrs. Batty.

Congratulations too, to the efficiency winners of the 4-H Clubs here—Elaine Sweet of the sewing Club; Linda Redmond for garden club and Frances Kowalski for grain club and to the leaders, Mrs. Moncrieff and Mr. Bill McLean, who gave of their time. Mr. Bill King gives of his time every Thursday evening to the Cubs.

Quite a number from here attended the Dedication service of the United Church Manse of Vermilion. We were thrilled on going through, it is a lovely residence. Vermilion United Church folk may be justly proud.

Rev. Mr. Shortt has been appointed to the Islay-Kitscoty Marwayne-Dewberry field. Mr. Shortt wishes to conduct services in all four points each Sunday and will begin July 7. It is hoped to have the Induction Service Friday evening July 5 at Marwayne. The Boards of the four points met at Kitscoty Thursday, June 13. It was decided to begin at once to remodel the Kitscoty Manse—making a bath room, a bedroom and kitchen and the water system installed. Mr Shortt and family wish to move in beginning of July.

Mrs. Hilda Bell's house has had the outside redecorated a dark green roof, white sides with a lighter green frill and a lovely yellow door. Jim Carey's farm house also is redecorated they look so fresh.

Members of the W.A. please bring in the monogram quilt blocks to next meeting, July 4.

Mr and Mrs Roland Buchanan and boys have had a few days at Moose Jaw. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna are doing the chores while they are away.

The Pony League boys played the Dewberry boys Monday evening bringing home the cup.

Three fishermen, Walter McCaughan, Ed McFadyen and Ivan Inman brought home 15 fine salmon trout from Lac La Ronge, 300 miles north-east and into Saskatchewan. There is a built road now into that area, a Hudson Bay Store and a mission. It is becoming a resort, cars were there from afar, fishing is excellent.

The Pool elevator here will be torn down and a larger one built to commence at the end of the crop year. If all goes well one can be constructed in six weeks. It has been long needed as the present one has not a large enough capacity.

Ten ladies met at the church Tuesday afternoon and housecleaned after which Mrs. Sweet served tea. It really was the best ever, we really enjoyed it.

OBITUARY

MRS. SARA LILLIAN WILEY

Again we are called upon to report the death of a real pioneer of the Paradise Valley district in the person of Mrs. Sara Wiley who passed away in the Lloydminster hospital on June 5 after a long illness. Mrs. Wiley, the former Sara Stanbury, was born at Campbellford, Ont., on March 10th. 1870. She was married to William J Wiley in 1893 and lived in Toledo until coming west in 1907 with her family. They settled on their homestead south of town where Mrs. Wiley had resided ever since. Mr. Wiley died in 1931 and since that time Mrs. Wiley had made her home with her son Francis. She leaves one daughter Evelyn (Mrs James McLeod) of Winnipeg and one son Francis on the old homestead, two sisters Rebecca (Mrs Fred Kincaid) of Toronto and Mrs. B Southard of Toledo, two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral was held on June 8th from the United church to the Oxville cemetery. Rev. G Giffen conducted the service with W. J. Sirett at the organ. Pall bearers were Messrs. A Amundrud, John Fair, W Aitken, I S McLeod, Fred Sirett and W A Gunn. Moore's Funeral Home of Lloydminster was in charge.

We extend sincere sympathy to the family. It was our privilege to know Mrs. Wiley for fifty years and while she has taken no active part in the community during the past several years due to ill health in the early days she did her part in community life.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Mrs Wiley wish to thank all their friends and neighbors for kindness and help during their recent bereavement. A special thanks to the doctors and staff of Lloydminster hospital for care and attention given during her illness. Flowers, donations and messages of sympathy were all greatly appreciated.

Do not swim alone under any circumstances. Child and adult alike may panic when no help is near. tf

The movement started some time ago to form a friendship club among older people has apparently taken root and at a meeting held in George's Lower Deck this week definite plans were made to form such an organization. The name decided upon was the "Golden Age Club." Aims and objects will be the same as the friendship club in Edmonton.

Complete organization will be carried out at a meeting in the fall. Both men and ladies are eligible.

The committee to arrange the fall meeting is composed of the following: Mrs. [illegible], Mrs. M. Thompson, Mrs. [illegible], Mrs. Peter Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. [illegible], Mr. J. Miller.

Enjoy 6000-mile Trip By Rail and Car

A holiday trip covering some 6000 miles was enjoyed the latter part of May and early part of June by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts. The trip took them via C.N.R. to Toronto, then to Oshawa to take delivery of a Buick sedan purchased through the local firm of Rowe & Sons. Quite a number of manufacturing and business establishments were visited, including a tour of the plant of General Motors at Oshawa. Three full days were spent in Toronto where through the courtesy of a business acquaintance, the Watts were treated to a three hour tour of Toronto. After taking delivery of their car, Mr. and Mrs. Watts covered the Niagara peninsula and the road on Niagara-On-the-Lake where almost nothing can surpass the homes and gardens, especially in the springtime. Ex-Vermilionites were visited in Toronto and in Hamilton a call was made on Mrs. Dawson Stephens, a long-time resident of this town who is still interested in the people here and the progress being made. A number of cities were visited including Windsor, Elkhart, Chicago (this being over the Turn Pike toll road) then to Green Bay, Wisconsin where a call was made on Vivian Kennedy, a friend of many years standing. The next stop was Duluth and a beautiful 200-mile drive along the west shore of Lake Erie up to Fort William was really enjoyed. A call was made on Mrs. H. Wilkins, an aunt, and many interesting happenings were enjoyed during the re-union. Mrs. Wilkins is in the '80's' class and enjoys an active healthy life. Purposely avoiding gravel roads and roads under construction, the trip was continued back south to Duluth thence west through North Dakota and Montana entering Canada at Coutts to visit some friends at that point and then through Lethbridge, Calgary and Edmonton. A call was made on the Lavertys at High River but found these good people away. Tourist accommodation in the States and Ontario is of a high order and lent much to an enjoyable holiday.

In honor of Miss Eleanor Jory, a bride-elect, Mrs. H. J. Clarke, Mrs. S. C. Heckbert and Mrs. Lyle Robinson entertained at the latter's home on Friday afternoon June 21st.

The party was held on the lawn with forty guests in attendance.

A contest on "A Bride's Trousseau" was won by Mrs. Nellie Brass.

Miss Jory was asked to stand and Mrs. Clarke in a most pleasing manner addressed her and the ladies and finished by repeating a comment made by one of the guests on arrival. "We need rain badly and we don't get it, but we can have a shower."

Eleanor was duly showered when prettily decorated baskets, laden with many useful and beautiful gifts, were brought in by Mrs. Heckbert and Mrs. M. Barr. Assisting in opening the gifts were her sister Irene (Mrs. Horricks), and Miss Catherine Barr.

Eleanor thanked the ladies, inviting them to visit her in her new home in Edmonton.

This was followed by words of deep appreciation by Mrs. Jory and an invitation to the ladies and their husbands to be their guests at the wedding.

Refreshments served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Betty Robinson and Mrs. M. Barr brought the party to a close.

MANNVILLE — The annual meeting of the Mannville and District Home and School Association was held in the Auditorium on Thursday, June 20 at 8 p.m. The president, Mrs. Bang, welcomed the parents of the children who will be starting school in September. The Grade One teachers, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Hamilton, addressed the meeting and gave some very informative advice to the parents. Mrs. Brown told what the child should know before he starts school, while Mrs. Hamilton explained what the child will learn the first year in school. Mrs. R. D. Lynch thanked the teachers for this information. Mrs. Bang, retiring president, expressed her thanks to the executive, members and teachers for their co-operation during the past year and asked that the new president be accorded the same support. Officers elected for the 1957-58 term are as follows: President, Mr. J. Misik; Vice-President, Mrs. D. Lugg; Secretary, Mrs. E. Petersen, Treasurer, Mrs. I. Holter. Mrs. O. Willes proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the retiring officers. The Chailey members served lunch at the close of the meeting.

Junior High Award Night Colorful Event at Mannville

MANNVILLE. — It was Award Night on Thursday evening for the Junior high school, and the pupils did themselves proud: the girls in colorful cocktail length dresses, while the boys dressed in their "Sunday best" were no less the object of many admiring glances.

Mrs. A. Ross and her pupils deserve high praise for the unique decorating of the high school gymnasium for the occasion. Amusing characters from the "funnies" depicted teachers and students alike, with names below, clearly visible from any seat. The Harbor Lights scene behind the students seated on the stage made an attractive setting.

The evening was opened with the singing of O Canada, followed by the Invocation with Rev. I. Holter officiating. Mr. Doherty then welcomed all present and introduced the students of grade 9 from the stage. Two exceptions were Mary-Anne Gartner, who was unable to be present owing to a family bereavement, and Ellen McLaughlin who has been seriously ill, but appeared for a while, and took a bow from the audience. Mr. R. Whitson wisely counselled the students to keep on with their education, briefly stressing the advantages in the new term of additional rooms being built for their convenience. He expressed a hope that this same class would again number 36 in Grade 12. Mr. Facey, Supt. of Vegreville School Division, reiterated the hope of Mr. Whitson re the number being the same, as he had been in close contact with most of the pupils since grade four. He left this thought in their minds, i.e. the person with the high school education earns 38% more annual dollars than does the one with a public school diploma.

At this point a vocal duet was announced by the chairman, Mr. Doherty and rendered very sweetly by the Misses Berna Cotter and Edith Gadke, "Come to the Fair."

Mr. Simonson, of the Vermilion School Division, after being introduced as the guest speaker, reminded students that they were a part of a very large class. Explaining further, he told them that of 20,000 in grade one (of whom they too were a part), 16,000 were expected to be writing grade nine exams and a further decrease to 3,000 on reaching grade 12 — less than half of the beginners. Fully illustrating Mr. Simonson's assertion that students may continue their education, or drop out long the way, was the interesting story he recalled about the magpie's nest.

Mr. Doherty passed a very hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Ross and her pupils, and all who had helped to make the evening a success, including, of course, the speakers. Awards were presented as follows:

ACADEMIC — 75% or more— 1st, John Calder, 2nd, Lorraine Trynchuk; 3rd, Marion Yacak, Most Improvement Harvey Knutson 175

SPORT AWARDS — Boys — Alan Manz; Hon. Mention David Croft. Girls — Glora Weaver, Hon. Mention: Phyllis Gorash.

GRADE 8

GRADE 7—

Academic Awards — 1st, Marilyn North 2nd, Brian Hasinoff, 3rd. Karen Bang; 4th Lillian Hawley; Hon. Mention, Marilyn Bessetti; Most Improvement Marilyn North.

Sports Awards — Boys Gary Woywitka; Girls: (tied 2 pins) Anne Yacak and Agnes Finlay.

Class valedictorian for grade 9 was Loretta Swain who recalled getting acquainted as among her happy memories, while pointing out the advantages of music which may be used as a credit as well as enjoyed. Loretta urged the future grade 9's to "give their best." "What we are," she quoted, "is God's gift, what we become is our gift to God." It was a worthwhile address well delivered. In conclusion to a delightful evening grade seven favored the gathering with two selections, viz: "It is No Secret" and "Glow-Worm" pleasingly rendered. This was followed by the national anthem after which a dance was enjoyed. Williams orchestra from Vermilion supplying the music.

Listed are the names of those expecting to become high school students (not juniors) next term: Loretta Swain, Iris Seyer, Berna Cotter, Lillian Schock, Jerry [illegible] Kampe, Billy Tod, Beth Larcombe, Allan Manz, Marilyn Gartner, Irvine Nafziger, Lorraine Trynchuk, Phyllis Gorash, Scott Blackburn, Edith Gadke, Harry Howerko, Douglas Livingstone, June Mettauer, Elizabeth Swaenky, Olga Semeniuk, Bertie Smith, Betty Willes, John Calder, Marion Yacak, Elizabeth Gollowski, Gloria Weaver, Gwen Crawford, Rosie Berezanski, Emil Fedechko, Arleigh Stephenson, Lilly Pollakiwski, Dianne Bauer, Lory Scheffler, Elizabeth Lakusta, Harvey Knutson, Ellen McLaughlin, David Croft, Rheta Bauer and Donald Flack.

Final Meeting of the Year Held By Dewberry Home and School

The final meeting of the Dewberry Home and School for the school year 1956-57 was held on June 11 with a very good crowd in attendance. Before the meeting was officially opened, Miss Bailey, of the Health Unit, showed slides illustrating exactly how scabies or the itch acts and how the trouble may be cleared up. As this happened to be a very timely topic all were keenly interested and all went home in a very restless frame of body.

The minutes were then read and adopted. The financial report was also adopted on hand at present is $325 after necessary deductions and reservations are made the balance will go to improvements in connection with the skating rink. Eighty four dollars of this money was raised by selling lunch at the Track Meet.

It was moved by Mr. Smith and seconded by Jean Clark (how they ever agreed that long) that $25 be donated towards the building committee at work improving the picnic grounds. Carried.

A committee of five was appointed to take charge of work to be done on the skating rink. These are Mr. Whiteside, Mr. Neal Jones, Mr. T. Applegate, Mr. Parker, Mr. Gordon Rains. The following people whose names were offered by the nominating committee as officers for the coming school year were elected by acclamation.

President — Mrs. Whiteside
Vice-President — Mrs. J. Porter
Sec.-Treas. — Mrs. McMullen

Now, come on you fellows who wouldn't come to the meetings because you couldn't bear to see a women in charge, your alibi is shot to pieces!

Mr. Smith, principal of the school, who is leaving this year, gave a short farewell talk. He left with the parents a few final words of advice which if acted upon would most certainly bring about more success in efforts of the students.

Certificates of Merit were handed out to all who had attended eight or over of the ten meetings. (Your correspondent received one.) We ended with a membership of seventy.

Mrs. Good gave a very interesting report on her attendance at at the Home and School Convention.

The meeting adjourned after an unusually excellent lunch.

Surprise Party Marks Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lee of town were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary by their family relatives and friends in the form of a surprise party on the evening of June 22.

A corsage of Sweetheart roses was given to the bride and a white carnation to the groom by their daughters Marian, Jean Eric and son Brian. A lovely basket of flowers, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Payne, made a beautiful setting for the occasion.

Idelore Nelson congratulated the happy couple and wished them well and on behalf of the folks presented them with the gifts received from the family. Jean Eric and son Brian and Marian, a set of silver eight setting of Daffodil pattern, from sister Barbara, Johnny and Alva Jean, Art and Roger and Lorna and Tommy an arborite topped coffee table. From the community a hostess platform rocker and a birthday gift to Mr. [illegible] from his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee thanked all very fittingly, appreciating the kindness of all who made their anniversary such a happy event.

Lunch was then served by the ladies and lastly a three-tiered wedding cake sweetly [illegible] and [illegible] the top, a gift from the family, baked and decorated by their Aunt Ellen who had the privilege too of doing their wedding cake twenty-five years ago was cut into by the bride and groom. Daughter Marian took snaps of her mother and dad and others during the evening. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" ended a very enjoyable evening and again with congratulations and best wishes. We still think of Eunice and Milton as a part of Alcurdale as they lived in the district for some years prior to moving into Vermilion.

Out of town people attending this happy evening were from Lloydminster, Alcurdale, Clandonald and Dewberry.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Liberal Bid For Alberta Seats Proved A Dismal Failure

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — It will be a long time before the political pundits stop talking about the recent federal election and the startling results it produced.

Theories as to what actually happened are a dime a dozen, but the most popular appears to be that Canadians became sick and tired after 20-odd years of a Liberal regime and voted for a change.

Liberal supporters will tell you it was a form of protest vote which got out of hand and went farther than the majority of voters wanted it to. Progressive-Conservatives will say it was a protest vote which didn't quite go far enough.

SPARED NO EXPENSE WITH CAMPAIGN IN ALBERTA

What happened in Alberta perhaps provides ammunition for some of the most fascinating speculation. Alberta was treated to the spectacle of the powerful Liberal party sparing no expense to make its biggest assault in years on this province in all all-out effort to trim Social Credit down to size.

And . . . what was the result? Social Credit won at least 13 seats — two more than the party held in the last House of Commons — and Liberal representation dropped from four to one. Even the Conservative party, written off by many as a dead issue in Alberta, increased its hold from two seats to three, at the expense of the Liberals.

At the time of writing there was still an outside chance that the Liberals might end up with none of the 17 Alberta seats in the House of Commons.

J. M. Dechene a veteran Liberal MP for Athabasca, had a slim majority over his Social Credit opponent, Archie McPhail. According to the returning officer for the riding, a heavy armed forces vote could cause an upset.

Liberal party officials and candidates must be doing some soul-searching to determine what they did wrong in Alberta. They put a tremendous effort into a well-organized campaign aimed at grabbing a substantial number of the Alberta seats away from Social Credit.

Some observers think they may have overdone it. Their major appeal was an invitation to Alberta to join the rest of Canada, have a voice in government and stop voting for "splinter parties".

Albertans are individualists and they have their share of pride. Perhaps they heard just a little too much of this argument. They heard it not only from local candidates, but from the small army of federal cabinet ministers who invaded the province.

Maybe to them it smacked of arrogance and was taken as a suggestion that the Liberals were certain of a new mandate and were the only party capable of giving efficient government.

The result of the voting may be Alberta's way of saying, "No one is going to tell us we can't vote for splinter parties. We'll do it if we want."

There is little relationship between provincial and federal politics, but it should be recalled that the 1955 provincial general election was remarkably like the recent federal election. The protest vote didn't go quite so far, but a large chunk was chopped off Social Credit's huge majority in the House after 20 years in power. It seems to strengthen the idea that a government in power for a long period loses much of its popular appeal.

In the months ahead it will be interesting to watch the enlarged Social Credit group in the House. The shaky government will have to depend on co-operation from the Socreds and the CCF if it is to remain in power.

** * **

SPLINTER PARTIES STRONG VOICE IN PARLIAMENT

So the way it turns out, Albertans voted for a "splinter party" but they have their strong voice in government as well — for the time being, at least.

Your correspondent's prediction of the election outcome turned out somewhat screwy except in one respect. We said CCF wasn't a factor, and this was borne out by the number of CCF candidates who lost their $200 deposits. As for the part about the Liberals gaining two to four seats, well, you can't be right all the time.

MUNICIPAL FINANCING

Provincial Treasurer Ted Hinman is still talking about municipal financing. At a refresher course for school and municipal administrators in Banff last week he predicted an increase in municipal debt.

Interest rates will not come down in the immediate future "but our people will demand more services," he said. "There is no reason for gloom, but I think it is high time to keep our people informed and bring them face to face with realities", he said.

Paradise Valley

Oxville Community cemetery will hold their annual 'clean up' day at the cemetery on June 28th in the afternoon. There will be a picnic lunch. All who are interested are urged to attend.

Rev Harvey Johnson and family have moved in to the J. Teasdale house until the Church of God build their new manse. The old one has been sold.

Mrs. W. A. Gunn returned on Saturday from her holiday in the U.S. travelling by train. Mrs. Fair will make an extended visit with her son Lester and family who live in Bock, Minn. He is the minister in the Free Evangelical Church there. This is a beautiful, new church with interior finish and furnishing of blonded oak and exterior of red wood, which was dedicated on June 2nd with a very fine ceremony.

Mr Parke Dobson attended a Wheat Pool executive meeting in Calgary this week, returning on Friday. Mr. W. A. Gunn also returned on Friday from the Postmasters' convention in Edmonton, which he attended from Tuesday to Friday. Welcome home from the hospital Mr. Ball.

The ladies Hall Club met on Monday night. Plans were made for the picnic to be held on June 28th at the sports grounds.

Mrs French and Mrs. E. Barker returned home on Friday, June 14th after a long visit with Mrs. J. Gordon and Mrs. H. Fair.

We are glad to see Mrs. Clayton Benner at home again after her stay in the hospital.

We are sorry to hear that an old resident of Paradise Valley, Mrs. Frances Ostrich is at present a patient in the St. Joseph's hospital, Edmonton.

Treasure Hunt

By the end of the summer survey season, the Federal Geological Branch will have taken a very large look at the minerally-unmapped areas in Canada says John Maclean in The Financial Post. It will also have spent about $730,000 on field work designed to save the mining industry time, effort and cost.

Gathered information from dozens of areas.

Made another sizeable dent in the national geological mapping program still needing another 10 to 15 years work to complete.

Some 350 geologists and assistants are now getting well into their summer's work in parties of one to 24 in 72 separate areas from Anticosti Island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Hazen Lake near the North Pole.

Approved the sale of one parcel of municipal land.

PROTECTION TO PERSONS AND PROPERTY

A proposal to establish a Good Farming Award in the Eastern part of the Municipal District by the Agriculture Committee of the Lloydminster and District Chamber of Commerce was approved in principle and referred to the Agricultural Service Board for consideration and whatever action they considered expedient.

PUBLIC WORKS

A delegation of ratepayers from the Hamlet of Paradise Valley attended Council meeting requesting Council's views on establishment of a Community Association in the Hamlet and presented five topics of public interest for discussion. They were given every encouragement to establish an association similar to those in existence in other Hamlets in the Municipal District and assurance of prompt action on recommendations presented.

As the road construction outfit was ready to move out, public works projects warranted much discussion and the public works committee composed of the whole Council visited Divisions One and Three to examine this year's work in particular and the general state of the roads in those areas in general. It was decided to use only one slightly larger than usual construction outfit, and making use of the mobility of certain of the equipment, utilize one or possibly two patch crews for repair jobs. The tentative programme for construction this year would begin in Division Six, then proceed to Division Seven, then south to Division Three east through Divisions One and Two, north to Divisions Five, and west to finish in Division Four.

This meeting adjourned late in the evening of May 14.

** * **

Due to the short meeting of May 14th, the agenda for this meeting was fairly heavy, some of the matters having been tabled from the previous meeting.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

Permission was granted to the Onion Lake Young People's club to establish certain improvements on the SW 12-55-1 their interest in these improvements to be protected by a long-term lease.

The minutes of a special meeting of the Council and the Board of the Vermilion S.D. No. 25, held during the evening of June 5th were adopted.

The date of the Court of Revision concerning farm land was set as being from June 24 to 28 inclusive and from July 2 to 6 inclusive, with composition of the Court of Revision being Crs. Heath, Stone, Wallington, Anderson and Wheat.

Four parcels of tax recovery lands were leased.

One parcel of tax recovery land was sold.

Approval was given to the extension of the Borradaile R.E.A.L. West of 6-51-5.

PROTECTION TO PERSONS AND PROPERTY

An appeal was made to the Minister of Agriculture to continue to subsidize the cost of soil sterilants for use of control of deep-rooted perennials.

PUBLIC WORKS

A petition was received from numerous persons in the area asking the Council to investigate the situation which exists at the Blackfoot corners on highway No. 16. It was considered that some improvement could be made and the Department of Highways was asked to make some technical advice available to the Council with this in mind. It was also decided by the Council to ask that the corners be zoned to a 35 mile-per hour limit to protect traffic both entering and leaving the highway from north and south.

As weather has remained dry road constuction outfit had made good progress and had now moved into Division 3. A considerable portion of the gravelling had ben done also with two crushing outfits in operation.

It was noted with satisfaction that additional men had been moved into the M.D. by the government to cope with the beaver problem.

The following persons were present at various times during the meeting: Mr. Turner of Costello Equipment; Mr. Wait of Ferguson Supply; Mr Wilcox of Le Tourneau-Westinghouse; Mr. Brodeur of International Harvester Co.; Mr. Blaine of Union Tractor; Mr. MacKenzie of Robertson-Irwin; Mr. MacKenzie of Waterous Equipment; Mr. Wiltsey and Mrs. Canavan, Wm. Those who knew Mr Milo Johnstone were shocked indeed by his sudden demise. He resided formerly in Heinsburg. He was married to the former Cathy Boyd, an ardent ball player at Dewberry a few years ago. Our sympathy to all who are left to mourn his loss.

Light horses are making their appearance in the Dewberry district. Four new colts are in evidence here one owned by Mr John Anderson, one by Bruce Craige and two by Allan Bensmiller. Allan owns the sire "Man of Iron" who is a grandson of the famous "Man of War". We hope these colts turn out to be as renowned as their well known great grandsire.

Miss Donna Young now owns her second Arabian colt. One was born last year and one this. Tom Ryan also owns an Arabian colt. Last year at the exhibition Arabian horses were on show from all over the province.

At the 14th of June picnic Dewberry won first prize from Marwayne at hardball. Hazeldine men's fastball won first over Dewberry. Dewberry ladies fastball team won from the Islay ladies. Money raised at the picnic is being spent on improving the grounds. It is proposed to make a hard clay diamond for baseball.

Mr Frank Bowman anticipates hauling freight mostly groceries to Dewberry, Marwayne, Hazeldine and Islay with his new truck.

J. Walker has purchased an asphalt truck and is hauling for Roberge Bros., Lloydminster. Bobby and Earl in turn operate the truck.

The Dewberry United Church held their picnic on Sunday the 23rd at the sport grounds. Races, games and a peanut scramble were much enjoyed by the kiddies, and a picnic supper by everyone.

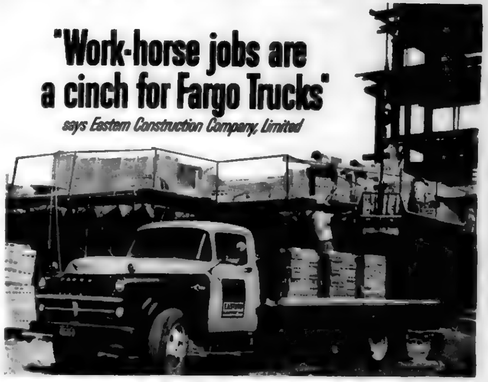
"Work-horse jobs are a cinch for Fargo Trucks"
says Eastern Construction Company, Limited



1. It's the ruggedness Fargo builds into a truck that pays off. Eastern's big muscled Fargos work day in, day out, hauling masonry to construction jobs like this big $2,000,000 project. It's a punishing schedule that requires reliability.

2. This Fargo "construction job" can meet all the demands placed on it — and then some! Frame has double width front cross members. Springs are of durable chrome alloy steel.

3. Extra V-8 power, rated from 180 to 232 h.p., makes Fargo trucks the power leaders in their price ranges, from agile Fargo express and panel models to rugged heavy-duty trucks.

4. Safer operation is a cinch, too. Big wrap-around windshield and optional wrap-around rear window, constant-speed electric windshield wipers are just a few of many safeguards.

"A Stranger In The Arctic"

A Story of the Far North

by
[illegible]
(Fort Good Hope, N.W.T. 1952)

THE STORY SO FAR

Many strange tales are wrought in the North, and when an unheralded stranger suddenly appeared in the Arctic settlement of Fort Good Hope, rumors concerning his origin were rife among the natives. Taciturn, sullen, aloof, "Jess" Cully made no friends — even among the few whites in the area. Finally, however, he noticed a young and pretty native girl, Rosa Ringbuk, niece of the chief of the tribe. He wasted no time in preliminaries and after a pow-wow with her father, "bought" the girl. The wedding took place in spite of Rosa's protests, for she loved young Manuel Vitalenny. Cully took his bride to his lonely but well built and equipped cabin in the wilds, but Rosa's heart remained with Manuel.

Now go on with the story

During the year that followed Cully made only one trip to the settlement. This was in the winter when he took his furs to sell or trade for provisions, leaving Rosa behind in the silence of the wilds. It was not until the following summer almost one year from the date of their wedding that Rosa returned to her former home. The reason for this trip was apparent, for her birthing pains were already upon her. Leaving Cully securing the canoe and speaking no word, she went straightaway to her father's house where midwives were called to attend her.

The birth of a baby is also an event and since Cully had not come near, the people felt free to gather in the cabin to witness this miracle of a new life. But Cully's son did not salute the spectators with his weak cry until the morning of the day following.

The news was taken to Cully who had set up his temporary camp near the village. The news bearer told him that Rosa had very nearly exchanged her own life for his little son, and even yet had not regained consciousness. Cully at first was angry, suspecting Rosa and her people of a ruse to keep her there, but when he saw her he knew it was no pretense. He agreed to let her remain a short time, and returned to his camp alone.

Two weeks later he found Rosa still weak and listless. She had not been able to nurse the baby and the Chief's daughter, who was her cousin, having had a child a short time previously, was nursing it for her. Cully realized that to take Rosa and his son back with him would entail taking the cousin and her family as well. This thought appalled him. Yet his son, in whom he was secretly delighted, needed this nourishment of a mother's milk for a time at least. He decided to leave his family once again. He informed Rosa that she must endeavor to be ready to return with him after freeze-up when he would make his first winter trip into the Fort.

However, Cully did not return until late in December — and meanwhile disaster had struck. The baby, in the first months of his life, had been growing quickly, but suddenly he developed a cough which was accompanied by fever. He became pale and listless and gradually took no interest in his food. One week before Cully arrived, the baby died.

If Cully was desolated at the news it was not noticeable. He sought out Rosa's cousin to obtain more details from her, for Rosa was almost inarticulate in her grief and her fear of Cully's reaction. When he saw this woman who had nursed his child, he cursed himself for not having investigated her before allowing her to have anything to do with the baby.

To Rosa he said flatly, "You should have told me your cousin had lung fever."

Rosa stated morosely, "I not know."

"Couldn't you hear her continuous coughing? And wasn't she spitting blood?" Cully demanded, his rage mounting. "Even her own baby is doomed!"

Rosa only reiterated, "I not know."

Cully beat her. There on the shore by his canoe he beat her savagely. Then he shoved her roughly into the canoe and soon was paddling downstream on the homeward journey.

•• •• ••

During the next three years Cully did not take Rosa back to the settlement again and her life in the camp was quiet and lonely. She longed for her people and her unhappiness took the light from her eyes, the vivacity from her spirit. No one came to their camp for Cully's demeanor had shown all too clearly that visitors were neither welcome nor wanted. Even for Rosa's sake they would not come to this man's cabin.

•• •• ••

No more children came to Rosa and Cully, as if in resentment of this, began to treat her with contempt. Whereas at one time he had occasionally allowed her to accompany him on his trap lines, he now flatly forbade it. Rosa, apathetic and submissive, nevertheless harbored in her breast a growing hatred of this man who was her husband.

During the lengthening days of early April in 1937 Cully returned after several days out on the trap lines. He seemed in better humor than he had been recently and Rosa guessed that his fur catch had been plentiful. When he entered the cabin where Rosa was hurriedly making preparations for his meal, he brought with him a tiny pup. Rosa gasped with pleasure when she saw it — it was a wolf pup. Once, when she was a child, her uncle the Chief had given his own daughter and Rosa each a wolf puppy after he had trapped and killed the mother. The children had loved the tiny creatures and had bestowed too much affection upon them for they had soon died as a result of too much handling.

Now she hoped that Cully would let her keep this one. Surely he would not kill it since he had brought it all the way from the forest, and he was [illegible] of any use. She sighed in [illegible] when he told her to feed the little animal warm milk. "Might as well keep it around for a while," he added.

Under Rosa's tender care and ministrations the little wolf grew larger and stronger. Soon he was following her about like a pet dog and it was obvious that Rosa was the object of his affections, for he would have nothing to do with Cully.

•• •• ••

As the third year of Rosa's isolation in the lonely camp was drawing to a close, she was surprised one day to see a dog team approaching from across the river. As it drew nearer she recognized the driver as Manuel Vitalenny.

Throwing on her parka she ran out to meet him, calling joyous greetings and shouting questions as she ran.

Bride-Elect Feted At Mannville

MANNVILLE. – A surprise shower was held for a bride-elect of Mannville, when Nita Majeau was honored by her many friends. The happy event took place in the United Church parish hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. After those present had participated in two contests, Mrs. A. Hubbard presented Nita with the gifts on behalf of those able to attend and friends unable to be there. Helping Nita to unwrap the gifts were her mother Mrs. G. Majeau and sister Rita (her twin) at the conclusion of which Miss Majeau charmingly thanked everyone for the lovely gifts received. Lunch, which was delicious followed, and was enjoyed by all.

CAR SALES EASING OFF

Some of the early steam has gone out of new car sales, reports The Financial Post.

As a result sales for the first half of 1957 are unofficially ahead of last year but they're fast losing ground. Reasons for this are given as tight money conditions, Eastern Canada's heat wave and 1958-car talk.

However it still looks like a good sales year perhaps might exceed 1956's record 467,000.

North Battleford Band Will Feature March Routine Sunday

The North Battleford City Kinsmen band, rightly claimed to be the best civilian band in Western Canada, will play at the bandshell in the Vermilion park on Sunday afternoon. As the band is on its way to lead the famous Calgary Stampede parade, the program will commence at 1:00 p.m. uptown and then proceed to the bandshell in the park.

The band will arrive in Vermilion in time to have an early luncheon at the Brunswick hotel at 11:30. Following a change into their band uniform they will give their famous marching routine on the hard top between the Treasury Branch corner and Webb's garage starting at 1 p.m. sharp.

Following the exhibition of precision marching and playing the band will proceed to the park where they will give a concert, specially prepared for Vermilion. The band was greatly pleased with their visit here one year ago and have kindly thoughts for Vermilion audiences.

The North Battleford band is under the instruction of Norm Lehman and is comprised of 60 instruments, played by boys and girls, all of school age. The awards they have won are fantastic, culminating in the band being asked to lead the Stampede at Calgary next week. Heretofore a name band from the United States has had this honor.

The band has won top honors in competitions at the Saskatoon exhibition and for the past two years at the Calgary Stampede. In May of this year the band competed in the Moose Jaw International Band festival and two first prizes in as many competitions were won.

Vermilion Air Cadets Receive Praise On Annual Inspection

The annual inspection of No. 97 Squadron, Vermilion Air Cadets, was held recently on the school grounds with the pipe band of the local 'A' Company, L.E.R. in attendance.

The inspection was carried out by Wing Commander Klassen assisted by F. L. Bolton AC LO and Charles Lindberg.

Wing Commander Klassen has inspected the Vermilion Squadron for the last three years and in his remarks to the parents and the public he mentioned how greatly impressed he was with the improvement in the squadron. He also paid tribute to the officers and instructors in maintaining such a high record and in keeping the Vermilion Squadron one of the best of all the 45 in Alberta.

Mr. Don Taylor spoke on behalf of the Civilian committee of which he is chairman, thanking the officers and instructors for the work they carry out during the year in training the cadets. Their names are as follows: Commanding Officer F/L. Stan Manyluk; Adjutant, F/O Bert Moore; Supply Officer, F/O Ed Lyons. Many Activities Feature Community Life At Clandonald

[illegible]

Friends from near and far gathered in the Orange hall the evening of June 24th. The occasion, a most happy one, being a miscellaneous shower for Miss Lorna Nelson whose wedding to Tom Stockwell took place in Lloydminster, July 2nd.

Following a session of square dancing and just a plain old fashioned social get-together, Mr. Hugh Hagen took charge. After most interesting observations on love and marriage he presented the future bride and groom with a huge stack of gifts. To Mr. Hagen's words of wisdom and best wishes for future happiness Tommy made a suitable reply.

Attention was then centred on opening of the gifts following [illegible] present as well as extending an invitation to all to be guests at the wedding and the dance.

A very tasty lunch was then served and before the party broke up a large circle was formed and all joined in song to wish the young couple the best of everything for the future.

NEWCOMERS WELCOMED

Another very enjoyable event took place in the Orange hall on the evening of June 17th. In this case the couple honored are newcomers to the district. Doug Windsor arrived here about nine months ago to take up duties in the bank. A month ago he decided to get married which was the reason for the party. Mrs. Windsor comes from Swan River, Manitoba and is also employed at the bank.

After a short session of dancing and a little entertainment which was the cause of much merriment, a presentation was made by Rev. Brian Brown. This was a modern coffee percolator, a gift from their square dancing friends and other well-wishers. Also a gift from the square dance club was a lovely wedding cake baked by Mrs. Orley Omness. All present were treated to a sample which was pronounced delicious.

BEST WISHES TO RECENT NEWLYWEDS

Congratulations and very best wishes for future happiness go out to Katie, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shyska whose wedding at Derwent took place recently.

After the ceremony friends were guests of the Shyska family when a reception was held in the Orange hall. This was followed by a dance in the evening attended by a large crowd.

COURT CASES ATTRACT LARGE CROWD

Standing room only was the case for both morning and afternoon sessions when court was held in the Orange hall recently. The charges involving several young men from the Derwent district included damage to a car and theft of mirrors as well as several infractions of the liquor act. Fines were levied. In another case judgment was reserved.

JIMMY GRATTON INJURED THROWN FROM HORSE

Jimmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Gratton, is lying in Coronation hospital in serious condition following an accident when he was thrown from a race horse. Jimmy was still unconscious several days after the accident and considerable anxiety is felt by friends of the family.

Vaccination of cattle for TB has been going on throughout the district during the past few weeks. In charge of the work in township 53 is Dr. Sennerville from Montreal.

Mrs. Ray Phillips, who is better known here as the former Margaret Rowntree, along with her two children, have been spending the past few weeks with her parents. They have now left for Edmonton. The Phillips family recently moved to Regina where Ray was employed by a large wholesale grocery concern. Conditions not being quite to their liking they have decided to return to their former location.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Goddard and daughter Florence from Wainwright spent the long week end with Fred Goddard and family in town.

Most welcome rains have arrived during the past few days. Crops are all the way from fair to poor. Cutworm damage has been quite extensive as well as very poor germination in some fields.

Very much needed and welcome rains fell during the past week, thereby improving crop, garden and grass conditions immensely. Rain for the week amounted to 1.17 inches, bringing the June total to 1.44. This compares with 3.14 inches for June 1956.

Wm. Novak To Attend Conference School Principals

Mr. William Novak, principal of the Vermilion Junior High School, is one of 65 school principals meeting at Concordia College in Edmonton for three weeks beginning July 10, to study problems of education leadership in local communities. His membership in the special Leadership Course for School Principals, being conducted as a part of the University of Alberta Summer Session, is sponsored by the Vermilion Divisional School Board.

The course has been arranged by the Alberta School Trustees' Association, the Alberta Teachers Association, the Alberta School Inspectors Association, the Alberta Department of Education, and the Faculty of Education University of Alberta. Additional financial support has also been received from the Canadian Education Association.

Fifty-eight city, county, divisional, and independent Alberta school systems will be represented. Also in attendance will be school principals from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

Within the overall aim of working toward better education for children in the schools, the course is intended to serve four purposes: 1) to provide an opportunity for further exploration of problems in educational administration and supervision; (2) to provide an opportunity for individual members to form definite plans for later social action; (3) to provide members with an opportunity to gain further understanding of philosophies and techniques of leadership and (4) to stimulate the intercommunication of educational ideas and practices between various schools and administrative areas.

Vermilion Park Attracts Sask. Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Martinson and their five children, of Plato, Sask., are spending their vacation in Vermilion because of the fine facilities at the Park. The children are all registered for the swimming lessons, the first chance they have ever had to learn to swim. They are also attending the vacation Bible school in the mornings at the Mission Alliance. While the family originally intended to rent a cottage at the lake, they are living at the Motel. Mrs. Martinson is a sister of Mr. Roy Watkins of Vermilion, which is another reason for spending the holiday here.

Three Vermilion Air Cadets Leave For Special Courses

Three Vermilion Air Cadets leave this week to take special courses. Warrant Officer Lee Coyne goes to Camp Borden, Ont., to take a six weeks course as drill instructor. Bob Waldenberger and Gordon Callaghan left Monday morning for Edmonton via C.N.R. to take their Flying Scholarship training at the Edmonton Flying Club. This course in flying when completed will entitle them to a private pilot's license.

The course taken by Bob and Gordon is under the direction of Maurice A. Fallow, a former Vermilion man who is now the manager of the Edmonton Flying Club.

Teachers and School Board Settle 1957-58 Salary Schedule

The salary schedule for the teachers of the Vermilion school division was amicably settled here last week with the adoption of a schedule which will result in an increase of $52,236.00 above the 1956-57 schedule.

Mr. C. B. Dagg, Conciliator from the Board of Arbitration, acted as chairman while Mr. Roy Ayres from the A.T.C. Central office acted for the teachers.

The original request of the Vermilion teachers had approximated an increase of some $93,000.00, but in order to effect a settlement the teachers reduced their proposal, with the school board increasing their offer.

Teachers with one year of training will, under the new agreement, have a starting salary of $2400.00 with yearly increments to a maximum of $3600.00.

Teachers with two years training commence at $2700.00 and advance to a maximum of $4200.00.

Three years training, $3100.00 to $4900.00.

Four years training, $3600.00 to $5800.00.

Five years training, $3900.00 to $6,000.00.

Principals receive an additional $300.00 for supervision of two rooms, with $100.00 per room additional to a maximum of seven rooms, then an additional $50.00 per room from seven to twelve rooms to a maximum of $1,000.00.

Children Cry For Their Puppy

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Malek who live one mile south of the Claysmore school corner are crying for the return of their black Cocker spaniel puppy. The Cocker followed Mr. Malek as far as the corner on Monday. Someone, probably thinking the little fellow was lost, apparently picked him up and took him away.

The doggie was a real children's pet and now the kiddies are crying for the return of their puppy. Anyone knowing of the whereabouts of the dog should phone Mike Malek, 1204 Vermilion and he will gladly come and get the kids' pet.

Bride-Elect Is Showered At A. Mix Home

A pre-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mrs. Albert Mix in honor of Miss Rita Plouffe prior to her marriage to Mr. Tony Donaghy. During the course of the afternoon several games were played which were enjoyed by all.

The gifts were hidden in three different places with a set alarm clock with each group. In finding the alarm, the bride-to-be also discovered the gifts. A few well-chosen words expressed her thanks to all the ladies present.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by co-hostesses Mrs. Geo. Doherty and Mrs. Alton Curtis.

Junior Choir Gives Enjoyable Concert

The Junior Choir of the First United Church, Vermilion, under the direction of Mr. Jack Brown, presented a very fine concert on Friday, June 28th.

The choir is composed of 22 girls, between the ages of 12 and 16 years. It is quite evident that Mr. Brown, organist and conductor, has given the choir a very intensive training in both alto and soprano sections.

They opened their concert with a very beautiful sacred number "Come Unto Him" by Handel, which was exceptionally well sung. All fifteen numbers were rendered in a manner that indicated the work that had been put into the preparation for this concert.

The program gave the audience a wide variety of choruses, among which were Folk Songs, a Spiritual, numbers from light operas, a lullaby, sacred selections and a couple of peppy numbers that appealed to all. A song called "Fiddle De De" was particularly catchy and was repeated by popular request.

During the evening the work of Mr. Brown as choir conductor and organist and the Junior choir came in for complimentary remarks by W. A. Kibblewhite and Rev. C. W. MacKay.

Swim Schedule Announced; Mannville Registers 200 Swimmers

The town and community surrounding the town of Mannville have registered nearly 200 youngsters for swim lessons. At a meeting held recently a 'Swim Club' was formed there of senior citizens whose job it is to plan the summer trips to Vermilion Park lake.

Last year 87 children were bussed here for lessons from Mannville. With this increase it is apparent that last year's groups learned much and enjoyed their trips here. We are looking forward to having them back.

Fair Days Loom As 1957 Feature July 25, 26, 27

Almost before we know it the 1957 Vermilion Fair will be in full swing; special attention has been given to the selection of grandstand attractions for this year and reports from Weyburn, the first fair on the circuit which concluded on Wednesday of this week indicates that the Grossman Booking Office attractions are par excellence.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING PROGRAMS

For the first time in history it will be possible this year to have different attractions on the afternoon and evening shows, so that those coming from a distance will be enabled to see both shows in the single day. The afternoon feature will be the "Mystorama" a truly enthralling performance which will be enlarged by special childrens attractions daily. In the evening audiences will thrill to the daring of the Odells in their hair raising acts and will get a real lift from the comedy with which the 1957 show is generously intermingled.

Those who remember the famous Varsity Eight, a group of singers whom many heard on every single one of the seven exhibition performances, will be pleased to know that this year we are to have the equally well known Rovalaires, a group of three men and two ladies whose voices have been acclaimed at the State fairs throughout the U.S. for the past two years.

On each day some of Canada's finest horses will perform in Cutting Horse Contests before the grandstand crowds while the rings will be filled with outstanding livestock and thousands are expected to pack the rings to see what has become one of the outstanding light horse shows of Western Canada.

The well known Jimmie Sullivan midway operator superb will cater to the youngsters especially on Thursday which has been designated as Kiddies Day when reduced prices will feature the rides and shows.

Altogether Vermilion's 1957 Fair which will start off with a bang when the parade forms at 10 a.m. is slated to be the Best Ever and all district residents are invited to purchase Advance Tickets still at the original prices of 3 for $1.00 and take advantage of the fine opportunity and the substantial savings made possible through their purchase. Vermilion Fair is the only Fair presently selling advance tickets at such low prices and the Directors continue the policy for the simple reason that they want everyone to take advantage of the fine opportunity for education and entertainment that is made possible by Vermilion's Big Annual Fair, an unusually successful district venture in which all our citizens are so vitally interested. Advance tickets will be on sale starting Saturday July 6 and the number to be sold has been limited. It is suggested that you buy your advance tickets early.

"A" Co. to Have Summer Recess

"A" Company, Reserve Army ended the year's activities with an evening of entertainment for the men and their wives. Two interesting and educational films were shown after which a tasty lunch was served by the men with refreshments for all. The evening closed with dancing.

Parades will begin again in the fall.

DIGGING INTO THE HEART OF HUMANITY

Digging down into the files of The Salvation Army is like digging into the very heart of humanity. Some of these stories of human interest never reach the light of outer day, because of respect to the feelings of the persons involved or of their relatives who are still living. The Army regards many of its cases as sacrosanct and its secrets are not to be divulged to the merely curious or the world at large.

Now and again gatherers of social or welfare data are permitted to delve into the case books, but even then the persons [illegible] are only known as A— B—, C— and so on. Behind these letters, however, lie many a story that fiction would find is hard to match.

Take the case of M—, which would do well for "Mickey," a [illegible] prize-fighter, who in his earlier years travelled from town to town mixing with the worst characters. On one occasion, he killed an opponent with one of his savage onslaughts, but the sponsors of the contest managed to satisfy those who clamored for an investigation and he [illegible] on elsewhere with an [illegible] "reputation." He won [illegible] by the dozen, considerable sums of money and lost his gains in drinking bouts. He could knock out all comers saving the bottle. It finally downed him.

A physical wreck. The Salvation Army took him in tow. Later, a sobered man, he obtained light work and gradually regained his vigor. He elected to stay with his Army friends and help others who had tackled the [illegible] of life and failed. He became well-respected, partly because he stood for no nonsense, as he said, and really meant it. Of quiet demeanor and now a fine disciplined citizen, the once unmanageable 'Mickey the Scrapper' is a valuable asset to his community. But few would have guessed his past.

Incidentally, that's the kind of work the Army has been doing for a long time.

TEENAGE TERRORS

The adolescent years which so puzzle and sometimes enrage parents need tact and understanding, according to an article by E. S. Bernhardt, Assistant Director, Institute of Child Study of the University of Toronto, especially written for Health Magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

Many of the upsets and outbursts of adolescents are caused by the basic insecurity of the youngsters, he states. The teenager faces many serious problems for which he must find a solution: he must decide on his vocational career, biological and social pressures drive him to an interest in the opposite sex, thus starting a process which will likely culminate in the selection of a life partner, and he must learn to stand on his own feet, make his own decisions and become a truly independent person.

Actually the root of some of the adolescent's puzzling behaviour is that he is trying to be both dependent and independent. He is reluctant to lose the feeling of security he gets from having parents [illegible] decisions for him but at the same time he wants the [illegible] of independence that comes [illegible] reduced supervision. He is trying to go in two directions at the same time.

If parents do not try to understand his needs, they may fail him when he needs them most, states the article. Parents should not look for signs of increasing maturity in control and responsibility. The adolescent needs to know that parents are aware of and are satisfied with these.

The writer points out that today more than in any period, parents themselves are unsure, due to rapidly changing methods of bringing up children, and it is reflected in less faith in [illegible] parents and parents have tried directing their children's behaviour longer than is [illegible].

Parents — if children are poor swimmers or non-swimmers, they must wear life jackets.

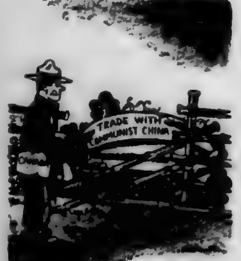
Ready For Picking ?



By Edna M. Craig, District Home Economist

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Hot summer days take the edge off appetites. To keep the family in an eating mood serve salads often and in variety.

Serve Salads Like This

1. As an accompaniment salad to be eaten with the main course.
2. As a main dish salad or salad plate.
3. As a "desert" salad or "party" salad.

Remember These Salad Pointers

1. Use only chilled and crisped salad greens.
2. Greens should never extend beyond the edge of a plate or bowl.
3. Look for color, flavor, form and texture contrast when combining salad ingredients.
4. Always chill canned fruits and vegetables.
5. Drain canned fruits very thoroughly on paper towels, vegetables in a sieve.
6. Arrange any salad on a chilled plate or bowl in a simple manner.
7. Combine or arrange salads just before serving for a fresh appetizing appearance.
8. If you prepare radishes and celery in advance, place in a bowl of ice water in the refrigerator for crispness.

Here is a pretty party recipe which is ideal with cold chicken or turkey for a summer buffet.

Cranberry Jewel Salad

1 package raspberry jelly powder
2 cups water
1 cup cranberry sauce
1 orange

Dissolve jelly powder and set till it begins to thicken. Quarter oranges and remove seeds. Put pulp and peel through food chopper. Add cranberry sauce and orange pulp to jelly and chill.

NEWS from DEWBERRY

Mrs Lola Wilkinson and two daughters of Winnipeg and Mr. Otto Isert of Edmonton were recent visitors at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Isert.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wade of Edmonton visited at the homes of their daughters Mrs. Ernest and Mrs. Erven Garnier. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan of Edmonton.

At the home of Mrs. Grace Woods, her sister and husband of Edmonton Mr and Mrs. Bud Duncan and family, also Miss Diane McGillawee and two girl companions, were recent visitors.

Mr Bruce Craige has accepted a position in Banff looking after horses at the ranch there — a job at which he is an expert.

Several went to Champion to attend the wedding on the 20th of Miss Leona Kuziw to Mr Peter Trach, among them were Mr and Mrs Sid Avery and Mr Fred Powell.

The schoolyard has a deserted look now that the summer holidays have started. The children have gone home to work or play as the case may be. By the time the holidays are over most of them will be eager (no doubt) to get back to school.

Some of the teachers will be back, while others have resigned to seek new pastures — Mr Smith to Mannville, Mr [illegible] to Kellilher Sask. as pr[illegible] and Mr Swain to teach in Vermilion. Miss Mykytiw was married on June 29th. We wish these teachers luck in their new positions.

Mrs W Ross, formerly of North Dewberry and now of Lloydminster, was telling the writer that she is looking forward to seeing her sister and husband of Newcastle, N.B., who are coming to Lloydminster on a visit in July. Mr. and Mrs. Ross were down in Newcastle last year. Previous to that it was forty years since the sisters had met.

The Dewberry softball girls' team won from the Islay girls on Friday, June 28th. Some of the supporters who went down stayed and enjoyed the strawberry festival there. The writer did not go but those who did had high praise for the Islay ladies who provided the treat. They said they enjoyed it very much and the workers are to be congratulated on the work they [illegible] in to provide the sumptuous fare. Lots of strawberries and whipped cream or ice cream, cake, tea or coffee — as much of anything as you wished and all for 35 cents. Sorry I missed it, Islay!

At a surprise party on the 20th the L.A. presented Mrs. Brown with a cup and saucer in recognition of her services during the year and to wish her well in her new home. She was a much appreciated member of the Ladies' Aid.

COUNTRY FAIRS ARE IMPORTANT

Agricultural fairs are as old as recorded history. For centuries, the fair or festival was one of the great business and social events of the year for country people. In the rural communities of Western Canada the fair is still an event of outstanding importance.

A Vital Activity. The country fair performs functions that no other rural activity is able to do. Besides providing amusement and relaxation, a day at the fair provides farmers with a pleasant opportunity to meet their neighbours and local leaders, and to find out what is new in agriculture. Above [illegible] it provides the ideal place for the people of the surrounding district to display the best products of the farm and home. In short, country fairs stimulate "pride in achievement" and a desire for community [illegible].

Today, unfortunately, local Fair Boards and Agricultural Societies are finding it difficult to maintain "the fair" as a vital feature of community life. They need, deserve, and should receive the fullest possible support of every farm family. Let's keep our agricultural fairs going! Make a real effort this year to attend your own local Fair.

A New Mobile Service. To replace its well-known "Agricultural Show on Wheels," the Line Elevators Farm Service is pleased to announce the introduction of a new type of agricultural service—a complete mobile sound and public address unit. The unit consists of an attractive station wagon equipped with three directional speakers, a high amplifier, turn table and tape recorder. It can therefore be used to provide [illegible] for fair and 4-H Club parades, or as a [illegible] system, either stationary or mobile. The new mobile [illegible] will be made available without charge, to Fair Boards, Agricultural Societies, and 4-H Club officials throughout the Prairie Provinces. We feel sure it will fill an important need and perform a most useful service at many agricultural [illegible] in Western Canada.

Dominion Day was observed quietly in town, there being celebrations at both Mannville and Vegreville. The patriotic spirit of the town was evidenced by flags flying from several of the buildings but a far larger number of flag poles remained nude.

Dear Friends:

It does not seem a year ago that we wrote to thank you for the 1956 clinic. At this time we would like to thank you for the very nice clinic you sponsored for us June 12th. 187 donors registered at this time. This was a few more than the previous clinic. It is nice to see a clinic growing. We fully realize the great amount of work that must be done prior to, and during a clinic. Our staff always returns full of praise for the way the Mannville clinic is conducted.

Would you be good enough to extend our sincere thanks to all the many volunteers who made this clinic such a smooth-running one. We look forward to our next trip to your centre.

Many, many thanks.

Yours sincerely,

Vermilion-Alexandria W.I. Conference Held At V.S.A.

Approximately 90 members and visitors representing ten branches registered at the V.S.A. on Fri. June 28, for the annual Women's Institute Constituency Conference.

Mrs. P. Sloan of Mannville as chairman, opened the morning session with the regular W.I. procedure and the observance of a minute's silence for departed members.

Mr. N. N. Bentley then welcomed the assembly to the College, thanking W. I. branches for the support they have given the V.S.A. down through the years. He touched briefly on the decreasing attendance at the school, and stressed the need for specific training of farm young people in this day of bigger farms and mechanization: with the emphasis placed on sound supervised training, to have the job well done. His closing words were a sincere wish that the parents of young farm people would do their utmost to interest some of them in staying on the farm to carry on the work begun by them and a hope that he had given us "Food for Serious Thought".

Mrs. Olive Clarke of the Vermilion Branch then welcomed all delegates and members to the Conference.

Mrs. Trimming of the Hazeldine Branch replied to the address of welcome.

Mrs. Sloan introduced those on the platform, Mrs. J. Bellish, District Director, of Warspite, and Mrs. D. Bang, Conference Secretary.

The Standing Committee and Branch report, representing Creighton Five points, Ramsey, Saltaux, Claysmore, Vermilion, Wildmere, Princess Anne, Kitscoty, and Hazeldine were read and adopted. Reports showed that all branches had a very interesting year. Having taken part in many worthwhile activities proving once again our motto "For Home and Country".

MUSICAL INTERLUDE

Mrs. Sloan, at this time introduced Miss Donna McCauley, a talented young artist of Vermilion and formerly of Mannville. She played two selections for piano: "The Harmonious Blacksmith" and Danse Negro, which were thoroughly enjoyed by her audience.

Before calling on Mrs. Sloan for her report and financial statement Mrs. Bellish took the opportunity to express her sincere thanks to the Constituency Convener, for the way in which she had carried out her year's program, mentioning specifically the work she had done in canvassing advertising for the Biennial Report book. Mrs. Sloan then read her report and financial statement, and in turn called upon Mrs. Bellish for her address on W. I. work and problems.

She brought greetings from the A.W.I. President, Mrs. T. H. Howes, who was at the present time in Australia, enroute to Ceylon to attend the Triennial Convention of the Associated Country Women of the World, as representative for Alberta.

Mrs. Bellish, in her capacity as Dist. Director, explained what a large territory there is to cover and how many Constituency Conferences she must attend, and how hard it is to pick a date suitable to everyone, apologizing for our date, falling as it did on the last day of school making it impossible for many to be present. This was clearly understood by all those present.

She went on to discuss new report forms for Standing Committee Cons. at the branch level, which will in future simplify the compilings of reports for Constituency Committee Cons. and Standing Committee chairmen of A. W. I.

Publicity Reports were touched upon and she urged us to make them as interesting as possible, due to the restricted space for the "Spinning Wheel".

At this time the morning session was brought to a close and we adjourned to the Legion Hall to partake of a delicious turkey dinner, served by the Legion W. A.

Afternoon Session

Following a sing-song the afternoon session got under way with the reports on Handicraft, given by the two judges, Miss M. Inglis who spoke on Handicrafts and Miss Maskeluk on Sewing. They both praised the manner in which the work was displayed and mentioned how fortunate the W. I. was in having such fine facilities at its disposal.

The points for Handicraft were given as follows: 14 points obtained by the Five Points branch, thus giving them the right to hold the cup for the coming year. Kitscoty was in second place with 12 points, and third went to Creighton, 11 points. Claysmore 8, Vermilion 8, Princess Anne 5, Saultaux 4, and Wildmere and Hazeldine each with 3.

The over 70 class was won by Mrs. T. Henderson of Mannville. Second went to Mrs. E. Joy of Kitscoty and third to Mrs. Marfleet of Vermilion.

Prizes for the Thrift articles were as follows: 1, Mrs. George Richardson of Princess Anne. 2, Mrs. Spielman, Kitscoty. 3, Mrs. Whiteside, Hazeldine.

Mrs. Wagner, Handicraft convener, then presented the cup to a member of Five Points branch.

A vote of thanks was moved to Mr. D. C. Folk and the V.S.A. students responsible for making the base on which the cup now rests.

ELECTIONS

Elections followed to fill three vacancies in standing committees. Mrs. W. A. Henderson, Hazeldine, elected to Home Economics. Mrs. A. Pheasey of Saltaux to Education, and Mrs. Calder of Mannville to finish out the term of Mrs. Hugh Thompson as the United Nations Exchange Con.

GUEST SPEAKER

Mr. J. L. Jones, well known lawyer of Mannville, was then introduced by Mrs. Sloan. He gave a very interesting and informative address on "Women's Rights," stressing the two very important points that every woman should know: 1. The Joint Ownership of Property; 2. The drawing up of wills by both husband and wife.

He spoke at some length, enlarging on both points, interspersing his talk with many little interesting personal experiences and anecdotes, answering many and varied questions from his interested audience.

VOCAL SOLOS

To round out the entertainment program, Miss Margaret Goodwin of Vermilion, a young lady of outstanding ability and a recent scholarship award winner to the Banff School of Fine Arts, delighted with two vocal solos, "Look to the Rainbow" and "The Hedge Rose." Mrs. D. C. Folk was her accompanist.

Tea was then served in the College dining room, courtesy of the V. S. A.

MRS. BELLISH SPEAKS

Following this interlude, Mrs. Bellish went on to the conclusion of her address started in the morning session. She spoke on the Biennial Convention and the National Convention which is to take place in Ottawa in October. Mrs. J. Bellish and Mrs. C. R. Wood are to attend as delegates for District 2 with all expenses paid by the A. W. I. Mrs. Perrier of Vermilion will attend as the third delegate, paying her own expenses, as the two other delegates will do. Mrs. Dave Brown of Tomahawk is one of these two and there is one delegate still to be named.

The projects chosen at the Biennial Convention for the next two years are as follows:

1—The Expanding and Building of the Organization with the hope for 300 branches by May, 1959.

2—Mental Health (the study of and financial aid to, and the continuation of support to the Canadian Arthritis & Rheumatism Society by those branches who are keenly interested in this work.

Mrs. Bellish told of the two W. I. Bursaries to the value of $75.00 which are being offered to assist two young girls wishing to attend the Vermilion School of Agriculture. Application for same should be sent to Mrs. J. Hannah, Secretary of A.W.I., Box 131, Drumheller, Alta. not later than Sept. 1st, 1957, or contact for the application form may be made through any of the secretaries of the local W. I. branches.

This brought Mrs. Bellish's address to a close.

Mrs. Sloan thanked the District Director for her very worth-while talk, and then called for a motion to be made to the effect that a message be sent to Mrs. T. H. Howes from the Conference wishing her every success in her mission.

Mrs. Pidcock of Kitscoty then gave the Courtesy report, in which she thanked all those who had given of their time and efforts to make the 1957 Conference the success it was.

APPRECIATION

I would like to take the opportunity at this time on behalf of the Constituency Convener and all branches of the Vermilion-Alexandria Constituency to thank the editors and staffs of the Vermilion Standard and The Mannville Mirror for so kindly allotting us space for the pre-conference publicity and the covering of the Conference itself.

Respectfully submitted,
(Mrs. T. R.) K. E. Reeves,
Publicity Convener.

Mrs. Carmen Miller of Edmonton spent the Dominion Day week end in Vermilion visiting Mr and Mrs. Murray Miller.

Pleasant Valley

Badly needed rain fell on Monday, the crops, gardens and grass benefitting greatly. We still need more.

The flowers are really nice and it is a great year for roses. There are 152 blooms on one rose bush. Better count yours Isabell.

Mr and Mrs W J Potvin had the latter's two sisters and husbands from Edmonton as guests over the holiday week end. Mr and Mrs. Freeman French also spent Saturday evening at the hospitable Potvin home.

Garfield Potvin is expected home for the holidays shortly.

It won't be long now until it's fair time again, the time seems to slide along so quickly.

Wayne Gould is spending some time at Edmonton visiting his cousins.

Keith and Jean Gould and the children were Sunday visitors at the family home.

•• •• ••

At time of writing a cool wind is blowing coming straight from the northland. Flowers are whipping, rose bushes loaded with blooms are really bending over in the strong wind. A good soaking rain is certainly needed.

The gardens around town are lovely after the showers of this week. Mrs [illegible] garden is really something to see with a mass of pink peonies in bloom.

The writer has a lovely Amerilla in bloom. How many have seen a white one? These bulbs are quite rare.

On Saturday many gathered in St Saviour's parish hall to wish Mr and Mrs. Shaw many more years of happiness on the anniversary of their Golden wedding. It was a most enjoyable occasion. Old friends travelled from Edmonton and North Battleford to take part in the celebration.

On Sunday quite a number from this district went fishing. Fishing was good and so were the stories heard about the big ones that got away! The scales of a fish come off very easily if you use a curry comb — so says Lawrence.

Betty and Lloyd Gould were dinner guests at Christie and Annie's home on Sunday.

The Joy family from Kitscoty were Sunday guests at the home of the writer on Sunday. A very enjoyable day was spent. Are you still laughing Ted? Another fish story.

The caterpillars are doing a lot of damage to the trees hereabouts. Some entire bluffs are stripped bare of foliage.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

The weather — a shower a drizzle, on the afternoon of June 25th. We are badly in need of rain yet. In many of the fields the ground is not yet covered with growth.

Two students, Mr. Jacques Lebel and Mr Jean Guy Duquet from the University of Montreal have been TB testing cattle in the district and are doing township 51. They are working under Dr Young of Vermilion. Five students came west from Quebec and [illegible] from Ontario. Jacques and Jean have one more year at University then they will be on their own. They like the West very much and are very appreciative boys.

Mr and Mrs. Isidore Nelson had the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Ockerman and Carl and Olga visit them from Ferguson Flats the week end of June 22. They all enjoyed Sunday dinner at the Frank Schmidt home in town.

Mr and Mrs Louis Baldock motored to the city to spend the week end of June 22 with daughter Beryl, Tommy and family. Tommy left for Vancouver Sunday evening on a business trip and will be away for about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stetson and sons from Fort Saskatchewan spent the week end of June 22 at the latter's parents', the Wm. Cruse home.

The supper on the lawn at the Cruse farm was enjoyed very much. It was nice to hear it was so successful.

Allandale was well represented at the shower held in Clandonald for niece Lorna and Tommy. We are grateful to all who helped to make it such a success.

To the newlyweds, our great niece Dorothy Edwards, Mr and Mrs George Dimma, our congratulations and best wishes. The bride looked lovely and it was a happy group. It was very enjoyable to visit with relatives of the bride from a distance.

We missed our usual mailman Mr Martin on the 28th. Cream was left sitting in the sun, the letters in the boxes and no mail delivery.

Mrs. Norman Anderson and family from Lloydminster were visitors at the Armstrong home after the wedding of her niece, Dorothy Edwards. Son Gary attends school in the city and is home now for the holidays.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bev Baldock on the birth of a daughter on June 29th.

Another shower of rain on the morning of the 30th has helped to improve conditions very much.

Old friends of the Nelsons passed through town recently in the persons of Mrs. Evelena Wilson and son Martin from the city. They called at the Throndson home in town and intended to call on the Johnny Nelson's in Lloydminster. Mrs. Wilson had just located cousins at Turtleford she had never seen so she and her son were on their way to visit them for the long week end.

Mr and Mrs. James Walsh, Adele Doreen, Wayne and Laura arrived at the latter's parents' home the Omnessens on Sunday evening June 30th.

While in Edmonton Mrs. Walsh visited with Sister Gabriel and Sister Estelle who were teachers at St. Joseph's convent some 15 years ago. They were very interested to learn of students who attended there at that time.

Mr Albert Armstrong who is employed at Eldorado, arrived home on holidays June 28th. Albert is taking his parents on a holiday to the west coast.

Closing thought: "Many have clutching hands of selfishness and clenched fists of hate. The world needs more consecrated hands which God can use to reveal His love through daily service for His children."

THE CANADIAN MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Alberta Division
Room 103, Crown Bldg.,
10046 — 101 St. Edmonton, Alta.

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir,—There are some 4300 of our fellow citizens in Alberta's mental hospitals and institutions every day of the year. The Canadian Mental Health Association seeks volunteers and members in all parts of the Province to help these citizens afflicted with mental illness.

Our campaign is being held in various parts of Alberta at this point. We hope during this time to enrol a large body of individual supporters and to establish Mental Health Committees in as many communities as possible.

Here are some of C.M.H.A.'s practical services to patients:

- Provision of birthday gifts
- Provision of attractive supplementary clothing
- Provision of books, magazines
- The organization of volunteer visitors to the hospitals to share in the social and recreational activities of the patients
- The presentation of a useful guide book "Mental Illness, A Guide for the Family" to friends and relatives of patients.

C.M.H.A. is also vitally concerned with prevention of mental illness. Our activities in this field are conducted under the scheme known as the "White Cross Open Door Service." Under this scheme our Divisional office and our special committees offer information upon mental health to all enquirers. We distribute literature. We promote lecture courses, public meetings, plays, films, and discussions to spread knowledge about mental health. We conduct conferences for people specifically concerned with mental health problems — for example, on marriage guidance and counselling; upon mental health in industry.

Finally, we promote and support research. Our own Alberta Scientific Planning Committee is conducting a number of studies at the present upon urgent questions, for example, Treatment Facilities for Emotionally Disturbed Children. We are also organizing a National Research Foundation.

We feel strongly that people will be anxious to help in this work and we will therefore be grateful to you, Mr. Editor, if you will print this letter. Your readers who are interested are invited to write for further information to:

C.M.H.A., Alberta Division,
Room 103, Crown Building,
10046 - 101 Street,
EDMONTON.

Yours sincerely,
R. Desmond Sparham,
Executive Director.

Small Business

Small business is the backbone of Canada's economy, says The Financial Post. Of 39,000 manufacturing firms in Canada, 97.1% are small companies. They employ 700,000 people and produce 38.5% of the total value of all our manufactured goods.

"GREEN ACRES"

CRIBBING FOR SEWAGE

Anyone planning on putting in a sewage system ought to enquire at this office. Forms for the concrete walls for septic tanks can be rented. If enough farmers are interested I think we can get the forms at a great saving as planks plastered with concrete are not too much use for anything else.

SEEDING DOWN GULLIES

Bert Hozack, field supervisor for Vermilion River and your D.A. visited about 20 farms in the last two weeks where the farmers said that gullies were forming due to water erosion. We found that the damage was very serious and likely to get worse on all these farms. The M.D. of Vermilion River has a policy for supplying grass seed at one-third cost for seeding down gullies or places where the gullies may develop. So far we have not had much co-operation from farmers in this project. Grass seed is on hand but only three farmers in the M.D. so far have agreed to seed down the gullies. Why wait until it will cost a lot of money to fill in the gullies. Do something now.

LOUSE CONTROL

There is no doubt that lice on cattle in this area take a terrific toll. Lousy cattle get thin in the winter time, even on the best of feed. Why not organize a group of several farmers to get a power sprayer and treat cattle against lice in the fall? Many other districts in Alberta are getting organized to buy sprayers. Why not in this area? I will attend group meetings and tell the story of what to do to get organized.

FEED SHORTAGE

Once again I wish to publish a warning that we may not have enough hay this year to bring our cattle through the coming winter. Everyone owning cattle should do something about seeding oats for green feed. It can be pastured in the fall or cut for hay.

CUT HAY EARLY

As soon as brome is in head it should be cut for hay. Haying is left too late in this area. In Ontario haying is about over for the first cut. Why not in this district? Second crops of alfalfa and brome can never be expected unless the first crop is cut during the first week in July. I know you will say that there is very little to cut — but cut it anyway. When and if more rain comes it will increase the hay yield far more if the first crop is off the field.

NEWS from ISLAY

WILDMERE WINKS

Basswood and Wildmere districts received a severe shock on Friday evening when word came that Mrs. R. Gilholme of Vancouver, B.C. had passed away suddenly that morning. Mr and Mrs Gilholme and family came to the Basswood district early in 1929 from England. They were grand neighbors, always ready to help when needed. Leaving here in 1942 they spent a short while at Cherhill Alta then moved to Edmonton where they resided until last December when they sold their home and moved to Vancouver to be near their married daughters and grandchildren. She leaves to mourn her passing her sorrowing husband and four daughters Elsie Mrs H Locke (Mary) of Huntingdon B.C. Mrs D Johnson (Jean) Mrs Smith (Margaret) of New Westminster B.C. and two sons, Richard of Edmonton and Robert of the R.C.M.P. of Saskatoon. There are several grandchildren. We all extend our deepest sympathy to the sorrowing husband and family in their hour of bereavement. Her book of life is closed but it contains many pleasant memories and these we must remember.

Our little church in Wildmere really had an uplifting last week when it was re-painted inside and the pews re-painted too. Floors and windows were cleaned. It really looks nice now. Mr Breighaupt gave a splendid Dominion Day service on Sunday evening and the children's choir sang so nicely. Two bouquets of flowers were place in the church on Sunday by Mr and Mrs Wallington in loving memory of two good friends, Mrs. M. Finlay of Mannville and Mrs. R. Gilholme of Vancouver.

The writer attended three weddings on Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. Isley, Mr and Mrs R. Bond, and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham. They were all beautiful and we wish them all many years of health and happiness together. Rev. MacKay was kept quite busy on Friday and Saturday. He will appreciate his holiday after his year of intense church work.

Anyone wanting to ship old woollens for blankets etc please get in touch with Mrs F Haines of Vermilion R.R. 3, or phone 2223 before July 15th.

The Wildmere-Tolland annual telephone bee is being held on July 8th and 9th — plan to attend. Those who use the phone and are not ratepayers should give a helping hand as well. It will all be appreciated very much.

"You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand

It needs must be, since he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same and say

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Smith Farewelled At Dewberry

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Smith were agreeably surprised on being presented with a chest of silverware in the White Orchid pattern by Mr. Neil Jones on behalf of the Community. A lovely opaline relish dish trimmed in 22k gold and a matching devilled egg server by Mrs. John Porter from the Ladies Aid and a beautiful hymnary each with their names inscribed in gold lettering by Mr. Harlan Green, from the Choir of which both were members.

Mr. Jones, Mrs. Porter and Mr. Green said how much they would both be missed by each [illegible]

Mr. Smith has been principal of the Dewberry schools for the past four years. During that time he has prepared himself to be a man of deep integrity and discretion. The first year most of his students thought him as a too strict disciplinarian but as the second year advanced they recognized that he was fair thinking and just. Nothing was too much trouble where his pupils were concerned. In school work and sports he was always an able and willing councillor. He was active in public life also. No one received a refusal from him for any thing for the welfare of the community.

He will be very much missed by all. At the picnic one could hear on all sides words of regret at his leaving the district. Mr. Smith has accepted a position on the teaching staff at Mannville. They will occupy a beautiful five room apartment with all facilities. Mr. and Mrs. Smith thanked everyone for their beautiful gifts and for their kindness.

One thing Dewberry has done [illegible] never be able to accomplish. On coming to Dewberry he was heart whole and fancy free until he met Miss Irene Hutchinson. Then wedding bells rang out and we all rejoiced. Next was the birth of his first-born a daughter secondly his son, James Donald.

Shower Honors Miss Isobel Fisher At Clandonald

In honor of Miss Isobel Fisher of Clandonald who was married recently in Edmonton, Mrs. McGuckin, Mrs. Rose McMullan and Mrs. R. Michael entertained some thirty ladies at the latter's home Sunday evening, June 30.

Isobel was presented with many useful and beautiful gifts. Assisting her in opening the gifts were two former school pals, Mrs. Michael Brodbin and Lenore Michael. After each gift had been opened and admired by all present, Isobel very graciously thanked all the ladies for their kindness and thoughtfulness.

Refreshments were then served after which a very jolly evening of songs and dances was enjoyed. The highlights of the evening were some old time fiddling by Bob Michael, a [illegible] selection by Shorty McMullan; Irish Step Dance by Mrs. McGuckin; acrobatic stunts, Mrs Rose McMullan; accordian music and songs by Lenore Michael. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" ended a very enjoyable evening.

Local Resident Is Fined In Boating Accident

(From Bonnyville Tribune)

"A resident of Bonnyville appeared in court Thursday before Police Magistrate Oscar Audette on a charge of careless boating and was fined $35 and costs after pleading guilty.

The incident occurred on Moose Lake June 16th when the accused was boating and rammed into another boat upsetting same and spilling its four occupants into about 12 feet of water. The occupants were all injured and the boat was quite extensively damaged.

Magistrate Audette pointed out to the accused that his offence was a serious one which could have easily resulted in the loss of the lives of all four occupants of the boat. He also made it clear to the accused that anyone violating the Canada Shipping Act is liable to a fine of anything up to $500. Boaters are to travel at the rate of not more than 10 m.p.h. when travelling within 200 yards from shore and 5 m.p.h. when within 200 feet from another boat. Judge Audette told the accused that in view of the plea for leniency by the prosecuting R.C.M.P. officer the fine would be only $35 and costs. A small fine for a serious offence."

Ed Note: Anyone wishing to lodge a complaint against careless boaters are urged to see the R.C.M.P. who will investigate all reports. This is being done to curb all reckless or careless boaters on our beaches.

Paradise Valley

Mr and Mrs Fred Sirett were visitors with friends at Hinton over the week end returning on Monday.

With a splendid turnout of shareholders to the Oxville cemetery on Wednesday afternoon for the annual clean up day and meeting the cemetery has a new look. With four power lawn mowers and a host of willing helpers the entire cemetery was mowed, dirt was removed by Fred Sirett and his tractor, the graves levelled and all trimmed making a wonderful improvement. Directors were re-elected for another year. Mr Arnold Nickle is again the secretary.

Miss Lois Stoddart of Red Deer spent the long week end with relatives in Paradise Valley. Lois is working in a bank at Red Deer.

School is over for another term. The teachers are scattered far and wide north, south, east and west. Just how many will return we do not know but we understand there will be quite a change in the staff next term.

Mrs. Venus Nichols of Edmonton was a visitor with her friends of many years ago in Paradise Valley during the past week. Mrs. Nichols was the former Venus McNish and lived in Paradise Valley many years ago. While here she was the guest of Mrs. W. A. Gunn.

The Paradise Valley Hall club sponsored a very successful picnic and dance on Wednesday afternoon. A good crowd turned out for the picnic and while the evening sports were cut short by a good shower no one was downhearted as rain was needed badly. We still need more rain as crops are standing still if not going back.

If you have visitors please leave names at the post office as your correspondent cannot get the news of the district without your help.

Parents — watch your children whenever they are near water — and prevent a dreadful tragedy.

Bevy of Beauties at Fair Midway

This beautifully costumed array of beauties is featured in the "Parade" number of Monica Daye's all-girl extravaganza on the big midway of World's Finest Shows, appearing at Vermilion Fair July 25, 26 and 27. One of the most brilliant revues of its kind ever to appear on any stage, this sparkling presentation combines a bevy of beautiful girls, elaborate stage settings and costumes and music by the famous Joe Higden's True Tone Trio, into a delightful hour long musical based on such production numbers as the "Parisian Can Can", Canadian Capers [illegible] Stars on Parade. The cast is liberally sprinkled with several stars of the American 'girlesque' circuits and includes the famous "Flying Saucer Girl", Grace Williams, the lovely Lorelei, the statuesque blonde Vicki Lamonte and the producing star, famous Monica Daye.

There are more than forty rides and shows on the mile long midway of World's Finest Shows this year. It is by far the biggest ever to appear in Vermilion [illegible] is featuring an entirely new lineup of shows as well as many new rides. 30-1

Banquet and Dance Climax To First Aid Classes at Mannville

MANNVILLE — The L.O.B.A. hall at Mannville was the scene of a gathering unique in the annals of the town, the occasion being the bi-annual banquet and dance of the successful candidates of the Canadian National Railways First Aid classes of the Vegreville and Blackfoot Subs.

Under the very able chairmanship of Mr J. E. Prill of Vermilion, some one hundred candidates were presented with St. John Ambulance awards, and amongst which were a number of vouchers for the successful passing of second year examinations and also some medallions for completion of third year studies.

Amongst the guests at the head table in addition to the Chairman and Mrs. Prill were Mr G. E. Dunbar Superintendent of the Edmonton Division with Mrs Dunbar together with his Divisional Engineer Mr G. W. Linke and Mrs Linke. The town was ably represented by His Worship Mayor A. E. 'Bert' Williams and Mrs Williams. Mr Williams brought greetings from the town and entertained the gathering with some well chosen stories.

Mr S. S. 'Sid' Harper Supervisor of First Aid for the Canadian National Railways Alberta and B.C. districts with Mrs Harper were amongst the honored guests. Mr Williams conducted the visitors from Edmonton on a tour of the town, of which he is justly proud, and pointed out various beauty spots and points of interest.

Dr D. Hasinoff of Mannville and Dr J. N. Kuzyk of Vegreville with their ladies at the head table represented the medical profession and each addressed the candidates pointing out the relationship between the doctor and the first-aider.

In addition to being a very advanced first-aider and lecturer, Mr Harper proved he is a magician of no mean ability and entertained the assembly with a demonstration of sleight of hand that evoked great applause.

The candidates were then introduced by Mr Harper and the awards were presented by Mr Dunbar who stressed the railways great interest in first aid and congratulated the recipients of awards and Mr. Harper on his success as a lecturer. The banquet was provided by the ladies of the Orange Lodge of Mannville under the convenership of Mrs Findlay, and a vote of thanks was tendered by Mr Linke seconded by all who partook thereof. Mrs Erna Gerhart presided at the piano for the toast to Her Majesty.

First Woman Minister

Apart from guaranteeing that a woman would have a place in his cabinet, Mr. Diefenbaker said little about the role of women in politics, says The Financial Post in a comment on the appointment of Mrs. Ellen Fairclough of Hamilton as Secretary of State. Mrs. Fairclough took care not to introduce the old-style feminist note into her speeches and appearances.

The Conservatives didn't have to make speeches about women. They could, instead, point to Mrs. Fairclough as an example of how a hardworking, able woman could go onward and upward in the party.

The Liberals, on the other hand sometimes found themselves having to explain to gatherings of female voters how it is that, after 22 years in office, they were unable to produce even one first-rank female candidate in any of the 263 federal constituencies.

Motorcycle Maniacs At Vermilion Fair, July 25, 26 and 27

The dare-devil riders of the "Motorcycle Maniacs" one of the exciting new attractions with World's Finest Shows are shown here riding the perpendicular wall of the giant motordrome.

Nick-named "Wall of Death" by the performers because of the high casualty rate among all riders the Motordrome riders shown here, Curley Jackson (top) and Bob Smith travelling at break-neck speed, are lining up their motorcycles for the exciting and dangerous climax when they will cross and recross each other's paths with only the slightest fraction of an inch between their whirling wheels. The slightest miscalculation on the part of the drivers could quite easily cause very serious injury, and possibly death.

The beautiful and daring Jeannie Garbe another member of this courageous troupe joins both of the boys on the wall in another exciting act when all 3 riders do the triple cross ride, an amazing death - defying stunt, well calculated to thrill every spectator, of any age.

With more than forty thrilling attractions of every kind of rides and shows, the World's Finest have by far the biggest midway they have produced and are, as usual, featuring America's biggest Kiddieland with more than fifteen rides for the kids alone.

IT'S A FACT

On the newsstand the other day I picked up a little book called "Quick Canadian Facts". I took it with me to the country cottage and did a bit of learning while my family frittered away valuable time getting meals, splitting wood, repairing boats and refusing to recognize that Father far from being a loafer was improving himself with book learning. That evening, in front of the fireplace I was able to show off.

For example, I could tell them that Canada is the world's second largest country – 3,845,774 square miles compared with Russia's 8,598,701. We've only about 7 persons per square mile, however, while the United States has more than 50 persons, so that's a reason why our output per man hour is 25 to 40 percent below the States. They can have longer production runs with consequent lower costs. Until we increase our population we are under a real handicap in competing with them. But we have certain advantages too.

We still have two-thirds of our country to develop. In northern Alberta alone there are about [illegible] of untilled land. We've the famous Precambrian Shield, a vast reservoir of forest-land and water-power resources and loaded with minerals. We're first in production of nickel, asbestos and platinum, second in gold, [illegible] third in silver, forth in copper and lead. Canada ranks first in the world in the output of newsprint, second in wood pulp and hydro-electric power, third in sawn lumber, fourth in wheat.

My son tried to stump me. "How long a term can a government have?" I was quick with the answer, for I had just read it in my fact book: "The members of the House of Commons are elected for a maximum term of five years." He had another: "How many representatives does Manitoba have?" The answer from the book: 14. Saskatchewan has 17, Alberta the same, while B. C. has 22.

"How much do the Members of Parliament get paid?" was the next question shot at me by the family circle. They get $10,000, two thousand of which is tree from tax, about the only thing in Canada free of taxes as far as I can gather.

Thanks to Quick Canadian Facts, which cost me about the price of a package of smokes, I was an expert for an evening. It's quite a thrill, and that's a [illegible].

Miss Sheila McCorry has accepted a position at the Lodge at Bow Lake for the holidays.

WILDMERE WINKS

The community along with the writer extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. John Wilson and her sisters and brothers on the loss of a loving mother, who passed away in Edmonton on Monday. Mrs. Finlay was an old timer of Mannville, coming there in the early days. She saw the country change from the days of oxen and the sod and log houses to the modern homes and fast mode of travel. Her home was always a welcome stopping place for the early settlers.

There was a nice attendance at church Sunday evening. The children's choir sang a hymn. Mr. Breighaupt's text was "Take up thy yoke and follow Me."

On Monday a "bee" was held to paint the interior of Wildmere United Church. [illegible] and a few children came. A real picnic was enjoyed while doing the work as well. A pot luck dinner was served at noon with oodles of good eats. All the main parts of the inside were done with a few window casing left to give a second coat and the floor to do. It surely makes a wonderful change. The church Board wishes to heartily thank everyone for all their kind help. It was greatly appreciated more than words can tell. A good thing no hat-makers were present or they might have got some new hat creation ideas.

Laurence Graham, Commissionaire at Wainwright Army Camp spent his four day leave at the Wallington home this week. He also helped at the church on [illegible].

Several attended the Wainwright Stampede on Friday and Saturday. It really rained in Wainwright and a nice shower fell in some parts in our corner while others never got any. Some grain is in the shot blade and very short and with dry weather grain did not stool like it should so is thin in places. No bumper crops for our part this year. Nature knows how to cut down the grain surplus.

Miss Marlene Smith, Nurses Aide at the Claresholm Hospital, is home on a few days leave to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Basswood.

A nice crowd attended the open house held at the Hospital on Saturday. It really is a wonderful building now. The members of the Board who foresaw the need of such a useful addition are to be congratulated on their achievement. The Board was on hand to escort the visitors around. Coffee and doughnuts were served. We were glad to see Dr. Bradford and his family come for the occasion.

"A Stranger In The Arctic"

A Story of the Far North

by
[illegible]
(Fort Good Hope, N.W.T. 1957)

THE STORY SO FAR

Many strange tales are wrought in the North, and when an unheralded stranger suddenly appeared in the Arctic settlement of Fort Good Hope, rumors concerning his origin were rife among the natives. Taciturn, sullen, aloof, "Jess" Cully made no friends — even among the few whites in the area. Finally, however, he noticed a young and pretty native girl, Rosa Ringbuk, niece of the chief of the tribe. He wasted no time in preliminaries and after a pow-wow with her father, "bought" the girl. The wedding took place in spite of Rosa's protests, for she loved young Manuel Vitalenny. Cully took his bride to his [illegible] but well built and equipped cabin in the wilds, but Rosa's heart remained with Manuel.

A year passes before Cully and Rosa return to the settlement, where Rosa gives birth to a baby boy. She remains very weak and her cousin took over the feeding and care of the infant. Cully is forced to leave them with Rosa's people and it is winter before she regains her health. Meanwhile the baby dies. On his return to the settlement, Cully learns that the foster-mother is a T.B. victim, which is the cause of the baby's death. He flies into a rage, beats Rosa and takes her back to his camp. Three years pass with no return trip for Rosa, but Cully has given her a wolf pup which she raises and tames. And then one day, while Cully is away on his trap-line, Manuel Vitalenny appears.

Now go on with the story

Earlier that day, Manuel had seen from a distance that Cully was preparing to set out on a trip, probably to visit his trap lines. Manuel decided to seize this opportunity to visit Rosa, to tell her that he was building a campsite of his own at last. The excitement of his arrival soon passed and Rosa became nervous, fearing that Cully would perhaps return unexpectedly and find Manuel there. Manuel sensed her uneasiness, its cause, and he was seized anew with a frustrated desire to take Rosa away with him and flee from her cantankerous husband. But he knew that he not only lacked the courage to do this, but that he would never be able to escape the fury of Cully if he did so.

He assured Rosa that he would leave and be out of sight before Cully returned, but before starting on his way he once again described to her the route to his new camp. "It is less than three miles distant," he said, "across the river and just beyond the first hill which you can see from here. Promise me that you will come to me if ever the day should arrive when you need my aid.

"For I do not trust this Cully," he went on. "He has the look of a cruel and merciless man and his eyes are those of a savage beast."

Rosa was very near to tears. "Please go now, Manuel," she told him in their own tongue. "I will remember your kind offer to me and I thank you. I pray that it will not become necessary to seek your aid from danger, but if it should come to pass then I shall go to you."

Cully did not return until two days later. In the meantime a snowfall had obliterated any sign which might have told him that someone had visited his camp during his absence.

But such luck was not always to be Manuel, though he had often longed to cross the river once more to reassure himself that all was well with Rosa, had restrained this longing—for a time. Then one day in the following spring he led his dogs to the river ice, pulling a light toboggan, for the snow was almost gone from the land and only the river enabled dog team travel. He crossed the ice at great risk for it was May and the breaking up of the ice was imminent.

As before, Cully was absent but Rosa expected him back momentarily as he had not taken any food for either himself or the dogs when he had left that morning. Also she was filled with fear at the foolishness of Manuel's crossing the ice when he should have noted its condition and taken warning.

"See now how the ice is rotting and candled," she warned. "You must be very cautious and pick your way carefully going back." Even as she spoke the ice heaved in one place and an ominous cracking sound was [illegible].

"Oh Manuel, you must not risk it again," Rosa cried with a little sob. "Go instead to the settlement, through the woods on the trail that Cully has made."

But Manuel was adamant. He bade her not to fret as he turned to go back the way he had come. "The ice will not go for several days yet," he told her. "It is too early — recall how late it was last year before the river was [illegible]."

Rosa retraced her steps to the cabin, but stopped where her pet, the wolf, now almost full grown, was chained to a post in the yard. She absently stroked his rough gray head as she watched Manuel's departure over the ice. He was picking his way cautiously as she had urged him to do, using the long, heavy handle of his dog whip to test the ice ahead of himself and his dogs as he progressed. An intense feeling of desolation suddenly seized her and she knew, without [illegible] how she knew, that this would be a day of disaster.

Almost on the heels of this thought, she heard the sound of Cully's return. She stood frozen, a desperate fear clutching her heart. The wolf caught the fear-scent; the hackles along his spine rose and he growled low, pushing himself closer to Rosa as though to protect her.

Cully, glimpsing Rosa standing there so strangely idle did not stop to unharness his dogs from the light loaded but tethered them at the back of the cabin and strode into the front yard. His eyes followed her stricken gaze and he saw the reason for the fear which had stamped itself upon her features. For Manuel was still in sight.

"Who is he?" he demanded, his voice low and controlled.

Rosa's voice quavered as she answered, "Manuel Vitalenny."

Manuel was unaware of the drama taking place in the camp behind him; he was still cautiously making his way across the ice.

Grasping Rosa's shoulders in a hurting, tenacious grip, his face contorted in fury, Cully shook her frenziedly, reviling her with curses. Rosa, terror-stricken now, could not find her tongue to tell him that his conclusions were wrong — that all was not as he thought. She tried to tell him that Manuel had not come often and had not come at all as her lover. She, Rosa, had never been an unfaithful wife. But her paralyzed throat would not respond. Her eyes grew wild as Cully's fury mounted and became almost maniacal.

Health Unit Notes

A CHILD'S FEET AND HIS FUTURE

The healthy feet of the adult depend upon the care of feet and choice of shoes and socks from infancy to adolescence.

Most young mothers are inclined to put their babies into shoes too soon. The anxious mother often asks, "When should I buy shoes for may baby; what should I buy?" The correct answer is that the baby should be without shoes for as long as possible, he needs nothing on his feet and very loose wool socks for warmth in winter until he definitely shows signs of trying to toddle.

First shoes are important and should have four essential characteristics: lightness, flexibility; depth to allow for room right up to the end; and firmness.

Strap shoes for the very small child are not recommended. The shoes must be so light that the child does not feel their weight, flexibility so that he can wriggle his toes with freedom.

The toddler's shoe should be fitted to allow length enough for growing but not too much so that the child inclines to trip. When a child emerges from the age of toddling in which he places one ahead of the other without bending his feet he needs a half to three quarters of an inch in length to spare. For when he begins to walk his toes develop rapidly, the big toe becoming longer than the others. It is at this stage children's feet need watching because they grow very fast and the regular size check every three to four months is recommended to ensure the shoes are big enough.

The shoe needs of the child who walks and runs and has emerged from the stage of toddling are different. He needs a sturdier shoe [illegible] fitted [illegible] [illegible] the movements of his feet [illegible] shoe should be [illegible] allow for [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] about [illegible] What the child [illegible] fitted [illegible] should [illegible] the upper for a tiny fold to be picked up between finger and thumb. If the shoe is too loose in the forepart it will crease too deeply as he bends his foot causing blisters and corns to start. It is important that the shoes or sandals that the child wears should fit well at the heel and not slide up and down. When the new shoe is on the foot, get the child to bend his feet and walk in the shoes before deciding to buy them and watch the heel.

Instructions to mothers about children's shoes should emphasis the following points:

1. That only one pair of shoes should be bought for a child at a time.
2. That the child should have two pairs of shoes in wear to allow for repairs.
3. That new shoes should not be kept for best but put in wear at once or they will be outgrown before they are worn out.
4. That shoes should never be bought for the child by the mother or any member of the family without the child being fitted in the shop by a trained shoe fitter.
5. That children should never be asked if their shoes are comfortable. A small girl who likes the color of a pair of shoes or a boy who is bored with the procedure of fitting will say yes to anything.

WHAT SORT OF SHOES ARE BEST?

For the tiny toddler a soft unlined shoe or low and boot lacing over the instep.

For the school girl and boy lacing shoes for everyday in the winter, well cut and shaped sandals with one or two straps for summer.

North Battleford Band At Park On Sunday, July 7

News that will be heralded with delight is that once again people of Vermilion and district will have the opportunity to [illegible] the North Battleford Kinsmen band. Since playing here last year they have won many top honors and apparently are better than ever—if that is possible.

It will be recalled that as well as rendering the wonderful concert from the band shell, the band members gave an exhibition of precision marching that was a marvel to behold.

Many citizens have asked that if ever the opportunity presented the North Battleford Kinsmen band be brought back to Vermilion and the Rotary club is thus overjoyed to announce that the band will be here on Sunday, July 7th when on their way to play in the Calgary Stampede parade where they won first prize one year ago.

WOODVALE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goutier accompanied by their daughter Cecile of Camrose and Jerry Halton as the driver, took an extensive car trip earlier this month, stopping at Camrose, Red Deer and Cardston, where they stayed with Father Maurice Goutier and with him took in the Indian Stampede at Brocket, and made trips to Frank and Waterton Park. Father Goutier is teaching at the Indian school at Cardston and everyone enjoyed their visit there very much.

A telephone repair and building bee was organized for June 18th and there was a very good turn out. A lot of poles were renewed and reset and quite a bit of brush cut.

Gravel has been put on several roads in the district and we hear a few more will be done later. The road east of the Tolland community centre might even be rebuilt to do away with the bad curve in the coulee. All this is and will be a great improvement.

With the warm weather talk about building a curling rink blossoms forth once again. It's a cool thought but it takes a lot of hot planning and fast work to get one up before winter comes all too soon once again!

Light showers have been falling here and there but a real good rain is badly needed and soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McQuid have another house moved to their place and hope to have it fixed up in the near future before winter comes.

Our niece, Liet [illegible], of Leyden, The Netherlands, has arrived at our place for a few weeks visit.

We are sorry that the above news items could not be mailed in time for the June 20th issue of the Standard, especially about the picnic. Maybe a few will still read it in time to go if they missed the advertisement about it in the Standard.

Showers, but mostly light, have been falling, but more rain is urgently needed, although crops on the whole are better around here than they are north and south as we noticed driving on trips to Dewberry and Wainwright.

Mrs. Mabel Webber attended the wedding of her niece, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Trevithick, in Edmonton recently.

A wedding of interest to the district took place in Vermilion on Saturday, June 29th when Hazel May became the bride of John Isley, with her sister Loraine and Lenore McGinnis as bridesmaids and Ernest and James Isley as attendants to the groom. A reception was held afterwards on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents and later they left for an unknown destination, probably south! We all wish you many happy years together Hazel and Johnny.

Mr. Jim Ross was not able to go to his grandson's wedding as he left for Edmonton that day to enter University hospital for an operation to remove one of his eyes which has been causing him to suffer severe headaches.

Ernie Isley left for the city to attend summer school and Mr. J. Hohol followed a day later to take some more courses in philosophy and mathematics towards his university B.A. degree.

The community is very sorry to hear that Mr. Hohol will not return next year to teach in the Woodvale school. He will be on the staff of the Junior high in Barrhead. He and his family will be greatly missed after four years residence in this district. However, Mrs. Hohol and the children will stay here while Mr. Hohol is in Edmonton and will not move until the latter part of August.

Five pupils, four from Woodvale and one from Wildwood wrote their grade 9 exams this year in the school. On [illegible] 28th the closing picnic was [illegible] with the 1957 grade ones as guests and many parents. A ball game was played between pupils and ex pupils which proved to be lots of fun and so close no one was quite sure who won! A weiner roast with lots to eat besides weiners was held at the close of the picnic at the Roger Watt farm. Janet Gurney presented Mr Hohol on behalf of Mrs. Roberts and the pupils with a beautiful footstool and belt. Thus another school year came to a successful end.

The Goutier children, Jeanne and Robert, came home for the summer holidays from Morinville where they attended school.

Mr and Mrs. B. Engelsman from The Hague, The Netherlands, spent a week at the Van Wageningen farm. They flew from Amsterdam to Vancouver in 20 hours, by C.P.A. with only one short stop in Labrador, to visit their daughter in Abbotsford where they will spend the month of July again, before returning home.

Mr Hohol, who has been the secretary-treasurer of the Woodvale Community Centre club for the past year, turned the books over to Mr David Sweeney at a meeting at the centre on Wednesday, June 26th. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dickson were also present that evening. Another meeting will be called later to choose a successor and make plans for the future.

OUR LETTER FROM EDMONTON

Uniform Teachers' Salaries Being Investigated by Provincial Govt.

by KEN MASON

EDMONTON. — The provincial government has decided to delve into the highly controversial matter of a uniform salary schedule for all school teachers in the province.

What the outcome will be is anyone's guess, but the inquiry announced last week will certainly bring out into the open a long smouldering dispute between the powerful Alberta Teachers' Association and the Alberta School Trustees' Association.

And the general public has a large stake in the question as well because it is the taxpayers who foot the bill for salaries paid to teachers in thousands of Alberta classrooms.

A. T. A. OPPOSED

The Alberta Teachers' Association is unalterably opposed at this stage to introduction of a province-wide salary scale. The school trustees, on the other hand think it's a good idea.

A three-man commission was named by order-in-council last week to tackle the knotty problem and come up with an answer. Its members are G. M. Blackstock, retired chairman of the board of public utility commissioners, John Harvie, former deputy minister of lands and forests, and Dr H. E. Smith, the former dean of education at the University of Alberta.

In addition to studying a proposed scale or scales, it will have to decide what form the salary scale should take, how it would be established and how it would be altered from time to time. It also will study the effects of such a departure on local school administration, the financing of education, teacher supply and the "morale" of the profession.

Morale is probably one of the biggest factors. The teachers foresee a great loss in bargaining advantage if their salaries are determined on a province-wide basis. They prefer the present system of threshing out the best deal they can with each individual school board.

HOPE FOR END OF CONTINUED NEGOTIATION

The school trustees are hoping for an end to the continual negotiation and discussion with the teachers over salary scales. They would be only too happy to let the government take over this phase of school administration.

There is also bound to be discussion of the wide variation between teachers' salaries in city and country schools. A major thorn in the side of rural school trustees is the practice of city school boards luring teachers away with offers of higher salary scales.

Whether the commission will attempt to eliminate this competition by recommending uniform salaries in city and country is one of the major questions. Certainly it's a problem that should be tackled.

The commission will have a tough job trying to reconcile the views of two groups which are essentially opposed to each other. It will be a masterful job if the end result makes everyone happy.

The inquiry into salaries was forecast during the 1957 [illegible] of the legislature. At the [illegible] time, the government promised a survey of the entire field of education. Sometime in the near future a committee or commission will be named to conduct the overall survey which will delve into all aspects of education.

LOVE THOSE SOCREDS

Albertans proved in the recent federal election that they love their Social Credit-ers, electing them to 13 of the province's seventeen seats in the House of Commons.

Not a word has been whispered in provincial circles to date, but government officials must be wondering how the trend would interpret itself in terms of a provincial general election.

In the 1955 general election, voters elected a hefty opposition.

Does the result of the federal election indicate Social Credit could be returned in Alberta with the huge House majority it formerly held? Observers haven't figured on a provincial election until 1959 or 1960, but the top men of Social Credit must be heartened by the response their men received in Alberta June 10.

Keith C. Chalmers Is Promoted To Edmonton V.L.A. Position

Citizens from practically every organization in town gathered at the Legion hall on Friday evening to farewell and to extend best wishes to Mr. Keith Chalmers who will soon leave Vermilion to take over a new and higher position in the offices of the Veterans' Land Act in Edmonton.

For the past eleven years, since being discharged from the army, Keith has been with the Veterans' Land Act as [illegible] [illegible] of the Vermilion South district. He has now received a well-merited promotion to the position of Assistant Regional Supervisor covering Central Alberta. This is one of the largest V.L.A. regions in Canada.

The party on Friday evening, organized by the Legion and joined by many more, was in tribute to a good citizen as Mr. Chalmers has, time and again, proved himself to be. His record of community service in Vermilion is an outstanding one. He is a past president of the Board of Trade; was the first president of the Kinsmen club; an active member of the Legion; presently a member of the town council and is on the vestry of the Anglican church.

All these points were emphasized by G. W. Sutherland, a fellow member of the town council, who on behalf of the eighty well-wishers in attendance, and many more who were unable to attend, presented Keith with a Bell & Howell movie camera with all attachments and film.

The party which was a stag affair, also sent a beautiful bouquet to Mrs. Chalmers.

A nice tribute was paid to the departing citizen by the 'A' Coy. L.E.R. pipe band, which paraded to the hall in full regalia and played several numbers in honor of Keith. This tribute was appreciated by the guest of honor and large gathering alike.

PRESENT SCROLL

The Vermilion Board of Trade also took the opportunity to present a scroll to Mr. Chalmers. The scroll, in nicely worded sentences, extolled his virtues as a member and past president of the Board, and generally of the contribution he had made to the community as a citizen. The presentation of the scroll was made by E. A. Locke, vice-president of the Board of Trade.

To both presentations Mr. Chalmers replied feelingly, saying that such manifestations were entirely unexpected.

Contributing to the success of a very fine social evening were musicians Tony Hodgson and Jack Brown on the piano, Jack Baldwin on the bones, and some community singing.

While there is a feeling of regret that Vermilion is losing an extra fine family, all agree that the promotion is well-earned, and best of success and all happiness is wished Keith, his wife Betty and the four children in their new home in Edmonton.

The Happy Hour group of St. Saviour's church held a farewell for Mrs. Chalmers on Thursday evening while Mr. Chalmers will be guest of honor at a Kinsmen party Saturday night.

Wheat Pool To Hold Elections Soon

June was nomination month for the position of Alberta Wheat Pool delegate in the even-numbered sub-districts. In all, 49 candidates were nominated for 35 positions; at least one nomination was received from each sub-district. In 13 sub-districts there were two or more nominations. In these, elections will be held this summer.

Contesting sub-district 802 are George Bennett and Edward J. McLaughlin, both of Mannville, and Stanley Magdiak, Myrnam.

Giant Parade To Feature Fair

Business organizations, community groups, and local [illegible] and associa[illegible] co-operating very nicely to make Vermilion Fair Parade the biggest and best in history. Strong committees are at work and invite the co-operation of the entire district, not only town groups.

Boys and girls are reminded that cash prizes will be awarded for the best decorated bicycles, and all are urged to make their plans early to appear in the parade.

Jimmie Sullivan, manager of the World's Finest Shows which will be on hand for the Fair has promised that a band will be provided and in conjunction with the well known local Pipe Band there will be plenty of music.

Let's all get together and make the 1957 Parade outstanding in every respect. Watch for full details of prizes in next week's issue of the [illegible].

Surprised By Party On 94th Birthday

MANNVILLE: Members of the Happy Centre W.I. to which Mrs. Gardiner belongs, held a surprise birthday party for her at the home of Mrs. R. Scott on July 4th. There were 24 ladies present and as thirteen of the ladies sat around the tea table all were found to be 70 years old but three. From this information there stemmed a contest, viz. to guess the sum total of the thirteen members' years. Those closest and the winners were Mrs. A. Ross and Mrs. Gardiner. The actual total of these ages was 1098, an interesting and rather amazing total.

340 Registered In Swim Classes

Recreation Supervisor Syd Moore announces that there are 340 registered in the various swimming classes now being conducted at the Vermilion Beach in the park. Included in that [illegible]. At the present time four instructors are busy practically full time teaching the many classes.

In the past ten years about 300,000 persons have emigrated from Canada to the U.S.

Vermilion Park Is Scene Of Farm Forum Gathering

Approximately 200 persons, including adults and children, representing nine Forums in the Northern district, gathered at the Vermilion Park for their annual picnic on July 4th. A shield, awarded to the best all-round group, was duly won by the Waskawa group which hails from south of Vegreville. Resplendent in their feather headdresses, and led by "Chief Wilkinson," the Forum's "teepee" and a map showing the various "permanent teepees" and names of their occupants, gave the judges little doubt that this was [illegible] of the coveted shield. Judges included Milo Fleming, Alberta Wheat Pool fieldman, of Vermilion, and Jim McFall, provincial Secretary, Farm Forum.

Chairman of the afternoon, Lorne Cunningham, and member of the sponsoring forum, Park Grove, called the Forums to order at the bandshell at 1:45 p.m. following dinner, when each Forum answered the roll by a song, call or chant.

Introduced by Northern Committee Chairman Dan Giebelhaus Jim McFall addressed the groups giving highlights of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers meetings held at Lafayette, Indiana, in May. He stated that the I.F.A.P. and farm forum are similar in that each tries to co-ordinate thinking of problems and study national topics of interest, for farm people the world over feel the tight squeeze now in evidence. The delegates, 25 of which came from Canada, were invited out to various farms in the surrounding communities, giving an insight into the problems and methods of farming through the area. Mr McFall went on to state that the delegates were looking to Canada for leadership, recognizing it as an important nation. One important item on the agenda was discussion regarding disposal of surplus farm products without disrupting world markets. The wheat policy of the U. S. was criticized together with the fact that Britain was not a [illegible] of the International Wheat Agreement.

Members of the Northern Committee were then introduced to the group and a letter read from Lloyd Griesbach, National Secretary, N.F.F.F. Races, games and swimming completed an enjoyable afternoon, with coffee and lunch served at 4:30.

V.S.A. Alumni Successful Re-union Honors Classes Of '32 and '47

Former students of the Vermilion School of Agriculture held their annual summer reunion and Rose Ball last Friday afternoon and evening. This summer's reunion featured the anniversaries of graduation for Classes of 1932 and 1947 and attracted good representations from both classes. Those attending to celebrate their 25th anniversary included Mrs. Jean (Calder) McDermid, Mayerthorpe; Mrs Vera (Latam) Russell, Vermilion, Mrs. Dorothy (Irwin) Pettigrew, Vermilion; Mrs. Joan (Currie) Lent, Duffield; Mrs. Lillian (Pitman) Saville, Wainwright; Mrs. Edith (Hutchinson) Blades, Ohaton; Harold Fuder, Irma; Ross Zwierchke, Holden; Stanley Perks, Round Hill; Joe Burton, Irma; Roy Lent, Duffield; Jack Davison, Ryley, S. C. Heckbert of Vermilion and Miss Florence Reid of Calgary who had been members of the instruction staff in 1932 also attended.

The 1947 Class which was the first group to graduate following the school's re-opening after the war was exceptionally well represented. Over sixty of them organized a colorful parade during the evening. Through arrangements made by Angus MacMillan the parade was led by the Vermilion Pipe Band and included numerous campus characters of ten years ago. They were joined by Miss Margaret Lang, J. L. Kerns, J. E. Hawker and D. C. Folk, members of their staff in 1947.

"Agriculture — Alberta — 1957" was the topic chosen by J. E. Hawker for his address to the Alumni at the banquet attended by 150 guests. Mr. Hawker took the opportunity to reflect on his association with many of those present as Dean and member of the instruction staff at the V.S.A. during the period 1945 to 1951 and although recognizing the numerous problems and changing conditions of agriculture today, he expressed confidence in the future that farming holds for the next generation of farmers in this province provided they secure sound basic education and adequate technical training to enable them to compete as businessmen under the conditions that will prevail in this dynamic industry.

A resolution presented by Alan Sheafield establishing two scholarships to the School of Agriculture to be awarded candidates nominated by former students was unanimously adopted.

Over five hundred attended the Rose Ball in the evening where music supplied by Roy Bendiksen and his Combos was enjoyed by all.

Value of construction contract awards in the first five months of 1957 was 14% less than in the same period of 1956, due chiefly to a heavy decline in residential building.

Derwent Farewells Michael Mudryk

DERWENT. A farewell party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mudryk at the National hall when a large number of friends gathered to wish them the best of success in their new home at Waskatenau.

Mr. Mudryk has been appointed manager of the Beaver Lumber yard at Waskatenau. Mrs. Mudryk has been a member of the Derwent teaching staff for several years.

Mr Steve Wysocki was master of ceremonies and the speakers during the evening were Rev. Cherkiawski, Mr Mike Mudryk, Marshall Mudryk, Lorrie Smith and Marshall Cherniawski.

The guests of honor were presented with a chrome set.

Dancing was enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served to bring the enjoyable evening to a close.

Takes Over Gavel Vermilion Rotary

At the last meeting of Vermilion Rotary club Reg Mitchell officially handed over the gavel to Tom McPherson, the incoming president.

Reg has been president since the club was inaugurated over two years ago, guiding the organization through its formative years with a great deal of success. As a mark of appreciation Gerry Stephens presented retiring president Reg Mitchell with a past-president's pin. Gerry's witty little speech was all that could be desired, the only feature lacking being that the pin had to be presented in absentia, in other words . . . it hadn't arrived. However Reg will receive the decoration in due time.

Tom McPherson, who has been a most efficient secretary-treasurer since the formation of Rotary, then officially took over his new duties as president. The executive with which he will work this year is comprised of Jim Robson, secretary-treasurer, Gil Rampling, Ashley Cooper, Bill Sutherland and S. Simonson.

St. Saviour's To Hold Loyalty Dinner

The evening of July 18th will be a memorable one for the parishioners of St. Saviour's Anglican Church, for at 6:30 they will sit down to a turkey dinner at the Legion hall and join in fellowship with their fellow members as they enjoy themselves and then listen to the plans for their combined diocesan and parochial canvass. While the adults are at the dinner, the children will be entertained to a film show and supper under competent supervision at St. Saviour's parish hall. Invitations have already been mailed and our hostesses are now busily employed in extending their personal invitations to all parishioners.

In addition to meeting one another at this dinner, the parishioners will have the pleasure of meeting Dean Burch and Archdeacon Trape who have expressed their desire to be with us that night and greet old friends.

We urge everyone [illegible] to be there that night because there will be no charge for the dinner and there will be no solicitations for pledges. Rather we want every family represented at this function which will be the largest of this kind ever held in Vermilion.

If any family has been inadvertently omitted from the invitation list, will they please [illegible] 86 and the matter will be rectified.

Fine Program Arranged For Fair July 25, 26, 27

Only two weeks away is the annual Vermilion Exhibition when some of Western Canada's finest livestock will be on display and the crowd will thrill to an outstanding program of grandstand attractions, midway and other features. Entries are already being received at the office of S. appears to be on the way to establishing a record. All district ladies are juniors are cordially invited to exhibit their handicraft, cooking, sewing, etc.

The Alberta Safety Council has made arrangements to stage a fire prevention and extinguishing demonstration each day of the fair and a special invitation is extended to members of the farming community to see these worth while demonstrations.

GRANDSTAND ATTRACTIONS A REAL TREAT

Reports of the grandstand attractions from Weyburn and Portage la Prairie indicate that a real treat is in store for our people when the gates of the fair swing open on July [illegible]. The Irving Grossman Booking Office of Des Moines, Iowa will offer such outstanding stars as Professor Merrill with his Musical Hall Tree, the Kayettes, eight beautiful girls who do not dance but who stage thrilling performances for the enjoyment of the crowds. V. Roy and Company with magic and illusion will perform on the afternoon programs and this year the afternoon and evening programs will offer much that is different, so that patrons coming from a distance may enjoy both shows. The Odell Troupe offers an exciting performance [illegible] and pyramiding, while the well-known Valencianos will provide plenty of breath-taking incidents in their acts. For the lovers of music the Royalaires, a group of five talented vocalists will bring back memories of the California Varsity Eight and the Blue River Boys of times past. Other acts and novelties too numerous to mention will go to make up something outstanding in the way of attractions for the 1957 fair; and interspersed between acts will be the Cutting Horse [illegible]rations with outstanding horses from various parts of Western Canada taking part.

[illegible] LIGHT HORSES

It is anticipated that more than 100 light horses will be on hand to provide treats for horse lovers and it is hoped that the Bryden Bros. of Mannville and Bobbie Burns of Pickardville, along with the Fleming string and Alex Mitchell's fine Clydesdales will completely fill the heavy horse barns with an unusual display of beautiful and ponderous "heavies."

COMMERCIAL DISPLAYS

The latest in farm machinery will be on display for the benefit of those engaged in farming, and the display building will be occupied by a number of new and interesting exhibits. Entries in the annual School Fair will exceed 1200 in number and will be of interest to young and old. Altogether Vermilion's 1957 Fair promises to be the best ever and all who are interested are urged to buy their advance tickets which are now on sale, so that they may see exactly the same show that travels the entire West at just half the price charged by other "B" Class Fairs. The number of advance tickets to be sold has been limited to 5,000 which is somewhat lower than the 1956 sale—so that early purchase of the tickets would be advisable. The sale will definitely be discontinued on Wednesday, July 24th and will not be available as from Wednesday evening, July 24th.

The heavy rain Saturday last week will prove a boon to the district, and while the moisture is too late to make anything like a heavy crop the improvement in all grains and feed will be quite surprising, according to agricul[illegible].

Nearly an inch of rain, .93, fell on Saturday July 6th, continuing for several hours.

"Agriculture in Alberta in 1957" Topic of Address at Rotary

The Rotary Club meeting of July 5th was chaired by Simon Simonson in place of newly-elected president Tom McPherson who is on holidays.

Two visitors were present. Jack [illegible] introduced Cecil Rhodes his brother-in-law visiting here from England. Alex Pallie introduced his fellow worker Dee C. Folk from the School of Agriculture.

Ed Corley was presented with a carnation for having successfully passed another birthday on July 3rd.

It was agreed that a work party of Rotarians [illegible] the Vermilion park on Wednesday to water and care for trees which the club planted there a year ago.

Announcement was made by Ken Rowe that the North Battleford Kinsmen band would perform at Vermilion Park lake on Sunday. The appearance of this band in Vermilion is sponsored by the Vermilion Rotary Club. The band is on its way to Calgary where it will lead the street parade at the Stampede.

This is the second band to be brought to Vermilion by Rotary this year. There will be two more at two week intervals. The collections at the park are handed over to the bands after expenses are paid.

Reg Mitchell announced that an electronic megaphone was purchased by the Rotary club and presented to the Park committee. It will be used mainly by instructors in directing the swimming classes.

Newcombe Bentley introduced the guest speaker, Ted Hawker, who is now superintendent of the Schools of Agriculture for Alberta. Several years ago Mr. Hawker was on the staff of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, later being promoted to be principal at Fairview. Mr. Bentley said that Mr Hawker was the first president of the Fairview Rotary club.

Mr Hawker spoke on "Agriculture in Alberta in 1957". He related the changes in agriculture that have taken place recently and that even greater changes are sure to take place in the next few years.

Mr Hawker finished his address by saying, "The ship of Agriculture is not going down, it is moving into new waters. It needs good steering, however, if it does not strike on the rocks."

Carl Heckbert thanked Mr Hawker on behalf of the club for his very excellent address.

Wm. McCrea Dies At Drumheller

William McCrea, well known in Vermilion and Islay, passed away at Drumheller on Wednesday, July 10th. The body will be taken to the old family home at Margo, Sask. for interment. He is survived by his wife.

The deceased lived in Islay for 20 years during which time he was section foreman. He retired early due to an asthmatic condition and at that time moved to Drumheller about eleven years ago.

INVALUABLE EDUCATION

A number of applications have already been received for the 1957-58 term of the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics which opens in October 29 relates J. E. Hawker Superintendent of the Schools of Agriculture in Alberta. Young people who are interested in farming and home making should see their District Agriculturist or District Home Economist write to the principal or better still call at one of the schools at Olds Vermilion or Fairview as soon as possible.

Students are advised to complete high school before enrolling, but entrance requirements are established to provide for those who are unable to do that. The Home Economics course is completed in one term (October to April) and a grade nine certificate is required. Girls must be 16 years old by the end of the calendar year in which they enroll. The one year course in Agriculture provides for students with 70 high school credits or more and with at least a B standing. The two year course provides for those who have not attained that high school standard but have a grade nine certificate. Boys must be 17 years old by the end of the calendar year in which they enroll.

A number of scholarships are available to assist worthy students. There are no tuition fees and costs are amazingly low. Board, room and a well rounded school life is provided, at low cost, in the school dormitory.

Dangerous Day-Dreams

There's nothing like the hum of a smooth running car on a warm summer day to lull a driver into a comfortable day-dream.

That's just the time an accident can sneak up and turn a day-dream into a feverish nightmare.

Constant vigilance is the only assurance against it. Do your dreaming in bed, not at the wheel.

Speed Kills! Slow Down and Live

When Albertans celebrated the Dominion Day holiday week-end they also opened an intensive campaign for safe summer driving. This province now is linked in this across-Canada war on traffic accidents.

"Speed Kills. Slow down and Live." is the slogan and battle cry of this national drive to promote safety on streets and highways.

The Alberta Safety Council has organized a wide-spread campaign on the Provincial front. As key centres of this appeal, the support of eight cities and 96 towns has been enlisted.

Under the direction of Paul Lawrence, Safety Director for the Alberta Safety Council distribution of 175,000 pieces of campaign material has been effected from the A. S. C. head quarters in Edmonton.

There were 100,000 place mats sent out for use in restaurants cafes and dining rooms. These contain safety illustrations under the title of "Know Who is Who in the Highway Zoo". They emphasize that the "hurry complex" and its fatal consequences are the targets in the current continent-wide safety campaign.

In addition, 20,000 safety pamphlets have been sent to various parts of the Province. These list the "Fatal Five" causes of accidents, which are excessive speed, speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, improper passing and failure to yield right of way.

Designed to slow down the motorist who may be following some other driver, there are 20,000 bumper strips for cars. These are in striking yellow and black combination with the words "Speed Kills" at the top and "Slow Down and Live" below.

Branches of the Alberta Safety Council in Edmonton, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Red Deer, Drumheller and Camrose are giving their full co-operation in a joint effort to make the summer campaign an outstanding success.

In 1956, 257 persons were killed in highway accidents in Alberta. In addition, 4,902 persons suffered physical injury in motor vehicle accidents.

Appalling as it is, 605 persons have been killed on Alberta highways during the last two years. That is a shocking record which demands action.

The Safety Council is stressing the keynote "Slow Down and Live." Other organizations are giving their support. But back of it all there must be the inherent realization on the part of each individual driver that "Speed Kills."

The families of victims in road accidents know from their own sorrowful experience of the crash tragedy, heartbreak and economic ruin.

Safety officials are convinced that reckless and dangerous drivers, representing only a small percentage of the number of safe drivers, must be curbed by vigorous action.

During this summer campaign the highways can be made free of death and physical injury. That can be achieved by citizens giving their full cooperation to the national safety campaign and maintaining this in full swing until after the Labor Day holiday.

Local Man Is Honoured

The Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada announces that S. C. Heckbert of Vermilion has been qualified for membership in the Company's Conservation Club for the year 1957. The announcement states: "This is one of the highest honours a member of our field force can win. Membership in the Club requires consistent production over a period of years, of a large volume of new insurance, carefully planned so that a high percentage of it remains in force. You will be pleased to know that your insurance has been placed in such capable hands and we recommend him as one who is fully qualified to give expert service in connection with existing policies or additional life insurance."

Mr. Heckbert has been with the Mutual Life for more than twenty years and is well known locally as an insurance counsellor.

LOL and LOBA Members Attend Service, Edmonton

MANNVILLE. — On Sunday, July 7th, a number of Orangemen and women went to Edmonton to attend church service at McDougal United church at 7.30 p.m. The members made a striking picture as they paraded down 101st street and Jasper, led by the Piper's music and flag bearers. The Rev. S. J. Wylie, guest preacher from the Emerald Isle (Belfast) was officiant at the service, proving himself throughout to be a most forceful speaker. Rev. Wylie urged members to "put first things first" and "to be passionate in your interrogation, not asking questions idly." "Be obedient to the laws of your own being," he said. "God implanted these laws within us, and when we obey them we shall become free. The main jewels of freedom are freedom of religion, and freedom of speech." "Ask and ye shall receive; seek and ye shall find," he quoted. Rev. Mr. Wylie will long be remembered by those who were privileged to hear him.

"GREEN ACRES"

HAWK'S BEARD

A new weed called Hawk's-Beard is getting to be quite common in this area. Along roadsides and in hay land its bright yellow flowers are showing up everywhere. It is an annual or winter annual. Seed blows in the wind so it spreads rapidly. Hawk's-Beard is not rated as a noxious weed. It is resistant to 2,4-D. Early started summer fallow is the best means of control.

HORN FLIES ON CATTLE

This is a blood-sucking fly that pesters cattle by thousands in June, July and August. Dick Painter, Livestock Insects Officer, recommends spraying cattle with a 50% wettable powder in water at the rate of 1 pound in 10 gallons, at three weeks intervals or when the flies get numerous. Only the backs of the cattle need to be sprayed. There is no doubt of the losses caused by horn flies. Milk yields are greatly reduced and gains in beef cattle on pasture are likely to be half a pound per day less for each animal where horn flies are present on the cattle.

DISEASE IN BARLEY

A new disease in barley has showed up in this district. It is known as Spot Blotch. Blotches occur on the leaves, crown and root rot may develop. I would like if anyone seeing diseased plants on their barley fields would bring in or send in a few of them to this office.

DEEP TILLAGE

Once again it is announced that deep tillage with narrow teeth cultivators is of little value in soils such as we have in this district. Roots of grains, grasses, alfalfa and sweet clover go through the hard pan several feet without any help from deep tillage cultivators. Wide blades used for surface cultivation are more useful than chisel points. We should remember that cultivation of soil has one purpose only and that is to kill weeds and grass so that the crop can grow without competition.

FOOT ROT CONTROL

If cattle get lame and foot rot is suspected then do something and do it right away. It is hard to treat and cure animals where foot rot is allowed to go too long. Terramycin has proved to be a remarkable cure when used in early stages. Neglected cases may be treated with sulfa drugs and antibiotics. It is best to call your 'vet' if foot rot is suspected.

NEW MOBILE POWER UNIT

ELECTRO - MOBILE POWER

At the Vegreville offices of Canadian Utilities Limited, Mr. J. C. Dale, President and General Manager, picked up the telephone and asked for a number. Within sixty seconds a blue and white unit resembling a railway box car located several blocks away came to life with a roar, immediately settling down to a steady powerful hum; the unit was supplying 1000 kilowatts of electricity to Canadian Utilities system.

This "Electro-Mobile" Power Car built by General Motors Diesel Limited at London, Ontario, was being demonstrated on July 4 to officials of Canadian Utilities Limited, who travelled to Vegreville from Edmonton, Vermilion and Drumheller to observe the mobile generating unit in operation. Also present to view this new tool for utilities were officials from Northland Utilities Limited, the City of Edmonton, the Alberta Power Commission, and the University of Alberta as joint guests of Canadian Utilities Limited and General Motors Diesel Limited.

Realizing the need for a flexible, portable generator set, General Motors Diesel Limited last year diversified their manufacturing operations to include a Diesel electric power unit. The power car may be transported by the railway to any spot where it is needed. However, the unit can be moved with ease by road from the rail head to remote areas.

Diesel-electric generator sets are playing an ever-increasing role in assisting the power utilities of Canada to cope with the demands of our expanding economy.

Old Timers Hold Well Attended Picnic and Sports At Greenlawn

DEWBERRY—Once again the Old Timers picnic which was held at the Greenlawn sports ground on July 1st was very well attended. Despite the rain everything was run off smoothly. The ground is sandy and within 20 minutes after the showers the games continued as if there had been no rain. Ball games were played and enjoyed.

The horse races drew the usual large portion of the crowd. The chuck wagon race and chariot race were won by Carlton over Benamiller. The latter, however, was the best in the open free-for-all.

The following old timers were guests of the Greenlawn picnic club: Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wood who came to Dewberry in 1907; Tom Hyatt, Lea Park, in 1927; R. Bowman, Dewberry, 1911; John Kay, Tulliby Lake, 1922; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Vermilion, 1905; Mrs. Charlie Bendiken, Marwayne, 1907; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maddex, Vermilion, 1907; Geo. Dollman, Campbell Lake, 1906; Jim Skiner, Allendale, 1906; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross, (now of Lloydminster) north of Dewberry in 1911; Andrew Wilson, Landonville, 1906; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson, Dewberry, 1907; Walter Jones, Dewberry, 1912; Mrs. McGowan, Frog Lake, 1912; Alty Stone, Dewberry, 1907; John Clambeck, Heinsberg, 1930; Mr. and Mrs. Gib Nicholls 1911; Mrs. S. F. Scott 1907; Mrs. B. F. Boothman 1912; Mr. and Mrs. J. Thorson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, Robert Finley, Graham Skinner 1913; Mrs. Ada Hartwell 1911; Mrs. A. Evans, 1894; James A. Barnett, 1909; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sonley, Marwayne, Mr. Sonley in 1907 and Mrs. Sonley 1913; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hodgson, 1910.

Many of these old timers have reached and passed their seventies, but it is hoped that all will be present at many more old timers picnics. For many the picnic is the meeting once a year and many fine chats are enjoyed.

Sixty-Six Lose Lives On Farms

For the second year in succession, a Farm Safety Week to be observed on a province-wide scale has been proclaimed by the Alberta government.

The period will open Sunday, July 21 and end Saturday July 27. It is expected that throughout the province, intense efforts will be made to promote farm safety and remote hazards.

The proclamation says statistics compiled by the Alberta Safety Council show that in 1956 66 farm residents lost their lives through accidents which occurred on farms in Alberta. Of this total 21 were children under the age of nine years and eight were young persons between the ages of 10 and 21.

Attention is drawn to the increased use of power machinery on farms which tends to widen the risk of accidental deaths and injury.

The proclamation says it is desirable that public attention be directed to the extent and underlying causes of the preventable loss of life from unnecessary farm hazards. Thus, it has been determined that a specific period of the year should be set apart to supply information on the most practical means for reducing the unnecessary loss of life from farm hazards.

The proclamation recommends that during Farm Safety Week all farm buildings, dwellings and machines be carefully inspected by their occupants, owners and users so that all conditions likely to cause accidents will be removed.

All provincial and municipal authorities and farm organizations are urged by means of public meetings, press, radio and television broadcasts, specially prepared motion pictures and otherwise, to impress upon Alberta residents the great importance of protecting life from the danger of accidents arising on the farm and from the use of farm machinery.

The observance of Farm Safety Week is being emphasized by the Alberta Safety Council which is giving its full co-operation in the distribution of safety material and by other means.

WILDMERE WINKS

It just seems we cannot write our news without mentioning the passing of some of our friends. Word was received early Sunday morning of the sudden passing of Mr Coburn Sr of Langford, B.C. on Vancouver Island, on Saturday afternoon. His daughter Mrs. Lloyd Howard of Wildmere has been out visiting her parents the past two weeks. A son, Howard, of Battleview, his wife and Lloyd Howard left Sunday by car for the coast. Mr. Coburn Sr. was well known to many, both here and in the Earlie district where the family lived before moving to the farm where Howard now resides. He leaves besides his loving wife, one daughter, Mrs. Howard (Gladys) son Howard here, two sons William and Allan of Langford, B.C. and nineteen grandchildren. Everyone joins with the writer in extending deepest sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of sorrow.

Mrs. Fadden of Wildmere is caring for Mr. and Mrs. H. Coburn's infant baby. Mrs. T. Nelson of Kokner, grandmother, is caring for the other five children while their parents are away. Roland Arthur is looking after their farm.

Margaret Fadden of Lloydminster hospital staff spent the week end at her home here.

Mr and Mrs. Don Cooper of Triangle are away for a couple of weeks holidays, taking in a day or so of the Calgary Stampede.

Our student, Mr. Breighaupt and Baillie Holte are attending the Stampede at Calgary for a few days.

We were pleased to see Rev. A. Dawe in town on Saturday. He will be the minister at the First United church during July. We hope he and his wife find time to come out to Wildmere, where he was a student minister five years ago.

Mr and Mrs. David Hughes and Mr and Mrs Cliff Cruthers spent the week end fishing at Moose Lake. It rained a good bit of the time but they enjoyed a few hours fishing. Thanks for the fish folks.

Adam and Albert Smith also were fishing up St. Paul way, but their luck was rather poor.

Several Wildmere-ites took in the Tolland picnic on Friday, where a nice crowd gathered. Some good ball games were played. One accident happened right at the start of the first game when H. Coburn on third base reaching for the ball twisted his ankle breaking a bone. Ray Preston took him right to the doctor. Howard now has a cast on it and he is walking on crutches. Paradise Valley took first money and Tolland second. A dance in the evening brought the picnic to a close.

The writer and husband attended the band concert at the Vermilion Park on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed it very much, besides meeting a lot of folks to visit with.

A nice attendance at church Sunday evening. Rev. Breighaupt took as his text "Men must keep growing." The children sang a hymn. Allan Ford of Edmonton, who is visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Gibson of [illegible], helped the children sing.

We are sorry to hear that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frizzell, formerly of Battleview, but now of Grande Prairie, had to have an operation in Edmonton for gallstones, although only three years old. A speedy recovery is wished this wee chap.

Janet Cruthers left on Monday to work through to holidays for Mrs O. Strome north of town.

Little Diana Smith, daughter of Mr and Mrs. N. Smith of Edmonton is visiting with her cousins the Cruthers children.

A grand rain travelled over our district on Saturday afternoon. All were pleased to see it; it will do a world of good to crops, gardens and grass. Now a horde of little green aphids are in the oat crop. Here's hoping they don't do too much damage.

Of Many Things . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

Because experts called the election shots so badly, I don't trust the rash explanations now being made so glibly except the following one by a man who never claimed to be expert at all.

He's a farmer. One who knew his own mind. He told me why voters upset the administration.

"You know," he said, in answer to my question, "my neighbor and I went over the whole thing. It wasn't wheat. Sure, we were sore about wheat but that didn't didn't do it. It wasn't the pipeline business, either, though we were sore about that, too."

"Go on," I urged him. "What was it then?"

"Ever travel TCA or CNR?"

I nodded, remembering more than one occasion when I'd been ready to join a revolution.

"Everyone," he said, "has bumped into bureaucracy somewhere along the line and been sore. Sore at some of those CBC shows, sore at the Liquor Store, sore at the Income Tax, sore at the pension board and all the rest of it. And some of us have bumped into something else."

"Name it," I said.

"Some of us have gone to Ottawa, and talked to Ministers of the Government and come away satisfied. Then a few months later found out they couldn't do what they said they'd do.

"Those ministers didn't run their departments — the bureaucrats did. Those government companies and civil servants are mighty powerful. Anyhow, that's what my neighbor and I have been thinking. The people are fed up with bureaucrats."

"But what'll happen?" I asked. "They'll still be there, won't they?"

"Maybe they will," he said. "But my neighbor and I got to thinking how good it'd be if this country went back to the old days where the victor claimed the spoils. Wouldn't give bureaucrats a chance to burrow in."

So there you have a non-expert report on what happened. Maybe the farmer and his neighbor are not too far out!

North Battleford Band Again Scores With Local Audience

The North Battleford Kinsmen band, two time winners at the Calgary Stampede parade, International Band winners at Moose Jaw, three time winners at the Saskatoon exhibition and holders of many additional laurels, stopped in Vermilion on Sunday en route to Calgary and again gave top entertainment to a huge crowd which flocked to the park from every part of the district.

Arriving in town at 11 a.m. the band members travelling by bus and private cars had an early lunch at the Brunswick. At 1 p.m. sharp they marched to the Treasury Branch corner where a large crowd had gathered to see them do their famous precision march routine. This 20-minute performance was climaxed in sight of the bandsmen and girls doing a square dance.

The march routine features the majorettes and includes every member of the 60-piece band, not one of whom is over 21 years of age. The majority are students.

The program at the park band shell was one of considerable variety, featuring in various parts of the numbers selected instruments and artists.

Emcee for the occasion was Alex Pain who introduced Mayor Jim Maher of North Battleford. Mayor Maher in turn introduced the bandmaster Norman Lehman who was conducting the band.

The march routine was repeated in the beach for the benefit of the swimmers. Everyone seemed very pleased with the entire entertainment. This pleasure was reflected in the collection which totalled $175.14.

The program was arranged by the Vermilion Rotary club.

Attend Joint Picnic At Vermilion

MANNVILLE — Old Timers of the Mannville and Vermilion branches met at the Vermilion park for a joint picnic on Sunday July 7th. A goodly number from Mannville attended and all report an enjoyable outing. One of the main highlights of the day was a band concert very ably presented by the North Battleford band. Led by Mr Norman Lehman, all in immaculate attire, the boys and girls all under 21 presented a very appealing program. The Mayor of North Battleford introduced Mr Lehman to the crowd and the remaining members of the band were in turn presented to all. An abundance of very good coffee was reported and no one should have gone home hungry as large quantities of fried chicken, salads and all the popular picnic lunches were in evidence.

Sixty Ladies Attend W. M. S. Rally At Kitscoty United Church

KITSCOTY — The Marwayne W.M.S. and Fenham and Kitscoty affiliated W.M.S. groups held a rally in the Kitscoty United church on the afternoon of Thursday, June 27th. Some 60 ladies attended with representatives from Vermilion, Lloydminster, Dewberry, Islay, Fenham, Marwayne, Wildwood, Earlie and Kitscoty. Mrs G Inglis presided and the rally opened with an address of welcome from Mrs. C W Miller of Kitscoty, and a short devotional period conducted by Mrs. S Andersen of Fenham.

The principal speaker of the afternoon was Mrs J A Smith of Vermilion who chose as her topic "Exercises for Mental Health". This was a very interesting and applicable subject presented in a most capable and pleasing manner.

Following Mrs Smith's address Mrs. Sonley of Marwayne gave a paper on the Missionary and Maintenance fund, pointing out especially how the money set aside for this purpose was spent. Mrs. R. Johnson of Marwayne spoke briefly of the "School for Leaders" to be held at St. Stephen's College in August and she appealed to those present to attend this school if such an opportunity was presented. A solo by Mrs. Batty of Kitscoty added much to the afternoon's enjoyment.

The rally closed with a social hour spent over the tea cups.

the Snapshot Guild

A scrabble game provides a fine "activity" center of interest for this informal family group shot.

"Doing What Comes Naturally"

Are you looking for an easy way to get better pictures of your family and friends? Well, you'll have a superior snapshot of a person every time if you just try catching him in the midst of some activity he enjoys—or if you give him something to do that's natural and typical for him to be doing.

In that way, you can be sure even the most self-conscious or reluctant subject will relax and be himself. Although your camera's aimed right at him, his attention remains on the task he's performing—and you'll be spared a stiff-necked pose or a glassy-eyed stare in your viewfinder.

By letting activities keynote your snapshots of people, your reputation as a picture-taker is bound to grow. Your prints will show more than just what your subjects look like. Rather, they'll reveal what each person is like—what he likes to do—what it's like to be with him. The result won't be simply a shot of someone having his picture taken. It will be a picture of him doing something that reveals a facet of his character and personality.

Of course, there are other points to remember, too, when you snap your friends and family. Check the background carefully before you shoot. Make sure it's not so cluttered and confusing that your subject will be lost in a welter of detail. In some cases, you may want to use a narrow depth of field and no additional light to give the effect of a dark backdrop rather than a detailed background for your subject.

Camera viewpoint can also make a world of difference in your pictures of people. In general, you'll do well to snap your subject on his own level or from slightly below. Naturally, your choice of camera angle will depend on the particular elements you want to emphasize in your picture. If, for example, you were shooting a person reading a book, a low angle would completely bury the person behind the book, while a high one would highlight the book rather than the reader.

When you're picturing people, study and select background, viewpoint and lighting carefully. But most important of all, catch your subjects "in action."

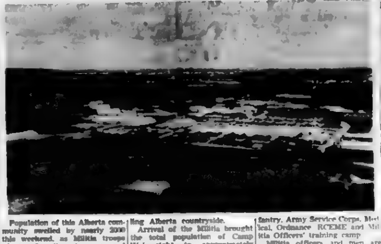
Troops Pour Into Wainwright By Train and Transport



Population of this Alberta community swelled by nearly 2000 this weekend, as Militia troops of the Canadian Army poured in by train and transport for the annual week-long Western Command Training camp.

More than 100 Militia units and detachments representing 60 British Columbia and Alberta centres are encamped here throughout an area of 231 square miles of rolling Alberta countryside.

Arrival of the Militia brought the total population of Camp Wainwright to approximately 6000, including some 4000 Regular troops who have been here since June 21.

Second largest military camp in Canada—Gagetown, N.B. is the biggest—Wainwright is actually nine camps in one. Armoured, Artillery, Engineers, Infantry, Army Service Corps, Medical, Ordnance, RCEME and Militia Officers' training camp.

Militia officers and men are "married up" with the regular force for seven days of intensive refresher courses, exercises and other forms of training in an area ideally suited to military operations. Training officially began Sunday afternoon and will end the morning of July 6.

"HELLO, HOMEMAKERS"

Summer is the picnic season. During summer, we must all beware of "packing poisoning to a picnic." Food poisoning is a very real danger, especially during hot weather. Food poisoning is caused by the growth of bacteria in food. Two factors in slowing bacteria growth are cold and acid. Prepare potato salad and sandwich fillings as near the time of departure as possible and refrigerate. Add extra acid, such as more vinegar in salad dressing or lemon juice.

There are several ideas for keeping food cold in the picnic basket. One is to freeze a large plastic container of fruit drink (lemonade) or (a mixture of juices) place in the centre of the basket and pack the food around it. By the time you are ready to eat, the juice will have thawed. Another idea is to buy several cans of frozen juice concentrate and pack them among the food. You can mix the juice at the picnic if water is available.

Veteran picnic-goers avoid taking along food that becomes messy or is hard to handle. Salad, sandwiches, hot dogs, pickles, celery, carrot sticks, raw fruit, cookies, turn overs are all the old standbys, food that is easy to pack, carry and eat.

SANDWICHES:

Do you need any ideas for sandwich fillings? Do you wonder how to make fancy tea sandwiches? Then send to me at Wainwright for the Canada Department of Agriculture pamphlet on "Sandwiches".

PRESERVES.

July marks the beginning of the preserving season. If you are a new bride doing her first preserving or if you are looking for new ideas, then you'll welcome this booklet "Jams, Jellies and Pickles". It is compiled by the Canada Department of Agriculture and is available from my office in Wainwright.

Closing Program At Paradise Valley Bible Camp

An appreciative audience for the closing program helped bring to a climax the Busy Bee Bible Camp of the Church of God in Paradise Valley Friday July 5. Brief contributions from each age group gave an indication of the Bible-based lessons. A mixed trio and several songs by the campers provided the musical element. A gospel film, "The Master's Face" with its story of a crippled girl and her mother, and their decision for Christ, completed the program. Workbooks and handwork were on display and drew many favorable comments. Ideal weather for camp (if not for crops) made the outdoor activities a success and the nights out in tents were enjoyable even the mosquitoes left us alone. On the teaching staff were Miss Hefron of Saskatoon, Miss Hughes of Heath and Ralph Farmer of Oregon.

The pastor and congregation wish to thank those who have shown such keen interest in the camp and the building project as well.

Two days of special meetings, three services daily, followed the children's camp. Ralph Farmer of Oregon who helped with the camp, and Rev. H. C. Heffren of Saskatoon were guest speakers. Several of our young people are back home again, Marion Bernice and Annetta Fulgham. Out of town visitors for the week end were Mr. and Mrs. S. Yontz of Provost and Mr. and Mrs. Lea Bolt of Freemont, Sask.

Parents — watch your children whenever they are near water—and prevent a dreadful tragedy.

"A Stranger In The Arctic"

A Story of the Far North

by

NADEEN COOPER WAITE

(Fort Good Hope, N.W.T. 1952)

THE STORY SO FAR

Sullen, aloof, taciturn "Jess" Cully comes into the north a stranger. His past remains a mystery to all for he makes no friends. Cully 'buys' for a wife young, pretty Rosa Ringbuk, who loves Manuel Vitalenny. Cully took his bride to his lonely but well built and equipped cabin in the wilds, but Rosa's heart remained with Manuel.

A year passes before Cully and Rosa return to the settlement, where Rosa gives birth to a baby boy. She remains very weak and her cousin took over the feeding and care of the infant. Cully is forced to leave them with Rosa's people and it is winter before she regains her health. Meanwhile the baby dies. On his return to the settlement, Cully learns that the foster-mother is a T.B. victim, which is the cause of the baby's death. He flies into a rage, beats Rosa and takes her back to his camp. Three years pass with no return trip for Rosa but Cully has given her a wolf pup which she raises and tames. And then one day, while Cully is away on his trap-line, Manual Vitalenny appears. He tells Rosa he has his own camp and asks her to come to him if she ever needs help. Winter passes and one early spring day Manuel comes again. Rosa urges him to leave as Cully is due to arrive back any minute. Manuel leaves but is still in sight on the river ice when Cully returns and sees him. Flying into a rage he seizes Rosa who is standing beside her wolf, now fully grown and chained to a post. Cully's fury mounts . . .

Now go on with the story.

Cully's fingers left her shoulders and with all his strength he struck her across her face. As she fell she at last found her voice and she screamed desperately. The wolf, which had been sitting quietly yet tensely under Rosa's hand which had never left his head during Cully's mistreatment of her, suddenly seemed to grasp that his beloved mistress was being threatened, was in danger. His ears flattened against his head and his eyes burned with an unholy light. Just as Cully made a move toward Rosa where she had fallen, the wolf sprang. His great fangs slashed Cully's arm and spun the latter around, knocking him off balance.

Rosa, her hysteria somewhat lessened, saw her opportunity and jumped to her feet. Screaming for Manuel she ran for the river trail.

Cully meanwhile was struggling to regain his footing but the wolf had tasted blood when his slashing teeth had ripped the man's arm and he was no longer a pet that had been raised in the company of human beings—he was a creature of the wilds, a savage and angry beast. Rearing up, mouth slavering, he again endeavored to spring at the half crouching man. The chain which tethered him to the post was not long enough to allow him to reach the throat of this hateful creature but one horny claw on his forepaw hooked itself in the man's eye and grazed down across the cheek with an almost audible tearing sound.

The ground seemed to reel drunkenly for Cully but the intense pain from his latest injury lent him a desperate strength. Quickly, he threw himself backwards entirely out of reach of the now frantic wolf. For a moment he lay where he had sprawled and clasping a hand to his face, he cursed as it came away stained with blood and a horrible pulpiness.

Tying his scarf around his head and over the injury, he quickly brought his dogs from behind the cabin and ran with them to the river ice. The thought flashed through his mind that it was lucky he had decided to use the dogs that day. They hadn't been much use, not being able to pull a heavy load on the rapidly disappearing snow but now they were hitched and ready to give him speed for the chase.

Manuel had not heard Rosa's cries but had happened to glance over his shoulder and saw her running after him. She could not have had more than three or four minute's start when Cully reached the river ice with his dog team. Manuel knew that Rosa could never reach him before Cully's team overtook her, so he turned his own team around and headed back to try to meet her first. But Cully had six strong dogs and Manuel had only four which were neither very large nor very speedy. Long before Manuel had covered even one-quarter of the distance between himself and Rosa, Cully's team had drawn up behind her. Cully shouted to her to stop, threatening to set the vicious dogs on her if she did not.

Rosa scrambled over the rough ice beside the trail and fell exhausted. Seconds later, Cully stood over her, and she closed her eyes against this apparition with one baleful eye glittering in a face half covered with the blood-stained scarf under which blood still dripped. Cully, moving like an automaton, reached for her with fingers curving like talons. Rosa uttered one small cry before his hands tightened upon her throat. — "Please, in the name of God . . . " then the sky whirled and danced, then came blackness and merciful oblivion . . .
